MSG President Arons
Asks Student Support
Of New Honor System

The honor system has not yet gained the recognition of most undergraduates. Stephen Arons, president of the Men's Student Government, stated yesterday.

Freshmen are fully aware of the system, due to mailings of a "Report to the Undergraduate Community" by the Joint Student - Faculty Committee to study the honor system, as well as printed materials mailed and distributed to freshmen by the MSG.

In addition, the website within the University has informed incoming students of the provisions of the new system.

Students Uninformed

Many upperclassmen remain uninformed.

"Rape the success of the system" and "hand out the support of the entire student body," states Arons.

Moreover, many members of the student body be made aware, of the nature of the honor system and its responsibilities, that taxpayers.

Aions stated: "A system is not the matter nor the family members of the majority of the steps. We have informed of the system over the semester.

Penn Players
Opens Tonight
With 2 Plays:

The Pennsylvania Players will open their 1964 - 65 season tonight with "The Best of Federal Albee and the Best of Sparse" by Eugene Ionesco.

AtKV Hall
The plays will be given in the Pennsylvania Auditorium tonight and tomorrow at 8 p.m. Admission will be 60 cents.

The Players will also present four major productions and numerous workshop this year. The productions are: "The Ten Commandments," "The Playboy of the Western World," "The Visit" by Friedrich Durrenmatt, and South Pacific," by Rodgers and Hammerstein.

Theatre Director

The unannounced announcement of the entire season will enable the Players to institute a new season Devolent Ticket, which is sold at the Pennsylvania Hall information desk and the Penn Players office, Kresge Auditorium.

The Pennsylvania Players are one of the three drama groups at Pennsylvania. The others are the Mask and Wig and the Drama Guild. Mask and Vig hold one production annually at the Mask and Vig Chautauque and the Drama Guild presents a number of plays in the Houston Hall Auditorium.

Ninety - Three Make
College Dean's List

Dr. Otto Stromp, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, recently announced the names of the students who attended Dean's List last year.

The complete Dean's List, a student must stand in the upper fifteen percent of the college on the University. The list is compiled by the College of Liberal Arts.

The names are:

Class of '67:

Westby B. Zimmern
Marshall A. Shelby
John J. Siegel
Robert E. Vogan
John M. Luedke
Charles F. Eichman
Paul L. Goodwin
Robert L. Baker
John W. Nallinger
Mark H. Hirsch
James E. Hulme
Alan J. Hirsch

Class of '68:

Richard S. Antenucci
Michael B. Baynard
William S. Barry
Edward J. Braley
Charles B. Bulkley
Timothy M. Cane
Michael W. Chemers
Brian A. Coleman
George E. Coleman
Paul N. Connolly

Lerner's Speech Begins
Mass Media Forum

Max Lerner, noted author, columnist, and journalist, spoke at the Annual Mass Media Colloquium Wednesday afternoon. with a speech entitled "Mass Media and the Influence of the Media's Symbol Game." In his speech, Lerner stressed his belief that the media is the primary source of American political opinion and that it is necessary that the media be made aware of the nature of the system and its responsibilities.

According to Lerner, the media's role in the political world is to provide a stage on which the creative thinker can "wield" his influence to which the media can find himself a meaningful audience. However, Lerner declared, the media is "not a system," and is not doing the best they can with their materials.

New Elite

The corporate managers and creative men in mass media, in Lerner's opinion, the "new elite" of our nation which has always been a middle class democracy.

The opinions and beliefs of the people, Lerner declared, is a problem which needs being solved.

"The new elite" is doing little to elevate the taste of the nation, that fact is doing a good deal to condemn them, he added, and no afraid of opinion that they should control the system entirely.

"The people are in Lerner's opinion, is the new elite, in our nation which is the old controversial issue."

"But the taste of the nation, that in the system, is intended for the study of Social Science; the Wharton Dormitories presumably for living.

STEVE ARONS

Last year, President Farnsworth appointed a subcommittee of the Faculty Senate Committee to study the honor system. The proposal was ultimately approved, emerging as a trial system - an experiment that would itself determine the feasibility of the honor system at Pennsylvania. The facilities of all six honor boards have approved the proposal for an honor system run on a voluntary basis.

INevy Individual Decision of Student

Is for State, new solution, whether they choose to work under an honor system. A three-fifths majority, or higher figure if the professor so desires, is required to put the trial system into effect. If it is passed, the professor will report on final examinations, and students will be responsible for their own conduct and that of other members of the class.

A hope that he appears for the college, Lerner stated, is to be a committee that students choose to work under an honor system. A three-fifths majority, or higher figure if the professor so desires, is required to put the trial system into effect. If it is passed, the professor will report on final examinations, and students will be responsible for their own conduct and that of other members of the class.

Last Thought: Whose fingerprints are these?"
Foreign Affairs

YUGOSLAVIA LINKS WITH COMECON

BEGRADE - Yugoslavia Thursday established links with COMECON, the Communist bloc's equivalent of the West European Common Market.

It was the closest formal tie between independent-Communist Yugoslavia and the Red bloc since Stalin ousted President Tito from the now-dissolved Cominform in 1948.

Although the U.S. Congress stripped Yugoslavia of most-favored-nation status early this year, the Belgrade government has made steady progress at improving trade relations with Western countries.

A trade pact signed with West-Germany in May recognized Belgrade's responsibility for the State of West Berlin - a claim the East-Berliners, COMECON members, have rejected.

A government communique said Yugoslavia will not have full membership in the massive trading group.

An agreement was a new breakthrough in the improvement of relations between Belgrade and Moscow - first chilled by Tito's 1948 split with the Kremlin, later the executions of Stalinists.

National News

SOCIAL SECURITY EXEMPTION FOR AMISH

WASHINGTON - Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., appealed to other House members Thursday to support a bill to exempt the Amish from the social security system for the Old Order Amish.

He asked his colleagues to indicate their support for the provision to exempt any Amish who meet the requirements set up in the original social security bill.

The Senate is scheduled to consider an amendment to exempt the Old Order Amish, among other groups, from the social security bill.

Members $3.00
Non-Members $4.00

Make reservations now at the Hillel Office.

SOUTH URBAN COMPROMISE MEDICARE BILL

WASHINGTON - Eugene J. Reynolds, D-Pa., urged Democratic members of a House-Senate conference committee Thursday to accept a Senate-passed program of health care for the aged or "an outstanding series of free exhibitions/concerts and programs during the 1964-1965 season.

OPENING TONIGHT:
The Catacombs.

Folksing Poetry Drama Art

Coffeehouse for the University Community

Folksing Tonight at 9:30 and 11
CHUCK MARTIN
FEELING SICK
Rx: Bitter Pills
Arthur M. Sharprio

American medicine, much of the AMA, is the story of the history of the nation's soul. If you think they're right. In technical skill, perhaps. Otherwise, though...

After all, medicine is a business that would be absurd to question at all.

The genius of the American political system is what makes it different from and around their respective centers. The choice arrived at through compromise and moderation, a principle of courage and of deep conviction. Senator Goldwater, a reader of the nation of two political parties, one extreme to the other, either a totally liberal or conservative party is outnumbered and outweighs its attendant virtue. For the danger of such a sharp and acute division between the parties of two distinct political units, one entirely liberal, the other entirely conservative,本案不成立

"Segregate or Bush"

Ralph L. Polkina

"You'll Be Glad To Know That We Preserved His Complete Initiative To The Very End."

FEUD CHICKEN AND DUMPLINGS

Segregate or Bush

Lisa F. Patlin

"The Thirteenth Amendment, of course, is a necessary part of the Constitution. The amendment to the Constitution, to which I refer, is the 24th Amendment."

Senator Goldwater's stand on integration makes him a hero to those who believe in the""Goldwater Republican Party" for the running in the same election. Meanwhile, campaigning in South Carolina, called South Carolina's Senator Strom Thurmond has had his say on integration matters, saying that "the two political parties "in this century have drifted apart and destroyed the two-party system."

The vice president's position is not so popular as it used to be. Lester's remarks were made during the Senate's debate on the ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment. He said he was opposed to the amendment and said it would undermine the rights of women.

"The Thirteenth Amendment, of course, is a necessary part of the Constitution. The amendment to the Constitution, to which I refer, is the 24th Amendment."

Senator Goldwater's stand on integration makes him a hero to those who believe in the""Goldwater Republican Party" for the running in the same election. Meanwhile, campaigning in South Carolina, called South Carolina's Senator Strom Thurmond has had his say on integration matters, saying that "the two political parties "in this century have drifted apart and destroyed the two-party system."

The vice president's position is not so popular as it used to be. Lester's remarks were made during the Senate's debate on the ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment. He said he was opposed to the amendment and said it would undermine the rights of women.

"The Thirteenth Amendment, of course, is a necessary part of the Constitution. The amendment to the Constitution, to which I refer, is the 24th Amendment."

Senator Goldwater's stand on integration makes him a hero to those who believe in the""Goldwater Republican Party" for the running in the same election. Meanwhile, campaigning in South Carolina, called South Carolina's Senator Strom Thurmond has had his say on integration matters, saying that "the two political parties "in this century have drifted apart and destroyed the two-party system."

The vice president's position is not so popular as it used to be. Lester's remarks were made during the Senate's debate on the ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment. He said he was opposed to the amendment and said it would undermine the rights of women.

"The Thirteenth Amendment, of course, is a necessary part of the Constitution. The amendment to the Constitution, to which I refer, is the 24th Amendment."

Senator Goldwater's stand on integration makes him a hero to those who believe in the""Goldwater Republican Party" for the running in the same election. Meanwhile, campaigning in South Carolina, called South Carolina's Senator Strom Thurmond has had his say on integration matters, saying that "the two political parties "in this century have drifted apart and destroyed the two-party system."

The vice president's position is not so popular as it used to be. Lester's remarks were made during the Senate's debate on the ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment. He said he was opposed to the amendment and said it would undermine the rights of women.

"The Thirteenth Amendment, of course, is a necessary part of the Constitution. The amendment to the Constitution, to which I refer, is the 24th Amendment."

Senator Goldwater's stand on integration makes him a hero to those who believe in the""Goldwater Republican Party" for the running in the same election. Meanwhile, campaigning in South Carolina, called South Carolina's Senator Strom Thurmond has had his say on integration matters, saying that "the two political parties "in this century have drifted apart and destroyed the two-party system."

The vice president's position is not so popular as it used to be. Lester's remarks were made during the Senate's debate on the ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment. He said he was opposed to the amendment and said it would undermine the rights of women.

"The Thirteenth Amendment, of course, is a necessary part of the Constitution. The amendment to the Constitution, to which I refer, is the 24th Amendment."

Senator Goldwater's stand on integration makes him a hero to those who believe in the""Goldwater Republican Party" for the running in the same election. Meanwhile, campaigning in South Carolina, called South Carolina's Senator Strom Thurmond has had his say on integration matters, saying that "the two political parties "in this century have drifted apart and destroyed the two-party system."

The vice president's position is not so popular as it used to be. Lester's remarks were made during the Senate's debate on the ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment. He said he was opposed to the amendment and said it would undermine the rights of women.
Supper Rush Permitted: As I-F Liberalizes Rules

For the first time, up to five freshmen may be invited to dinner at a fraternity house for one evening in each of the seven two-week periods of the informal rush program.

Announcement of this change in Inter-Fraternity Council rush regulations was made by Roger Chesley, I-F vice-president for rushing, after Wednesday night's meeting. Previously, freshmen were allowed in fraternities only during Sunday open houses and registered smokers.

Chesley also scheduled fraternity orientation night for Thursday.

Barnet Meltzer, Inter-Fraternity President announced the appointment of committee chairmen as follows:

- Chairman, Martin Winer, Judicial
- Secretary, Ronald Paulson, North Hall
- Treasurer, Robert MacKeever, North East
- Executive Vice-President, Richard Engles, Vassar House
- Executive Secretary, Joel Weide, Hamilton

Too Many Women Make Orientation Difficult

The 400 women of the Class of 1968 have presented numerous problems to the Orientation program, Chairman Beth Miles announced this week.

Because of the increased enrollment, more Orientation sections have had to be organized and communication has been a continuing problem. The early start during activities Week had, however, offset the intrusion of the program on the academic schedules of the participants.

Seventeen sections of 30 girls each will participate in a tour of Van Pelt Library during their regular meeting times next week. Tours of metropolitan Philadelphia were conducted on Saturday, Sept. 12.

Fred Ward
CHESTNUT PAPERBACKS

BACK TO CLASSES...

Prepared for every course with...

BARNES & NOBLE
College Outline Series

famous educational paperbacks perfect for learning and reviewing. Over 100 titles on the following subjects:

ANTHROPOLOGY  LANGUAGES
ART  LITERATURE
BUSINESS  MATHEMATICS
DRAMA  MUSIC
ECONOMICS  PHILOSOPHY
EDUCATION  PSYCHOLOGY
ENGINEERING  SCIENCE
ENGLISH  SPEECH
GOVERNMENT  STUDY AIDS
HISTORY

KEYED TO YOUR TEXTS

Bring in this advertisement for a FREE GIFT

One Of The Largest Display Of

PAPERBACKS

1511 Chestnut St.

LO3-4077
"Break a leg" is an actor's term for good luck. And we certainly wish the Penn Players' experimental theater good luck.

"Zoo Story" and Eugene Ionesco's "The Bald Soprano" is the first time that a small dramatic workshop with emphasis on small casts, student acting, directing, and production has sprung up on campus. In the future the group plans to do original dramas and "plays from every age."

Shown on this page are scenes from the Albee and Ionesco plays. The curtain goes up at 8:15 in Houston Hall and there is no admission.

The "Zoo Story" is directed by Jeffry Mildred and Jon Sargent and Merritt Kughn do the acting. Elizabeth Garvey, Linda Collesimo, Andrea Corwin, Carol Redd, D. R. Squier, and Barbara Bingham star in Bobly Billingsby's production of "The Bald Soprano."

It is a fine idea when a group of students decide to form an acting group of this type. It is a fine idea and it should be well received by the students.
PHILADELPHIA - A 22-year-old secretary was held on $5,000 bail Thursday as the woman who, police say, stood on top of an overturned refrigerator in last month's North Philadelphia riots and told a crowd it was big enough to hold all the "coons."

The defendant, a Negro, is Miss Florence Mobley, who is under investigation from her job at a social service agency. She was held for grand jury action by Judge Vincent A. Carroll. She was the third person so held in the aftermath of the violence and looting, during the last weekend of August, which resulted in property damage and resulted in injury to more than 50 police and at least 100 civilians.

"(held by Judge Carroll on Tuesday were Alysianya Hayes, 20, who uses the Muslim name of Shabek Muhammad, and Raymond Hall, 25, otherwise known as Yusef Abdullah. The charges against all three are rioting, looting riot, criminal destruction of property and conspiracy.

Albert Harris, a highway worker, testified that he saw Miss Mobley on top of the refrigerator, exhorting the crowd to desist and desist and desist and desist. "We don't need the NAACP, we don't need civil rights." There are enough of you out here, kill all the "coons."

HILL-LEJ BANDWAGON BEGINS

Washington - Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., and Col John B. Rice, former ambassador to the Netherlands, will serve as co-chairmen of Volunteers for Johnson-Humphrey-Blatt was announced Thursday.

Chairman John M. Bailey, the Democratic National Chairman, and Odus Moore, Pennsylvania State Democratic chairman, made the announcement. "We're confident that the spirit of unity and cooperation of Volunteers for Johnson-Humphrey-Blatt will effectively assist in the mobilization of voters who will work for a greater victory in November for President Johnson, "vice presidential candidate Robert H. Sargent, and Senate candidate Genevieve Blatt."
Scott Presses Team Toward Soccer Title

Coach Charles Scott has been working the varsity soccer team extra hard to get the booters into top shape for the coming season which opens Saturday, September 26 against Drexel. Scott demands to make any sort of a prediction concerning the Ivy title. He pointed out that any one of the eight teams could end up on top, and Penn has a very good chance, barring injuries to key players.

When asked who would be Penn's toughest "competition," Scott replied, "Drexel will be tough, but Harvard, Brown, and Princeton will probably be the toughest.""