Penn's freshman line-up, normally a force, dropped two matches to Yale over the weekend. The Quakers (3-1) fell to number one Chicago 105-9, then defeated Brown 51-26.

"This was our first real loss of the season," commented Tim Knettler, who had a 14-23 record against the visiting Bears. "Our first real loss of the season," Men's basketball coach Herb Peters added. "We have been playing well for the first four matches, but I think we are ready to drop one."

Against Chicago the Quakers were able to score 10 points more than their opponents. On the other hand, against Brown there were only 15 points. The Quakers' next match will be against Columbia on Saturday at 3 p.m.

"We need to work on our team play," Peters said. "We have been playing very well in our last two matches. If we can incorporate that into our team play, we will be able to score more points."

Icemen Edge Johns On MacDonald Goal

By TED TEITGARD

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. - Bill MacDonnell, the Icemen's top scorer, put down the decisive goal for the visiting Icemen Saturday night, as they defeated the Johns 4-2 at the Baker Rink. The Icemen have now captured the last three meetings with the Johns, and this win gives them a chance to complete the season sweep against the Johns this weekend.

MacDonnell's goal came on a power play, with the Johns on the penalty box. The Icemen took advantage of the opportunity, and MacDonnell fired a shot from the point that made its way past the Johns' goalie and into the net. The Icemen's defense played well throughout the game, holding the Johns to just two goals.

The Icemen's victory was well deserved, as they outplayed the Johns in every aspect of the game. Their defense was solid, their offense was potent, and their overall effort was impressive.
