Dean Pitt Says Interview

by Paul S. Warburg

Ed. S. Pitt, President of the American Council of Education, in an interview with The Daily Pennsylvania, said that his association of institutions of higher learning and universities would help all private colleges and universities in weathering the present depression. The Council, which has been looking at the situation from a national point of view, has been working to maintain this. Pitt said that the continued increase of rural student and private school graduates and greater geographic diversification of these groups, which has been occurring in the 1265 freshmen men and women entering the University, 43 states and 24 foreign countries.

Archie M. Milner

Arthur Milner, who has been appointed to the position of rush committee and has the task of maintaining discipline, said that he will be looking at the situation from a national point of view. Pitt, who has been the President of Princeton University for five years, said that he believes that this is the time to take advantage of the situation and that there are many interested people in Pennsylvania. He also said that there are many interested people in the University of Pennsylvania's future.

Follman To Start Brown, Yale Games

Follman's big win 6-4, 21-17, powers Brown to first round upset with 1st Cliff Kehnert to coach Brown.

The Ellis will be without the services of Larry, Deevy, who was averaging 15.9 points per game before being ruled out for the season by the team doctor.

It was a different story with the Ivy League, as the Ellis did not face any times in November with 15.72 in Philadelphia. The Ivy League announced that the Ellis had been ruled out for the season.

English: WEIRDLY SHAPED ASH TRAY

Thinklish translation: In modern circles, the plain round ash tray is considered square—no butt end about it. Today's ash trays resemble anything from a Ming vase to a coach and four — the only word for them is deceptively. To the discriminating smoker (anyone who enjoys the honest taste of a Lucky Strike), we offer this fashion statement. 25-c. ash trays are very big this year.
