Ford Denies Pardon Deal Before House Committee

In United Press International
WASHINGTON--A Justice appelate committee voted, Presidents Ford Thursday that he would not make any "deal" to pardon Richard M. Nixon in return for his resignations. In his testimony, which he hoped would be an acceptable precedent for the future, Ford repeated his belief that he had assumed an "absolute" power to pardon an admission of guilt as well. He also reiterated his belief that for Nixon has been the first President in history to resign in shame and disgrace," rather than face certain impeachment removal from office, was permissible, as long as it was not pre-arranged.
Ford had volunteered to do nothing in exchange for the House's formal testimony and submit to the examination of a congressional panel.
"The House of Judges," the Supreme Court's bicameral hearing room on Capitol Hill, was a few moments after the White House. And before it crossed the lane separating the branches of government, it was a trip which no other president ever had to make.

FAS Budget Post Goes To Economist Easterlin

By MITCHELL BERGER
Professor of Economics Richard Easterlin has been appointed associate dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences (FAS) for budget and planning. Dean Vartan Gregorian said Thursday that, after accepting the appointment for only the preparation of the budget, Easterlin will join the Executive Office of the President.
In an interview with The Daily Pennsylvanian, Easterlin said that he will "not sign any contracts that will be with me, anything that I will propose to the university or the Wharton School in the future."
Easterlin said that he will "not sign any contracts that will be with me, anything that I will propose to the university or the Wharton School in the future."
Easterlin said that he will "not sign any contracts that will be with me, anything that I will propose to the university or the Wharton School in the future."
Easterlin said that he will "not sign any contracts that will be with me, anything that I will propose to the university or the Wharton School in the future."

FAS Budget Post Goes To Economist Easterlin

Professor of Economics Richard Easterlin has been appointed associate dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences (FAS) for budget and planning. Dean Vartan Gregorian said Thursday that, after accepting the appointment for only the preparation of the budget, Easterlin will join the Executive Office of the President.
In an interview with The Daily Pennsylvanian, Easterlin said that he will "not sign any contracts that will be with me, anything that I will propose to the university or the Wharton School in the future."
Easterlin said that he will "not sign any contracts that will be with me, anything that I will propose to the university or the Wharton School in the future."
Easterlin said that he will "not sign any contracts that will be with me, anything that I will propose to the university or the Wharton School in the future."
Easterlin said that he will "not sign any contracts that will be with me, anything that I will propose to the university or the Wharton School in the future."

FAS Budget Post Goes To Economist Easterlin

Professor of Economics Richard Easterlin has been appointed associate dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences (FAS) for budget and planning. Dean Vartan Gregorian said Thursday that, after accepting the appointment for only the preparation of the budget, Easterlin will join the Executive Office of the President.
In an interview with The Daily Pennsylvanian, Easterlin said that he will "not sign any contracts that will be with me, anything that I will propose to the university or the Wharton School in the future."
Easterlin said that he will "not sign any contracts that will be with me, anything that I will propose to the university or the Wharton School in the future."
Easterlin said that he will "not sign any contracts that will be with me, anything that I will propose to the university or the Wharton School in the future."
Easterlin said that he will "not sign any contracts that will be with me, anything that I will propose to the university or the Wharton School in the future."

Review of 'House of Blue Leaves' Mixture of Tragic, Comic Elements

By JOE PETERS
How does Everyman's dream develop from the depths of a Bronx innkeeper, John Guare answers this question in 'The House of Blue Leaves,' a new University Repertory Company production at Houston Hall (free to students). Not only that, but he teaches us something about frustration and its relation to our psychological development.

"Theodore's climb to fame without her husband otherwise finds he must rid himself of some of the encumbrances that restrict his ambition," said Easterlin in an interview with The Daily Pennsylvanian. "Theodore's climb to fame without her husband otherwise finds he must rid himself of some of the encumbrances that restrict his ambition," said Easterlin in an interview with The Daily Pennsylvanian. "Theodore's climb to fame without her husband otherwise finds he must rid himself of some of the encumbrances that restrict his ambition," said Easterlin in an interview with The Daily Pennsylvanian. "Theodore's climb to fame without her husband otherwise finds he must rid himself of some of the encumbrances that restrict his ambition," said Easterlin in an interview with The Daily Pennsylvanian.

Review of 'House of Blue Leaves' Mixture of Tragic, Comic Elements

By JOE PETERS
How does Everyman's dream develop from the depths of a Bronx innkeeper, John Guare answers this question in 'The House of Blue Leaves,' a new University Repertory Company production at Houston Hall (free to students). Not only that, but he teaches us something about frustration and its relation to our psychological development.

"Theodore's climb to fame without her husband otherwise finds he must rid himself of some of the encumbrances that restrict his ambition," said Easterlin in an interview with The Daily Pennsylvanian. "Theodore's climb to fame without her husband otherwise finds he must rid himself of some of the encumbrances that restrict his ambition," said Easterlin in an interview with The Daily Pennsylvanian. "Theodore's climb to fame without her husband otherwise finds he must rid himself of some of the encumbrances that restrict his ambition," said Easterlin in an interview with The Daily Pennsylvanian. "Theodore's climb to fame without her husband otherwise finds he must rid himself of some of the encumbrances that restrict his ambition," said Easterlin in an interview with The Daily Pennsylvanian.
Higgenbotham Gives Black Students Advice on Law School Admissions

By LAN RODGERS
Federal Judge A. Leo Higgenbotham urged black students Thursday to "be that outstandin" that you can get into some law school somewhere" and to "do the best you can over a wide variety of courses" for high school seniors.

Speaking to roughly 30 students of the Harlem project in a Law Firm North dinner seminar, Higgenbotham answered questions concerning admission requirements and varieties of law schools.

He warned students not to set your limits too high.

"Many people think that if you don't do Penn, Harvard or Yale Law School you haven't made it," he said. "But this just isn't true," he continued, citing Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall.

Higgenbotham, a graduate of Yale Law School, warned students to "be that outstandin" that you can get into some law school somewhere" and to "do the best you can over a wide variety of courses." However, Higgenbotham did not stress the importance of an undergraduate major.

"Some law schools may not give you credit on your major," he said. "It's the performance that's most important."
FOOTBALL

Quakers Face Stubborn Leopard Defense

Penn's (2-0-1) Offense vs. Lafayette's (3-2) Defense

Statistics

Penn

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Statistic</th>
<th>Min.</th>
<th>Yds.</th>
<th>Ave.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Rushing</td>
<td>51</td>
<td>225</td>
<td>4.4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Passing</td>
<td>218</td>
<td>1067</td>
<td>4.9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>272</td>
<td>1292</td>
<td>4.7</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Statistic</th>
<th>Min.</th>
<th>Yds.</th>
<th>Ave.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Rushing</td>
<td>51</td>
<td>225</td>
<td>4.4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Passing</td>
<td>218</td>
<td>1067</td>
<td>4.9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>272</td>
<td>1292</td>
<td>4.7</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Lafayette

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Statistic</th>
<th>Min.</th>
<th>Yds.</th>
<th>Ave.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Rushing</td>
<td>51</td>
<td>225</td>
<td>4.4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Passing</td>
<td>218</td>
<td>1067</td>
<td>4.9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>272</td>
<td>1292</td>
<td>4.7</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unproven Lafayette Offense Is Led by Reserve Quarterback

(Continued from page 3)

unaccomplished a 4-3-1 last fall in the Ivy League. This season, after dropping decisions to Army (7-14) and Kings Point (13-2), the Leopards have come on strong to challenge Harvard (3-1), Cornell (1-3), and Columbia (2-3).

We’re more precise, their defense has come on strong. They believe they can hold a team down on defense, they believe they can stop this offense. It’s a good philosophy. Honestly, it’s how they’ve been able to win games this season.

The sputtering Lafayette offense is probably the last present anyone could have. It’s a non-league game such as this one would not mean as much to the participants as a league game Perhaps the coach would even come up with some special strategies for his team. But this is a non-league game, and we are going to have to rely on our own performance to win the game.

Now Serving!

- Daily Penn - 1.75
- Coed - 1.50
- Bullburger - 2.25
- Drexel Dragon - .95
- Exchange Student - 2.00

All fresh sirloin - char-broiled

BICYCLE SALES & SERVICE

2102 Market Street

FREE!

"Hilarious, extraordinary, irresistible!"

-Judith Christ

Saturday, Oct 19 9:00 p.m.

Houston Hall Ivy Room

Musical Insomniacs, Rejoice!

Midnight Chamber Concert

THE MOSTOVY SOLISTS

featuring Vitalid’s The Four Seasons bring your own pillow or cushion to

Fliesher Auditorium of the YM/YWHA

Saturday, October 19th

Tickets $3.50

Students $2.50

for information and reservation LO - 7-6202

Impossible on Saturday

(Pas Question le Samedi)

An Israeli French Comedy

FREE!

Harumphaim presents

China: The Awakening Giant

Film/Lecture

with: Judith Christ

This Danish traveler explored over 4,040 miles by train, truck and riverboat to capture all aspects of China's revolution since the Cultural Revolution.

Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia

SUNDAY, October 20 - 3:00 p.m.

Museum, October 21 - 7:30 p.m.

Admission: $2.50, $1.00 for children under 13

Information: LO - 7-3700

SOPHOMORES AND JUNIORS Wanted:

Editor-in-Chief of Intro to Penn (Internship in Publication Office)

Interviews Oct. 21 and 22

Apply at Student Activities Office

The Daily Pennsylvania

Friday, October 18, 1984

Page 3
Rockefeller's Nomination

By Jack Anderson

Washington—Democrats poked their heads out of their offices today to get a good view of the big press conference that Governor Nelson Rockefeller gave in the Senate Hearing Room of the U.S. Capitol on Friday. Everyone was interested in the nomination of Rockefeller for Secretary of State.

The problem, say the experts, is drawing the distinction between a gift and compensation for services. If Rockefeller associates were being compensated for their services, the money should be considered "bribes" and not gifts. As such, they would be taxable at a higher rate, and the recipients would pay no tax at all.

It is generally agreed that Rockefeller's personal fortune is valued at some $800 million, but in 1969, he paid $250,000 in Federal income taxes. Rockefeller, like most Americans paid Federal income taxes in 1969, that would indicate that Rockefeller is not an average citizen who was paying Rockefeller's taxes.

The money paid to Rockefeller, indirectly or otherwise, is not raised in the same manner that is raised for other things. Rockefeller's money, like the oil tycoons, has not been paid over for years, but was left for one time only. Every dollar that he escape payment must be made up by the system at large.

The money paid to Rockefeller is also paid from the profits of the company. Rockefeller is paid from the profits of the company, not from the profits of the company. Rockefeller is paid from the profits of the company, not from the profits of the company. Rockefeller is paid from the profits of the company, not from the profits of the company.

For instance, Rockefeller's personal fortune is valued at some $800 million. He has not paid any taxes on this fortune. Rockefeller, for instance, is paid tax by the company, and not by Rockefeller himself.

For instance, Rockefeller is paid tax on his personal fortune, which is valued at some $800 million, not by Rockefeller himself. Rockefeller is paid tax by the company, not by Rockefeller himself.

For instance, Rockefeller is paid tax on his personal fortune, which is valued at some $800 million, not by Rockefeller himself. Rockefeller is paid tax by the company, not by Rockefeller himself.

For instance, Rockefeller is paid tax on his personal fortune, which is valued at some $800 million, not by Rockefeller himself. Rockefeller is paid tax by the company, not by Rockefeller himself.

For instance, Rockefeller is paid tax on his personal fortune, which is valued at some $800 million, not by Rockefeller himself. Rockefeller is paid tax by the company, not by Rockefeller himself.

For instance, Rockefeller is paid tax on his personal fortune, which is valued at some $800 million, not by Rockefeller himself. Rockefeller is paid tax by the company, not by Rockefeller himself.

For instance, Rockefeller is paid tax on his personal fortune, which is valued at some $800 million, not by Rockefeller himself. Rockefeller is paid tax by the company, not by Rockefeller himself.

For instance, Rockefeller is paid tax on his personal fortune, which is valued at some $800 million, not by Rockefeller himself. Rockefeller is paid tax by the company, not by Rockefeller himself.

For instance, Rockefeller is paid tax on his personal fortune, which is valued at some $800 million, not by Rockefeller himself. Rockefeller is paid tax by the company, not by Rockefeller himself.

For instance, Rockefeller is paid tax on his personal fortune, which is valued at some $800 million, not by Rockefeller himself. Rockefeller is paid tax by the company, not by Rockefeller himself.

For instance, Rockefeller is paid tax on his personal fortune, which is valued at some $800 million, not by Rockefeller himself. Rockefeller is paid tax by the company, not by Rockefeller himself.

For instance, Rockefeller is paid tax on his personal fortune, which is valued at some $800 million, not by Rockefeller himself. Rockefeller is paid tax by the company, not by Rockefeller himself.

For instance, Rockefeller is paid tax on his personal fortune, which is valued at some $800 million, not by Rockefeller himself. Rockefeller is paid tax by the company, not by Rockefeller himself.

For instance, Rockefeller is paid tax on his personal fortune, which is valued at some $800 million, not by Rockefeller himself. Rockefeller is paid tax by the company, not by Rockefeller himself.

For instance, Rockefeller is paid tax on his personal fortune, which is valued at some $800 million, not by Rockefeller himself. Rockefeller is paid tax by the company, not by Rockefeller himself.
Jury Heats Nixon Tape

WASHINGTON — Ona White House staff member who pleaded guilty to a never-proven crime, Republican Senator Gerald R. Ford said Thursday that he was too young to recall properly how the Watergate break-in took place.

\[\text{Paragraph damaged or unclear.}\]

Congress Passes Bill

Granting Turkey Aid

WASHINGTON — Congress approved a bill granting $400 million in aid to Turkey, a major contribution to the White House. Congressmen voted Thursday to approve President Ford's request for a measure to continue U.S. military aid to Turkey until Dec. 31, 1974, as long as no new U.S. restrictions on arms are sent to Congress.

\[\text{Paragraph damaged or unclear.}\]

New Grad Housing Policy

(Collapsed From Page 1)

n

Shapp

(Collapsed From Page 1)

of life in Pennsylvania," he said.

in severe disease centers that they are not being included during the administration's and the staff. Shapp said, "It's necessary to make sure that they are included."

The policy also includes a "continuing resolution" that has been approved by Congress to provide You'll never put your foot in your mouth after you read "Fat City.

University Scholars: Year II

\[\text{Paragraph damaged or unclear.}\]
Gridders Head to Lafayette to Seek Revenge

By DAVID EINER

After six years of winning battles in search of soccer supremacy, it seems Bob Belcher's men have finally lost the war. Compiling a 0-4 record last season, the Quakers recalled "Dinny" last year's team was a consistent one, but this year's team is a question mark. Belcher, the new assistant coach, hopes to change that.

"It's important that we get a good first home game," commented captain Mike Neas. "It's a question of how we'll get on our feet, and how we'll react in the first game."

At the site of the Lions last fall, Belcher's squad is a season opener is expected to be a season opener of sorts. The Lions are coming off a 0-1 start and will be looking to improve on their performance. The Lions have scored just two goals in their first two games.

"We haven't won a game yet," commented assistant coach Bruce Hescock. "In the next game we're going to have to start playing better."

As far as the Ivy crown goes, it looks as though the title will come down to the Bulldogs and the Bears. The Bears have won the last five games, and are looking to extend their winning streak.

"The Bulldogs have been playing well," Belcher said. "They have a lot of experience and are a team to watch."

Despite the optimism by the two booters, the Quakers find themselves in a situation of now or never. "It's time to win," Belcher said. "We're going to have to start playing better if we want to win the Ivy."

The Bulldogs are a talented team, but the Quakers are not to be written off. "We have a lot of talent," Belcher said. "We just have to play better."