Snow Triumphant Classes Off Again Today

The Pennsylvania Players' production of Samuel Taylor Coleridge's romantic comedy, "Sabrina Fair," will be given in Irvine Auditorium tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15.

Due to inclement weather, the day before voting for the offices of the Christian Association will be held Monday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Christian Association Building.

The winning candidates will be announced at a coffee hour to be held Monday evening in the first floor lounge of the A Building.

The nominees for men's co-chairman are Robert C. Rosen and John L. Moore; for women's co-chairman are Merle Liebert and Kay Stenstrom.

Owen Williams, a chauffeur, a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, will be announced as the winner of the competition for the position of secretary.

The telephone operators reported an absence of telephone calls during the unusually "quiet" early morning.

The president of the telephone company, Mr. John L. Moore, said, "This has been the best day since I have been at the University."

The operators handled 2,000 incoming calls, but the normal number is 3,000 during the same period. The chief operator, Mr. William J. Moore, added, "This has been a quiet day from the standpoint of the telephone operators."

Steve Berliner and Thomas Hildebrandt are the committee for treasurer and Miss Jane Jeffers, a junior, is the committee for secretary.

Following the coffee hour, the second seminar on "The New Christian Association" will take place.

Snowstrom Moves To Sea, City's Worst In 50 Years

The Philadelphia Record (March 21), 1958

The snowstorm at Philadelphia was the worst in 56 years. Up to 28 inches of snow fell in the Philadelphia area and the snowfall isn't expected to end at least until tomorrow morning.

Falling wires generated a major hazard. Police broadcast frequent warnings about falling wires.

John L. Moore, business vice-president, made an appeal late last night to students and other persons-including as to whether classes would be held in view of the heavy snowstorm cresting the metropolitan area. The operators' split reply was "No classes today."
