Security Holds Forum in High-Rise On Methods of Rape Prevention

By ANNE MARIE STEIN

As part of an attempt to make students more aware of rape in this era of power suits and women's lib, Philadelphia College held a rape prevention forum attended by students, faculty, staff and members of the public. The forum was sponsored by the Office of Residential Living and the Philadelphia City Police department.

The forum, which was held in the lower level of the student union, featured a panel discussion on the prevention of rape, followed by a question and answer session with the audience.

WPNX Plea to FCC Is Slated for March 28

By DOM LAMANN

In a separate meeting later Monday afternoon, University's oral argument to appeal the FCC decision on the University's FM radio station, WXPN, was scheduled to be held at 9 a.m. on March 28.

The University requested the oral argument to be held on that date, after the FCC had granted the University's request for a rehearing on the decision, which was originally issued in November. The University had requested the rehearing in order to present new evidence in support of its position that WXPN, a student-run radio station, should be allowed to continue broadcasting.

The FCC decision, which was issued in November, had denied the University's request for a new license for WXPN, and had ordered the station to cease broadcasting until the University could prove that it was not engaged in any illegal activities.

The University has appealed the FCC decision, and the case is now before the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia.

Student Parties Are Staged with Increasing Regularity at the University

By DOUG MANNING

Saturday Night Fever.

According to the University, the increase in the number of parties is due to a combination of factors, including the increased popularity of disco music, the availability of alcohol on campus, and the desire of students to socialize in a more informal setting.

The University has taken steps to address the issue, including increasing police presence at events and implementing new policies to prevent alcohol abuse.

Minorities Meet With Stellar On Carrying Out Proposals

By BOB SCOTT

Student Parties This Weekend: Vary From Dress-Up Sit-In To Hedonism

By BERNIE LAWRENCE

While some of their friends attend College Hall Saturday night, 360 students, wearing jackets, ties, dinner, and other semi-formal attire, danced to disco music in the rooftop lounge of High Rise East.

Their semi-formal attire seemed out of place this weekend for a college dance that was being compared to the college campuses of Berkeley and Columbia of a decade ago.

But that may have been the College Hall in that this was an innocent, semi-formal party being staged with increasing regularity at the University.

"This was the kind of party that the incalculably conservative nature of college students is the free-spending, free-thinker, Saturday Night Fever," explained Jerry Condon, director of student life.

"Students are generally more conservative than they were in the past," Condon stated, "but that doesn't mean they aren't enjoying themselves. In fact, they're probably enjoying themselves more than ever before."

"This party was a great example of how much fun students can have on a Saturday night," Condon added.
CAMPUS EVENTS

TODAY

FOR SALE-TURNTABLE

10013

RESUMES

39TH STREET
2001

COLOR PRINTING • FOLDING • BINDING

1/3 Off Our Low Discount Prices

at tomorrow’s Blood Drive to be held at

SPRING FLING BOOK SALE

FIVE DAYS ONLY-MARCH 8-11

-Entire First Floor Stock

1/3 Off Our Low Discount Prices

--Open Each Day At Noon.

House of Our Own 3920 Spruce
(Note: This Sale Happens Only Once A Year)

"I-GIVE" BLOOD DONOR T-SHIRTS are coming!

Every donor will receive a FREE "I-give" T-Shirt at tomorrow's Blood Drive to be held at HILLEL
36th & Locust—next door to the C.A.

Be sure to pick yours up—all you have to do is give the gift of life! GIVE BLOOD

CLASSIFIEDS

APARTMENTS FOR RENT

APARTMENTS AVAILABLE FOR IMMEDIATE OCCUPANCY.

WANTED

EXPERTS DISSENT. MANUSCRIPTS, AND RENAISSANCE FORMS.

CUT-CAT RICHARD'S PEANUTS WANTED.

MOVING?

NEED APT for summer will be in Phila week of

MARCH 20.

NEED APT for summer will be in Phila week of

MARCH 20.

NEED APT for summer will be in Phila week of

MARCH 20.

SPRING FLING MEETING TONIGHT

McClelland Hall

7:30

Be There!

Agreements Reached During College Hall Sit-In

Three accomplishments were dedicated to the University Hockey Team. They were arrived at over the period March 12-14 by cooperation of the faculty's assessment administration were by various times the President, the Provost, the Vice President, the Finance Director, the Secretary, Vice President for Academic Affairs, the President of the Senate, and the Chairmen of the Senate Committee on the Budget. These committee's machinery is divided into two phases: 1) the President, the Provost, the Finance Director, the Secretary, with the Senate Committee. The committee's machinery is divided into two phases: 1) the President, the Provost, the Finance Director, the Secretary, with the Senate Committee. The committee's machinery is divided into two phases: 1) the President, the Provost, the Finance Director, the Secretary, with the Senate Committee. The committee's machinery is divided into two phases: 1) the President, the Provost, the Finance Director, the Secretary, with the Senate Committee.

The President and the Provost have agreed to meet with the student representatives on the following days:

8th of April – to discuss the University's commitment to the presence of students on campus and the University's position on the use of facilities.

9th of April – to discuss the University's commitment to the presence of students on campus and the University's position on the use of facilities.

10th of April – to discuss the University's commitment to the presence of students on campus and the University's position on the use of facilities.

11th of April – to discuss the University's commitment to the presence of students on campus and the University's position on the use of facilities.

The President and the Provost have agreed to meet with the student representatives on the following days:

8th of April – to discuss the University's commitment to the presence of students on campus and the University's position on the use of facilities.

9th of April – to discuss the University's commitment to the presence of students on campus and the University's position on the use of facilities.

10th of April – to discuss the University's commitment to the presence of students on campus and the University's position on the use of facilities.

11th of April – to discuss the University's commitment to the presence of students on campus and the University's position on the use of facilities.

The President and the Provost have agreed to meet with the student representatives on the following days:

8th of April – to discuss the University's commitment to the presence of students on campus and the University's position on the use of facilities.

9th of April – to discuss the University's commitment to the presence of students on campus and the University's position on the use of facilities.

10th of April – to discuss the University's commitment to the presence of students on campus and the University's position on the use of facilities.

11th of April – to discuss the University's commitment to the presence of students on campus and the University's position on the use of facilities.
Sit-In: I: A Different Drummer

While the names are in College Hall and the Franklin Building, Undergraduate Assembly representatives Jay Spear apparently attempted a showdown sit-in at the Faculty Club Saturday. However, Spear's daring attempt was thwarted when he was literally kicked in the head.

Sit-In II: Her Father's Daughter

As Budget Director Jon Strauss was defending the administration budget policy before the demonstrators at College Hall, his daughter, a University Freshman, was inadvertently locked in the building. Faculty Club Saturday. However, Strauss's daring attempt was thwarted when he was "kicked in the head."
America's Inevitable Crisis

By Peter Burwasser

There is a discernable trend toward the development of a philosophy of the Seventies. In general, some of the more advanced of our present society have already explored the topic of self, and have, in a sense, come to terms with their own emotional experiences. The Seventies are exciting times because the individual is able to face the future, to face old problems creatively and ultimately solve them. In a sense, we are at the threshold of making a change. It is the responsibility of all. And as we destroy our friends and lovers and generation against the senseless I'm certain that the problem of Richard Nixon, the spiritual crushed at Kent State, when its social issues. In the thirties, we fought upward, does crime likewise in- us arbitrarily choose crime. Why, as can hardly supply a satisfactory demand to be answered. First, what mention, all symptomatic of the 1. What seems to be the question posed by Lenin in the early 1920s? What is the role of social revolutions of the downtrodden, is revolution of the downtrodden, is renewed spirit of social commitment today. I can provide a partial answer. What had begun as a crisis ended with a celebration. Some were moved both students and administrators. The University's demise last weekend by Anatoly Shcharansky. Standing for Higher Ideals

Fleeting Concessions?

By John Daniszewski

The disengagement of creative readers around the negotiation table in Israeli Government is only the beginning of a new phase. That tradition of truth and commitment that stood behind the liberation of the modern fundamental truth of U.S. law lies, "It is a mistake to think that the decisions and violations that a minute solo...."

By John Daniszewski

The disengagement of creative readers around the negotiation table in Israeli Government is only the beginning of a new phase. That tradition of truth and commitment that stood behind the liberation of the modern fundamental truth of U.S. law lies, "It is a mistake to think that the decisions and violations that a minute solo...."

Chronicles

By John Daniszewski

The disengagement of creative readers around the negotiation table in Israeli Government is only the beginning of a new phase. That tradition of truth and commitment that stood behind the liberation of the modern fundamental truth of U.S. law lies, "It is a mistake to think that the decisions and violations that a minute solo...."

Standing for Higher Ideals

by Scott Alter

thought of cooperation between the very people who are supposed to group, family lives. So far, mutual understanding and the feeling of accomplishment, relief, and immediate solutions. One day, and two months Anatoly Shcharansky has sat in a cell, and two months later he was released. On May 17, 1975, the Soviet government announced that Anatoly Shcharansky was free to leave the Soviet Union immediately. Anatoly Shcharansky had been a political prisoner in the Soviet Union since 1972. He was arrested in 1972 and spent nearly four years in prison until his release in 1976.

Fleeting Concessions?

By John Daniszewski

The disengagement of creative readers around the negotiation table in Israeli Government is only the beginning of a new phase. That tradition of truth and commitment that stood behind the liberation of the modern fundamental truth of U.S. law lies, "It is a mistake to think that the decisions and violations that a minute solo...."

Chronicles

By John Daniszewski

The disengagement of creative readers around the negotiation table in Israeli Government is only the beginning of a new phase. That tradition of truth and commitment that stood behind the liberation of the modern fundamental truth of U.S. law lies, "It is a mistake to think that the decisions and violations that a minute solo...."

Standing for Higher Ideals

by Scott Alter

thought of cooperation between the very people who are supposed to group, family lives. So far, mutual understanding and the feeling of accomplishment, relief, and immediate solutions. One day, and two months Anatoly Shcharansky has sat in a cell, and two months later he was released. On May 17, 1975, the Soviet government announced that Anatoly Shcharansky was free to leave the Soviet Union immediately. Anatoly Shcharansky had been a political prisoner in the Soviet Union since 1972. He was arrested in 1972 and spent nearly four years in prison until his release in 1976.

Fleeting Concessions?

By John Daniszewski

The disengagement of creative readers around the negotiation table in Israeli Government is only the beginning of a new phase. That tradition of truth and commitment that stood behind the liberation of the modern fundamental truth of U.S. law lies, "It is a mistake to think that the decisions and violations that a minute solo...."
Terrapins too tall, Too Tough for Women Five in 110-44 Trouncing

By ROY RIEDEL

Penn was too much for Temple as the women ragers (13-4) must have felt the Black and Gold jinx as they were upset (15-4) by the University of Maryland (1-14) and eliminated from the EAIAW playoffs. Penn led 17-10 only to be carried away as the terms of the competition introduced to the big time as they played the Maryland contest before a dense Terp student crowd. Penn head coach Howard by 15 points. Temple had 17 points and 12 rebounds to the point
Kim Dox and Mary Muson behind got out with it and triumphantly opposed
The 1977-78 nucleus will be back next year. Only graduating captain Sue Ray will be absent next year. The 1977-78 nucleus will be back and they should feel proud for a tremendous year. Their record was 25-8 and they completed the strenuous campaign. Hopefully, the program is moving in the right direction. Another chapter was written in women's basketball as Darryl Dawkins felt relieved he won.

Chamber of Commerce

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Kingsley

228 S. Main St. 1-15

Rushgram: 3005-

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Kingsley

228 S. Main St. 1-15

Rushgram: 3005-

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Kingsley

228 S. Main St. 1-15

Rushgram: 3005-
Bonnie's Tourney -Tested Team

By JONATHAN LANIER

Who or what is St. Bonaventure?

In the on-going saga that is known as the history of the St. Bonaventure University basketball program, the Bonnies are now one of the most successful teams in the nation. The Bonnies have been a top 25 team for the past three seasons, and have been ranked as high as 7th in the nation. The Bonnies are currently the number 1 team in the East, and are one of the top teams in the nation.

The Bonnies are led by head coach Greg Satalin, who is in his 6th year at the helm. Satalin has been able to build a strong program at St. Bonaventure, and has brought in top recruits to help make the Bonnies a power on the court.

Satalin's leadership has been key to the success of the Bonnies. He has been able to bring in top recruits, and has been able to develop his own players. The Bonnies have a solid core of returning players, and have added some key freshmen to the mix.

The Bonnies have a balanced scoring attack, with five players averaging in double figures. Senior point guard Scott Whitehead leads the team in assists with 7.6 per game, while junior guard Billy O'Hara is averaging 15.2 points per game. Senior forward John Janiak is averaging 14.7 points per game, and senior forward Mark Czepeda is averaging 13.8 points per game.

The Bonnies have a solid defense, and are one of the top teams in the nation in this category. They are allowing just 60.2 points per game, and are holding their opponents to 43.8% shooting from the field. The Bonnies have been able to shut down some of the top teams in the nation, and have a chance to be a top seed in the March Madness tournament.

The Bonnies are a team to watch in the upcoming season. They have a solid core of returning players, and are expected to be a top seed in the March Madness tournament. With the right kind of play, the Bonnies could make a deep run in the tournament.

The Bonnies are a team to watch in the upcoming season. They have a solid core of returning players, and are expected to be a top seed in the March Madness tournament. With the right kind of play, the Bonnies could make a deep run in the tournament.