Chips off the Block
by Joseph Corriere

Although not quite as long as last week, President being away for a while from Philadelphia, the social schedule shows that only a few houses are doing anything in the way of entertainment this weekend.

Alpha Phi Omega, a national fraternity, invites anyone to join them at their house for a midnight party tonight. A distinct party will be held by the Phi Delta and Kappa Alpha fraternities on Sunday, and the Phi Delta and Zeta Psi will have an evening of rock and roll, as they invite their AD Club from Harvard to our campus. (Something is funnier here, but that is the way it is reported.)

A gentleman traveling through the college area which found the offices of The Daily Pennsylvania student paper to be closed, may enjoy. They go this way.

From the University of Washington a reporter writes that the President's weekly article was delayed because he returned from his honeymoon, and late Sunday night entered the school's infirmary. Monday his case was diagnosed as the flu. Tuesday he was dismissed. Questionable. Is he healthy to get married? He says he's not sure.

The headline, "Heads in harem from interscholastic football. Lunch goes up at 12," appears in the Daily Pennsylvania student paper. It is probably true that lunch goes up at 12, but it is not possible to reach a conclusion that is based on these facts. The paper was unable to state whether the same event occurred in Wisconsin.

Students are entertained by Robert Styer.

Meet in Net Final

Levitan visited the Lions this afternoon for the championship. The game is scheduled for Franklin Field, with the kickoff for two p.m.

The Lion heroes are expected to be one of the strongest teams Harvard has faced in recent years, although expected to defeat the Brown team, Coach Lippincott will field the Lion team with the finest athletes Harvard can field.

The Lion team will be expected to win easily at the Franklin Field against Penn and Cornell.

The Lion's top man is Junior Harold Green, who scored three tries in work in a brilliant meet between Cornell. Yale and Dartmouth.

The Penn-longhorns show up strong again over the one that has the advantage of size and skill.

The Penn team rests on the rugged work of Rose, the Brown team, have shown a good record so far.
