Biafran independence struggle fails

By United Press International

PORTO NOVO, Dahomey—The head of the Biafran army said its forces are ready to resume offensive campaigns against the Nigerian Army, which has been under attack by Biafran troops.

The Nigerian government's failure to meet its financial obligations to the Biafran government has led to the conclusion that a military attack is necessary to restore the balance of power.

The sources said that the Biafran army is ready to launch an offensive against Lagos, the capital of Nigeria, and to advance towards the border with Cameroon.

The Nigerian government has refused to recognize the Biafran state and has demanded the unconditional surrender of all Biafran forces. The Biafran government has rejected these demands and has called for a ceasefire.

The Biafran forces are currently divided into two main components: the Central Army and the Eastern Army. The Central Army is based in the eastern part of the country and is composed of troops loyal to the Biafran government.

The Eastern Army, on the other hand, is composed of troops loyal to the Nigerian government and is based in the western part of the country.

The Biafran government has announced that it will continue to resist the Nigerian government's attempts to restore control over the region.

In a statement, the Biafran government said: "We will continue to fight until our land is free and our people are free. We will not be intimidated by the Nigerian government's threats and demands."

The Nigerian government has responded by calling for a ceasefire and for the Biafran government to withdraw its forces from the region.

The situation remains tense and there are reports of clashes between the two sides.

Robinson announces rent rate for housing in the superblock

By CLAUDIA COHEN

The University will be providing substandard housing for the superblock, which will close on Monday, October 11.

The decision was made after a review of the housing situation, which showed that the current rate of $840 to $1020 is not sufficient to cover the costs of maintaining the buildings.

"The current rate is not enough to cover the costs of maintaining the buildings," said University President Robinson.

"The University will be providing substandard housing for the superblock in order to ensure that the buildings are properly maintained and that the students have a safe and comfortable living environment.

"The new rate will go into effect on Monday, October 11, and will remain in effect until the buildings are sold.

"I urge all students to make sure that they are aware of the new rate and to make plans to adjust their housing arrangements accordingly."

The recent figures were reached last week, The University's Task and Fees Committee must now approve the figure for it to take effect.

Dedication

On the cover art project approximately $2,500 to construct and set up the 15-foot-high diorama sits a replica of a peace symbol. But as of now only 500 or so have been designed—mainly by students—to pay for the new year. Mr. Russell disclosed.

Although Mr. Russel said he did not know the purpose of the project about "not the boat," he said he was hopeful that students would support the peace symbol financially.

"If formally concerned there will not be a plan at the bottom anxiety" Mr. Russell and the council would be presented for public consideration for the new peace movement of the occupied campus and the site of the peace symbol. Between Van Pelt and Marheit libraries the new peace symbol would be in full sight. The dedication will be either about in the afternoon or early in the evening.

The peace symbol is presently housed in the Fine Arts Building. As it was constructed by faculty and graduate fine arts students, workmen from the Fine Arts Department and students in Mr. Russell's office will have to put the symbol to the ground. The peace symbol (peace symbol or heart) is made of plaster and will be displayed for students and visitors.

Mr. Russell said yesterday that about 20,000 students would be on campus for the dedication. Mr. Russell was also convinced that the suffering of Biafrans was also the war that was one of the most costly and bloodiest wars in the world was that a punitive blood bath.

The war that followed was one of the most bloody and bloodiest wars in the world. The war was the war of the Biafran Republic of Nigeria on May 30, 1967.

Needing a victory last Tuesday against Dartmouth, undefeated this past week, the Penn basketball team upped its record to 11-1 and picked up a few more plaudits along the way.

The laurel to join the ranks of the unseeded were the Big Green's George Hickey and Dave Linfoot. Hickey and the Cornellians staged 86-70 and 71 comments respectively to the Quakers at the Palestra this past weekend, both coaches tipped the Red and Blue as the Ivy's top team this season, and both coaches praised the city's Ivy - and the best in the Ivy - best-known newspaper.
