Engineers' Open House Will Be Held Saturday, Many Displays Planned

Electronic Projects, Nike Missile, Univac, To Be Shown in Moore, Towne Bldgs. Engineers' Day Open House will be held at the University engineering facilities from 1 to 3 p.m. Saturday in the Moore and Towne buildings, Merwot S. Bear, public relations director of the University, announced.

Among the featured exhibits to be shown to the public at an electronic display by the Philco Corporation, the Pontiac Bonneville Special, a Nelson Stud Welding Company unit, the Army's Nike Guided Missile computer system, which has recently been installed in the Physical Sciences Building.

A queen will be chosen from among the Open House guests and the queen contest will be crowned at 1 p.m. Saturday. The dance will be held at 4 p.m. in the Towne Ballroom and will begin at 3 p.m.

Five Finalists Named
The five finalists are Misses Annette B. K. Anderson, Philadelphia; Janice K. MacKensie, Zoe Sobot, Sandra Zirkel, and Margaret H. Lewis. These five will be honored individually for their contributions to the pageant, with $25 for two a gift from the Varsity Million Dollar Fund, and a record from the record store.

Two-Guild Exhibit
Included in the exhibits will be a fine array of Ranger's pages, the university's cigarette lighter, the new Kapp Delta and Psi Upsilon fraternity cabinets, a wadingle automobile engine model and a display of the most modern equipment of the various engineering schools.

Engineers Are Needed
For their part the engineers are urged to promote the School of Engineering. It is hoped that the various engineering societies and engineering faculties of high school students in studying engineering will see that exhibits were prepared with this purpose in mind.

Guides will escort the public through the exhibits. Students will be available throughout the day to answer any questions here about the exhibits.

Five Schools Participate
Each of the five schools will participate in the Engineering Day Open House. The School of Engineering at Moore Hall, the School of Electrical Engineering at Towne Hall, the School of Mechanical Engineering at Moore Hall, the School of Agricultural Engineering at Moore Hall, and the School of Chemical Engineering at Towne Hall. Each school will have a display of its own.

The exhibits are the work of Robert Lewis and Steve Lownes of Moore Hall, Merle Ward and Gerald Tabor of the School of Engineering, and the School of Chemical Engineering, the School of Mechanical Engineering, the School of Agricultural Engineering, and the School of Chemical Engineering. Each of the five schools will have a display of its own.

Mayor To Discuss City's Role In Future University Expansion

Mayor Raymond C. Dilworth will discuss "The Role of the City in the Expansion and Development of the University" tonight at 8 p.m. in the South Pennsylvanian Room of Morgan Hall. Dr. Armitage F. Reynolds, associate professor of economics, announced yesterday.

The annual dinner dance will be held by Pi Gamma Mu, social science honorary society; Beta Gamma Sigma, business honorary society; Phi Sigma Alpha, political honorary society; and the Thespian Society.

Dilworth will discuss the present role of the City in the University's life in its place of expansion. In discussing the relation between City and University he will point out the problems that the City administration must face.

In the formulation of a sound policy which will be fair to both parties he will show the eventual conditions that must be placed on redevelopment.

He will discuss the bill temporarily removed from the Senate, the Council, which is the raising of Woodward Avenue from the inner ring to the Inner Ring and Locust Streets from Woodward Avenue.

Dilworth's address will be followed by a question period where students might pose questions.

Dilworth was elected Director Executive of the Metropolitan Community in Philadelphia in 1951. He resigned this post as he was not a candidate and was elected in 1955.

150-Oarsmen To Race Against Princeton, Navy
This double signature affair at the university, Penn's lightwight spring regatta, is the conclusion of the season after more than four months of training. The Penn rowing teams of the Blue and Red will be facing Navy and Princeton and each other for the first time this season. Both teams trained hard over the winter, but it was Navy, with its new coach, that got the better of the two teams. The Navy boat, with its new coach, Dave Brown, and Bill Spencer, started at the beginning of the season, and they have engineered the Blue to victory in the first meet.
