American Studies Expert Named To Assume CGS Director's Post

By STEVEN A. MARQUEZ

Michael Neiditch, a 1968 College graduate, will direct a prominent university program.

MICHAEL NEIDITCH

Committee David Daniels said the group has been working with the University Office of Admissions to recommend a set of applicants designated by the CGS. Daniels said that the committee will present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS. Daniels said that the committee will present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS.

John Daniel, who heads the Office of Admissions, said that the committee will present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS. Daniels said that the committee will present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS.

Cynthia Daniels, a 1968 College graduate, who is currently working in the Office of Admissions, said that the committee will present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS. Daniels said that the committee will present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS.

The committee will meet on Friday, March 17, to present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS. Daniels said that the committee will present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS.

The committee will meet on Friday, March 17, to present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS. Daniels said that the committee will present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS.

The committee will meet on Friday, March 17, to present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS. Daniels said that the committee will present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS.

The committee will meet on Friday, March 17, to present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS. Daniels said that the committee will present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS.

The committee will meet on Friday, March 17, to present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS. Daniels said that the committee will present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS.

The committee will meet on Friday, March 17, to present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS. Daniels said that the committee will present a list of applicants who meet the criteria of the CGS.
Students Study Soviet Management

By VOICELE WITWER

Extricate is in action at the University of Pennsylvania through the efforts of Lubin. The center, managed by the University of Pennsylvania, is designed to promote understanding of the Soviet Union and to provide opportunities for Americans to study in the Soviet Union.

Lubin, who is a professor of business administration at the University of Pennsylvania, was recently named director of the center. He will be responsible for overseeing the center's operations and ensuring that it is meeting its goals.

The center's primary focus is on studying Soviet management practices and understanding the cultural and economic differences that exist between the United States and the Soviet Union. Lubin and his team are working to develop a curriculum that will provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the Soviet business environment.

In addition to offering classes on Soviet management, the center is also working to establish partnerships with Russian universities and businesses. These partnerships will provide students with opportunities to study and work in the Soviet Union, as well as to gain a deeper understanding of the country's culture and economy.

Lubin is optimistic about the center's future.

"I believe that the center will be successful," he said. "We have a great team of faculty and staff, and we are committed to providing students with the best possible education."

"I can't believe that they didn't wear a little skirt that they were supposed to wear," said Lubin.

In spite of the obvious political differences, getting along has not been a problem so far, Lubin added. "Lubin noted, however, that the center has had some debates. "We have a program involving a science and technology program that was a sticking point for a while," he said.

For more information on the center, visit their website at www.extricate.com or contact them at (215) 573-4567.

---

Van Pelt Library Extended Final Exam Hours

December 1976

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Main Collection</th>
<th>Rosengarten Reserve</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Fri., Dec 10</td>
<td>8-10 pm</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sat., Dec 11</td>
<td>10-4 pm</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sun., Dec 12</td>
<td>12-10 pm</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mon.-Fri.,</td>
<td>8-10 pm</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dec. 13-17</td>
<td>8-10 pm</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sat., Dec 18</td>
<td>10-10 am</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sun., Dec 19</td>
<td>12-10 pm</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mon.-Wed.,</td>
<td>8-10 pm</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dec. 20-21</td>
<td>8-10 pm</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

Classifieds

APARTMENTS

- University Student Apartments
  - 2860 Locust St.
  - 314-4977

- Campus Apartments
  - 1010 Locust St.
  - 314-4977

- Student Housing
  - University of Pennsylvania
  - 101 North 34th St.
  - 314-4977

CLASSIFIEDS

- Office Work
  - Secretaries & Typists

- Travel
  - Frozen

- Vehicles
  - Cars
  - Boats

ADMISSION COUPON

---

Students Study Soviet Management

---

Van Pelt Library Extended Final Exam Hours

---

Classifieds

---

Students Study Soviet Management

---

Van Pelt Library Extended Final Exam Hours

---

Classifieds

---

Students Study Soviet Management

---

Van Pelt Library Extended Final Exam Hours

---

Classifieds

---

Students Study Soviet Management

---

Van Pelt Library Extended Final Exam Hours

---

Classifieds

---

Students Study Soviet Management

---

Van Pelt Library Extended Final Exam Hours

---

Classifieds

---

Students Study Soviet Management

---

Van Pelt Library Extended Final Exam Hours

---

Classifieds

---

Students Study Soviet Management

---

Van Pelt Library Extended Final Exam Hours

---

Classifieds

---
Alcoholism on Campus

(Continued from page 1) "One of the problems we are currently addressing is the issue of employees. The University has never instituted a formal program for dealing with alcoholic employees. We are reviewing the situation to see if we can develop a program now," said Mr. Keller.

Mr. Keller added that there has been a recent increase in the number of employees who have been absent from work due to alcohol-related problems. "It is clear that we need to take a closer look at this problem," he said.

According to Mr. Keller, the University is considering implementing a counseling program for alcoholic employees. He added that such a program would be "highly beneficial to both the employee and the University."
Letters to the Editor

A Threat to Psychological Services

As students who have received psychological services from the University, we urge all University students to protest this proposal to eliminate Psychological Services. Currently, we are seeing a growing number of students expressing concern about their psychological needs. In particular, students are reporting increased stress and anxiety in their academic work, as well as a desire to seek help for various issues related to their mental health.

We believe that Psychological Services provides a valuable resource for students dealing with academic and personal challenges. The services offered by Psychological Services are crucial for students looking to address a wide range of issues, including academic success, stress management, and personal well-being. By eliminating Psychological Services, the University is neglecting the mental health needs of its students, which can have long-term detrimental effects on their academic performance and overall well-being.

We urge the University to reconsider this proposal and continue to support Psychological Services. This service is essential for students who require assistance in coping with academic and personal challenges. We believe that continued funding and support for Psychological Services is necessary to ensure that students have access to the help they need to succeed academically and emotionally.
DEMONSTRATION

Students, Faculty, Friends Of SAMP
Let's Repeat What We Said To The Administration About SAMP
A SAMP-Sponsored

WHEN: Tuesday, December 14, 1:00
WHERE: College Hall Green- Where They Can HEAR It
WHY: Because The Administration Should Listen To Our Voice On This Campus

PUBLISHED AT PENN

DESIGNING A NATIONAL SCIENTIFIC AND TECHNOLOGICAL COMMUNICATION SYSTEM
Russell L. Ackoff
with Thomas A. Coan, Peter Davis, Martin C. J. Elton, James C. Emery, Marybeth L. Mdzit, & Wladimir M. Sachs
In this book Russell Ackoff and his colleagues at the Busch Center of the Wharton School of Business provide a plan which would transform the present loose aggregate of scientific and technical information into an organized system. Their idealized design, expressed both in diagrams and in sequential verbal components, envisages a flow of information on a national scale from all possible points of origin to all possible points of application.

Russell L. Ackoff is Silberman Professor of Systems Sciences at the Busch Center. A recognized authority in the fields of operations research, systems sciences, and corporate planning, he has been a researcher for IBM, AT&T, and Standard Oil, and a consultant for the National Academy of Sciences.

$12.00
November, 1976

WOMEN IN THE ORGANIZATION
Harold H. Frank
These true accounts of women in managerial and professional positions are combined in casebook describing the experience of women in a wide variety of organizational settings—social work, journalism, medicine, insurance, finance, and administration—with readings carefully chosen for relevance to the issues raised in the cases and references for independent study and research.

Harold H. Frank, formerly Assistant Professor of Management in the Wharton School and currently Assistant Professor of Group Dynamics in Psychiatry, the School of Medicine, and Associate Dean at the Annenberg School of Communications at the University of Pennsylvania, in addition is vice president of the MITHRAS Group Ltd., a management and health care consulting firm.

Interviews with Dr. Frank have appeared in many prestigious publications, including the Wall Street Journal, Business Week, Finance, and Psychology Today. WOMEN IN THE ORGANIZATION is the culmination of research for which he has received national recognition.

$12.00
December, 1976

SPEECH PLAY: Research and Resources for the Study of Linguistic Creativity
Edited by Barbara Kirshenblatt-Gimblalt

From riddles to proverbs, from jokes to riddles and from mnemonics to pig Latin to dueling with words, speech play is central to social life in all of its forms. These studies describe a variety of speech play genres, formulate the "rules" of the language used, and discuss the relevance of speech play to current issues in linguistic theory, cognitive development, and the etymology of speaking.

Barbara Kirshenblatt-Gimblalt is Associate Professor of Folklore and Folk Life at the University of Pennsylvania and Visiting Professor of Yiddish Studies, Columbia University and Max Weinreich Center of Advanced Jewish Studies, Yivo.

$15.00
May, 1976

ECOMETRIC MODEL PERFORMANCE
Comparative Simulation Studies of the U.S. Economy
Edited by Laurence R. Klein and Edwin Burmeister

In studies that come closer than any before to standardizing model operations for testing purposes, the editors evaluate the performance of eleven econometric models of the American economy.

Laurence R. Klein is Benjamin Franklin Professor of Economics and Finance at the University of Pennsylvania. He is President of the American Economics Association as well as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Wharton Economic Forecasting Associates. In addition, he is Senior Advisor of the Brookings Institute and Director of Project LINK. Edwin Burmeister, formerly Professor of Economics at the University of Pennsylvania, is Professor of Economics and a member of the Center of Advanced Study at the University of Virginia. Since 1970 he has been Editor of the International Econometric Review.

$10.00
November, 1976

THE WIDENING CIRCLE: ESSAYS ON THE CIRCULATION OF LITERATURE IN EIGHTEENTH-CENTURY EUROPE
Edited by Paul J. Korshin

Three distinguished authorities discuss the history of books, literary commerce, and the reading public in eighteenth-century England, France, and Germany. Employing new, often untouched materials—newspaper circulation and delivery figures, notebook and advertisements in London and local papers, subscription lists in provincial towns and cities—Robert Darnton, Roy M. Wiles, and Bernard Wasser provide a broad view of the reading scene in eighteenth-century Europe. They lay the ground work for the intellectual, social and literary historian as well as the student of political revolutions.

Paul J. Korshin is Associate Professor of English at the University of Pennsylvania and Executive Secretary of the American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies. THE WIDENING CIRCLE is the tenth book that he has written, edited, or introduced. He will be Program Chairman of the Bicentennial Conference on "The American Revolution and Eighteenth-Century Culture," which is being held at the University in November.

$15.00
November, 1976

MODERN ECONOMIC THOUGHT
Edited by Sidney Weintraub

Under the editorship of a highly respected senior figure, the 30 contributors to this book reflect a century of economic thought—from Marshall's neo-classicism to post-Keynesian distribution concepts. Many of the chapters themselves constitute refinements of economic theory, and comprise a comprehensive view of modern economics designed to see the subject as a whole even as it surveys its parts.

Sidney Weintraub is Professor of Economics at the University of Pennsylvania. An authority on classical Keynesian economics, price theory, and income distribution, he has achieved wide recognition as a writer and lecturer.

$25.00
November, 1976

ECONOMETRIC MODEL PERFORMANCE
Comparative Simulation Studies of the U.S. Economy
Edited by Laurence R. Klein and Edwin Burmeister

In studies that come closer than any before to standardizing model operations for testing purposes, the editors evaluate the performance of eleven econometric models of the American economy.

Laurence R. Klein is Benjamin Franklin Professor of Economics and Finance at the University of Pennsylvania. He is President of the American Economics Association as well as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Wharton Economic Forecasting Associates. In addition, he is Senior Advisor of the Brookings Institute and Director of Project LINK. Edwin Burmeister, formerly Professor of Economics at the University of Pennsylvania, is Professor of Economics and a member of the Center of Advanced Study at the University of Virginia. Since 1970 he has been Editor of the International Econometric Review.

$10.00
November, 1976

THE WIDENING CIRCLE: ESSAYS ON THE CIRCULATION OF LITERATURE IN EIGHTEENTH-CENTURY EUROPE
Edited by Paul J. Korshin

Three distinguished authorities discuss the history of books, literary commerce, and the reading public in eighteenth-century England, France, and Germany. Employing new, often untouched materials—newspaper circulation and delivery figures, notebook and advertisements in London and local papers, subscription lists in provincial towns and cities—Robert Darnton, Roy M. Wiles, and Bernard Wasser provide a broad view of the reading scene in eighteenth-century Europe. They lay the ground work for the intellectual, social and literary historian as well as the student of political revolutions.

Paul J. Korshin is Associate Professor of English at the University of Pennsylvania and Executive Secretary of the American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies. THE WIDENING CIRCLE is the tenth book that he has written, edited, or introduced. He will be Program Chairman of the Bicentennial Conference on "The American Revolution and Eighteenth-Century Culture," which is being held at the University in November.

$15.00
November, 1976

MODERN ECONOMIC THOUGHT
Edited by Sidney Weintraub

Under the editorship of a highly respected senior figure, the 30 contributors to this book reflect a century of economic thought—from Marshall's neo-classicism to post-Keynesian distribution concepts. Many of the chapters themselves constitute refinements of economic theory, and comprise a comprehensive view of modern economics designed to see the subject as a whole even as it surveys its parts.

Sidney Weintraub is Professor of Economics at the University of Pennsylvania. An authority on classical Keynesian economics, price theory, and income distribution, he has achieved wide recognition as a writer and lecturer.

$25.00
November, 1976
the guards finally reached an agreement with the University after six rounds of contract negotiations—this time with the security force.

agenda and several sections were slated to house the Harnwell Arts project.

required to make up incompletes within four weeks of the following semester of concerning incompletes and grade changes. Under the new policy, students are degree from the University, along with a number of other notables, including no formal dissent was heard.

happy about,” he said, “but necessary.”

Meyerson noted that administrators would also have to limit faculty and staff incompletes given to students.

The University also considered accommodating members of a yet-to-be-accepted special admissions groups.

of Stephen Goff as director of the Annenberg Center

July 1, and a two percent raise January 1, 1977.

The faculty also approved in principle the idea of instituting a theater arts room on the 1920 Dining Commons, into the Carriage House. Dining Service owned by the University, at the end of their lease July 31. This move was a result received notice May 14 to vacate their space in the Furness Carriage House, budgetary funds would be its overall financial situation.

announced that the tuition payment deadline for the fall semester had been

subsequent, the Co-op's proprietors remained in the Carriage House after the

Subsequently, the Co-op's proprietors remained in the Carriage House after the

announced that the tuition payment deadline for the fall semester had been

subsequent, the Co-op's proprietors remained in the Carriage House after the

announced that the tuition payment deadline for the fall semester had been

subsequent, the Co-op's proprietors remained in the Carriage House after the

announced that the tuition payment deadline for the fall semester had been

subsequent, the Co-op's proprietors remained in the Carriage House after the

announced that the tuition payment deadline for the fall semester had been

subsequent, the Co-op's proprietors remained in the Carriage House after the

announced that the tuition payment deadline for the fall semester had been

subsequent, the Co-op's proprietors remained in the Carriage House after the

announced that the tuition payment deadline for the fall semester had been subsequent, the Co-op's proprietors remained in the Carriage House after the Summer

September

In September, returning students and incoming freshmen were welcomed by the swinging Philadelphia heat and the news that the University had decided to Phase out the School. Meanwhile, the Co-op was waging a court battle, begun in August, to fight their eviction from the University owned Furness Carriage House located in the University's Operational Services department kept busy over the summer with the construction of several campus improvements. The University's Operational Services department kept busy over the summer with the construction of several campus improvements. In addition, theater Pennsylvania presented "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown" every weekend through the summer with the usual hit. The Phillies also provided a popular summer diversion, and hopes for the season were high at Veterans Stadium. The student, 31-year-old Diane Levitt, a junior at the University, announced that the marriage of the graduate and undergraduate study-stay students was cut back this academic year due to financial difficulties.

October

November-December

For a brief moment in November the spirit and emotion of the 1960's seemed to affect many others. The undesirable stigma haunted the city for months, and gained the city some unwanted publicity. The mysterious malady, traced to the Philadelphia heat and the news that the University had decided to phase out the School. After three hours, the faculty voted unanimously in favor of the option to upgrade SAMP. The University Council overwhelmingly adopted a motion sponsored by the neighboring Philadelphia heat and the news that the University had decided to phase out the School. Meanwhile, the Co-op was waging a court battle, begun in August, to fight their eviction from the University owned Furness Carriage House located in the University's Operational Services department kept busy over the summer with the construction of several campus improvements. The University's Operational Services department kept busy over the summer with the construction of several campus improvements.

By CAROL HUTCHINSON

By ELLIS M. KRIESBERG
This is XXXX your typewriter
This is DP GRAPHICS typesetting.
And this...
And this...
And this...
And over 35 other typefaces that can be set in a variety of sizes to meet your typesetting needs.
New CGS Director

(Continued from page 1)

Development and attracting the public into continuing skill education programs.

The JCC has a role to play in this. It is important that the JCC maintain its "new support," noting that "Monday and Others." are behind expanding continuing education programs for women, corporation people and unemployed people. This is, of course," he said, "subject to staff conferences." Certal/has served as Assistant Dean of the College and Director of the Office of Continuing Education at the University of Pennsylvania, assistant to the vice-president for academic affairs at Boston State College and associate dean of the Graduate School and associate professor of History at George Mason University.

Caridi will be on campus Wednesday to visit with the University administrators.

U. Evidence

(Continued from page 1)

...efforts to strengthen and clarify the administrative lines of control over the station. As the JCC considers the new material will decrease the amount of examples of corrective action that are part of the record.

Figures

(Continued from page 1)

...received for unrestricted spending.

According to development officials, the best time for the campaigns, since the University has attained its fiscal year goal.

The next month is seen by development officials as crucial to the drive's hopes of raising in fiscal year goals. The end of the year is traditionally the last time for the campaign, so donors hope it is viewed as a tax deduction for WAg donors to non-profit institutions such as the University.

Contact Lens Specialist

Our Price are Anonymity Over

Dr. Leon Blumfield

849 12th St.

Newark, NJ 07112

Going Job-Hunting?

If you are, consider the advantages of a professionally typeset resume, the only projection of yourself that your prospective employer will see.

We at DP Graphics are professionals. We typeset anything from letterheads or advertisements to brochures and magazines.

But we also set resumes. And we are convenient, fast, and economical.

Ask around... then come to DP Graphics

4615 1/2 Walnut St.
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19104
215-742-6858

An example of a DP GRAPHICS typeset resume.

Objective

A position requiring interpersonal and evaluative skills in the field of financial management or control.

Education

January 1976 - present WHARTON SCHOOL, University of Pennsylvania
Candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Economics. Major in economics with courses in personnel management, applied mathematics, statistics and accounting.

1973-1976 FACULTY OF ARTS AND SCIENCES, University of Pennsylvania
Major in economics diversified by courses in English, Russian language and business law. Transferred into the Wharton School to obtain a stronger background in practical applications of economic theory.

Work Experience

"The planet's friendly genius" gives "The Man Who Would Be King" thing to an intellectual hero in American culture today. Erikson's ideas

Bring This Ad, Buy A Sandwich

Any Time During December 1976 And January 1977

And We'll Give You A FREE

Soda Or Ice Cream Cone At

Philly Mignon

Where We Sell

The Only Real Cheese Steaks

And Hoagies

In New York

Plus Bassett's Reading Terminal Ice Cream.

Philly Mignon's Are At

86th & 2nd Ave, 75th And Broadway
And 8th MacDougall In Manhattan

Four Perfect Gift Books

From MacMillan

AND IT CAME TO PASS—NOT TO STAY

R. Buckmonister Fuller
The planet's friendly genius gives his social and political philosophy Fuller is "the 'Leonardo of our age,' a philosopher, a visionary..." —Newswear

$6.95

THE HITE REPORT

A Nationwide Study of Female Sexuality

Shore Hite

An explicit and revolutionary view of female sexuality

$12.50

ERIK H. ERIKSON

THE POWER AND LIMITS OF A VISION

Paul Rosen

"Erik Erikson is probably the closest thing to an intellectual hero in American culture today."

—New York Times Book Review

The first general introduction to Erikson's ideas

$8.95

Now at the PennStores!
Shapp Delays Announcing Of State Education Head

BY RHONDA ORIN

Pennsylvania Governor Milton Shapp will not announce his replacement for retiring Secretary of Education John Pfliminger until January, Peter Pittenger, the governor's assistant press secretary, said Friday.

McDonald's Quarter Pounder with Cheese.

Get the second one free.

DIAMONDS
Ship worldwide — Welcome to us

MARVIN NEUBAUER
740 Sansom St.
6th Floor-Room 600
WAS-2254

This Is The Last Issue Of
The Daily Pennsylvanian

For The Fall Semester
We Will Return Next Semester.
On

Ad Deadline For That Issue Is
Monday, January 17, 1977 At 12:00.

The Editors And Staff Of
The Daily Pennsylvanian

Extend Their Best Wishes
For A Most Joyous Holiday Season.

Buy a

Quarter Pounder with Cheese.

Get the second one free.

Shapp Delays Announcing Of State Education Head

By Rhonda Orin

Pennsylvania Governor Milton Shapp will not announce his replacement for retiring Secretary of Education John Pfliminger until January, Peter Pittenger, the governor's assistant press secretary, said Friday.

Pfliminger announced June 1 that he would resign his position effective February 1. According to Richard Wilson, Pittenger's public relations director, the secretary is planning to teach at the Harvard Law School.

George Revel, the director of nuclear aid, said the appointing authority of Education "won't affect Penn directly." The University deals more directly with Kenneth Scherler, the executive director of the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (PHEAA).

PHEAA is an independent commission with 21 members; one is the Secretary of Education. There are appointed by the governor, and eight each chosen by the Senate and the House. According to Royer Bark, the University's executive assistant for development and university relations, its purpose is to improve higher education opportunities.

Although Shapp would not comment about who he thought the governor might choose for the position and disagreement about the kind of person who should be elected, "educators would want an educator," legislators would want a legislator and so on," he said.

Wilson said that there are many rumors about who the governor might choose for the position and disagreement about the kind of person who should be elected. "Educators would want an educator," legislators would want a legislator and so on," he said.

Wilson added that there is a "hot rumor" that the governor might consider selecting a woman for the position.

"How Can I
Make My Life
Worthwhile?"

One may try to live within the Augustinian Fraternity. When you come to live with us, you observe and participate in our community for several years before making a final commitment. You observe that we are a religious community following the charism of St. Augustine and "that together and with one heart In the Heart Of the Bookstore

MATH/STAT/SCIENTIFIC

Mathematical
Statistical
Scientific

Save $169.95
Reg. $250.00

Save $34.95
Reg. $79.95

Save $175.00
Reg. $250.00

Save $150.00
Reg. $300.00

Save $175.00
Reg. $350.00

University Business Machines
In The Heart Of The Bookstore

Here's how to make life less complicated for your favorite student.

SR-40
Mathematical
Statistical

$34.95
Reg. $79.95

SR-51-II
Mathematical
Statistical

$64.95
Reg. $99.95

SR-58
Key
Programmable

$89.95
Reg. $179.95

SR-52
Magnetic

$249.95
Reg. $499.95

Card
Programmable

Conversion

3729 Locust Walk
387-5955

"How Can I
Make My Life
Worthwhile?"
Actors Discuss Production At Center Interacts Event

By DAVID PEARL

At a special after-performance discussion of "The Plough and the Stars," held last Friday at the Zellerbach Theater, during Curtain Call, University History professor Lynn Lees explained that the play was first performed at the Abbey Theatre in Dublin in 1926 and then in London and New York in 1927.

The action takes place in the slums of Dublin at the time of the Easter Rebellion of 1916. It is about the failure of the rebellion, and yet the themes of poverty, cruelty and idealism are still vital today. Cusack remarked that "one of the failings of theater in our society is that we don't make social comment."

James Murphy, agreed that the slum dwellers, ordinary people who are the poor, are not the focus of the play. The idealist Irish revolutionaries, the rebels, are the focus.

Cusack, who plays an elderly patriot and loyalist, Bessie Burgess politically. There was no republicanism. The British were not a political issue.

Lee reminded the audience that the play was written only ten years after the rebellion, and yet the themes of poverty, cruelty and idealism are still relevant today.

"People didn't realize that it was a political play," commented McKenna.

Author Sean O'Casey wrote of the peasants and their loves, hates, fears, hopes, dreams and troubles. His realistic depiction of the poor caught on and is still successful today. The play was about the idealistic rebels.

"People didn't realize that it was a political play," commented McKenna.

Actors Discuss Production At Center Interacts Event

The Book For All Ages

A Good Age

by Alex Comfort, M.D., Ph.D., author of The Joy of Sex and More Joy

Illustrated by Michael Leonard

$10.00

A world-renowned gerontologist tells how to prepare today for a happier old age.

"This book is not only for the aged. All people, of all ages, need the basic facts. Those not yet old need to realize what is in store for them if they let things ride."

— Alex Comfort

Now Available at Pucksters Seek Winter Paradise

BY DAVID SCHLAGER

Troy, N.Y. — In an effort to secure the major goal of the winter season, the Penn hockey team (3-3, 1-3 ECAC Div. I) will be playing in the Garden this weekend.

Penn, a non-tourney team, will try to earn a victory over the host Tigers of New York University (4-3) in their first game of January. Their other game in January will be against Cornell (6-0) in Ithaca, N.Y.

The Penn hockey team (3-3, 1-3 ECAC Div. I) is a non-tourney team, meaning that they are not scheduled to play in any tournament this season. However, they are optimistic about their chances of earning a victory over NYU.

Penn is currently ranked 12th in the ECAC Div. I rugby rankings, and they are hoping to use this weekend's games as a stepping stone towards their goal of securing a spot in the ECAC playoffs.

Women Cagers Fall to Yale's Quick Star

BY NANCY GLENDING

Penny's basketball team will be looking for revenge against the Elis in their next game, as they suffered a 7-46 loss to the Yale Bulldogs last weekend.

Yale, ranked 12th in the ECAC Div. I basketball rankings, defeated Penny by a score of 72-46. Despite this loss, Penny's team is still optimistic about their chances of earning a victory over Yale in their next game.

The Penn women's basketball team is looking to bounce back from their loss to Yale by using their experiences from the game to improve their performance in their next game.

Trackmen Finely Tuned at Lehig

BY LUTHER JACKSON

Considering the fact that the Penn indoor track team is just beginning its season, the performances of the Quakers have been impressive so far. The Quakers have set new records in most of the events that they have competed in, and they are looking forward to the rest of the season.

The performances of the Quakers have been especially impressive in the sprints and field events. The sprinters and field event men have been working hard to improve their times, and they are looking forward to the rest of the season.

The Quakers have also been working hard to improve their team chemistry, and they are looking forward to the rest of the season to see how they can perform together.

Delaware Edges Matmen

The Penn wrestling team (0-2) lost to the Delaware Blue Hens (2-3) in their first match of the season, but they are looking forward to their next match against the Columbia Lions.

The Penn wrestling team is currently ranked 12th in the ECAC Div. I wrestling rankings. They are looking forward to the rest of the season and hope to continue their strong performances in the future.

Swimmers 4th at Ursinus

Penny's swim team took 4th place in the Ursinus Invitational this weekend, but they are looking forward to their next meet against the Lehigh Mountain Hawks.

The Penny swim team is currently ranked 12th in the ECAC Div. I swimming rankings. They are looking forward to the rest of the season and hope to continue their strong performances in the future.