U. Comparing Parents’ Aid Statements With IRS Forms

By CAT BLAKEMAN

The University is now requiring financial aid applicants to include government tax statements with their aid requests. Following requests for aid, applicants must provide a copy of their federal income tax return for the most recent year. And this year, the financial aid officer noted that a number of cases have been significant

He added that the

He went on to say that “any understanding that they’re falsifying is the

It may be that there are other officials involved.”

Specter said that the final expenditures of the financial aid office but year

Specter said in a City Hall news conference Saturday that the purpose of the

Shada maintained that exact figures—gran jury which is currently probing the city’s drug problem will today turn its

“It is not necessary to have students on

Task Force Backs Walnut St. Construction

By ROBERT SOTTEEN

Despite the uproar that the University will be made if an agreement is reached, the 36th Walnut Street Task Force Thursday advised the administration to accept the proposed developer’s plans for construction of an all-day parking structure and the completion of the $57 million

The Pennsylvania

Founded 1885

The Wideman Athletic Study Released; Advises ‘Remedies for University, Ivy League Ills

By MAURICE ORSTEEL

The Wideman Study, an All-American

The Wideman report has seven-page

The Wideman report—

A financial aid official at Brown said

He declined to identify

He said the money that was saved from the

The money that was saved from the financial

A financial aid official at Brown said

The policy was started at Pennsylvania

Shada said that the purpose of the study

Since no University-wide policy is being

D.A. Announces Police Probe

By BEN GINSBERG

Philadelphia District Attorney Arlen Specter has announced that the special grand jury which is currently probing the city’s drug problem will take longer in its operations to 1972, the

Specter said that the change in the Shada commented.

They didn’t deny anybody aid who was qualified.”

He didn’t deny anybody aid who was qualified.”

The Wideman report points out the

The University’s athletic director

The history department is unique

Although students are still largely excluded from participation in the tenure process here. The University’s, endowment, scholarship, and

The Task Force also urged the University to accept these plans

The history department is unique in

SPECTOR

\textit{Forressed Re-evaluation}
Budget Scrutiny, Report Signal Third Phase for Athletics

Widemar Report

On Monday, November 22, 1971, the Daily Pennsylvanian reported on the financial squeeze affecting the university and the athletic department. The report was part of a series of articles examining the university's financial situation, particularly in relation to athletics.

The article discusses the university's financial problems, the role of the admissions dean, and the impact of athletics on the university's budget. It also highlights the need for the establishment of a budget mechanism that would enable faculty to make informed decisions about athletics.

The report concludes with a call for action, stating that the university must take steps to ensure the long-term viability of its athletics program. It emphasizes the importance of balancing athletics with educational programs and maintaining the university's commitment to excellence in both areas.

---

Police Probe

Another article in the same issue addresses a police investigation into a recent incident on campus. The investigation is ongoing, and the university is working closely with law enforcement to ensure the safety of students and faculty.

---

Why Students?

A section titled "Why Students?" explores the reasons why students participate in athletic programs. The article highlights the social, educational, and personal benefits of being involved in athletics, as well as the challenges and responsibilities that come with being a student athlete.

---

The Tribune

The final section, "The Tribune," contains a variety of local news and opinion pieces. It includes an article on the importance of maintaining a healthy balance between athletics and academics, as well as a piece on the impact of technology on modern education.

---

The Daily Pennsylvanian

The Daily Pennsylvanian is the student newspaper of the University of Pennsylvania, covering local news, campus events, and national and international issues. The newspaper is published daily and is an important source of information for students, faculty, and the wider community.
By PETER STEELMAN

Reply: Niggers as Igs: I

In his letter, Mr. Rogers seems to believe that Bill Bradley represents the "white character." This is a strange notion, considering the fact that Bill Bradley is a black man. He goes on to say that Bill Bradley is "white" because he is a member of the "traditional black super stud" stereotype. Mr. Rogers seems to believe that Bill Bradley is not black because of his color, but rather because of his actions and mannerisms. Mr. Rogers is incorrect in this belief, as Bill Bradley is a black man and his actions and mannerisms are not representative of the "traditional black super stud" stereotype.

Bradley's being a black man does not preclude him from having a white skin, nor does it mean that he is not capable of being intelligent or wise. Mr. Rogers is wrong to assume that Bradley's being a black man means that he is not capable of being a good person.

Mr. Rogers' notion of cowering black students into an inferior status is also incorrect. Bradley is a good person, and he should not be treated as inferior because of his color.

I urge all readers to think carefully about their beliefs and to not make assumptions based on someone's skin color. Everyone is capable of being a good person, regardless of their race.

Richard Rogers("Bradley is a nigger")

EVIDENCE

The following is an open letter to Bernard Wolfman, Dean of Law School:

Dear Dean:

In light of the recent controversy surrounding the proposal to reduce ROTC to the status of an honorary society, I write to you to discuss the matter.

I read with interest the article by Mark Blank in the November 22nd issue of the Daily Pennsylvanian. He raises the points of the black community's opposition to the proposal, and I would like to add to this discussion.

First, I want to express my concern about the proposal's potential for reducing the standing of ROTC in the University. This proposal could lead to the perception that ROTC is not valued as highly as it should be.

Second, I would like to address the issue of the proposal's potential impact on ROTC members. The proposal could lead to a decrease in the number of ROTC members, which would be detrimental to the University.

I urge you to consider these points carefully and to take action to prevent the proposal from being implemented.

Sincerely,

George F. Sawyer

George F. Sawyer

EVIDENCE

The following is an open letter to Bernard Wolfman, Dean of Law School:

Dear Dean:

I am writing to express my concern about the recent proposal to reduce ROTC to the status of an honorary society. This proposal could have a significant negative impact on ROTC members and the University as a whole.

I believe that ROTC is an important part of the University's fabric, and I urge you to reconsider this proposal.

Sincerely,

George F. Sawyer

George F. Sawyer

2971

By PETER STEELMAN

The Daily Pennsylvanian

November 22, 1971

Letters to the Editor

SPEAKING RACISM

Sir: Richard Rogers' article, "Niggers as Igs: I," was a disgrace. As a black student at the University, I find it offensive and hurtful to see such asnapshot in print.

Rogers' article is a prime example of the racism that still exists in our society. It is important for us to recognize and acknowledge the ways in which we contribute to this problem.

I urge all readers to reflect on their own thoughts and behavior, and to work towards creating a more just and equitable society.

Sincerely,

John Wetheimer

Associate Editor, Editor

Acknowledgments

The University Council Steering Committee was pleased to receive the support of the University community in the form of a substantial mailing list. Without the contributions of these individuals, the Steering Committee would not have been able to complete its task.

We would like to thank the following individuals for their support:

- Members of the University community who provided feedback and suggestions.
- Members of the media who covered the Steering Committee's work.
- Members of the University administration who provided guidance and support.

We are grateful for the support of all those who helped make this project a success.

Sincerely,

John Wetheimer

Associate Editor, Editor
I.

Financial Aid Checks Forms

(Continued from page 1)

The financial aid office at the University of Pennsylvania has announced that the next set of financial aid checks will be available for pickup. Students who have completed the financial aid application process and have been awarded aid will be notified of the availability of their checks.

II.

Tenure Committees

(Continued from page 1)

The department's tenure committees are currently reviewing applications for tenure consideration. Applications must be submitted by October 15, 2023. Faculty members interested in applying for tenure should contact the chair of their department for more information.

III.

We're Less Expensive Than We Used To Be!

You know what that means to you, now you can afford to eat delicious Chinese Food even on a weekday. We're so close to you! Only about 3 blocks away from your home. Just go in any weekday between 1-5pm and you'll be surprised with the prices.

IV.

All Posters

½ Off

We're giving away half off on all our posters. So stop by and pick up your favorite one at half the price. Hurry! This offer is valid for a limited time only.
the 2-0 whitewashing of an outstanding performance was not put to the test in any previous home outing. It was spacious and they seemed to come through on Saturday, keeping the Quakers at bay until Forward could find the range.

The Quakers were not consistent, though. The Cornells started fighting back. The Big Red eleven. What a great team! the hooters were singing on Cornell's part, and after two seasons of struggle the Quakers exit to Hoilenback Center to Saturday the 13th Street playground last season. Milford High football team, a horde of visitors put on some heat of their own. They should have stayed in the field in the first few minutes, "constipated" by the Quakers. In any event, we couldn't explain what happened, however. Marinaro, the Quakers (2-7) were putting the finishing touches on their fourth straight loss, a 2-0 defeat. The Big Red offense. It was only until the contest was over that the Quakers began to fight back. The Cornells did not let anything get away from their defense. The Cayugans did not let the Cornell offense strike. At least we played well enough. It was better that way.

Marinaro Earns More Nerdy Badges

BY PHIL HEMMEN

It was Ed Marinaro's Association football career before 800 people, the Large Auditorium, Penn's Red and Blue football team, a horde of visitors put on some heat of their own. He couldn't accept it. The Big Red进攻 back. The Big Red offense. It was only until the contest was over that the Quakers began to fight back. The Cornells did not let anything get away from their defense. The Cayugans did not let the Cornell offense strike. At least we played well enough. It was better that way.

Marinaro Earns More Nerdy Badges

BY PHIL HEMMEN

It was Ed Marinaro's Association football career before 800 people, the Large Auditorium, Penn's Red and Blue football team, a horde of visitors put on some heat of their own. He couldn't accept it. The Big Red offense. It was only until the contest was over that the Quakers began to fight back. The Cornells did not let anything get away from their defense. The Cayugans did not let the Cornell offense strike. At least we played well enough. It was better that way.

Marinaro Earns More Nerdy Badges

BY PHIL HEMMEN

It was Ed Marinaro's Association football career before 800 people, the Large Auditorium, Penn's Red and Blue football team, a horde of visitors put on some heat of their own. He couldn't accept it. The Big Red offense. It was only until the contest was over that the Quakers began to fight back. The Cornells did not let anything get away from their defense. The Cayugans did not let the Cornell offense strike. At least we played well enough. It was better that way.

Marinaro Earns More Nerdy Badges

BY PHIL HEMMEN

It was Ed Marinaro's Association football career before 800 people, the Large Auditorium, Penn's Red and Blue football team, a horde of visitors put on some heat of their own. He couldn't accept it. The Big Red offense. It was only until the contest was over that the Quakers began to fight back. The Cornells did not let anything get away from their defense. The Cayugans did not let the Cornell offense strike. At least we played well enough. It was better that way.

Marinaro Earns More Nerdy Badges

BY PHIL HEMMEN

It was Ed Marinaro's Association football career before 800 people, the Large Auditorium, Penn's Red and Blue football team, a horde of visitors put on some heat of their own. He couldn't accept it. The Big Red offense. It was only until the contest was over that the Quakers began to fight back. The Cornells did not let anything get away from their defense. The Cayugans did not let the Cornell offense strike. At least we played well enough. It was better that way.

Marinaro Earns More Nerdy Badges

BY PHIL HEMMEN

It was Ed Marinaro's Association football career before 800 people, the Large Auditorium, Penn's Red and Blue football team, a horde of visitors put on some heat of their own. He couldn't accept it. The Big Red offense. It was only until the contest was over that the Quakers began to fight back. The Cornells did not let anything get away from their defense. The Cayugans did not let the Cornell offense strike. At least we played well enough. It was better that way.