Penn Duels Tigers For League Lead

Pennsylvania's varsity foursome, currently in first place in the Ivy League with a 3-0 record, put their No. 1 ranking to the test when they faced second-ranked Columbia, in their home opener of the season on Saturday. The Tigers, led by seniors Frank Sherwood and Bill Meade, won in convincing fashion, 10-3, and 16-1, and are now 6-4-5, tying Penn for first place in the Ivy League.

The Tigers will see the same lineup that separated against Lafayette, and the match may be their toughest of the season. The Quakers' lineup features seven freshmen, several of whom have struggled to find their form.

Frosh Face Lions

Murray Melvin leads Columbia's freshman into its first Lions tonight to provide a test of fire for the young team's cupboard in '58.

Melvin, former scholastic stand- by in Schenectady, N. Y., scored 14 points to lead the Lions to a 30-27 victory over the Quakers in a previous meeting between the two.

The fresh new crop 5-5 record, after breaking 4-4 in the 1949, 1950, and 1951 season, 7-40, at the expense of St. Joseph's. The Lions have shown the unexpected victory over Princeton's Freshman, a feature of the past season.

The Quakers are Europe, Ireland, and Italy. The best of five sets of games to be played.
