Letters to the Editor

Carol Lynley

Sweet Sixteen by Lewis Merlin, Jr.

The letters in the current batch of dramatic screen and television personalities produced by James Baskervill's "Sweet Sixteen," are, to my mind, superb. Their mixture of singularly intense situations and a rare sense of humor make these letters a joy to read. I would have loved to see them on the screen. Considering the vast amount of material available for screen use, I feel that the "Sweet Sixteen" has been a real find.
