The College would then recommend discussion, as well as to approve 22 day to postpone a decision on the open status. He explained at that time major proposal pending further dis-ilmatical Film as Social and Intel-

later time, we may be forced to change endorsement of future actions on

UNCeCoS commission calls off

presidential election

By BOB HOFFMAN

Reversing a decision it made just two weeks ago, the student government's Executive Affairs Com-mision (EAC) last night rescinded its call for elections for student representatives to the presidential selection committee.

The 30 students present at the meeting yesterday were directed to sign a petition drive supporting Richard Ohmann, chairman of the political science department, as a candidate for the presidency,

"We wanted to make it clear that the students on the committee would consider a discussion of specific conditions, which is being looked under consideration for presidency by the search committee.

Col. John G. Howard, of the University's Army

By PHILLY KANIS

Realizing in the past month and half a pattern, please pick out below unco-vering knitted caps and above necks wrapped in thick woolen outside yesterday as the heat went off inside and placed two millenniums and the ski slopes. Their destination, how-

The heating system of the women's halls was put out of commission
the last system of an ex-

Miss Driver reported that many students mistakenly thought that the lottery; many Congressmen are seeking to abolish all student civil disobedience.

The Office of Student Financial Aid said that if a student gives up his ROTC program and that other students with low numbers asked how to

"We wanted to make it clear that the
students on the committee would taken to the voting booth and asked whether they were allowed to vote.

"I saw 40 men, many more that dish on a normal day, she said.

Most students reported that they would not be interested in the presidential selection process.

"The only reason I'm in it is to address the issue of the kids who are forced to go to war," said one student.
"I'm only in it to get out of ROTC and have a real job."
Senate will vote on amendments to raise income tax exemption today

By United Press International

WASHINGTON -- Senate Republicans and Democrats offered competing proposals yesterday to cut income taxes, but the Senate leader of Hugh Thompson said today that the Republicans were "too early and too generous" in their amendment to the Gore proposal. Thompson said that a $1,000 exemption would cost $14.8 billion to the government in 1973, and $700 in 1972 and $800 in 1973.

The administration argued that the current rates of between 14 and 70 percent under the proposed tax reform and jeopardized federal operations. The administration also said that the personal exemption for taxpayers who do not itemize their tax returns would cut tax reform and jeopardize federal operations.

President Nixon told the Senate leaders he was certain that an $800 exemption would be "too early and too generous." Nixon's letter to Congress was certain despite Nixon's letter to Congress being signed by the Nixon administration.

But the court turned down the petition. In 1979, the administration argued that the alleged massacre of Vietnamese civilians was a lie. The administration also said that the personal exemption for taxpayers who do not itemize their tax returns would cut tax reform and jeopardized federal operations.

By United Press International

WASHINGTON -- Senate Republicans and Democrats offered competing proposals yesterday to cut income taxes, but the Senate leader of Hugh Thompson said today that the Republicans were "too early and too generous" in their amendment to the Gore proposal. Thompson said that a $1,000 exemption would cost $14.8 billion to the government in 1973, and $700 in 1972 and $800 in 1973.

The administration argued that the current rates of between 14 and 70 percent under the proposed tax reform and jeopardized federal operations. The administration also said that the personal exemption for taxpayers who do not itemize their tax returns would cut tax reform and jeopardized federal operations.

President Nixon told the Senate leaders he was certain that an $800 exemption would be "too early and too generous." Nixon's letter to Congress was certain despite Nixon's letter to Congress being signed by the Nixon administration.

But the court turned down the petition. In 1979, the administration argued that the alleged massacre of Vietnamese civilians was a lie. The administration also said that the personal exemption for taxpayers who do not itemize their tax returns would cut tax reform and jeopardized federal operations.

By United Press International

WASHINGTON -- Senate Republicans and Democrats offered competing proposals yesterday to cut income taxes, but the Senate leader of Hugh Thompson said today that the Republicans were "too early and too generous" in their amendment to the Gore proposal. Thompson said that a $1,000 exemption would cost $14.8 billion to the government in 1973, and $700 in 1972 and $800 in 1973.

The administration argued that the current rates of between 14 and 70 percent under the proposed tax reform and jeopardized federal operations. The administration also said that the personal exemption for taxpayers who do not itemize their tax returns would cut tax reform and jeopardized federal operations.

President Nixon told the Senate leaders he was certain that an $800 exemption would be "too early and too generous." Nixon's letter to Congress was certain despite Nixon's letter to Congress being signed by the Nixon administration.

But the court turned down the petition. In 1979, the administration argued that the alleged massacre of Vietnamese civilians was a lie. The administration also said that the personal exemption for taxpayers who do not itemize their tax returns would cut tax reform and jeopardized federal operations.

By United Press International

WASHINGTON -- Senate Republicans and Democrats offered competing proposals yesterday to cut income taxes, but the Senate leader of Hugh Thompson said today that the Republicans were "too early and too generous" in their amendment to the Gore proposal. Thompson said that a $1,000 exemption would cost $14.8 billion to the government in 1973, and $700 in 1972 and $800 in 1973.

The administration argued that the current rates of between 14 and 70 percent under the proposed tax reform and jeopardized federal operations. The administration also said that the personal exemption for taxpayers who do not itemize their tax returns would cut tax reform and jeopardized federal operations.

President Nixon told the Senate leaders he was certain that an $800 exemption would be "too early and too generous." Nixon's letter to Congress was certain despite Nixon's letter to Congress being signed by the Nixon administration.

But the court turned down the petition. In 1979, the administration argued that the alleged massacre of Vietnamese civilians was a lie. The administration also said that the personal exemption for taxpayers who do not itemize their tax returns would cut tax reform and jeopardized federal operations.

By United Press International

WASHINGTON -- Senate Republicans and Democrats offered competing proposals yesterday to cut income taxes, but the Senate leader of Hugh Thompson said today that the Republicans were "too early and too generous" in their amendment to the Gore proposal. Thompson said that a $1,000 exemption would cost $14.8 billion to the government in 1973, and $700 in 1972 and $800 in 1973.

The administration argued that the current rates of between 14 and 70 percent under the proposed tax reform and jeopardized federal operations. The administration also said that the personal exemption for taxpayers who do not itemize their tax returns would cut tax reform and jeopardized federal operations.

President Nixon told the Senate leaders he was certain that an $800 exemption would be "too early and too generous." Nixon's letter to Congress was certain despite Nixon's letter to Congress being signed by the Nixon administration.

But the court turned down the petition. In 1979, the administration argued that the alleged massacre of Vietnamese civilians was a lie. The administration also said that the personal exemption for taxpayers who do not itemize their tax returns would cut tax reform and jeopardized federal operations.

By United Press International

WASHINGTON -- Senate Republicans and Democrats offered competing proposals yesterday to cut income taxes, but the Senate leader of Hugh Thompson said today that the Republicans were "too early and too generous" in their amendment to the Gore proposal. Thompson said that a $1,000 exemption would cost $14.8 billion to the government in 1973, and $700 in 1972 and $800 in 1973.

The administration argued that the current rates of between 14 and 70 percent under the proposed tax reform and jeopardized federal operations. The administration also said that the personal exemption for taxpayers who do not itemize their tax returns would cut tax reform and jeopardized federal operations.

President Nixon told the Senate leaders he was certain that an $800 exemption would be "too early and too generous." Nixon's letter to Congress was certain despite Nixon's letter to Congress being signed by the Nixon administration.

But the court turned down the petition. In 1979, the administration argued that the alleged massacre of Vietnamese civilians was a lie. The administration also said that the personal exemption for taxpayers who do not itemize their tax returns would cut tax reform and jeopardized federal operations.
U. participates in four-way course exchange program

By JACK GORMAN and
ANITA TAWA

A reciprocal agreement between the University, Swarthmore, Bryn Mawr, Haverford, and Franklin & Marshall Colleges permits students to take advantage of courses not offered in their own schools.

The procedure for participating in the cooperative program is fairly simple. Students merely have to obtain a letter of permission from the College of General Studies, Dr. Arleigh P. Hess, explaining that such students generally have sufficient academic credentials to obtain permission.

Since Temple is not a participant in the reciprocal program, any students wishing to duplicate a major at Temple will be required to get a statement of approval from Dr. Hess to this effect. Hess also explained that such students generally have sufficient academic credentials to obtain permission.

Students coming from schools not involved in the agreement must submit a review by the University. The University of Pennsylvania, Swarthmore, and Bryn Mawr have sufficient academic credentials.

Miss Laughton is not subject to a reciprocal program since she is enrolled in what is not at the University but at Swarthmore. She is permitted to take a foreign language and a business course under a reciprocal agreement.

Ten Days to Remember Israel Winter Institute

TEN DAY EXPLORATION ISRAEL
DEPART DECEMBER 22, 1969
RETURN JANUARY 5, 1969
TOTAL COST—$475 ALL-INCLUSIVE
A STUDENT VIEW OF ISRAEL
FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:
AMERICAN HABONIM ASSOCIATION
200 PARK AVE., SUITE 1309
NEW YORK, N. Y. 10003

Students Part Time Work

For Students, we make concessions $12 Single — $18 Double
The Biltmore is New York City's largest and most exclusive theater. And they play a lot of old classics, simply oblivious to a new-  age gaiety scene. So relax—be bold and come to the Biltmore...it's in the Best Full, on the East Side, where the action is.

We try to use the New York hotels. Then you are at the Biltmore, baby...the only hotel that makes concessions without any experiences.

For reservations:
In Continental U.S. please call 800-221-2690
In New York State call toll free 800-522-6449
In New York City please call 512-2357

Other Reservations
New York City
In Continental U.S. please call 800-221-2690
In New York State 800-522-6449
In New York City please call 512-2357

For the Continental U.S., please call 800-221-2690 or 800-522-6449.

The New Biltmore

The Commodore

For more information on the Biltmore, call Mr. Morris at 4-6061.

CAMPUS PERFORMANCE SOCIETY presents
JOYCE WILSON, SOPRANO
AND
GLEN SICKENBERG, PIANO

THE ROOSEVELT

WED., DEC. 3 5:40 P.M.

Christian Assoc. Auditorium

For Students, we make concessions

The Fixer

Ongoing

F-O-R-T-U-N-E

IMMEDIATE APPOINTMENT IN NOW

INTERNSHIPS

INTERNSHIPS

M-F. 9-5, MON.-THUR.

F-O-R-T-U-N-E

PERSONNEL AGENCY

For Career Opportunities

Positions Are Too Paid—No Obligation to You

Penn Players offers 3-part theater bill

The productions offered will be the Thanksgiving Tournament and "The Sea Gull." Shakespeare's tragedy scene from "The Merchant of Venice" and "The Taming" by Rowland Jones, each with its own cast and director.

Dave Shookoff, artistic director of Penn Players and the reason close to concentrate on a small part rather than to try to extend a whole play in these three works. He also made the actors aware that for threeSpeeches and presentation of the lorong for the 1969-70 season.

The three productions will run from Wednesday, Dec. 3 to Sunday, Dec. 7 at 8 P.M., with a marine Sunday at 2 P.M.

Penn Players opens tonight in its annual winter theater bill, offering for the first time parts of plays rather than a total production.

Review Committee

The Constitutional Review Committee of the University of Pennsylvania will hold its first organizational meeting tonight in College Hall at 7:30 to select students for the three available as do previous constitution committees for the University. The committee, which is being published in the Daily Pennsylvanian, will be composed of undergraduates and graduate students chosen by the committee and the role of committees.

A spokesman from the Constitution Committee said yesterday that the report is expected from the review committee in late February.
An invitation

The Daily Pennsylvania

The Fishman affair

by novellia Williams

The Fishman affair

The West Philadelphia community is currently unique, in terms of the seriousness of the decision by the teachers of the CFP (Center for Faculty Participation) to present their concerns to the University at their own institution, George Fishman, and through this decision to express charges against the University administration.

The teachers have followed the course of action as fishmen. It is imperative in this pause, however, for us to explain, that we are not expunging this action, but that something is definitively not acceptable on the one hand, the University influence, which has been responsible for the actions of the community. The teachers in this action have the right to offer any other supporting students. We have not yet reached an impasse to set up a representative group, lest the barrier ineffectively falls on our backs. This is not, and will not be the same as the issue of the opposition to the war. What the mechanics in this action are more like the_ANARCHISTS. I despise its purpose, because of illegibility and constructibility, and slow side majorities into over taking a being. These same minorities have the goal to try to the University in a democratic-controlled manner. This is the pathologists in this system and its controls, in every emergent, more responsible leadership will have ever through the choices, for they are to the students their own importance. I would like to suggest to Mr. Fishman, that in his present tone, there is no possibility of changing Nothing in this community to accept a union, or protest for it, but the rising young people at the University in its efforts to assist them in the future, through this meeting, the Board of Faculty Participation of the University in its efforts to assist the students, teachers, administrators, and students, during the current period in the community. The Fishman affair is uncommonly quiet, in face of the seriousness of the decision by George Fishman, and through this decision to express charges.

The Fishman affair is uncommonly quiet, in face of the seriousness of the decision by George Fishman, and through this decision to express charges against the University administration.

The Fishman affair is uncommonly quiet, in face of the seriousness of the decision by George Fishman, and through this decision to express charges against the University administration.

The Fishman affair is uncommonly quiet, in face of the seriousness of the decision by George Fishman, and through this decision to express charges against the University administration.

The Fishman affair is uncommonly quiet, in face of the seriousness of the decision by George Fishman, and through this decision to express charges against the University administration.
Adding the Right to know to the Bill of Rights

evron d. thornton

Well, maybe we, is tons of hard work too. It's a good idea to take a little time out and get into a little bit of a hobby...but there are things that need to be done. Like the work of the Congress. But we're not going to get this done if we don't get it done. And the only way we're going to get it done is if we all work together. So, let's get to it.

By Edward D. Thornton

You know what's really wrong around here? It's secrecy. You know, we all have our secrets, and we keep them to ourselves. But there are some secrets that are bigger than all of us put together. They're secrets that affect all of us, not just a few people. And that's why the right to know is so important. It's the right to know what's going on in our lives, in our communities, and in our world. And that's why the Bill of Rights needs to be expanded to include this right.

The right to know could change everything. It could make us more accountable, more transparent, and more democratic. It could help us to make better decisions, to hold our leaders accountable, and to protect our freedoms. And that's why we need to fight for it. So, let's get to it.

The Daily Pennsylvanian

Wednesday, December 1, 1963

Page 5

Adding the Right to know to the Bill of Rights by Edward D. Thornton

You know what's really wrong around here? It's secrecy. You know, we all have our secrets, and we keep them to ourselves. But there are some secrets that are bigger than all of us put together. They're secrets that affect all of us, not just a few people. And that's why the right to know is so important. It's the right to know what's going on in our lives, in our communities, and in our world. And that's why the Bill of Rights needs to be expanded to include this right.

The right to know could change everything. It could make us more accountable, more transparent, and more democratic. It could help us to make better decisions, to hold our leaders accountable, and to protect our freedoms. And that's why we need to fight for it. So, let's get to it.

The Daily Pennsylvanian

Wednesday, December 1, 1963

Page 5

Adding the Right to know to the Bill of Rights by Edward D. Thornton

You know what's really wrong around here? It's secrecy. You know, we all have our secrets, and we keep them to ourselves. But there are some secrets that are bigger than all of us put together. They're secrets that affect all of us, not just a few people. And that's why the right to know is so important. It's the right to know what's going on in our lives, in our communities, and in our world. And that's why the Bill of Rights needs to be expanded to include this right.

The right to know could change everything. It could make us more accountable, more transparent, and more democratic. It could help us to make better decisions, to hold our leaders accountable, and to protect our freedoms. And that's why we need to fight for it. So, let's get to it.

The Daily Pennsylvanian

Wednesday, December 1, 1963

Page 5

Adding the Right to know to the Bill of Rights by Edward D. Thornton

You know what's really wrong around here? It's secrecy. You know, we all have our secrets, and we keep them to ourselves. But there are some secrets that are bigger than all of us put together. They're secrets that affect all of us, not just a few people. And that's why the right to know is so important. It's the right to know what's going on in our lives, in our communities, and in our world. And that's why the Bill of Rights needs to be expanded to include this right.

The right to know could change everything. It could make us more accountable, more transparent, and more democratic. It could help us to make better decisions, to hold our leaders accountable, and to protect our freedoms. And that's why we need to fight for it. So, let's get to it.

The Daily Pennsylvanian

Wednesday, December 1, 1963

Page 5

Adding the Right to know to the Bill of Rights by Edward D. Thornton

You know what's really wrong around here? It's secrecy. You know, we all have our secrets, and we keep them to ourselves. But there are some secrets that are bigger than all of us put together. They're secrets that affect all of us, not just a few people. And that's why the right to know is so important. It's the right to know what's going on in our lives, in our communities, and in our world. And that's why the Bill of Rights needs to be expanded to include this right.

The right to know could change everything. It could make us more accountable, more transparent, and more democratic. It could help us to make better decisions, to hold our leaders accountable, and to protect our freedoms. And that's why we need to fight for it. So, let's get to it.

The Daily Pennsylvanian

Wednesday, December 1, 1963

Page 5

Adding the Right to know to the Bill of Rights by Edward D. Thornton

You know what's really wrong around here? It's secrecy. You know, we all have our secrets, and we keep them to ourselves. But there are some secrets that are bigger than all of us put together. They're secrets that affect all of us, not just a few people. And that's why the right to know is so important. It's the right to know what's going on in our lives, in our communities, and in our world. And that's why the Bill of Rights needs to be expanded to include this right.

The right to know could change everything. It could make us more accountable, more transparent, and more democratic. It could help us to make better decisions, to hold our leaders accountable, and to protect our freedoms. And that's why we need to fight for it. So, let's get to it.

The Daily Pennsylvanian

Wednesday, December 1, 1963

Page 5

Adding the Right to know to the Bill of Rights by Edward D. Thornton

You know what's really wrong around here? It's secrecy. You know, we all have our secrets, and we keep them to ourselves. But there are some secrets that are bigger than all of us put together. They're secrets that affect all of us, not just a few people. And that's why the right to know is so important. It's the right to know what's going on in our lives, in our communities, and in our world. And that's why the Bill of Rights needs to be expanded to include this right.

The right to know could change everything. It could make us more accountable, more transparent, and more democratic. It could help us to make better decisions, to hold our leaders accountable, and to protect our freedoms. And that's why we need to fight for it. So, let's get to it.

The Daily Pennsylvanian

Wednesday, December 1, 1963

Page 5

Adding the Right to know to the Bill of Rights by Edward D. Thornton

You know what's really wrong around here? It's secrecy. You know, we all have our secrets, and we keep them to ourselves. But there are some secrets that are bigger than all of us put together. They're secrets that affect all of us, not just a few people. And that's why the right to know is so important. It's the right to know what's going on in our lives, in our communities, and in our world. And that's why the Bill of Rights needs to be expanded to include this right.

The right to know could change everything. It could make us more accountable, more transparent, and more democratic. It could help us to make better decisions, to hold our leaders accountable, and to protect our freedoms. And that's why we need to fight for it. So, let's get to it.

The Daily Pennsylvanian

Wednesday, December 1, 1963

Page 5

Adding the Right to know to the Bill of Rights by Edward D. Thornton

You know what's really wrong around here? It's secrecy. You know, we all have our secrets, and we keep them to ourselves. But there are some secrets that are bigger than all of us put together. They're secrets that affect all of us, not just a few people. And that's why the right to know is so important. It's the right to know what's going on in our lives, in our communities, and in our world. And that's why the Bill of Rights needs to be expanded to include this right.

The right to know could change everything. It could make us more accountable, more transparent, and more democratic. It could help us to make better decisions, to hold our leaders accountable, and to protect our freedoms. And that's why we need to fight for it. So, let's get to it.

The Daily Pennsylvanian

Wednesday, December 1, 1963

Page 5
Rona Zevin, co-chairman of the Student Committee on Undergraduate Boards, and many students who received the lottery said they were unsure of how the process would affect them. Zevin said that when he taught at a Catholic high school in Hampton Roads, his students would eventually be approved.

Students who received a middle number said they would be forced to go to college and maybe serve in the draft. He said that when he taught at a Catholic high school in Hampton Roads, 1861-1872: A Case Study in the Development of Black Culture and Institutions in Comparative Community Politics and Algeria.

Leopold Sedar Senghor and Yambo French Expression," will be taught by Dr. Gerald Prince, and will survey history, cultures, and a summer Marine Biology Field Course. Additional courses include:

- English 99, "Black Writers of the year."
- History 473: Mr. Robert Engs, Urban Education, 1700-1860, and Control of Life, 1500-1700.
- Spanish 101, "Introduction to Spanish."
- French 89, "Black Writers of the world."

FOR SALE

- 1968 MGII KD. EXCELLENT CONDITION: RAISED 4704 CIVILIZATION:
- DEPT. OF AMERICAN PHYSICS CLUB: Meeting at 7-30 Stitler Hall B-26.
- PHYSICS CLUB: Meeting at 7-30 Stitler Hall B-26.
- HISTORY 473: Mr. Robert Engs, Urban Education, 1700-1860, and Control of Life, 1500-1700.
- SPANISH 101, "INTRODUCTION TO SPANISH."
- FRENCH 89, "BLACK WRITERS OF THE WORLD.""
- LEAPOLE SEDAR SENGHOR AND YAMBO FRENCH EXPRESSION," WILL BE TAUGHT BY DR. GERALD PRINCE, AND WILL SURVEY HISTORY, CULTURES, AND A SUMMER MARINE BIOLOGY FIELD COURSE. ADDITIONAL COURSES INCLUDE:

---

Classifieds

FOR SALE

- FOR FURNISHED 2-BEDROOM APARTMENTS:
- FOR INFORMATION ON A 30-DAY REVOCABLE LAND LEASE CALL 872-7950.
- FOR INFORMATION ON A 60-DAY REVOCABLE LAND LEASE CALL 872-7950.
- FOR SALE: 1968 MGII KD. EXCELLENT CONDITION: RAISED 4704 CIVILIZATION:
- DEPT. OF AMERICAN PHYSICS CLUB: MEETING AT 7-30 STITLER HALL B-26.
- PHYSICS CLUB: MEETING AT 7-30 STITLER HALL B-26.
- HISTORY 473: MR. ROBERT ENGERS, URBAN EDUCATION, 1700-1860, AND CONTROL OF LIFE, 1500-1700.
- SPANISH 101, "INTRODUCTION TO SPANISH."
- FRENCH 89, "BLACK WRITERS OF THE WORLD.""
- LEAPOLE SEDAR SENGHOR AND YAMBO FRENCH EXPRESSION," WILL BE TAUGHT BY DR. GERALD PRINCE, AND WILL SURVEY HISTORY, CULTURES, AND A SUMMER MARINE BIOLOGY FIELD COURSE. ADDITIONAL COURSES INCLUDE:

---

Miscellaneous

FOR SALE

- FOR INFORMATION ON A 30-DAY REVOCABLE LAND LEASE CALL 872-7950.
- FOR INFORMATION ON A 60-DAY REVOCABLE LAND LEASE CALL 872-7950.
- FOR SALE: 1968 MGII KD. EXCELLENT CONDITION: RAISED 4704 CIVILIZATION:
- DEPT. OF AMERICAN PHYSICS CLUB: MEETING AT 7-30 STITLER HALL B-26.
- PHYSICS CLUB: MEETING AT 7-30 STITLER HALL B-26.
- HISTORY 473: MR. ROBERT ENGERS, URBAN EDUCATION, 1700-1860, AND CONTROL OF LIFE, 1500-1700.
- SPANISH 101, "INTRODUCTION TO SPANISH."
- FRENCH 89, "BLACK WRITERS OF THE WORLD.""
- LEAPOLE SEDAR SENGHOR AND YAMBO FRENCH EXPRESSION," WILL BE TAUGHT BY DR. GERALD PRINCE, AND WILL SURVEY HISTORY, CULTURES, AND A SUMMER MARINE BIOLOGY FIELD COURSE. ADDITIONAL COURSES INCLUDE:

---

Classifieds

FOR SALE

- FOR FURNISHED 2-BEDROOM APARTMENTS:
- FOR INFORMATION ON A 30-DAY REVOCABLE LAND LEASE CALL 872-7950.
- FOR INFORMATION ON A 60-DAY REVOCABLE LAND LEASE CALL 872-7950.
- FOR SALE: 1968 MGII KD. EXCELLENT CONDITION: RAISED 4704 CIVILIZATION:
- DEPT. OF AMERICAN PHYSICS CLUB: MEETING AT 7-30 STITLER HALL B-26.
- PHYSICS CLUB: MEETING AT 7-30 STITLER HALL B-26.
- HISTORY 473: MR. ROBERT ENGERS, URBAN EDUCATION, 1700-1860, AND CONTROL OF LIFE, 1500-1700.
- SPANISH 101, "INTRODUCTION TO SPANISH.""
- FRENCH 89, "BLACK WRITERS OF THE WORLD."""
YES, VIRGINIA...
by terry seelinger

THIS CAN GET YOUR HEAD TOGETHER

Lead your own life.
Enjoy it.
Don't let life let you down because of a silly headache. Happiness is as far away as an Anacin bottle. Anacin is twice as strong in the specific pain reliever doctors recommend most as the other well-known extra strength tablet. Anacin may not bend your mind, but it sure will get your head together.

THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA DEPT. OF MUSIC
THURSDAY DECEMBER 4 ST. MARY'S CHURCH
3916 LOCUST ST.
CARMINA BURANA
ORFF
Toy Symphony
L. Mozart-Haydn
Judith Westcott, Soprano
David Rinaldo, Baritone
Guest Artists from Faculty of Music
University of Pennsylvania Choral Society, Orchestra, and Pennsyngers
Leonard Abertson
CONDUCTORS
8:30 P.M. FREE, OPEN TO PUBLIC

RICKY'S ROMAN RESTAURANT
...the in place is...
(9th & Sansom) 123 S. 39th

DON'T MISS THE BOAT!?
RCL present
CLOSELY WATCHED TRAINS
DEC. 4; 7:30, 9:30 P.M.; IRVINE
ADMISSION $1
DISCOUNT 50¢

What will 1970 brides be wearing? The current issue of MODERN BRIDE previews spring fashions and helps you plan every step of the most important day of all. At your newsstand now.

THE
$185
EUROPE

It's the lowest round-trip air fare — and it goes right to the heart of Europe. Daily departures one-way $185. Your travel agent will have the full details. Ask your travel agent about Icelandair's new round-trip air fare to Europe. Icelandair and United Airlines offer a unique 35% discount when you depart from New York and return by May 15. Ask your travel agent for details. Only through

ICELAND AIRLINES
S 630 Fifth Ave. (Rockefeller Center)
NY 10020

THE LOWEST AIR FARES TO EUROPE

if any scheduled airline.
Frosh visit Rutgers tonight

By STEVE LEYENE

Four sophomores and two juniors were in the starting lineup as Jim Fadden, Mark Marks, Tony Kovatch, Rick Perozich and Sara Kleppinger helped Penn to a win in the varsity bowling sectional last week. It marked the first time since 1965 that Penn had previously edged Swarthmore College 9-7 on November 21.

Rutgers’ freshman basketball coach Dick Phillips, who led Loyola (Md.) to the NCAA tournament, was handing the Frosh their first loss since their championship season last year. More importantly, the first-year program’s victory marked the earliest appearance in an NCAA amp securing a berth in the Metro Classic.”

As Washington Post correspondent Robert L. Shine said today, the Frosh can’t afford to be “too tough” in the Big Ten opener. “They must play with a sense of urgency, and they must play with a sense of discretion,” he said.

This week’s contest will be the first meeting of the season between the two schools, and it is a significant one for the Frosh, who are coming off a 7-3 victory over St. John’s last week. The Frosh are currently ranked 23rd in the national polls, and they will be looking for a win to solidify their position in the conference.

In addition to the basketball game, the Frosh will be participating in the annual Student-Athlete Gala, which is held to raise money for student-athlete scholarships. The gala will feature a variety of activities, including a silent auction, live auction, and dinner.

The Frosh are also preparing for the upcoming Big Ten tournament, which starts on February 13. The Frosh have a strong record in the tournament, having reached the finals in three of the last five years. They are looking to continue their success this year.

In conclusion, the Frosh have a tough road ahead of them, but they are determined to compete at a high level. With a strong team and a solid coaching staff, the Frosh are well-positioned to make a run in the Big Ten and beyond.