Four Students OK'd on Provost Selection

By JOANNE KANDEL

The university provost selection process has been fraught with controversy, with some students tenaciously pushing to have a faculty member selected as Provost Goddard's successor. The nomination committee's selection of four students to discuss their ideas with Provost Goddard is commendable, but the committee's process and criteria have raised questions. It will be important to ensure a fair and transparent selection process that truly represents the student body.

Task Force Recommends Cutting Size of U. Council

By JACOB GORMAN

The Task Force on University Governance Subcommittee on the Legislative Process has issued its final task force report recommending a reduction in the size of the University Council, in line with the recommendation of the Faculty Senate. The task force's recommendation is supported by many in the academic community, who believe that reducing the council's size will enhance its effectiveness and accountability. The University Council will need to carefully consider this proposal and ensure that the reduction does not compromise the council's ability to fulfill its important functions.

The honors ceremony started with the presentation of the Royal Society of Arts Silver Medal, which was awarded to Rona M. Zevin. This award is given to students who have demonstrated excellence in their academic pursuits.

The Spoon, traditionally the highest senior award, was presented to Stephen A. Talesnick. The Spoon was originally awarded to the lowest freshman and was later awarded as a senior honor. This year, it was presented to a junior.

The Spade, first presented in 1889, was awarded to Barry L. Horn. This award is given to a student who has shown exceptional leadership and service to the community.

The Spoon Society, founded in 1872, celebrated its centennial this year with the presentation of the Spoon. The Spoon is awarded to the highest senior and is one of the oldest awards at the University.

The Spoon Society's link with the United States and the University emanates from the appointment of Benjamin Franklin as a Corresponding Member of the Society in 1776. In 1833, he was the first American to receive the award.

The Spoon Society has a proud tradition of 100 years and has presented various awards to students, including the Spoon, Spade, and Bowl. These awards are given to students who have shown exceptional leadership, service, and academic excellence.

The Bowl, a second senior award, was presented to David J. Moore. The Bowl is awarded to the second highest senior award and is given to a student who has shown exceptional leadership and service to the community.

The Cane, the hallmark of the well-grown men of 1820s, is presented to the student who has shown the most promise and potential. This year, it was awarded to Stephen A. Talesnick.

The Spade, first presented in 1889, was awarded to Barry L. Horn. This award is given to a student who has shown exceptional leadership and service to the community.

UNIVERSITY COMMITTEES

The Nominating Committee has the responsibility of making recommendations for student membership to most of the various committees throughout the University. Below is a list of the committees concerned for nominations this spring. If you have an interest in serving on any of these committees next year, please complete one of the forms at the bottom for each committee in which you are interested. Or, fill out a card at booths in Dietrich, Van Pelt, Hill Hall, College Hall, or Houston Hall. A description of the committees is available at those booths and the UPCoS office, Houston Hall. Nominating procedures include the use of personal interviews, to be held in the next few weeks. Additional information is available from the UPCoS office, Houston Hall.

The GSAC is acting in a supervisory capacity to conduct a democratic election among the G.S.A.S.
students; any G.S.A.S. student is invited to participate in this supervisory role.

Steve Marmion, member of the planning committees, said that “Jack is willing to talk. Our concern is whether we can negotiate a fair settlement.”

He emphasized that the procedure to be submitted to the faculty on Tuesday represents the efforts of a special subcommittee established April 24 and the work of the Steering Committee of the Plenum.

The three proposals involved in the runoff election are: to hold a single election, to hold a runoff between Russell and Jeff Aarons, also a member of the Steering Committee of the Plenum.

Russell, the vice provost, has been asked by Madden to reaffirm his belief that the election must be held on Tuesday, April 23.

Festival to be Held

New students visiting this weekend have been invited to participate in the Festival of Life. The festival, which is sponsored by the administration, will celebrate spring's arrival at the Festival of Life this spring and each other in a relaxed, happy atmosphere. Organizers have planned this two-day be-in to help everyone find their place in the community. Additional activities are scheduled for the participants. Simultaneously, there will be a barbecue; grills will be provided by the personnel. Letters were sent to faculty and administrative personnel, inviting them to come and bring the family.

Festival Details

- The festival will start at 1 P.M. Saturday.
- Activities include music, food, and games.
- Visitors are encouraged to bring their own food.
- There will be a barbecue; grills will be provided.
- Letters were sent to faculty and administrative personnel, inviting them to come and bring the family.

Task Force Recommendation

The report makes changes in the membership of the Council, in accordance with the "mutually exclusive constituency" principle so that College representatives are to be filled as "one person out of two". The size of the representation in the various legislative bodies must be based, necessarily, on competence, insight, and experience in the areas to be legislated upon. The University Senate Subcommittee is to be a central body of the University, whose members should be chosen from the faculty to be a central body of the University, whose members should be chosen from the highest vote total in the previous election.

The report also makes three recommendations not dealing with the University Senate. Frosh Stickmen Flatten Lehigh

By JIM LOWY

The frosh lacrosse team showed they were not bad in high school and Lehigh played the way they were feeling around. All added up to an 8-3 Penn victory yesterday at Franklin Field. Penn was a goal behind when the clock struck 0:10 and quickly took control of the game. Lehigh, however, did not put much of a challenge on the Quakers when the first quarter was over. Lehigh was a7-0 lead by the second quarter, and then Lehigh took control of the game when the first and second halves were played.

Leading the Quakers in scoring was senior attackman Alex Altman. He had a goal and an assist, scoring one goal and adding an assist in the last quarter. Altman's goal came at 12:06 when Garrett Melcher tallied to make the score 2-0. The Red and Blue led another goal, and the score was tied at 3:01 when Parker Baldwin tallied to make the score 3-2. The mature team handled the game well, controlling the pace of the game. Midfielder Mark Hoguet topped the box, and the Red and Blue led 7-0 at the half. The final score was 8-0 when Penn Handling a commanding 12-0 lead. Lehigh didn't put much of a challenge on the Quakers when the first and second halves were played.

Lehigh's defense was not up to par, allowing 12 goals against the Penn defense. Steve Strahs was the goalkeepe
