Penn State Trounces Quakers, 43-0
In Final Contest of Traditional Rivalry

Penn State's football team took a running farewell to Franklin Field Saturday afternoon as they steamrolled over an unimpressive Quaker eleven, 43-0.

Playing in a gray and overcast day after 19,649 fans, the Quakers were unable to do anything right while the Nittany Lions were good enough.

After converting two first half breaks into touchdowns, the Nittany Lions continued to build on their offensive success and had all in rolling a total of 20 points by half time. The quarter-back Jimmy Kerr, with his accurate pass, highlighted his advantage in the game which dates back to 1930.

The Lions received their first break midway in the first period when Penn's Fred Dolling got a yard punt off the side of his foot which carried out of bounds on Penn's 48 yard line.

With fullback Pat Bolton accepting the punt for the Lions, State went the distance the next break.

Palone somersaulted over from the two yard line on which he fumbled as he went into the great pile-up of action.

Officials decided that he had been down and the punt was good, although the Quakers never thought he was down.

The Lions got their next break at the beginning of the second period when Eddie Lucas punted the ball 44 yards from state line to his own 46.

A punt was kicked out of bounds to the Penn 42 where it was returned by Landis. State went on to tally with the offense on this drive being contributed by Bolton and Eastman.

Kiserasen scored on an end around play over the 1 yard line. Quarterback, Al Jacks passed to Nelson for a first down at the 23 for the extra point.

The Lions then had the ball using the half of a drive that started just before state halfback Bob O'Donnell intercepted a pitch for a gain of 15 yards.

In spite of a 15 yard penalty, the drive was kept alive and Dick Hook scored on a 4 yard drive which took 12 plays. Dick Hook kicked the extra point.

The Lions took the second half of the game in the first 2 minutes of play on a 40 yard drive which took only 2 plays. Frank Eastman scored from the two yard line.

Penn State scored on the next drive after an extended drive. Dick Hook kicked the extra point to lead the half 23 ½ to 0.

State then scored the complete final 14 points of the game in the final period on a 3 yard drive which took 12 plays. Dick Hook kicked the extra point.

Penn State's deepest penetration was to the 2 yard line of the Nittany Lions. This was halted when state halfback Bob O'Donnell was stopped on the 1 yard line.

The Nittany Lions converted two of five field goal opportunities and kicked three extra points.

The last field goal attempt was 35 yards from state goal line.

Somebody's Almanac

The sun was much too bright at 8:00 and Lowert Streets. The bright, hopeful light hurt their eyes. They were almost to the door, their blindfold signs already placed in the ground. They took a deep breath and right at the next light we went. I smiled diligently in English, waved all my fingers at them and smiled, and when I came to New York, all I could get was a job writing advertising copy. I agreed that if I had to pull posters myself just to get to your address. I as you go every time you lose? Turn green when you see red. Penn Faces Dartmouth
In First Ivy Contest
Penn's varsity eleven will travel Thursday to Hanover, New Hampshire, to the first Ivy League game of the season. The Quakers will be facing the first.
Penn last visited Hanover in 1918 when the Quakers triumphed, 32-6.
Penn will be doubling on its 1993-94 record of 7-2-0 in last year's Ivy League season. The Quakers have won seven Ivy Championships in the last ten years, and are currently rated in 13th place in the nation by

N.E.C.

Goody Leach Attack
Leading the Dartmouth attack against Penn, this sophomore, will be quarterback Bill Goody. Goody will come against the Quaker eleven with his first passing, running and blocking plan play. Goody was a 500 plus passer last year and his with the junior class.

Penn's first trip to Dartmouth will be accompanied by John Cogswell.

Wrestlers Report
All varsity wrestlers and fraternity men who are interested in wrestling are urged to report to the wrestling room in the Hutchinson Gymnasium starting today at 3:00 p.m.

Coach Charles Brown announced that the program has been set up for Thursday, October 5, from 3:30 to 5:30.

The Quaker wrestlers will be greatly handicapped by the loss of Frank Leach. Leach has been injured and will not be able to participate in the season.

J.V. Booters
Begin Season

The Penn junior varsity soccer team, coached by Artie Rine, has started its fall practice sessions on Sprague Field. All candidates are expected to report to the field.

The JV squad last put the players and coaches in a period of excitement when it managed in a regular game last year's men's Ivy League.

The Red and Blue JV bowmen
will have a game schedule this season, challenged by the team of Princeton, the only Ivy League
men's team.

Although only one of the six minutes to the junior varsity will play against an Ivy League opponent, it is still a formidable schedule that will test the team's ability and will indicate how much help they give the varsity next year.

Lucky Strike presents

THINKLISH

—the funniest, easiest way yet to make money!

PUT IN A GOOD WORD AND MAKE $25!

Speak English all your life and what does it get you? Nothing! But start speaking Thinklish and you may make $25! Just put two words together to form a new (and much funnier) one. Example: precision flight of bumblebees: Swarmation. (Note: the two original words form the new one: swarm + formation.) We'll pay $25 each for the hundreds and hundreds of new Thinklish words judged best—and we'll feature many of them in our college ads. Send your Thinklish words (with English translations) to Lucky Strike, Box 67A, Mt. Vernon, N. Y. Enclose your name, address, college or university, and class. And while you're at it, light up a Lucky. Get the full, rich taste of fine tobacco, the honest taste of Lucky Strike.
