The Ron Graber Story

Hockey at Pennsylvania

by Joel Resnick

When Pennsylvania's hockey team takes to the ice against the visiting Brown Bears tonight, it will be the dream come true for Ron Graber. For the past three years he has been trying to organize such a group at the school. Last season, his efforts finally bore fruit. From the humble beginnings of playing on the street, they have become the best team in the East, and this season they have become the leading team in the nation.

Graber has had many difficulties and setbacks along the way. But his determination and hard work have paid off. He is now a member of the American Hockey League. Graber has been invited to play for the New York Americans. He will be playing against some of the best players in the country.

The team's success is due to the hard work and dedication of its members. They have been working hard to improve their skills and are determined to bring home a championship. They have shown great teamwork and are always ready to help each other.

The coach of the team, Coach Graber, is always encouraging and supportive. He has been with the team since the beginning and is a vital part of their success. He always gives his best to the team and is always ready to help them.

The team's next game is against the University of Pennsylvania tonight. They are determined to win and will be giving their all. They are ready to take on any challenge and are confident in their abilities.

The team's dedication and hard work have paid off. They have shown great teamwork and have always been ready to help each other. They are a true example of what can be achieved through hard work and dedication.

George Becker spotted in 27 points, 25 coming in the second half, to beat the Villanova Wildcats five to an 85-77 triumph over the Quaker yearlings at the Villanova Field House last night. The Wildcat sharpshooter put his team ahead to stay at the four minute mark of the second session, 47-46, on an easy lay-up, and then was able to gain much of a lead. Penn was ahead at halftime, 29-26. Bailing the Quaker attack was Pluth with 29 points, followed by Cook, who had 19, Kahn with 15 and Boswell, who connected for 14. Penn's Jack Brown and Becker were honored by Portland fans and scored only three points.

This humor was lost on the chief, and he was all set to shorten Smith by about nine inches when in walked Princess Pocahontas... a nifty little number who'd been out scalping tickets to Cleveland baseball games. Pokey sized up the situation, and screamed (in perfect Iroquois) "Man, it looks like my ship came in... that beard! That outfit! That build! Oh, Daddy-O—spare that cat!"

"Pokey," said Dad, "How many times have I told you not to come around here during initiation! We're playing to a full house, and now I have to refund all those beads." But he was pretty sweet on the kid, and laid aside the meat cleaver.

Well, Captain John was so happy about his reprieve he broke out a barrel of Budweiser... and popped for the tribe. Wouldn't you?
