The 1966 Record Society Awards were presented to P. W. Johnson, R. Johnson and P. W. Johnson, a member of the Wharton Society and a member of the Phi Kappa Psi junior society.

The 1966 Record is dedicated to Dr. Alfred W. Williams, chairman of the University Board of Trustees and president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia.

Record Is Dedicated to Dr. Williams

The 1966 Record was dedicated to Dr. Alfred W. Williams, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania, in a brief ceremony at the annual Hey Day Exercises in Irvine Auditorium.

Michael G. W. Smith, editor-in-chief of the yearbook, stated that Dr. Williams's selection came in view of his long record of distinguished services to and for the University. The 1966 Record was graduated from the class of the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, the record of four degrees from the University in 1966. Dr. Williams received the Bachelor of Science in Economics (cum laude) in 1924 and Doctor of Philosophy in 1926.

He led the position of professor of industry from 1921 until he became president in 1957. He served in the latter capacity until 1966, when he became chairman of the Board of Trustees. He was elected chairman of the Board of Trustees of the University in 1948 and a life trustee in 1956. He was elected chairman of the Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve Bank in 1957.

Ivy Ode
By Samuel B. Shaker

Ivy greets with berries firm
By woods with yellow foliage to the sky.

Ivy Oration

By M. Melvin Shralow

If the one we plant today small and not yet strong and make it grow, it will fit among the grove of the covered walk.

Ivy greets do your mean for we who prove better? In my mood do you say to me who am I? And Ivy what will you see within your garden? The life is the man if the melody is clear. The berries are the fruits of man produced throughout his years. The color is the expression of growth in space. The year reveals the spirit of man solidified and to which we belong.

And what has this Ivy? If you have adored it for a lifetime, do you know its meaning? What should it plants mean to do this day of reflected love? The Ivy is a symbol of fidelity for its firm, clinging leaves.
