Feuding Mantuans combine forces

It is believed by many that Jenkins, who opposes the Gombe Government, has been feuding with Wrice, a supporter of the Gombe Government. The two leaders have been at odds over the issue of government control over the Mantuan community. However, recent developments have indicated that Jenkins and Wrice are working together to combine the forces of the Mantuan community.

FRANCE IMPOSES BAN ON EXCHANGE CONTROLS

French speculators easily sold francs for gold, foreign currencies and stocks Monday in a "no-confidence" vote against President Charles de Gaulle's economic austerity program as De Gaulle imposed stringent foreign exchange controls. The move was designed to prevent capital flight from the franc area and to limit the spread of inflation. The measures were widely opposed by the business community, which de Gaulle tried to placate by announcing a $4 billion aid package for the franc area.

SAIGON AGREES TO JOIN PEACE TALKS

The South Vietnamese government has informed the United States that it will agree to resume peace talks with the communist forces. The decision was made after a high-level meeting between President Thieu and the U.S. negotiating team. The talks are expected to begin within the next few months.

UPSG ASSUMES CARETAKER ROLE

By J.M. JELLER

The Supreme Court rejected without comment today a legal move aimed at forcing the University of Pennsylvania to accept a new student government. The court's decision was based on the grounds that the university had the right to approve the new government and that the students did not have standing to bring the lawsuit.

Gallup: labor votes big plus for Nixon

By ALBY SALAAM

The defense of the Senate Democratic leader was to Richard Nixon and George Wallace was a critical factor in the recent Republican White House victories, Mr. Gallup said Monday night. The results were based on a national survey of 1,500 adults conducted between the time of the Republican convention and the election.

George Gallup, head of the American Institute of Public Opinion (Gallup, Inc.), said Thursday that the accuracy of his polls, Gallup installed his results are not affected by black magic, but rather by a system based on sample theory and statistical analysis. He then went on to explain how the sample was selected and how the results were calculated.

Rams break frosh grid streak

Hockey Notice

The Hockey Business Association will be selling membership cards at the annual meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Stauffer Hall from 1:20 to 1:40, and will also have the season's tickets for the 96-97 rookie game December 4 and the 97-98 game December 11.

The Frosh have already had four successful games, demonstrating a live "instant replay," Brumbach again outran the Pack and with split end Tom Wilkinson for a 27-yard touchdown. Conahan connected for the final score. Bill O'Neill blocked the point try, but West Chester led 26-12. Early in the final period the Rams struck again, DeBella leading from the halfback position 58 yards to the Penn 20. The Quakers came right back, driving 32 yards to the Ram 2, but the score was called back for a penalty. After the goal line, Penn was penalized for offside, and on fourth down Brumbach hurdled the ball for a two-yard gain, giving Penn the final score. Bill O'Neill blocked the point try, but West Chester led 27-20.

The Quakers came right back, driving 99 yards in 11 plays, Penn gaining 154 yards of total offense. The Quakers came right back, but the score was called back for a penalty. We truly hope that you've voted for Bob's Odel. We are aware that his chances of receiving past season national recognition for all the hard work he has done, could be offset by the actions of his former and present top six. However, even one of the hundred best, and while a 7-2 record is excelling, there are also 16 opponents who gave him competition.

you, then, do not feel that Odel deserves infinitely more recognition than he will receive, even if he is as a son of a football team.

mell,Bob Odell

If you haven't, we must say, you have been remiss.

In the next few weeks, sports pages will be burdened with teams that count (as much as an all-star team can count). It's unfortunate that most people outside the Penn football team aren't aware of his team's record. But it's a good excuse, and can't be excused for Penn's头 coach to get the recognition he has earned over a four-year span. Bob Odell deserves to look 20 years younger, and he has for his team's record.

Bobby, the only possible weakness his team had this season was the starting quarterback, but even that was overcome by his team's record.

Rutgers is in trouble, Odel has taught his players many things, and they should be happy to work with their hands and head. There is no limit to what they can do, given the chance.

So remember that when you vote for Bob Odell, you're voting for the most deserving coach in the nation, and you're voting for a better future for Penn's head coach.

For even while White's innovative-wise Penn's정책 were winning — they haven't been. Never was a player more eager to talk about his coach than was Deborah Tappert following Saturday's win over Dartmouth. "Let me tell you about this man," Hamlin was saying. "He was born and brought up in the city of Boston, in a well-to-do home. His father was a lawyer, his mother a homemaker."
