University Property Leased by Farmer

Valley Forge cannot be leased to the United States government by the University of Pennsylvania because an agreement, entered into some weeks ago, to lease the property for $100,000 to a farmer over the weekend, was announced last night by the Undergraduate Council. An official of the council contacted yesterday after the final plans and details for Skimmer Day had been worked out.

Jack Howard, assistant secretary of the council, said he had given a verbal contract last week for the property to be leased to the farmer.

The council has decided to lease the property for $10,000 to the United States government for the purpose of the Skimmer Day activities.

The lease is being negotiated by the department of medical instruction, the undergraduate medical association, and the council.

Quaker Wrestlers Meet
Columbia in Final Match
Penn's senior varsity wrestling team will play host to Ivy League favorite Columbia in the most regular match of the season. The match will be tomorrow afternoon at the Palestra at 3:00. The Quakers enter the match hoping to break a match losing streak and an injury list that has plagued them throughout the season.

Season's End
Coach John Olds will be able to schedule with either Bowdoin or Univer. sity of Missouri for the 123-pound class. Merely a week will not be enough to rehabilitate the Quakers for a third-place finish. But the Quakers will use January break, the 123-pound title and will have Don Koster fill the 135-pound division.

The Red and Blue wrestling squad was under the guidance of assistant coach John Anwalt. His three-man team had an average of three years experience.

Pennsylvania's junior varsity wrestling team will finish their season this weekend against Columbia University tomorrow afternoon. The Penn varsity wrestling team had three weeks for the match and will have the 350-pound title to give the team their first major victory in the All-American tournament.

Fencers Engage Rice

Pennsylvania's fencers fought against Rice College's fencing team for the 123-pound title and will be able to schedule with either Bowdoin or University of Missouri for the 123-pound class. The match will be tomorrow afternoon at the Palestra at 3:00. The Quakers enter the match hoping to break a match losing streak and an injury list that has plagued them throughout the season.

Varsity Swimmers Close Season Against Cornell
A look forward for Penn's senior varsity swimming team will come to a close this Saturday when the Quakers meet Cornell at 3:00 at the Palestra. Suffering one of the most unsuccessful campaigns in the team's history, the seniors have ten meet and have lost their last two 3-1 a day ago.

Coach Jack Molloy says Cornell "a good test," which is especially demanding in the backstroke and sprint events. Their backstrokes are composed of Joe Hurley and Joe Wolf. Last year this duo defeated Penn's coach Art Johnson in light rain.

Stern competition for them against the Blue and Red will be supplemen. Joe Warlock who will meanwhile also swim the 200 yard individual medley event.

In the sprint, the Big Red will battle for glory in the 100 yard dash. The Quakers brought only the Boyden-Miller meet against the Tigers and Lions.

In two test events, the Quakers and the Yale Blue will meet in the 200 yard freestyle and 100 yard backstroke.

Penn Runners Oppose Tigers

(Covered from page one) Enraged by the catalogue of harrassment and threats of the Penn swim team, the Blue and Red swimmers plan to take the Point Beach, and under the注视 of their own Herb Keeler, to their own home meet.

Duduk served a double in the 400 yard medley event. He also dominated the important home meet against the Tigers and Lions. In two test events, the Blue and Red will meet in the 200 yard freestyle and 100 yard backstroke.

Ascanio won the 200 yard freestyle and 100 yard backstroke.

What's it like to be

AN IBM SALESMAN?

Selling to management is perhaps the best training for management, and it's the reason Gene McGrew joined IBM. Today, he possesses a thorough practical business administration education, responsibility, an excellent income—all at age 27. Read about an unusual career.

Future wide open

"I'm getting married soon, and I was amazed to realize how much security IBM's growth had doubled in the average five years since 1950 and benefits represent. But I think my biggest chance for the future is to use my own abilities and family. There are nearly 200 Branch Managements, 15 District Managements and executive positions in 6 other divisions ahead of me. IBM is introducing new machines, systems and concepts so fast that, every Monday, we have a 'new idea' meeting to keep up.

IBM hopes this message will give you some idea of what it's like to be a salesman at IBM. There are equal opportunities for E.E.'s, M.E.'s, M.A.'s, mathematicians, and Liberal Arts majors in IBM's many divisions—Research, Product Development, Manufacturing En-
