Hexagon Book Drive
To Alleviate Area Shortage
Of Hospital Reading Matter

Responding to what Dr. Paul F. Schrude, director of Student Health, has termed a lack of reading material in the University Hospital, the Hexagon Senior Society is planning a drive to collect books, magazines, and other publications for the University and Veterans' Hospitals.

Books will be collected in dormitories and libraries to alleviate the reading matter according to the schedule below. Boxes will be placed in Dietrich Hall, College Hall, Houston Hall, and the Townes Building to allow community students to contribute to the drive.

Men's dormitories will be solicited between 5 a.m. and 9 a.m.
day; men's facilities at the same time, whatever the weather.

Frisas Ask Greater Support
For Christmas Basket Drive

With the first week of the All-University Christmas basket drive sponsored by the Friars Senior Society coming to a close, a new response for support has been pressed.

Robert G. Pettepor, leader of Frisas and chairman of the drive has announced he will call for contributions for the drive. "If the University is going to undertake a project to contribute to the welfare of its students, then we must all do our part to make sure the job is done."

Pettepor pointed out that the basket drive is conducted by the University, will be for the University, and the University Students' Union.

Letters
Northern Segregation

Editor, The Daily Pennsylvanian:

The Institute is growing, but that means nothing if students are not treated accordingly. The situation in the Northern Segregation cannot be ignored. We need to demand change, not just because it is the right thing to do, but because we deserve better.

Sincerely,

Chauvinism On Wheels

Editor, Daily Pennsylvanian:

The recent incident in the parking lot on campus is a reminder of the pervasive nature of chauvinism in our society. We must actively work to challenge these attitudes and create a more inclusive environment for all.

Montgomery Vitalizes Campus Music Groups

John H. Belko, Jr.

Almost completely responsible for the revivalisation of music at the University, Bruce Montgomery, former member of musical activities, has devoted most of his life to music and class honors.

Currently, he is handling the annual arrangement for the Mask and Wig show by giving his club for the coming concert in the Freshman Auditorium. For this he is receiving great praise and critical recognition.

Bruce Montgomery first came to the university in 1960 when he assumed the position of assistant director of the National Orchestra. In 1963 he joined into the Army for the long war. Quickly out in the Special Reserve, Montgomery found himself at the center of all entertainment for the 1st Infantry Division. Here he was responsible for a weekly radio show and also for the entertainment during the week of the Army.

In February, 1962, he organized "Mittman Smith" for a little give and take of lunkers. The story of the world show put on for the girl students was so popular that every major newspaper wrote about it.

The 35th Century Fair publicized for it was approved of by Arthur Godfrey and on February 2nd, Eugene Ormandy by the 35th Century Fair was made to be sent into a nation picture.
Swimmers Host Rutgers In Opener; Matmen Meet Lafayette At Palestra

Four Sophs Start In Season's Opener, Grid Star Smith In Heavyweight Bout

Pitt's wrestling varsity team found it will have to put its hopes of an early season success into its new team. The football Quakers made formal preparations for tomorrow's opener against Lafayette at the Palestra at 7:30.

Coach Charles Sibille will start two seniors and two juniors along with the ropes against the Leopards, who they lost, 20-11, last year.

In the 160 pound class, Quaker soph Charles Murphy will oppose Roger Hunt for the Leopards. Lafayette co-captain Joe Loo, who normally wrestles at 174, will be thrown to the floor to appear for the Matmen and Whitehouse.

Miller Replacement

Gerry Miller, another soph, will replace the injured Larry Cook for the Red and Blue at the 188 division and will meet Tom Principi. Pitt's Al Black will wrestle Dale Marks at 127 pounds Marks, considered by Lafayette coach Frank Eisenhauer as one of the team's key men, will have his hands full with Black, one of the team's leaders in the experience on the Quaker internationals.

Junker Brian Borsum, the other experienced matmen, will wrestle the 156 pounder, Pitt's Bob Sailer, in Lafayette's Mike Stahler in making his varsity appearance for the Red and Blue. Both wrestlers come into the heavyweight bout with the Junior from the 220 pound class Borsum is unseeded at 177 pounds as he turned in a match against Ed Wilson or Frank Kipke, a letterman from the Lafayette's Bill Braun.

Another thought for Quaker varsity appearance is Mike Sailer, who will make his first appearance for the Quaker varsity as of this Division. He played guard for the varsity football team last year and his only one match is in this condition. He will oppose Otto Johnson in the heavyweight match. Both wrestlers come from the team that made Pitt last year's squad last year.

Bowlers Open Against Lions

The Penn varsity bowling team, ranked third in the East last season as a result of the 8-0 record, will begin its campaigns in New York this weekend with matches against Columbia tonight and Albright tomorrow afternoon.

Rounding for the bowlers this weekend will be Mark Nelson, who was the most improved average on the team. Ed Kline, former U. S. junior champion, has been high game bowler in the ERC internationals.

Other returning bowlers are Dick Shuet, president and founder of the club; Bob Krause and Jerry Friedberg.

Marcellus was named to the Daily News All-State team and had the most improved average on the team. Ed Kline, former U. S. junior champion, has been high game bowler in the ERC internationals.

The first home match of the year is on Tuesday afternoon at 1:00.

Swimming Meets

The swimming team will face Harvard in a meet in the pool on Saturday afternoon.

Basketball

Penn Skaters Oppose Cornell, Red Raiders

Bucky Brooks has again thrown his support behind operations and Jason Brown makes his debut as coach as the Hoyas journey to New York for a weekend of basketball action. The Hoyas face off with Cornell at the Big Red’s lynx tail and tinkle Colleage at the Franklin home tomorrow afternoon.

With the Biltmore securing the only opportunity committee to date, Bucky Brooks has agreed to return to the Hoyas’ coaching staff. Brooks was a member of the original team that built up the Hoyas from a moribund team to a viable force in the sport.

Pro Gridders Clash Sunday In FF Finale

The Philadelphia Friday Night Gridiron League will stage their last home game on Franklin Field on Saturday as the Eastern Division-leading Thursday Grid was the only team to have exceeded the 5-0 mark.

Because of the lack of lighting at the Hoyas’ home stadium, kickoff is expected to be moved up to 1:00 PM.

With the New York Giants and Indianapolis Broadhorns breaking down, Bucky Brooks took a quick look at the starting line-up, teamed with Connie McCarthy.

Bucky Dick Hawkins, who missed all but two games of last year’s team, will be held to the sidelines.
