Hockey Squad

Saves Lehigh, Cornell Games

by Barry Deitz

Penney hockey team will open the season on State Farm Sophomore Weekend, December 3, when it takes on the Lehigh University.

The opening game will be played at the Valley Forge Country Club, the game begins at 8 p.m.

Last year, the newly-stocked hockey team was overwhelmed by two contests in which it appeared.

Penney players revealed that a new game has been selected for March 17, the final afternoon of 12-day weekend.

Cranwell, goalkeeper, has been selected for the second half of the home-and-home weekend.

The skaters are also trying to schedule a match with Columbia and Villanova in an effort to complete their schedule.

Students Participate

Rev. Harris concluded that it will be a good idea if the students plan their work so that they will be engaged in co-curricular activities in the afternoons.

It appears that the student hockey team will be ready to play against Lehigh University on the first of the new year.

IAA Sponsors Lecture

A lecture sponsored by The International Affairs Association will be delivered by Dr. Norman B. Marks, professor of English at the Franklin Room of the Pennsylvania Club.

A unique bond of English and American students, Dr. Davies, later came back to the United States as a Fulbright Foundation Fellow.

The University Press will publish a account of the U.S. that he returned to England. Davies, as a Fulbright fellow, is a student at the University of Pennsylvania.

Davies Receives Scholarship

The young Englishman is the first student to be awarded the Interfraternity Scholarship for three years of study at the University of Pennsylvania.

In addition to the Interfraternity Scholarship, Davies will receive a full scholarship for the remainder of his senior year. He is currently studying at the University of Pennsylvania.

The Interfraternity Council awarded the scholarship to Davies for a second year, recognizing his contributions to the Council and the University.

Davies, who is majoring in English, has been an active member of the Interfraternity Council and has served as its president. He is currently completing his senior year at the University of Pennsylvania.

The Interfraternity Council is a national organization that supports and sponsors activities for students at the University of Pennsylvania. The scholarship is awarded annually to the most outstanding student at the University who has demonstrated leadership and involvement in the Council.

The scholarship provides financial assistance to students who are majoring in English and who have completed at least three years of study at the University. The scholarship covers tuition, fees, and room and board expenses for the remainder of the student's senior year.

Currently completing his college course and the University, commenting that "people should know how good to him. He has been particularly impressed with the fine food, and his dining schedule, all designed so as not to interfere with his daily study program, is an enviable one. However, Davies is not without a few minor complaints. Philadelphia's climate is too warm for him; he does not enjoy American lard and cold beer, which are both served warn back in England.

Three small sources, however, are of negligible importance in the overall worthwhile experience Davies is gaining in his year of study here in his preparation for his future career as a "Davies-for-Dinner" exchange student. His studies in each subject in international relations.
