Abortions for Needy Still Available At HUP, Despite HEW Cutbacks

By ANNE MARIE STEIN

The Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania (HUP) is one of only three Philadelphia institutions which will continue to make abortion services available to pregnant women, despite a recent decision by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) to cut off federal funds for such services.

``\n
``In June, after the reinstatement of the Hyde Amendment, which would allow for federal funding of abortion services, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare announced that it would cut off federal payments for abortions.``

``The University’s decision to continue providing services was made by the Advisory Committee on abortive procedures, which was appointed in March, 1971. The committee, headed by Joanne Wolf, a spokeswoman for the Teamsters Local 115, examined the University’s records for data on the cost of abortion services during the first year that the program was in operation, 1972-73.``

``Labor Dispute is Quiet Relative to 1975 Strike

By STEVEN A. MARKER

Although the University bookstore during the summer had to undergo some renovation and a lot of cutting back, the University’s connection with the Teamsters, the labor union which represents the fired bookstore employees, has been quiet relative to the 1975 strike.

Improv Blends Music and Dance

By SUSAN ELMAN

I imagine a dance and music that are shot through with a sense of playfulness. The music, the dance, and the space will all make people laugh. The idea is to have a sense of playfulness that is the same mood of the music. This type of movement, improvisational dance, will be performed by Terry Fox, Jedediah Shuster-Jones and Jeff Cool.

VANCE FAILS TO CONVINCE SOUTH KOREA – Secretary of State Cyrus Vance apparently failed yesterday to persuade Foreign Minister Park Tong-Jin to help the United States in getting Tuensang Park sent back to the United States. Park is the central figure in an influence-buying scandal on Capitol Hill. Currently he lives in South Korea.

BRASILIO PINTO ENTERS JAIL – LEBANON – Brazilian jet and armed soldiers of the Christian defense forces occupied the airport and halted all flights in and out of the capital yesterday. The operation was conducted as part of the enforcement of a government executive order calling for the arrest of all Christian stalwarts.

Quality is Key To U. Survival, Gregorian Says

By LARRY FROHMAN

"In the coming years, the only thing that will enable the University to survive will be a quality education," Faculty of Arts and Sciences Dean Vartan Gregorian said Tuesday night before approximately 80 students and other listeners at Van Pelt House.

Speaking primarily on the purposes, strengths and problems of FAS, Gregorian said, "I have no criticism of (the purpose of FAS). There is no difference between vocations and values and a career and an education."

Gregorian said that the liberal arts and sciences had suffered from the rise of pre-professionalism, especially in funding, since the 19th century. He pointed out that the endowment of FAS had almost doubled in the last two and one-half years but that two-thirds of its total endowment was in health-related fields.

Penn soccer moves into the thick of the ECAC race this weekend. The Quakers will host Temple today, and then host the University of Carolina next Sunday in hopes of pulling into a tie for second place in the league.

Penn, with a 4-0-1 season record, is in second place in the conference and hopes to better that mark before the season's end. The Quakers are currently tied with Big Five sleeping giant Temple in the ECAC.

The Temple Owls have struggled against the other top teams in the conference, and the Quakers hope to take advantage of their defensive weakness. The Owls, who have allowed 13 goals in their last five games, have been unable to contain the offensive attacks of other conference teams.
