Women's Poetry

By ANDI SPOKERN

Samuel Johnson once commented that a woman artist was like a dog dancing on his hind legs: "One marvels not at how well it is done, but that it is done at all." Dr. Johnson and anyone else who still agrees with him can view the Houston University film festival: "women artists report" this week.

On Friday April 3, 1975, there will be an all-women film festival in the Annenberg Theatre. The series includes two of the most recent documentaries and a film about the high-profile poet, Eve Sforzak, who has had a life of shame and success.

One of the highlights of the festival will be "herstory," a film produced and directed by Eve Sforzak. The film is about her struggle with her sexuality and her experiences as a woman coming out of marriage. She has recently published a new collection entitled Contractions.

Another film, "Women's Poetry," will feature readings from the poetry of four well-known women poets: Alice Notley, Sassafrass, and Marty Kearns, all local poets, all of whom have been published in local and national periodicals.

The theme of the festival is "women, read selections from their works." The screening scheduled for April 3, will feature Barbara Lipshutz, Phyllis Maltz, and Donna Wolfe.

The Only Decision

The editors fear that attitude and high school seniors might reduce the academic performance of students. We hope to increase our seniors' interest in college by offering them a way to improve their chances of being accepted. The only decision that matters in this regard is to provide high school seniors with the opportunity to improve their college readiness. With this in mind, we have included a new section in the upcoming issue of our newspaper.

I'm responsible. I ruined Martin Meyerson's Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey circus. I would correct my terrible mistake in the next issue of your wonderful school paper.

I'm surprised to see that you have given your article to me. I would have thought that you would have given it to someone else. I believe that you were the wrong person to write this article.

I'm Martin Meyerson, and I have been the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey circus clown for the past 20 years. I have been in the circus for 40 years, and I have been a clown for 40 years. I have been a clown for the past 20 years.

I have been the clown for the past 20 years. I have been a clown for 40 years, and I have been a clown for the past 20 years.

I have been the clown for the past 20 years. I have been a clown for 40 years, and I have been a clown for the past 20 years.

I have been the clown for the past 20 years. I have been a clown for 40 years, and I have been a clown for the past 20 years.
