Univers Committee Recommends Abolition Of Fraternity System

A committee to survey fraternities at the University has recommended that the present system be eliminated.

The committee, composed of seven faculty members, has proposed a substitute plan which vaguely resembles the existing one but is set up at Princeton there. In the new proposal there is a provision for bickering similar to Princeton's.

Under the revised program, individual fraternities will be abolished by September, 1965.

This program includes plans for construction of a large dining hall with 40 private dining rooms for men's fraternities. The dining hall will be located at 16th and Spruce Streets in the central area.

Unlike the private eating house which the University new program provides for dormitory suites proportionate to the size of each fraternity.

In submitting its recommendations, the committee stated that new program would benefit not only the University, but also individual fraternities and the fraternity system as a whole.

The committee considers that the long-range development program of the University will require the modification of at least 23 fraternity houses to provide for parking facilities.

In an effort to reduce the number of new fraternities and the fraternities of acquiring new real estate for fraternity purposes, the committee has prepared the dorm-facility system.

The decision of accepting the process of keeping fraternity system only the minimum contact between fraternities and the University, it would probably require the de- nunciation of pledging until the sopho- more year of the prospective pledge.

The decision to approve or dis- approve the new proposal will be subject to be International Board of the University's House of Trustees.

Ford Complete Negotiations: Franklin Field To Be Leased

Plans to lease Franklin Field during the summer have been announced by Jeremiah F. Ford, director of athletics at the University, who has called the transaction one of the foremost of the summer. Negotiations are essentially complete and the lease will go into effect immediately.

Contract negotiations have been in progress for over twenty months, with the Philadelphia Athletics Board for the perpetuation of Bull Fighting, and a mutually satisfac- tory and remunerative contract is in the works. The Board has always been interested in the prominent pugilists who have handled the matter.

P. A. P. B. F., a downtown organization, has had a strong influence in the founding of the Franklin Field. In 1869, it issued The Daily Penn, which was the mouthpiece of the Franklin Field. The association was formed for the purpose of the upkeep of the field. The association has been at its present location for 200 years.

The University officials have agreed to make arrangements for all games to stage them in the manner best calculated to attract the maximum number of spectators. The games are expected to draw large crowds and the opening event will be held on the first week of October.

The University Field will be used by the Franklin Field Club and the University officials have agreed to make all arrangements for the University's use of the field. The games will be played at 12:30 and 3:00 p.m. on Saturdays.

Happy Easter Dept

The Easter Egg

Will the Easter Bunny come money, will?"

"Yes, he can, dear,"

"And will he bring me some --- colored eggs?"

"Oh no, dear, --- colored eggs would never be proper. They might have bad influence."

This disappointed the little boy very much because to him there was nothing in the world quite as wonderful as an Easter egg, and this individualism would be stifled by this proposal. We think this is ridiculous, and we also feel that there is an ulterior motive behind this agitation.

The Daily Pennsylvanian urges quick action on this proposal, as, in the recent offer to endow the University with a professorship of taxation, a delayed reaction might come too late.

The True and Typical Case of Chatsworth Osceola

You all know, of course, that every engineering student is raising fabulous offers from dozens of corporations, but do you know just how fabulous these offers are? Do you have any idea how widely the corporations are competing? Let me tell you how the typical case of Chatsworth Osceola is a case of a typical student.

Chatsworth, walking across the M.T.S. campus one day last week, was hailed by a man sitting in a yellow convertible studied with precious gem stones. "Hello," said the man, "I'm Mr. Osceola of the Sidney Benton and Bushing Company. Do you like this car?"

"Yes, boy," said Chatsworth.

Siddos pressed a button on the dashboard of his convertible and the trunk opened up and out came a noble madness with golden hair, flawless features, a perfect disposition, and his appendix already removed. "This is Laurel Gehuling," said Siddos. "Would you like to marry her?"
City Prohibits Crew Regattas On Schuylkill

Penn's crew will be denied the use of the Schuylkill River this spring because of a statement issued last Saturday by the Philadelphia Park Commission in a statement issued last Saturday. The Park Commission gave several reasons for its decision. Presentiment among these was that the city could not spare enough enough rowers from their automobile latching duties to keep anyone that competency rowedbottom on the anniversity of Skinner's devis could be adequately quelled. Alleagiance was the fact that Temple University's crew does not use the river, and the city cannot make part of any of its institutions of higher learning.

Penn To Build Track Stadium

According to reliable sources, construction of the ultra-modern Pennsylvania Memorial Track and Field Arena will commence within the next few months. The Daily Pennsylvanian learned today.

With the construction side homeing so near in the future, two major problems will arise: the Bulldozer and Grounds crew which will fill the major part of the contract, and the work on the stadia. First, the proposed site of the building is slightly upon the ground of the slightly priced Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, and second, they have yet to find the person in whose memory the memorial Arena will be dedicated.

Frank, Lieder Moreau, chief architect of the track and field palace has announced that many difficulties are conjectured in planning stadiums such as this have been eliminated through the concepts of modern architectural design.

Accordant to the architect, the warm surface for the track will allow the outside of the arena due to lack of spectator interest in the long distant running events. The motor speed and hurdle events will be conducted on the pole-valued and broad jump surfaces for both increased spectator interest and speed.
