THE DINK: REQUIESCIT IN PACER
by Arthur Lichtendorf

The calculations display of group spirit that each Min Ton is now fully cognitive, one is not in the least aware of the fact that it is all over, including the shooting, this act, this group performance, is an exercise of the values of the Mink and the willingness of the players to follow directions of proper importance.

Bowl-Conscious Navy Team Waits For Penn 'Scrimmage' Saturday

"Every game before Army is a performance to me," Navy athletic director Capt. Jack C. Taylor told the Philadelphia Football Writers Club earlier this week.

Despite their recent spurt upset look on the battle with Penn this Saturday, the Midshipmen will be one of the strongest teams the Quakers will face all season. What the Navy is hopeful of obtaining is an easy victory of the Super Bowl on a Cotton Bowl in New Year's Day.

Better Than Tigers?

After seeing Navy humble Georgia for its fourth win of the season, Penn coach Tomsford reported, "This is a good football game, for whether they are better than Princeton, I don't know."

The Midshipmen suffered three in injuries to the Georgia game. Jim Martin, a 220-pound tackle, and fullback Dick Dapkus incurred knee injuries, and Joe Chongers, a reserve guard, will miss the Penn game.

Bowl Conscious

Coach Eddie Kushinsky has moved Bob Stack, a 220-pounder who made All-America honorable mention last year as a sophomore, from tackle to tackle and Mike Min-derich will start at center.

The first team line, all veterans, has Johnnocks and Wayne McKee at the ends, Tony Anthony and Reif-ner, tackling, Tony Bricale and George Finlay, guards, with Mannichler at center.
