Cagers Battle Little Quakers At Swarthmore

by Alan White

Pennsylvania's varsity captured two home wins on the Lamb-Miller Fieldhouse tonight in search of two victories, setting up a lone setback in a game inside.

About the Orange, however, remains the same with Jack Fawcett and Bob Stubbs having the guard posts, Al Schwait at center.

The Garnet will have a tough job in pouring the offense.

debate council will sponsor clinic sat. for high school teams from Pa., N.J., N.Y.

United States, British Educational Systems To Be Topic Of Debates; Seminar To Follow Competition

The debate council will sponsor the ninth annual United States-Versus-British High School debate from 3 to 4:45 today, Robert Schuette, chairman of the clinch, announced.

The high school debate, which the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of education, will be sponsored by the University and Princeton.

After the debates, the panel will assemble at which Dr. James A. Malan, professor of education whose special field of comparative education, will present a discussion of the historical aspects.

Twelve high schools from Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York are expected to be represented by the debate teams, as well as some portion of the debate, which if any, will have to be decided. The teams will be selected by the panel of judges, Robert Schuette, chairman of the debate.

The schedule of events for the debate will be:

THE LADY WAS GAGGED
Edward Montgomery, Police Prime
witness in the trial of Francis B. Reinhard, recently, was walking into the court at the

Mermen Oppose Hens in Varsity, Tyro Meets

By Richard L. Stone

Attempting to rebound from the defeat of last week in four hitting categories, the Penn varsity swimmers will meet to arrange personnel at Hoblitzelle Pool this afternoon.

The Penn frosh will swim their representatives from three previous meets, immediately preceding the varsity.

Both Blue Hen teams will enter with a 2-0-2 record, having turned back Lafayette in their initial matches.

Record Breakers Compete

Couple recently announced plans for a 200 yard relay team to be pitoned against each other in the varsity competition. Penn's team, composed of Joe Walsky, backstroke; Bill Stock, breaststroke; Fred Nordstrom, butterfly; and John Loevinger, freestyle, established the Quaker mark of 4:16.9 last Saturday against Lafayette.

Delaware set a team record of 4:20.0 against Lafayette with Ed Hinsley, breaststroke; Joe Walsky, backstroke; Bill Stock, butterfly, and John Loevinger, freestyle.

Penn's Pirate Pie Hens

In the individual events, Delaware scored a big upset over Penn's freestylers, Jerry Harriston and Fred Nordstrom. Harriston, who will probably oppose Quaker Eddie Long in a 400 yard freestyle event, also swam the Heros of 4:41.6 against freestyle relay, Freedom relays in the 80, 100 and 400 yard events.

Penn is favored in the backstroke events with captain Joe Walsky and Fred Nordstrom expecting Olympic swimmer Bill Stiller to lead the Quaker yellers in an effort to cap their second victory of the campaign.

Blauer won three firsts against Ralphs' freestylers, getting a Penn record for the 440 freestyle event in the process.

The Blue Hen frosh have a strong backstroke man in John Thory, who swam the 200 yard freestyle and anchors the medley relay team.

In last season's meet, the Red and Blue varsity was comfortably, 162-32, while the Penn frosh stumbled in an unsuccessful in their meet, losing 114-80.

With sincere regrets tendered to the PTC, we announce the patulous of WILSON'S, Philadelphia's leader in natural clothing styles. Inspired by a midnight visitation (or something he "et") this past Tuesday night, Hal Wilson is determined to bring to Mohammed the mountain of authentic natural shoulder clothing that has made 705 Chestnut Street the mecca of the college man and rising young executive alike.

Alas, PTC may lose many shiny dimes but University of Pennsylvania men will save many beer-stained dollars by Mr. Wilson's pre-Christmas move.

Enough of words... Act brother, act.
