Soccermen Rout St. Joseph's;Rockett Stars In 5-0 Shoutout

by Richard E. Ryner

Led by Howie Rockett's two early goals, the soccermen bottled up their second straight victory by routing St. Joseph's, 5-0, last night at the Whitman Athletic Center.

The Quakers scored in each half and lead, 2-0, in the first 20 minutes, with goals from Rockett and Ferber. The Hawks never threatened, and Rockett's second goal, from 15 yards out, put the game out of reach late in the period. The Quakers' defense, with bent poles and twin toots in the net, was unyielding. On only a couple of minutes did the ball find its way into the line-up in the 90th minute, but was easily missed, as his disk was barely deflected to the left of the net.

Teaching Careers Will Be Discussed

Teaching, as a possible career, will be the theme of an open forum and answer-period (Thursday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:00) held for women students.

The forum is sponsored by the University Teacher Placement Service, which will provide applications on the requirements of teaching, and opportunities and they may be expected to pay. Each participant is entitled to the services of a professional counselor.

Livingston, a student of the scholas, the conference shows in the beginning of the course. However, he still maintains that his purposes a definite.

The focus system is used to get the student's interest in the course. The concentration on the course is maintained through the involvement in plant, and that of his environment. Each of the students will express in the nature of the subject.

Thanksgiving Chapel

"Is God An Bargain?"

by Thomas E. Robbins

A special Thanksgiving Chapel will be held tomorrow morning in the Alumni Memorial Chapel at 10:45 with the participation of the campus community.

Reverend Harris, whose sermon is entitled "Is God a Bargain?," will address the congregation. The service will be in the Alumni Memorial Chapel at 10:45 with the participation of the campus community.

Another aspect of the topic to be discussed is the nature of the church, which will be the subject of the discussion. In addition to the discussion, the Reverend Harris will also discuss the role of the church in society, and the way in which the church functions in the community.

Brown's Finney Tops League In Scoring, Passing, Offense

Brown quarterback Finney Finney was the top scorer in total offense, passing and rushing. Finney has captured his league's scoring crown and must wait until the end of the season to play their final game before he knows whether he has claimed those three titles.

Carnell's signal caller, Tom Sky- peek, is the only man to win a chance to take over the top spot from Fin- ney in total offense and passing. Finney has gained 100 yards while Sky peek has gained 141 yards through the air and on the ground. Sky peek is in second place in gain- ing with 44 completed. Another Brown grader, fullback Paul Comette, has gained 511 yards on the ground to lead the loop. However, he has finished the season and Carnell who has already gained 465 yards on the ground left a good chance to upset Carnell. Finney's Fred Dwelling is tied for fourth place with Yale's Herb Hallas. The Big Ten's all-time scoring leader in the league's best- punter followed closely by the Quakers' Hal Muck.

Brown is the Ivy leader in team- scoring followed by Princeton and Penn. The red and blue's total defense ranks third in the league in that department.
