Trustees approve $200 tuition hike to $2,350

By JONATHAN B. TALWADGE
A $200 tuition increase for all undergraduates, graduate and professional schools, was approved by the university Friday and announced yesterday.

In addition, the board of trustees voted to increase faculty and staff salaries by 5 percent.

The increase, spelled out in a letter to faculty and staff members yesterday, will take effect immediately. The institute's 12,000 faculty and staff members will receive raises ranging from 4 to 7 percent.

The $200 tuition increase, the third in three years were approved by the board of trustees Friday and announced yesterday.

To Dr. Callender, 62, who was named Acting Dean in Callender's place, the president said that the resulting vacancy may now be filled at a higher level with a permanent appointment.

La. judge nominated for supreme court

By ARTHUR EISEN
With the announcement of "interferring with the functions of the university," the University of Pennsylvania, 34, is one of the main candidates for the University's highest judicial post.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

In announcing the Callender selection, the University's Board of Over-sseers said that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immedi-
mediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immedi-
mediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immedi-
mediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immedi-
mediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immedi-
mediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immedi-
mediately.

The announcement, made by the University's Board of Overseers, yesterday, that the president may now be a candidate for re-election, will take effect immedi-
mediately.
Local

OP SALARIES TO BE CONTESTED TONIGHT BY ACTIVITIES COUNCIL

The Activities Council will meet tonight to consider the issue of the Daily Pennsylvanian salaries. A spokesman for the Council said he expects motions from the floor calling for the withdrawal of the salary committee's decision. The Daily Pennsylvanian pays salaries to its senior board of managers out of advertising revenues.

The resolutions, according to the spokesman, must be introduced at least 48 hours before the Council's meeting.

The open meeting will be held in the Law School building at 7:45 P.M.

Thomas Paspon

National

By United Press International

CHICAGO SEVEN TRIAL SHIFTS TO SEVEN-DAY-A-WEEK SCHEDULE

CHICAGO—U.S. District Judge Julius Hoffman yesterday ordered that the trial for seven of the Chicago Seven defendants will become a seven-day-a-week session starting today. Hoffman granted a defense motion to hold Sunday sessions after refusing defense motions to require a two-three-month recess for the trial. Hoffman's only reservation was that juries would be selected to attend religious services in order to avoid religious or racial prejudices. Hoffman made the order in an effort to speed up the trial of seven men charged with conspiracy to incite disorder during the 1968 Democratic convention.

The trial now is in its 30th week and Attorney Leonard L. Weinberg, counsel for defendant Yippie Jerry Rubin, said yesterday that the trial might well be over before the next recess, scheduled for next week. But, Weinberg added, the defendants' attorneys are seeking an indefinite recess.

Nevertheless, Hoffman said, "the trials will be held and will continue." Using the formula "any time, any hour," Kanter said, "they can continue seven days a week, utilizing the religious holidays of Sunday as well as that of Hanukkah." "Let us speed this trial along," Hoffman said.

BRODY ADMITS TO NEWSMEN THAT HE MAY BE A "CON MAN.

NEW YORK—Magazine heir Michael John Brody admitted yesterday in a Vanity Fair article that he might be a "con man" in the way that others have been called con men.

"I've taken 5 million and 450,000," he explained, "I'm a big joke but I keep on going to see if I'm trying to defraud the whole world and if I'm trying to defraud the whole world, then why shouldn't I do it?"

U Thant satisfied with treatment of Biafrans

By United Press International

American officials said yesterday that General U Thant was satisfied that United Nations forces were meeting the Biafrans humanely.

"I am convinced that the present situation is much improved," a Western official said.

Thant told newsmen before flying to Paris to consult with Mr. John F. Kennedy, the President, that he was optimistic about the situation.

"It is not easy," a Biafran official said yesterday, "to try to stop the war for the first time in a country that has been around as long as it has been around..."

Arriving in Paris last night, Thant told officers on his visit to Paris with more optimistic reports.

"My impression is that I have been satisfied that the United Nations has been doing its job and that it has been doing it without the intervention of the world's community," he added.

General Thant said he estimated that the United Nations forces were meeting the Biafrans humanely.

"I am convinced that the present situation is much improved," a Western official said.

THAT FLOWER TO BE EMBOSSED WITH THE DOMINANT IBO TRIBES OF ALL NATIONS

The editorial praised Thant's supervision of the United Nations peacekeeping forces in Africa's troubled region.

"At my stopover in Lagos I have seen more optimistic reports. I have seen how and where it is used, Thant has said. "The military might is right no matter the outcome," he said.

DIRECTOR OF THE GRAPHICS LAB

The open meeting will be held in the Law School building at 7:45 P.M.

Thomas Paspon
In opening minutes of session Senate sets education funds

By United Press International

WASHINGTON - The Van Congressman opened the 89th Congress with someone promoting the idea that there was a minimum of politics in the election year. He introduced the idea that the Senate would meet on September 19 and said that the Senate would work on education legislation. The idea that the Senate

would work on education legislation was not expected to be popular, but many senators were happy with the idea. The President, however, was not.

He urged the Senate to work on tax reform and said that the Senate should be working on foreign policy.

Senator Joe McCarthy

called his Ways and Means Committee a "fitting monument to peace on this campus by members of the University community." At that time, President John F.

Kennedy said that all the students can get them that the papers are missing papers are quite familiar the practice of reclassifying draft students, said the draft might take six years which started last July 1, and next year. Senator Jack

Drew, who said the draft might take six

years which started last July 1, and

next year.

Senator Jack

Drew, who said the draft might take six

years which started last July 1, and

next year.

Senator Jack

Drew, who said the draft might take six

years which started last July 1, and

next year.

Senator Jack

Drew, who said the draft might take six

years which started last July 1, and

next year.

Senator Jack

Drew, who said the draft might take six

years which started last July 1, and

next year.
by dennis wilen

New Voice, old grudges

Editor's note: Dennis W. Wilen, editor of the Daily Pennsylvanian from January 1969, concludes his essay, "New Voice, old grudges," by suggesting that the development of new voices in student publications is an essential part of the educational process. He argues that student publications, such as the Daily Pennsylvanian, should be given the freedom to operate on a business-like basis, as this will enable them to maintain their own accounts and improve their financial independence.

---

Commentary on the Annenberg School

In his commentary, Dennis W. Wilen discusses the Annenberg School's history and its impact on journalism education. He notes that the school has had a long tradition of producing journalists who have gone on to have successful careers in the industry. The school's close ties with the media industry, as well as its emphasis on practical training, have contributed to its reputation for producing well-rounded journalists.

---

Records Unlimited

Records Unlimited is a university book store that offers a wide range of academic, educational, and reference materials. It provides a comprehensive selection of textbooks, reference books, and other materials to meet the needs of students and researchers. Records Unlimited is known for its extensive inventory and competitive pricing, making it a popular destination for students looking to purchase books and other materials.
RALPH activists work [?] for liberation of the University

\section*{Tuesday, January 20, 1970}
\textbf{THE NEW DEPARTMENT OF PROGRAM FOR THIRD QUARTER}

Beginning January 26, the Department of Recreation will offer a number of recreational and competitive activities for students, faculty and administrators at the areas of INSTRUCTIONAL CLASSES, WOMEN'S INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETIC CLUB, MASCULINE RECREATION,

\section*{INSTRUCTIONAL CLASSES}

Students and faculty wishing to learn a new activity or desiring to improve their individual sports techniques will have a number of opportunities during the third quarter, January 26 through March 6. University instructors and varsity coaches will be available during the hours listed. Because in-structional periods will be small, it is requested that you register before January 26, as follows:

\subsection*{Registration -}

Mens and Womens (ice skating) Miss. Jenkins Hutchinson Gymnasium Tu-Th, 1:00-2:00 Miss Seggerman Hutchinson Gymnasium Tu-Th, 11:00-12:00 Brightman Tu-Th, 12:00-1:00 Telephone: 564-3842

\subsection*{Archery -}

Tu-Th, 1:00-2:00 Hutchinson Gymnasium Mr. Csiaszr

\subsection*{Squash -}

Tu-Th, 1:00-2:00 Hutchinson Gymnasium Miss. Vandam

\subsection*{Squash -}

Tu-Th, 1:00-2:00 Miss. Vandam

\subsection*{Swimming -}

For those wishing to learn to swim, including those with some limited experience and aquatic skills, BEGINNING classes are planned. INTERMEDIATE classes are designed for participants who desire to improve swimming habits and techniques for reasons of personal pleasure or health.

\subsection*{Weight Training -}

The scientific approach to physical conditioning in recent years has included aerobics programs. This activity is especially attractive to the person with a specific objective such as weight control.

\subsection*{A.R.C. Water Safety -}

There is a continual need for volunteer lifeguards and water guards. The Hutchinson Pool has an immediate need for volunteer lifeguards and will offer a 10 week course for those wishing to learn to swim, for the beginner or the seasoned swimmer.

\section*{SCIENCE PROGRAMS -}

MandCoeducational; Hutchinson Gymnasium

\subsection*{Club swimming}

There is continual need for volunteer lifeguards and water guards. The Hutchinson Pool has an immediate need for volunteer lifeguards and will offer a 10 week course for those wishing to learn to swim, for the beginner or the seasoned swimmer.

\section*{COEDUCATIONAL DANCE -}

Whether your tastes run to the traditional or to the modern-imaginative, one of the following dance groups will furnish an opportunity for self-expression.

\subsection*{Coeducational Dance -}

Tu-Th, 1:00-2:00 Hutchinson Gymnasium Mr. Csiaszr

\subsection*{Squash -}

Tu-Th, 1:00-2:00 Hutchinson Gymnasium Miss. Vandam

\subsection*{Swimming -}

For those wishing to learn to swim, including those with some limited experience and aquatic skills, BEGINNING classes are planned. INTERMEDIATE classes are designed for participants who desire to improve swimming habits and techniques for reasons of personal pleasure or health.

\subsection*{Weight Training -}

The scientific approach to physical conditioning in recent years has included aerobics programs. This activity is especially attractive to the person with a specific objective such as weight control.

\subsection*{A.R.C. Water Safety -}

There is a continual need for volunteer lifeguards and water guards. The Hutchinson Pool has an immediate need for volunteer lifeguards and will offer a 10 week course for those wishing to learn to swim, for the beginner or the seasoned swimmer.

\section*{SCIENCE PROGRAMS -}

MandCoeducational; Hutchinson Gymnasium

\subsection*{Club swimming}

There is continual need for volunteer lifeguards and water guards. The Hutchinson Pool has an immediate need for volunteer lifeguards and will offer a 10 week course for those wishing to learn to swim, for the beginner or the seasoned swimmer.
more than the scoreboard lights — Super recruiting — Harvard in the race — by bob savett

Squashsqueze by Navy frosh

By ROB REINER

The squashsqueze

Showing great strength in the top flight singles, the frosh team defeated Penn by a score of 5-4, and U Conn by a score of 7-3. Squashsqueze in four and five weeks, and picked up another in the seventh set to complete their 3-0 season.

Chris Southward, playing in the top flight singles, improved his season record to 4-1-0, and is now 3-0-0 for the year. Concentrating on his performance in the top flight, Southward, a junior, has faced Tushar Nair several times in the men's tournament as well.

But South and Steve have both registered 3-0 victories in the third and fourth singles, respectively, while Simpson has won 2 of 3. The Quakers could not find a suitable opponent for Hurley this week, so he played Pisacane, winning both matches. The Quakers are the only undefeated team in the nation.

Aquarius I boutique

ORCITIC CLEARANCE SALE

EVERY GARMENT IN THE STORE. REDUCED 50%

SALE ENDING JAN. 21st

3728 WALNUT STREET

Aquarium I

important activities council meeting

TUESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1970
ROOM 100-LAB

SCHOOL BUILDING

7:45 P.M

JOHN BAER ROUND OUT THE TOP FIVE WITH 18 POINTS.

We Want You

at the University of Maryland

young men of your caliber can meet the matchless athletic and academic challenges presented by the University.

because...

you are outstanding examples of leaders who can successfully meet the matchless athletic and academic challenges presented by the University.

because...

you are outstanding examples of leaders who can successfully meet the matchless athletic and academic challenges presented by the University.

at the University of Maryland

because...

you are outstanding examples of leaders who can successfully meet the matchless athletic and academic challenges presented by the University.

because...

you are outstanding examples of leaders who can successfully meet the matchless athletic and academic challenges presented by the University.

because...

you are outstanding examples of leaders who can successfully meet the matchless athletic and academic challenges presented by the University.

by ROB REINER

The Daily Pennsylvanian

Tuesday, January 20, 1970

more than the scoreboard lights — Super recruiting — Harvard in the race — by bob savett

Lewis, a slender engineering and/or economics student with

So you are free to do what you like. You can take the day off, or psychology major so solidly built that he normally

But the way they use terms

Jim Brown, "During the summer coach Harrison thought we

Assignments awarded for successful completion.

In co-operation with the Austro-American Institute of Education, an un-

The JVs were coming. "There were so many rumors," explains

Not to be outdone, when Maryland entered the recruiting the Michigan graduate. "We try to be honest, telling what Brown, "During the summer coach Harrison thought we

To be continued

Dick Anderson (20) and Rudy Mocko (12) led the JV "B" team, who were 27-1 when I was a sophomore and 26-8 my junior year.

John Baer rounded out the top five with 18 points. The Quakers could not find a suitable opponent for Hurley this week, so he played Pisacane, winning both matches. The Quakers are the only undefeated team in the nation.

The win gave the JVs a 1-0 record against the Ivy League. Hurley had won a 1969-70 upset in last year's M.I.T. Tournament.

The JVs were coming. "There were so many rumors," explains Chris Sadkowski, playing in the top flight singles, improved his season record to 4-1-0, and is now 3-0-0 for the year. Concentrating on his performance in the top flight, Southward, a junior, has faced Tushar Nair several times in the men's tournament as well.

But South and Steve have both registered 3-0 victories in the third and fourth singles, respectively, while Simpson has won 2 of 3. The Quakers could not find a suitable opponent for Hurley this week, so he played Pisacane, winning both matches. The Quakers are the only undefeated team in the nation.

Aquarius I boutique

ORCITIC CLEARANCE SALE

EVERY GARMENT IN THE STORE. REDUCED 50%

SALE ENDING JAN. 21st

3728 WALNUT STREET

Aquarium I

important activities council meeting

TUESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1970
ROOM 100-LAB

SCHOOL BUILDING

7:45 P.M

JOHN BAER ROUND OUT THE TOP FIVE WITH 18 POINTS.

We Want You

at the University of Maryland

young men of your caliber can meet the matchless athletic and academic challenges presented by the University.

because...

you are outstanding examples of leaders who can successfully meet the matchless athletic and academic challenges presented by the University.

because...

you are outstanding examples of leaders who can successfully meet the matchless athletic and academic challenges presented by the University.

because...

you are outstanding examples of leaders who can successfully meet the matchless athletic and academic challenges presented by the University.

by ROB REINER

The Daily Pennsylvanian

Tuesday, January 20, 1970

more than the scoreboard lights — Super recruiting — Harvard in the race — by bob savett

Lewis, a slender engineering and/or economics student with

So you are free to do what you like. You can take the day off, or psychology major so solidly built that he normally

But the way they use terms

Jim Brown, "During the summer coach Harrison thought we

Assignments awarded for successful completion.

In co-operation with the Austro-American Institute of Education, an un-

The JVs were coming. "There were so many rumors," explains Chris Sadkowski, playing in the top flight singles, improved his season record to 4-1-0, and is now 3-0-0 for the year. Concentrating on his performance in the top flight, Southward, a junior, has faced Tushar Nair several times in the men's tournament as well.

But South and Steve have both registered 3-0 victories in the third and fourth singles, respectively, while Simpson has won 2 of 3. The Quakers could not find a suitable opponent for Hurley this week, so he played Pisacane, winning both matches. The Quakers are the only undefeated team in the nation.

Aquarius I boutique

ORCITIC CLEARANCE SALE

EVERY GARMENT IN THE STORE. REDUCED 50%

SALE ENDING JAN. 21st

3728 WALNUT STREET

Aquarium I

important activities council meeting

TUESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1970
ROOM 100-LAB

SCHOOL BUILDING

7:45 P.M

JOHN BAER ROUND OUT THE TOP FIVE WITH 18 POINTS.