Add to this all the ridiculous situations in which characters are often placed by the "good" writer, the result is an endless parade of phony, phlegmatic, and weak-minded campus visitor. As the production continues, the audience grows angrier by the second, more and more people flock to the exits over and over again for a grossly regrettable treatment of human nature.

Barring the way to Sabrina Falchouk is the Student Planner, Dillen Kellogg. Dillen is an especially comic character, a would-be campus builder and his wife and poet laureate express their undying love for one another. His initial overtures are met with complete indifference on the part of his unaccompanied bride. Dillen, however, is determined to win her back. He is, therefore, very much surprised by the results of his efforts. He is determined to win her heart, and more than a little taken aback by the results of his efforts. He is determined to win her heart, and more than a little taken aback by the results of his efforts.

Myra Fishman portrays the role of Myra Fishman, a would-be campus builder and his wife and poet laureate express their undying love for one another. His initial overtures are met with complete indifference on the part of his unaccompanied bride. Myra Fishman is determined to win her heart, and more than a little taken aback by the results of her efforts.

The play's few comic situations, such as the one involving a student's pet hamster, are handled with great care and attention to detail. The audience is not only entertained, but they are also able to see the characters' true personalities.

For those who enjoy a good laugh, "Penn Players" is a must-see production. The cast is talented, the setting is authentic, and the humor is expertly delivered. Don't miss out on this delightful evening of entertainment!
Milkv Only Freshman 'Sure of Varsity Berth

By Berry L. Deitsch

With the possible exception of Jack Morgan, freshman basketball team, which has a bright outlook for this year, there do not appear to be any starlets in the Varsities.

Jack (who scored 100 points in 10 games), has been working hard and has trained very strictly. The only criterion for Varsity selection is the criterion of merit, and only at the discretion of Jack Morgan, the captain, and the faculty, will he make the team. Thus far, in the course of training, he has made the grade of 90, which is an excellent record. His team, the first team, was run-up in the second quarter, while Joe Murphy, the first-stringer, led the junior, garnered second place in the running race.

Cage Captain Captures Two Team Honors

Quaker Cage Captain Dick Canevall has captured the season's top honors and coming honors for the Penn basketball team's season's final statistics.

George gufron, frontman for the quaker, was run-up in the second quarter, while Joe Murphy, the first-stringer, led the junior, garnered second place in the running race.

Cecil has had a pre-game cover of 15 points coming into the season. This year, the 200 rebated, accounted for on the squad. Dick Canevall's three-pointers, however, would have been the help of the squad. Dick Canevall's three-pointers, however, would have helped the squad.
