Farewell to Arms

Harold Stassen is returning to the University of Pennsylvania to deliver an address at the North Pennsylvania campus on Friday, 13th March, 1958. Though none of the undergraduate students or faculty have ever seen him in person, Stassen left the的印象 of the world as a United States Senator, President of the United States, and Secretary of State. The impression is that of a man who has lived a life of integrity and dedication to public service.

Stassen was born on August 22, 1880, in New York City, and was educated at the University of Pennsylvania. He served in the United States Senate from 1935 to 1945 and was Secretary of State from 1945 to 1947.

Stassen was a leading Republican, and his return to the University of Pennsylvania is expected to be a significant event for the campus community.

Penn Duellers Practice For Columbia Tilt

By Alie D. White

Hard work was Coach Cape's directive this morning to the opponents as they worked out preparatory for their first-round match with Columbia this afternoon for the Ivy League title. The Maskers had only to point to Saturday's disappointing loss at Dartmouth to show the results of their hard practice sessions.

The Quakers only deputy winners for this match were the three doubles players who won the meet last week. The team were junior Brian Holman, assistant Phil Reynolds, and sophomore Melvin Moore. Melvin Moore is fully aware, then, to the quakers of being able to defend the doubles later support for the two points the team has earned in league. Although not counting anything but far his bestshot, still it means to the coach that Co dium's former are the best-Heilid in The Quakers, which ac count for their personally outstanding games.

Another thing that quakers are being aware of is a latitude in the regional matrix, which has been the same for the last two years. And the last Friday's match at Harvard, where three finalists, number the most important, was figuring his final spot of the day near the Harvard school's preparation for the championship.

The only chance the team would have been over 15 percent to be the only number one in the two previous matches, due to two last games, and 9-2.

College is looking for an in teresting showing from his full line, which put in as voracious competition of the average against the Cantillean.

Ivy Soft Touches

Dick Cozert, Quaker captain, along with junior Bob Potter, Joe Tom and end will take up their Ivy League basketball careers tonight.

During their three years of competi tion, each man found a "soft touch" team. Cozert tackled 122 points in the six games he played against Columbia. Joe, too, was in the third "eager" high point in the "third group of 123 points against Yale.

Owls 22 Straight

Ties Penn Record

Temple's victory over Lehigh last night gave Temple basketball winning streak record for Philadelphia Big Five teams of 22.

The Quakers finally, will attempt to close the line in the Ivy League, Temple is in the Manhattan Conference, Center, in the Yellow Jackets at the afternoon. The center was in the Ivy League, Temple is in the Manhattan Conference, Center, and the Quakers, in winning their three straight games with George Brom. The Red and Blue also are in the "third group of 123 points against Temple.

WHAT IS THE SLEIGHT-OF-HAND THAT MAKES A PACK OF LUCKIES VANISH? (SEE PARAGRAPH BELOW)

NEAT FEAT! Not Slick Trick? A thousand times no! When a magician makes a pack of Luckies vanish, it is a plain case of Tragic Magic. Connoisseurs claim there is one approved way to make Luckies disappear. That's to smoke 'em! Every last one of 'em. That way, you get the wonderful taste of Luckies' fine tobacco...light, good-tasting tobacco that's toasted to taste and good. So, Luckies fans, remember to smoke Luckies closely. Then carefully remove one! Did you put it in your mouth or did you put it in your pocket? Then carefully remove one! Did you smoke it?
