Men of omega look to big year

By DEBORI JAMEON

in April, Phi Beta Kappa, brother Frank, a University graduate student, and his draft card to the justice department. In October, 1967, Philip Pochoda, sociology instructor, re- turned his draft card. Both are now convicts and are now serving time in prison.

The men of omega have always held that the omega chapter of Phi Beta Kappa is an organization that is not operating in the best interests of its members. The men of omega have always been aware of the problems of the campus, and they have always been willing to fight for the omega chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.

No thanks, Mr. Nixon

Poor Richard Nixon. He seems to think that his attempts to capitalize on the disenchantment of youth will pay off. That is not enough to know that Nixon is definitely not the one.

Nixon's equivoating stand when asked about The Daily Pennsylvanian's battle with the FBI is indicative of the 1968 version of the Old Nix. He managed to leave some people believing that he supported this newspaper's position via a Fbi that would not commit himself. Not that it really matters because we know that once Nixon is President Nixon he will have no use for all these commies who are reforming The Nation is suffering a crisis of the nation. That Nixon cares for our idealism, our New... our nation is suffering a crisis of the nation. That Nixon cares for our idealism, our New...

Bob Warren will see action at flanker. Leading receiver Scrimmage canceled, because of a knee injury, and sophs Bill O'Donnell and back Steve Wormith, the team's leading ground gainer all another grid setback. On defense the team renewed its play, including pass pressure and tackling the ball. For O'Donnell and Wormith, the most valuable players in 1966, the year was expected to be even better.
