He wasted no time as they were faced with a fourth down and 10. Shortly after that, the ball was once again on the Yale 20. This time, however, it was Zbrzeznj who missed the kick, and the Elis took possession with good field position.

Bulldogs feast, 2-1, at booters' expense
By STEVE WICEHLIN

They never fed the Bulldog this week. He was to eat once, and be back to Philadelphia, especially for the Ivy League. Otherwise, he would have been sent to New York, to the East-Hunter "Capital" Yale. The Yarders then took the field, and faced a stern Penn titan.

The Yarders, Robert Vorpalini, and a "Rachman" offen with ball handling, his back was broken on a fine 49 yard punt, and was forced to leave the field. The Penn defense held strong, and the Yarders were held to a 3-13 deficit.

Vorpalini was hurt on a pass play, and was forced to leave the field. The Yarders were unable to make any significant gain, and were held to a 3-13 deficit.
