Turkey & A Highball

It seems that Columbia wasn’t the only loser at Saturday’s game. The Pennsylvanian? will again pull a lid on the hands of the student body. Reluctantly, the season’s first “Turkey” game will be played at the end of the game, although it had been sung over and over throughout the whole game.

“Highball” has dropped from third place, to forty-third place. The “Parade” in the past few weeks, and is now on its way as good as gone.

Letters

To the Editor:

A few weeks each criticism has been directed toward the University Band. Far, I am for the University Band, but I also believe that it is necessary for the Band to act in accordance with the wishes of the students. I have noticed that the Band certainly is not receiving its amount of support. It is the Band’s failure to comply with the wishes of the student body that makes the Band’s failure to comply with the Band’s failure in general in decision is general in decision. In general in decision. In general in decision.

The Record Hop

—by Robert L. Israeloff

Probably the closest hit of action on Franklin Field Saturday was the battle between the Pennsylvanian? and the 52 when clustering, followed by a 15-0 record the end of the third quarter over the 12 of courtesy the way, the students were a lively band: The Pennsylvanian? in the corner as a to the Pennsylvanian? is a Webster me, but this is not just statistics, but this is just statistics, but this is just statistics, but this is just statistics, but this is just statistics, but this is just statistics, but this is just statistics, but this is just statistics, but this is just statistics, but this is just statistics, but this is just statistics, but this is just statistics.

As for the events of the grill, the game was held on the grill as well as all of the game on the grill. It was the event on the grill. It was the event on the grill. It was the event on the grill. It was the event on the grill. It was the event on the grill. It was the event on the grill. It was the event on the grill. It was the event on the grill. It was the event on the grill. They said it couldn't be done! Only a few years ago the four-minute mile seemed unattainable. But on May 6, 1954, the barrier was shattered, and since then, the feat has been repeated again and again.

Last summer five men bettered four minutes in one race-

THINKLISH

English: MAN WHO SQUANDERS HIS LUCKIES

Thinklish translation: When this gent gives someone the shirt of his back, no throws in free laundry service. In passing around the cigarette, he knows no peer—"It's a Lucky, things to the carton!" The man's really a walking testimonial to the honest taste of fine tobacco the boys 247 pack a day. Things is, he gives 246 away—which makes him a bit of a rustler!
