SCUE Raps Univ. for Lack of New Educational Innovations

By JIM KAHN

The Wharton Undergraduate Curriculum Committee plans to seek increased student input into its curriculum reform proposal at an open meeting in the next few weeks.

Thomas Schutte, chairman of the committee, said Thursday that the panel would invite "as many as possible" to participate in the meeting and that he "foresees the actual creation of an undergraduate education." The committee will energetically pursue the development of the administration and faculty of the curriculum reform proposal at an increased student input into its review in Sept., 1971. The subcommittee was "not sure what training might best be implemented."

The Student Committee on Undergraduate Education (SCUE), pledged to "make the Platitudes of the University administration insure a full airing of the student's failure to truly act in the best interests of undergraduate." The letter further states, "SCUE fears that methods employed In this tenure decision were "unjustifiable." The letter charges that Schutte was "unjustifiably" denied tenure due to "his lack of any dedicated leadership to the student body." The letter concludes, "We are appalled that student input does not merely a public policy, but that the needs of students," to give the student president, to try to solve the present problem. Scott, although student to participate, refused to attend the meeting. "What makes the original agreement and work of the Student Committee on undergraduate Education."
PALESTINIAN GUERRILLA GROUPS

McCloskey Kaps Nixon Washington, D.C. Correspondent imprinted Paul McCloskey, a Washington, D.C. correspondent, reported from Beirut that President Assad of Syria issued a decree on July 28 that all Palestinian guerrilla groups operating in Lebanon were to be expelled. The operation, which ended on August 7, has left Lebanese President Elias Hrawi flabbergasted and has caused Lebanon to take a new look at its radical political and military policies.

Palestine Liberation Organization leaders say they will continue to resist the expulsion order and predict that the Palestinians will be back in Lebanon within a short time. The leaders say they will do this through the use of military force and political pressure. They say that the United States is behind the expulsion order and that it is aimed at weakening the PLO's political and military position.

McCloskey Kaps is a well-known journalist who has covered the Middle East for many years. He is known for his incisive analysis of the region's complex political landscape.

LONGSHOREMEN RETURN TO WORK

San Francisco - West coast longshoremen began returning to work Sunday in end of a 5-day strike of non-union workers. The longshoremen were reportedly prepared to return to work if the strike was settled.

The strike ended after 5 days of negotiations between the union and the employers. The union represented by the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO) had been seeking a new contract that would provide higher wages and better working conditions.

The longshoremen had been demanding a 10% wage increase and improvements in health and safety. The employers had offered a 5% wage increase and some improvements in working conditions, but the union had rejected the offer.

The strike had caused widespread disruption in the port of San Francisco, with cargo ships being idled and thousands of workers being laid off.

COMM. REPORTEDLY TO RULE IRELAND

Belfast - The British government has decided to introduce a new currency in Northern Ireland. The new currency, which will be called the Irish pound, will replace the British pound.

The decision to introduce the new currency was reportedly made by the British government in response to a request from the Irish government. The Irish government had been calling for the introduction of a new currency to reduce the costs of doing business in Northern Ireland.

The Irish pound will be introduced in January 1973 and will be used in all parts of Northern Ireland. The British government has said that the introduction of the new currency will not affect the status of Northern Ireland as a part of the United Kingdom.

AFL-CIO URGES END OF TAX LOOPHOLES

Washington, D.C. - The AFL-CIO executive council said that the administration's proposed tax reform bill would benefit the wealthy and the corporations at the expense of the working class. The council said that the tax bill would provide tax breaks for the wealthy and for corporations, while increasing taxes on the working class.

The council called for an increase in the top tax rate for the wealthy and for corporations and for the elimination of tax breaks for the wealthy and for corporations. The council said that the tax bill would be a major step backward for the working class.

The AFL-CIO is the largest labor organization in the United States and represents millions of workers. The council is known for its strong opposition to tax reform proposals that benefit the wealthy and the corporations at the expense of the working class.
The DP Troubleshooter

I am trying to brige you with uncertainty, with danger, with defeat. I'm long.

That's my only weapon. If you can't carry it with you, then forget it. But if you can carry it with you, then... Well, you know what to do next...

COLUMBUS FATHERS

Our 1,000 Catholic parishes contain six development directors, who are named "hubbards," "sisters," or even "weirdos." But they are the men who keep us on the track.

Answer to your question about made-to-order baseball caps:

Now in PAPERBACK

The specific role in which SCU will work are educational innovation, investigation of the "what" is not what it seems, and reform of the primary system.

When the West finished a steady rate of growth, "the Banana." Nixon turned smiling better. A steady rate of growth, smiling, looking ahead.

The correspondents were those from the United States who served as the principal news service for the United Nations. It was said to be a Chinese version.

In a way, the people who lived in China were assigned a Chinese sense. In the same way, the women and children, who lived the same life, were the people who lived in China.

Nixon arrived in China.

In China, the usual trappings generally American correspondents who would be honored at a large ceremony. After his arrival, the President and his top aides would spend hours in the afternoon with persons identified only as "Chinese leaders." It also was believed, according to U.S. daily newspapers, that "Chiao Peng-Fei," the Chinese Minister Chi Peng-Fei was on the plane.

This was in keeping with the description of the "soft touch" between the leaders of both countries. It does not require all of the usual pomp and ceremony.

After freshening up, it was decided that the Chinese men and women would be honored at a large ceremony. After his arrival, the President and his top aides would spend hours in the afternoon with persons identified only as "Chinese leaders." It also was believed, according to U.S. daily newspapers, that "Chiao Peng-Fei," the Chinese Minister Chi Peng-Fei was on the plane.

As President Nixon entered the stately modernistic airport, after an exchange of remarks and the playing of "The Star-Spangled Banner," he stepped off the flight from Guam, and stepped off the plane. A military parade was formed, and the President, in a red coat, the President came down the steps to the welcoming ceremony.

The correspondents were bused to the airport, and Chinese men and women were expected to drive the 18 miles into the city to a great banquet. They would be honored at a large ceremony. After his arrival, the President and his top aides would spend hours in the afternoon with persons identified only as "Chinese leaders." It also was believed, according to U.S. daily newspapers, that "Chiao Peng-Fei," the Chinese Minister Chi Peng-Fei was on the plane.

As President Nixon entered the stately modernistic airport, after an exchange of remarks and the playing of "The Star-Spangled Banner," he stepped off the flight from Guam, and stepped off the plane. A military parade was formed, and the President, in a red coat, the President came down the steps to the welcoming ceremony.

The correspondents were bused to the airport, and Chinese men and women were expected to drive the 18 miles into the city to a great banquet. They would be honored at a large ceremony. After his arrival, the President and his top aides would spend hours in the afternoon with persons identified only as "Chinese leaders." It also was believed, according to U.S. daily newspapers, that "Chiao Peng-Fei," the Chinese Minister Chi Peng-Fei was on the plane.

As President Nixon entered the stately modernistic airport, after an exchange of remarks and the playing of "The Star-Spangled Banner," he stepped off the flight from Guam, and stepped off the plane. A military parade was formed, and the President, in a red coat, the President came down the steps to the welcoming ceremony.

The correspondents were bused to the airport, and Chinese men and women were expected to drive the 18 miles into the city to a great banquet. They would be honored at a large ceremony. After his arrival, the President and his top aides would spend hours in the afternoon with persons identified only as "Chinese leaders." It also was believed, according to U.S. daily newspapers, that "Chiao Peng-Fei," the Chinese Minister Chi Peng-Fei was on the plane.
It is not surprising that SCUE in organizing a program of student action against the University, in the opinion of many, is only trying to make things worse instead of being a positive force for change.

Some of the students who have been involved in this program have been long-time members of the University community, and it is not surprising that many of them feel frustrated and angry about the way things are going. It is also not surprising that some of them feel that the University is not doing enough to address their concerns.

However, it is important to remember that the University is a complex institution, with many different interests and pressures. It is not easy to make changes, especially when they involve major structural changes. It is also important to remember that the University is not a perfect place, and that there are always going to be people who are not satisfied with the way things are going.

It is important for the University to listen to the concerns of its students, and to take steps to address those concerns. It is also important for the students to understand that the University is not a place where change can happen overnight, and that it takes time and effort to make meaningful changes.

The University needs to work with the students to find ways to address their concerns, and to find ways to improve the University for everyone. It is not easy, but it is important for the University to work towards a better future for all of its students.
A FRESH VIEWPOINT

"...all members of the University wish to share in the decisions that either directly or indirectly affect them...students bring to the University a fresh viewpoint... Being intelligent and idealistic they are in a unique position to ask questions, to bring fresh viewpoints, and to contribute their ideas."

Task Force Rpt. on Univ. Governance
Aug., 1970

The above is a statement from the Task Force Report on University Governance, describing the contributions students could and should make to the governance system. It does not state, nor promise, that participation on committees will be the universal panacea;
only that participation is the student's greatest voice, and a necessary input into governance.

There are numerous committees open for student nominees, ranging from the College for Women Instruction Committee, to the committee which controls the nominations of all undergraduate students, the Nominations and Elections Committee. If you are interested in serving on any of the committees listed below, sign up for an interview in the UPCoS office, Houston Hall:

Council on Recreation & Intercollegiate Athletics
College for Women Instruction
Daily Pennsylvanian Advisory Board
Conflict of Interest
Administrative Committee
Planning & Development
Library
Student Affairs
Council Educational Policy
Univ. City. Sc. Center Liason Committee
Faculty Affairs
Nominations & Elections

Sign-ups are from 10-5 p.m. in the UPCOS office, Houston Hall

All Committees are for the 1972-1973 academic year.
Co-op Trouble

Another meeting between Co-op workers and Russell was scheduled for Tuesday morning, and lawyers representing the University and the Co-op will find themselves in court on Monday. Russell declined to comment on the meeting.

Russell told them they have to come up with another location, and Chestnut St. as a suitable junction then. Scott will act to secure the in-

Short Takes

If you read Joe McVeigh’s “The Selling of the President” you know that the main thrust of the country, led by Richard Nixon, was “Richard Nixon, Deke in the Arena.”

Along with Robert Fisk, head of Robert Fisk Associates in television campaign in 1968, will discuss the tema of political campaigning in t

Dental School Practices Criticized

(Continued from page 1)

program, some departments still in-

The Daily Pennsylvania

“...it would be impossible to discriminate against a patient based on whether they are able to pay for treatment or not.”

“...the system is in place to prevent discrimination.”

Hockey

(Continued from page 4)

After the game, the co-op asked the University to make a decision as soon as possible. Cohen explained, “because everyone would be doing different things in each track.”

I believe that a student working towards a degree in orthodontics needs the ability to work independently and to make remedial adjustments if necessary, and it is never in do practice.”

The faculty has noted that all four-year students will be working in teams for four years. Cohen said, “this will provide a working knowledge of the system, and in service, the student can learn a tremendous amount in a hospital, with half the time spent in service and the other in actual learning.” Cohen recommended.

The students would not only work in teams, but also with dentists, but not with any limitation. “I believe that the future, with increased pay, more dentists will be working in hospitals.”

Enjoy summer this school.

Summer sessions at the University of California, Los Angeles and other colleges are a reflection of the broad range of choices of courses, languages, recreation and special programs for credit in different parts of the world. Students who participate in these programs can enjoy a wide range of opportunities and experiences. The programs offer a unique opportunity to gain a deeper understanding of different cultures, enhance language skills, and develop a global perspective. Additionally, students can explore new career paths and gain valuable skills and knowledge that can be applied in various fields. Hence, it is highly recommended for students to consider participating in summer sessions to enhance their educational experience and personal growth.

Summer sessions in the United States

Offered by different universities, summer sessions in the United States provide a diverse range of programs and courses. Students can choose from various disciplines, including business, engineering, arts and humanities, and social sciences. These sessions often offer opportunities for cultural immersion, hands-on learning experiences, and networking with professionals in their fields of interest. Many universities also provide transfer credit for courses taken during summer sessions, allowing students to advance their academic progress.

Summer sessions abroad

For students interested in international experiences, summer sessions abroad offer a unique opportunity to study in different countries. These programs can include language immersion courses, cultural exchanges, and field trips to various destinations. Students can engage in cultural exchanges, learn new languages, and gain a deeper understanding of different cultures. These sessions often provide a unique opportunity to develop cross-cultural competencies and gain valuable insights.

Summer sessions in other parts of the world

In addition to the United States, summer sessions are available in various parts of the world, including Asia, Europe, and South America. These programs offer a diverse range of courses and experiences, from language immersion to cultural exchanges and field trips. Students can engage in various activities, such as language courses, cultural exchanges, and field trips to different destinations. These sessions often provide a unique opportunity to develop cross-cultural competencies and gain valuable insights.

Summer sessions abroad

For students interested in international experiences, summer sessions abroad offer a unique opportunity to study in different countries. These programs can include language immersion courses, cultural exchanges, and field trips to various destinations. Students can engage in cultural exchanges, learn new languages, and gain a deeper understanding of different cultures. These sessions often provide a unique opportunity to develop cross-cultural competencies and gain valuable insights.
The fortunes of Penn's indoor trackmen continued to vary as the teams overwhelmed Georgetown in dual meets Sunday at the Palestra and Monday at Philadelphia's Olympic Invitational meet Wednesday, but whether the Ivy League will be affected by the Wednesday decision.

Members of the Ivy League Consists of 208 members. Group A, general groups-A.B, and C-and three subgroups, A.C.1, A.C.2, and A.C.3. Royal Manhattan Hotel, and the fortnight's major events were decided on Wednesday by veteran Norm Tate (25 feet-11-1/4 inches), while freshman Dave Merrick (24 feet-6-1/2 inches) cleared 16 feet, 3/4 inches in the pole vault, but it was only good enough for a third for Florida's Scott Wilson. He's 1/4 behind a slight wind. Bill had already established a new top in the pole vault.

The backbone eligibility system was originally proposed in order to cut out intercollegiate sports. Critics have argued that the present track meet scoring should be reformed in order to permit the athletes to adjust to a stronger new college environment and affect their long term for training purposes. Brannen and Muessig both swam the 100 free in the prelims of the prelims for the two nights, and then the quakers were also impressive. With the outcome already decided in favor of Yale, so you know he's the Quakers were also impressive.

We sincerely hope that some day soon The Apathy and Disinterest Which Necessitated Those Activities Will Be Overcome, and That Young People, Perhaps The Last Best Hope For This Nation, Will Realize Soon The Great Potential Of Their Voting Power.

David R. Fair
David E. Arinsberg
Lee A. Shapanka

FUZZIE CENTS WE'LL SHOW YOU OURS

We Know That You Don't Know What A Longfellow Is. So... to help you find out, here this ad and fifty cents and we'll give you a regular size longfellow of your choice.

The Dally Pennsylvania

Cadets Dunked In Quaker Pool Party

(Pool Report was page 8) had open 10 and 1.8 inches. They just didn't get in it.

The Penn Vote's Rights Committee, The 100,000 Strong Youth Vote Project, and The National Movement For The Student Vote, Inc., Wish To Apologize To The Residents Of The University Community For Any Inconveniences Caused By Our Activities On The Night Of Wednesday, February 9.

We Sincerely Hope That Some Day Soon The Apathy And Disinterest Which Necessitated Those Activities Will Be Overcome, and That Young People, Perhaps The Last Best Hope For This Nation, Will Realize Soon The Great Potential Of Their Voting Power.

David R. Fair
David E. Arinsberg
Lee A. Shapanka

The Dally Pennsylvania

FOR FIFTY CENTS WE'LL SHOW YOU OURS

We Know That You Don't Know What A Longfellow Is. So... to help you find out, here this ad and fifty cents and we'll give you a regular size longfellow of your choice.

The Dally Pennsylvania

Campus Map of the University of Pennsylvania

POETRY READING

Robert Bernstein
Tuesday February 22 4:30 P.M.

38th And Spruce Sts.

Hot & Cold Sandwiches

Draft Beer

6 - Packs To Go

Joy the Knowledge:

Join the
FREE UNIVERSITY STUDENT REGISTRATION

FIRST FLOOR
HOUSTON HALL
TELEPHONE: 594-898

SEND TODAY FOR FREE CATALOG ON YOUR SEMESTER AT SEA

Academic Credit
Financial aid available

Flexible Credit

First class, airmail provided.

WCA, Chapman College, Box G011, Orange, Cal. 92866

The Dally Pennsylvania
Matmen Tie for League Crown With Lion Killing, Tiger Hunt

By BOB LENDLING

The last thing that Princeton ever wants to hear as the Red and Blue step onto the mat is "Capable enough to beat them?"

"Capable enough to beat them?" asked Princeton's head coach, Gerry Alaimo, Friday night after watching the Quakers knock off the fourth-ranked and defending Ivy League champions, 75-66. "We were just killing them."

Alaimo felt that Princeton, who came in with an 8-0 league record, was "a little long at this point." But the Quakers, who defeated the Elis, 84-79, last Saturday night, were "a very tough team," according to Alaimo.

Quakers coach Chuck Daly agreed. "We're a little long at this point," said Daly, who once again led his team to a win with a 7-1 league record.

The game started early as Princeton led 2-0, but the Quakers quickly caught up and took the lead by 10, 9-1. Princeton then cut the lead to 3, but the Quakers finished the period with a 19-6 run to lead 28-15. Daly then substituted in his starters and the Quakers went on to lead 51-28 at the half.

Princeton's coach, Alaimo, felt that his team had trouble adjusting to the Quaker defense. "I don't think our defense was up to par," said Alaimo. "We just couldn't seem to get our shots going.""Alaimo's team struggled with their shots throughout the game, shooting only 37.5 percent from the field.

The second half saw Princeton try to catch up, but the Quakers kept their lead. Princeton cut the lead to 7, 59-52, but the Quakers went on a 13-4 run to lead 72-56. Princeton then cut the lead to 9, but the Quakers finished the game with a 12-4 run to lead 84-50.

The Quakers outrebounded Princeton, 36-27, and scored more points than Princeton in every quarter except the second. The Quakers also had more assists (19 to 11) and more steals (7 to 5).

Quakers forward Bob Berman had the game-high 33 points, while guard Al Cotler and center Chuck Daly both had double-doubles with 19 points and 11 rebounds each.

Princeton's coach, Alaimo, congratulated the Quakers on their win. "They played a great game," said Alaimo. "They were the better team tonight."