A REPORT RELEASED Monday by the Student Committee on Undergraduate Education (SCUE) proposed several innovations aimed at eliminating crowded classrooms like the one above. The group called for a "rejuvenation of undergraduate education at the University."
WASHINGTON - House Democrats argued publicly Thursday that the U.S. would not have intervened in the Vietnam war by Dec. 31 by cutting off military aid. In a carefully worded letter, four Congressmen headed by Democratic Whip Thomas F. O'Neill urged all members to support efforts in both houses so that "this major withdrawal" could be completed in later than Dec. 31, 1973.

Trustees

The proposal for recently graduated trustees stemmed from the Task Force Report on University Governance which called for the expansion of the board to include "no young alumni trustees, too to be elected each year. The Task Force Report stated, "the graduating class of the undergraduates schools would elect one more student, the same number of faculty membership from students and the products and professional schools would do the same."

The original recommendation was approved last fall by the University Council, but was defeated at a subcommittee meeting. The recommendation of both bodies will be considered by the body along with "other certain opinions."

The cases are reviewed annually by the California Department of Corrections. The nature of the crimes and the circumstances of the executions vary considerably.

Manson and 3 Women Followers Sentenced By Jury Monday to Death in Gas Chamber

The jury has returned to its consideration of the Manson Family followers who were convicted of murder in the Tate-LaBianca murders, and the expected appeals to higher courts. There has not been an execution in California since April 12, 1967, and the Manson case is the first in the nation to reach the gas chamber. The defense was in a position to challenge the death verdicts: "I'm not going to ask for a pardon," said Paul Gitto, head of the defense team, "I'll file for a new trial."
