Class of 1979 Represents Rise in Academic Quality

By PETER GRANT

Offering a glimpse of the nation's growing college student body, Mines President Donald Johnson said Thursday that the quality of admitted students is "continuing to improve," according to reports from main campus and the Mines Admissions Office.

Johnson revealed that Mines went from last year’s 79% to 83% in filling the 2,000 student slots. This year, 100 additional students were accepted, he said.

Last year, the accepted Mines class was the highest since 1969. At that time, 84% filled the available spaces. This year, Mines professionals mailed 20,000 letters to over 500 minority students including 100 Asian-Americans, one-third, slightly higher than last year.

Despite the extra letters, the acceptance level remains stable. Johnson said the percentage of students accepted who decided to matriculate has been less than one percent from last year. Johnson claimed this "reflects a decline of less than one per cent from last year’s Mines." However, 100 additional students were accepted this year.

Johnson also cited an increase in the number of students accepted who are within the top third of their highschool class rank, as well.

He expects about 1850 in all.

Newly announced were 100 additional students. By 1979 Johnson expects to have enough students to fill the 2000 student slots.

Mines was also described as being in the ivy league. "This is especially so in the percentage of students accepted who are within the top third of their highschool class rank." Johnson continued.

"The Penn racers not quahfied to be beating in on the Schuylkill River. A total of 214 canoes from mines went in, h" won the first prize in the "beating in on the Schuylkill River." Despite the extra letters, the acceptance level remains stable. Johnson said the percentage of students accepted who decided to matriculate has been less than one percent from last year. Johnson claimed this "reflects a decline of less than one per cent from last year’s Mines." However, 100 additional students were accepted this year.

Johnson also cited an increase in the number of students accepted who are within the top third of their highschool class rank, as well.

He expects about 1850 in all.

Newly announced were 100 additional students. By 1979 Johnson expects to have enough students to fill the 2000 student slots.

"The Penn racers not quahfied to be beating in on the Schuylkill River. A total of 214 canoes from mines went in, h" won the first prize in the "beating in on the Schuylkill River." Despite the extra letters, the acceptance level remains stable. Johnson said the percentage of students accepted who decided to matriculate has been less than one percent from last year. Johnson claimed this "reflects a decline of less than one per cent from last year’s Mines." However, 100 additional students were accepted this year.

Johnson also cited an increase in the number of students accepted who are within the top third of their highschool class rank, as well.

He expects about 1850 in all.

Newly announced were 100 additional students. By 1979 Johnson expects to have enough students to fill the 2000 student slots.

"The Penn racers not quahfied to be beating in on the Schuylkill River. A total of 214 canoes from mines went in, h" won the first prize in the "beating in on the Schuylkill River." Despite the extra letters, the acceptance level remains stable. Johnson said the percentage of students accepted who decided to matriculate has been less than one percent from last year. Johnson claimed this "reflects a decline of less than one per cent from last year’s Mines." However, 100 additional students were accepted this year.

Johnson also cited an increase in the number of students accepted who are within the top third of their highschool class rank, as well.

He expects about 1850 in all.

Newly announced were 100 additional students. By 1979 Johnson expects to have enough students to fill the 2000 student slots.

"The Penn racers not quahfied to be beating in on the Schuylkill River. A total of 214 canoes from mines went in, h" won the first prize in the "beating in on the Schuylkill River." Despite the extra letters, the acceptance level remains stable. Johnson said the percentage of students accepted who decided to matriculate has been less than one percent from last year. Johnson claimed this "reflects a decline of less than one per cent from last year’s Mines." However, 100 additional students were accepted this year.

Johnson also cited an increase in the number of students accepted who are within the top third of their highschool class rank, as well.

He expects about 1850 in all.

Newly announced were 100 additional students. By 1979 Johnson expects to have enough students to fill the 2000 student slots.

"The Penn racers not quahfied to be beating in on the Schuylkill River. A total of 214 canoes from mines went in, h" won the first prize in the "beating in on the Schuylkill River." Despite the extra letters, the acceptance level remains stable. Johnson said the percentage of students accepted who decided to matriculate has been less than one percent from last year. Johnson claimed this "reflects a decline of less than one per cent from last year’s Mines." However, 100 additional students were accepted this year.

Johnson also cited an increase in the number of students accepted who are within the top third of their highschool class rank, as well.

He expects about 1850 in all.

Newly announced were 100 additional students. By 1979 Johnson expects to have enough students to fill the 2000 student slots.

"The Penn racers not quahfied to be beating in on the Schuylkill River. A total of 214 canoes from mines went in, h" won the first prize in the "beating in on the Schuylkill River." Despite the extra letters, the acceptance level remains stable. Johnson said the percentage of students accepted who decided to matriculate has been less than one percent from last year. Johnson claimed this "reflects a decline of less than one per cent from last year’s Mines." However, 100 additional students were accepted this year.

Johnson also cited an increase in the number of students accepted who are within the top third of their highschool class rank, as well.

He expects about 1850 in all.

Newly announced were 100 additional students. By 1979 Johnson expects to have enough students to fill the 2000 student slots.

"The Penn racers not quahfied to be beating in on the Schuylkill River. A total of 214 canoes from mines went in, h" won the first prize in the "beating in on the Schuylkill River." Despite the extra letters, the acceptance level remains stable. Johnson said the percentage of students accepted who decided to matriculate has been less than one percent from last year. Johnson claimed this "reflects a decline of less than one per cent from last year’s Mines." However, 100 additional students were accepted this year.

Johnson also cited an increase in the number of students accepted who are within the top third of their highschool class rank, as well.

He expects about 1850 in all.

Newly announced were 100 additional students. By 1979 Johnson expects to have enough students to fill the 2000 student slots.
Brown Students Threaten Strike

By JANET NOVACK

Over 150 students gathered on College Green Friday to protest President Reizenstein's refusal to Congress $1 billion in aid for South Vietnam.

The students, expressing outrage, included students, union members, and the Social Workers' Party candidate for President Peter Camejo. They blasted everything from Ford's recognition of the South Vietnamese government to the war in general.

Declaring that "when Saigon falls that will end 18 years of imperialist domination in Vietnam," Camejo told his audience "we should at least be celebrating the Saigon government's defeat, for we are at the very end of the war...means the saving of millions of lives. We are for the next generation of Vietnamese." Camejo warned students for their political apathy, Camejo asserted that soon "the workers are going to say where are we going to take the country and the workers are going to take the country and the workers are going to take the country.

Admonishing students for their political apathy, Camejo said. "You want to make this country better." and he called upon other graduates to send troops back into Vietnam. "We want to make this country better," he added.

Another student, representing the Revolutionary Student Study Group, announced he will walk out of graduation "when they introduce Ford," and he called upon other graduates to do the same.

"I am absolutely opposed to Ford coming here," Camejo said. "The students should be able to select who they want, and not a person appointed by a criminal," he added.

A student representative, the Revolutionary Student Study Group, announced he will walk out of graduation "when they introduce Ford," and he called upon other graduates to do the same.

"I am absolutely opposed to Ford coming here," Camejo said. "The students should be able to select who they want, and not a person appointed by a criminal," he added.

By JANET NOVACK

Over 150 students gathered on College Green Friday to protest President Reizenstein's refusal to Congress $1 billion in aid for South Vietnam.

The students, expressing outrage, included students, union members, and the Social Workers' Party candidate for President Peter Camejo. They blasted everything from Ford's recognition of the South Vietnamese government to the war in general.

Declaring that "when Saigon falls that will end 18 years of imperialist domination in Vietnam," Camejo told his audience "we should at least be celebrating the Saigon government's defeat, for we are at the very end of the war...means the saving of millions of lives. We are for the next generation of Vietnamese." Camejo warned students for their political apathy, Camejo asserted that soon "the workers are going to say where are we going to take the country and the workers are going to take the country and the workers are going to take the country.

Admonishing students for their political apathy, Camejo said. "You want to make this country better." and he called upon other graduates to send troops back into Vietnam. "We want to make this country better," he added.

Another student, representing the Revolutionary Student Study Group, announced he will walk out of graduation "when they introduce Ford," and he called upon other graduates to do the same.

"I am absolutely opposed to Ford coming here," Camejo said. "The students should be able to select who they want, and not a person appointed by a criminal," he added.

A student representative, the Revolutionary Student Study Group, announced he will walk out of graduation "when they introduce Ford," and he called upon other graduates to do the same.

"I am absolutely opposed to Ford coming here," Camejo said. "The students should be able to select who they want, and not a person appointed by a criminal," he added.
Viet Battle Undecided

SAIGON (UPI) - The South Vietnamese government and Uniformed Services Command headquarters had moved its headquarters from the destroyed presidential capital of Saigon to the northern city of Hanoi.

The government claimed control of Saigon and the surrounding area, but the communists said that their forces were also in control.

The United Nations Security Council unanimously adopted a resolution calling for an end to the fighting and a return to negotiations.

Register to Vote Tomorrow

HARNWELL HOUSE
3820 LOCUST WALK
3:30-9:30
27th Ward Democrats for Lou Hill
4210 Baltimore Avenue
April 16

Audiocast

MUSIC ART FOOD FINE ARTS PROGRAM

Spring Fling on April 17, 18, 19 in the Quad

Audiocast

Fencing Team Captain and Coaches
Draft Meeting William White Training House, 7 PM Wed., April 15

Announcement Center

NEWS BRIEF

Vietnam

A new "aggressive committee" under Gen. Vo Nguyen exams the end of the war and the return of peace.

The committee, which includes representatives of the United Nations, the United States, and the communist bloc, will meet in Paris to discuss proposals for a cease-fire and a political settlement.

Value up to $3.50

Use this coupon with the purchase of a second dinner of equal or greater value at MAHARAJA

HARRINGTON INDIAN RESTAURANT
110 South 45th Street, Phila., PA 22245
Closed: Sun. and Mon.

ATTENDANT

DISNEY FINE ARTS PROGRAM

Audiocast

AVON

U.S. News & World Report

April 15, 1975

Audiocast

Eating Out

Daniel E. O'Brien, Jr., director of the University Council Office, said that the new council would be responsible for the operation of the dining service building and grounds, the planning and design office, and the planning position.

The reorganization scheme, announced last month, would create the position of Vice-President for Operations.

The government claimed control of Saigon and the surrounding area, but the communists said that their forces were also in control.

The United Nations Security Council unanimously adopted a resolution calling for an end to the fighting and a return to negotiations.

The new council would be responsible for the operation of the dining service building and grounds, the planning and design office, and the planning position.

The reorganization scheme, announced last month, would create the position of Vice-President for Operations.

The government claimed control of Saigon and the surrounding area, but the communists said that their forces were also in control.

The United Nations Security Council unanimously adopted a resolution calling for an end to the fighting and a return to negotiations.

The new council would be responsible for the operation of the dining service building and grounds, the planning and design office, and the planning position.

The reorganization scheme, announced last month, would create the position of Vice-President for Operations.

The government claimed control of Saigon and the surrounding area, but the communists said that their forces were also in control.

The United Nations Security Council unanimously adopted a resolution calling for an end to the fighting and a return to negotiations.

The new council would be responsible for the operation of the dining service building and grounds, the planning and design office, and the planning position.

The reorganization scheme, announced last month, would create the position of Vice-President for Operations.

The government claimed control of Saigon and the surrounding area, but the communists said that their forces were also in control.

The United Nations Security Council unanimously adopted a resolution calling for an end to the fighting and a return to negotiations.

The new council would be responsible for the operation of the dining service building and grounds, the planning and design office, and the planning position.

The reorganization scheme, announced last month, would create the position of Vice-President for Operations.

The government claimed control of Saigon and the surrounding area, but the communists said that their forces were also in control.

The United Nations Security Council unanimously adopted a resolution calling for an end to the fighting and a return to negotiations.

The new council would be responsible for the operation of the dining service building and grounds, the planning and design office, and the planning position.

The reorganization scheme, announced last month, would create the position of Vice-President for Operations.

The government claimed control of Saigon and the surrounding area, but the communists said that their forces were also in control.

The United Nations Security Council unanimously adopted a resolution calling for an end to the fighting and a return to negotiations.

The new council would be responsible for the operation of the dining service building and grounds, the planning and design office, and the planning position.

The reorganization scheme, announced last month, would create the position of Vice-President for Operations.

The government claimed control of Saigon and the surrounding area, but the communists said that their forces were also in control.

The United Nations Security Council unanimously adopted a resolution calling for an end to the fighting and a return to negotiations.

The new council would be responsible for the operation of the dining service building and grounds, the planning and design office, and the planning position.

The reorganization scheme, announced last month, would create the position of Vice-President for Operations.
How the University Ruined Annenberg

By Richard Khrencher

The following testimony was given by Richard Khrencher, who resigned as President of the Annenberg Center, and was deposed by the University in a lawsuit over the establishment of a major in Performing Arts. This testimony was taken as a part of the records and was used in a lawsuit that has been filed against the University by the Annenberg School.

Richard Khrencher, the former President of the University of Pennsylvania, has been deposed in a lawsuit over the establishment of a new major in Performing Arts. The lawsuit alleges that the University failed to comply with the state's higher education law, which requires that new majors be approved by the Board of Trustees. The University has denied the allegations and is awaiting a decision from the court.

The University of Pennsylvania has been accused of violating the state's higher education law by establishing a new major in Performing Arts without proper approval. The lawsuit, filed by the Annenberg School, alleges that the University failed to follow the proper procedures and that the new major will divert resources from other academic programs.

The University of Pennsylvania has been accused of violating the state's higher education law by establishing a new major in Performing Arts without proper approval. The lawsuit, filed by the Annenberg School, alleges that the University failed to follow the proper procedures and that the new major will divert resources from other academic programs.

The University of Pennsylvania has been accused of violating the state's higher education law by establishing a new major in Performing Arts without proper approval. The lawsuit, filed by the Annenberg School, alleges that the University failed to follow the proper procedures and that the new major will divert resources from other academic programs.

The University of Pennsylvania has been accused of violating the state's higher education law by establishing a new major in Performing Arts without proper approval. The lawsuit, filed by the Annenberg School, alleges that the University failed to follow the proper procedures and that the new major will divert resources from other academic programs.
Kirschner Resignation

(Continued from page 1) Office of Student Affairs.

Mr. Kirschner left his position at the University to take a position at the Children's Hospital Medical Center in Boston. He will be succeeded by Mr. Donald L. M. Murray, who has been with the University for several years and has served in various capacities.

Mr. Kirschner's resignation will take effect on August 1, 1978.

1979 Graduating Class

Class of 1979

One of the largest classes in University history, the Class of 1979, will consist of 3,578 students. Of these, 2,777 are men and 794 are women. The class includes students from all over the world, with the largest percentage of students coming from the United States, followed by students from Canada, England, and Australia.

Canoes

(Continued from page 1)

University will begin sponsor a canoe team for the first time in its history. The team will consist of 12 students, and will compete in the 1979 - 1980 season. The team will be coached by Mr. Charles C. Brown, who has been with the University for several years.

Mr. Brown is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and has extensive experience in canoeing. He will be assisted by Mr. James M. Smith, who has been with the University for several years.

CANOE RENTAL

The canoe team will be based in the basement of the Annenberg Center. The center will be open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday, and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays.

Mule Crashes Pineapple

(From page 6)

The mule crashed into the pineapple, sending it rolling down the hill and landing on a nearby car. The mule was injured and had to be towed to the vet.

Crews

(Continued from page 6)

The mule crashed into the pineapple, sending it rolling down the hill and landing on a nearby car. The mule was injured and had to be towed to the vet.
Clutch 'D' Quells Johns' Lax Attack

The Quakers shrugged off an early 5-0 deficit in the second period and held the lead the rest of the way to win 8-5 on Saturday at Harvard.

BEATTIE PLAYS IT OUT

By ROB ESTRANG

"At first I didn't think we had a chance," said Beattie, who had pitched a no-hitter against Dartmouth earlier in the season. "But I knew I had to keep going, and I did."

Beattie's performance overshadowed Dartmouth's number two pitcher, who allowed just two runs on 11 hits. Beattie, who threw a one-hitter, had a career-high seven strikeouts.

"We were definitely tight in the beginning," admitted Adams. "But we eventually settled down and played well.

"I'm very proud of our defense," said Adams.

家纺

Penn Netm en Slip by Green, Slip On Crimson Court over Weekend

By DEAN GREENE

The Quakers were unable to hold onto a 5-0 lead in the third quarter, suffering a 6-5 loss to Harvard on Saturday.

"We had a lot of momentum coming into the game," said Mark Filippone, who scored two goals for the Quakers.

"But we couldn't keep it up," said Filippone.

"We had a chance to win," said Filippone.

"But we couldn't close it out," said Filippone.

"We had a chance to win," said Filippone.