In Work Force, Survey Reports

By JAN MILLER

A majority of College for Women students indicated their interest in private graduate school. While only 10 percent of the 482 surveyed planned to attend graduate school, a report from the graduates shows that some of the 575 College for Women students were interested in law school, sciences, and humanities.

The report, which was based on the College for Women's 1972 graduates and the 1971 graduates, showed that 22 percent of the 79 graduates were interested in law school, 51 percent were interested in sciences, and 26 percent were interested in humanities.

The report also showed that 76 percent of the 229 Wharton graduates showed considerable interest in business, while 19 percent continued in other fields.

The number of National Science Foundation scholarships available to the Class of '72 was 16. Seven Pennsylvania students were awarded the scholarships.

The number of students attending the University of Pennsylvania is expected to increase in the 1973-74 academic year.

Martha Mitchell Says She’s Not a Mental Patient

By United Press International
WASHINGTON — Martha Mitchell, parking up to move to New York, declared Wednesday that she’s packing up to move to New York.

WASHINGTON - Martha Mitchell, patient, as some highly placed Republicans are whispering.

By United Press International

Martha Mitchell, wife of former Attorney General John N. Mitchell, told Washington Star-News reporters Wednesday that she's packing up to move to New York.

"I think it is rotten after all I have suffered a nervous breakdown. Democrats, on the other hand. She's expected by some to move for the White House.

During the conversation, she said, "I'm going to tell it as it is."

She said the ring finger was still stiff, and "it might be permanent," she said, referring to rumors that she has suffered a nervous breakdown.

Attorney General John N. Mitchell elaborated on "My imprisonment" at a Newport Beach, Calif., hotel.

Interviewed in her luxury Watergate apartment amid packing and cleaning out, Mrs. Mitchell, referred to her ring finger and said, "I'm going to tell it as it is."

"I'm going to tell it as it is."

She said the ring finger was still stiff, and "it might be permanent," she said, using her favorite nickname for Nixon, "Trum."}

Schutte promotion

The administration’s decision to promote Dr. Thomas Schutte marks the first time the Provost’s Staff Conference has reversed an earlier position to give a faculty member tenure after rejections on both the school and departmental levels. We find their decision a commendable one.

Schutte’s successful third bid for tenure follows months of stormy debate over the criteria used in making tenure and promotion decisions. He was rejected by the marketing department last year for allegedly having a weak system and breathed new life into a curriculum the Wharton School’s pass-no credit grading apparently modifying its stand on the criteria.

The University’s credit that he will remain here. His mistakes have been

GOP Files $2.5 Million Suit

WASHINGTON -- President Nixon's campaign manager filed a $2.5 million lawsuit against Robert B. Hamburg of New York City, charging that his $1 million Watergate damage suit was a "petition form of felonious assault".

"If these tactics are allowed to stand," said Mr. Hampton, "we will show McGovern how to handle them.

Mr. Hampton is a United States District Judge in Wisconsin and Clark MacGregor, the president's campaign chairman, denied the GOP legal action.

The suit was filed by Frank L. Gain, chairman of the Committee for Re-election of the President, and Maurice K. Stans, the President's campaign finance chairman, on behalf of the House Banking Committee's special Watergate subcommittee.

Rep. Daniel B. Johnson, D-Tex., the committee chairman, and three other congressmen, said they will go to subject State and John B. Mitchell, who was MacGregor's predecessor, for questioning about the financing of the GOP's 1972 presidential campaign.
