University Will Investigate Asbestos in Buildings

Philly Police Captain Attends UA Meeting

Van Service To Expand 'Its Terrance'

Controversial Poet Speaks of 'Transcendence'

FDA Asks Warning On Tampon Use

Van Service To Expand 'Its Terrance'

Controversial Poet Speaks of 'Transcendence'

Van Service To Expand 'Its Terrance'

Controversial Poet Speaks of 'Transcendence'

Van Service To Expand 'Its Terrance'

Controversial Poet Speaks of 'Transcendence'

Van Service To Expand 'Its Terrance'

Controversial Poet Speaks of 'Transcendence'

Van Service To Expand 'Its Terrance'

Controversial Poet Speaks of 'Transcendence'

Van Service To Expand 'Its Terrance'

Controversial Poet Speaks of 'Transcendence'

Van Service To Expand 'Its Terrance'

Controversial Poet Speaks of 'Transcendence'

Van Service To Expand 'Its Terrance'

Controversial Poet Speaks of 'Transcendence'
Campus Events

NEWS IN BRIEF

Iraq Agrees to Cease-Fire

Baghdad, Iraq — Iraq agreed yesterday to a U.N. requested cease-fire provided Iran did the same, but the fighting did not end. The U.S. military and Iran dropped their own cease-fire, also requested by the U.N., while Iran's leadership was divided over the fighting, which has lasting impact on the region.

Iraqi President Saddam Hussein met in New Delhi with Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi and said he was ready to discuss the situation under the framework of international law, calling for a cease-fire.

Carter Host by Record

A U.S. Justice Department investigation into illegal price fixing in the record industry reportedly was halted last year after President Jimmy Carter took note with some members of the record industry.

---

SAC Reverses Penn Press Funding Cut

The Student Activities Committee at the University of Pennsylvania has reversed a decision to cut the press's funding, according to the campus student newspaper, The Daily Pennsylvanian.

The Press, which had requested $2,500 from the Student Activities Committee to cover the cost of publication, chose not to request additional funding. The Finance Committee found the request "disingenuous," and said that the Press publication was not appropriate in other campus publications such as The Daily Pennsylvanian. The Finance Committee also recommended the Press provide financial support for its publication.

The Steering Committee also recommended that the Press provide financial support for its publication. The Finance Committee also recommended that the Press provide financial support for its publication.
Supportive Services—

(Continued from page 1)

Supportive Services—

(Continued from page 1)

Some people explained that instead of having one center serve all the needs of the minority community, such responsi-

(Continued from page 1)

Some people explained that instead of having one center serve all the needs of the minority community, such responsi-

(Continued from page 1)

Some people explained that instead of having one center serve all the needs of the minority community, such responsi-

(Continued from page 1)

Some people explained that instead of having one center serve all the needs of the minority community, such responsi-

(Continued from page 1)

Some people explained that instead of having one center serve all the needs of the minority community, such responsi-

(Continued from page 1)

Some people explained that instead of having one center serve all the needs of the minority community, such responsi-

(Continued from page 1)

Some people explained that instead of having one center serve all the needs of the minority community, such responsi-

(Continued from page 1)

Some people explained that instead of having one center serve all the needs of the minority community, such responsi-

(Continued from page 1)

Some people explained that instead of having one center serve all the needs of the minority community, such responsi-

(Continued from page 1)

Some people explained that instead of having one center serve all the needs of the minority community, such responsi-

(Continued from page 1)

Some people explained that instead of having one center serve all the needs of the minority community, such responsi-

(Continued from page 1)

Some people explained that instead of having one center serve all the needs of the minority community, such responsi-
The Least of Three Evils

By Dick Stevenson

Reagan has developed fairly broad-based appeal. He's not a "nerve nominalist," as it has come to be known, as once might the supposed grandfather of our past and colored by radio. On the other hand, the electorate or establishment, the authors of this analysis, have not been slow to seize the occasion. Carter's role, "Well, we're doing the best we can under bad conditions." They're both incompetent, as you might imagine. But, apparently, it's working. Balanced, rigorous fundamentals lacking the conservative cause on issue of military, energy, and education.

The Way We Were: A Time When Tradition Counted

By Robert Shepard

I was ready to become a John Anderson fan. I'm looking forward to a debate. The Rowboat Party's presidential candidate, Anderson, is the man who is rewarded about a week before the election. He's not interested in the finer points of a campaign, and he's not interested in the finer points of a campaign. He's interested in the finer points of a campaign.

Letters

The Daily Pennsylvanian is the student newspaper of the University of Pennsylvania community in the form of a morning newspaper. Material may be on any topic of interest to the student body, personal or social.

Letters, signed, anonymous, or unsigned must be submitted to the Daily Pennsylvanian, 363 South 34th St., Philadelphia, PA 19104. Letters printed will be subject to editing for space and clarity.

Lettore, Graduate School of Education

The least of three evils

Because Dick Stevenson, on the one hand, has been fairly broad-based appeal. He's not a "nerve nominalist," as it has come to be known, as once might the supposed grandfather of our past and colored by radio. On the other hand, the electorate or establishment, the authors of this analysis, have not been slow to seize the occasion. Carter's role, "Well, we're doing the best we can under bad conditions." They're both incompetent, as you might imagine. But, apparently, it's working. Balanced, rigorous fundamentals lacking the conservative cause on issue of military, energy, and education.

The Daily Pennsylvanian

The Way We Were: A Time When Tradition Counted

By Robert Shepard

I was ready to become a John Anderson fan. I'm looking forward to a debate. The Rowboat Party's presidential candidate, Anderson, is the man who is rewarded about a week before the election. He's not interested in the finer points of a campaign, and he's not interested in the finer points of a campaign. He's interested in the finer points of a campaign.

Letters

The Daily Pennsylvanian is the student newspaper of the University of Pennsylvania community in the form of a morning newspaper. Material may be on any topic of interest to the student body, personal or social.

Letters, signed, anonymous, or unsigned must be submitted to the Daily Pennsylvanian, 363 South 34th St., Philadelphia, PA 19104. Letters printed will be subject to editing for space and clarity.

Lettore, Graduate School of Education

The least of three evils

Because Dick Stevenson, on the one hand, has been fairly broad-based appeal. He's not a "nerve nominalist," as it has come to be known, as once might the supposed grandfather of our past and colored by radio. On the other hand, the electorate or establishment, the authors of this analysis, have not been slow to seize the occasion. Carter's role, "Well, we're doing the best we can under bad conditions." They're both incompetent, as you might imagine. But, apparently, it's working. Balanced, rigorous fundamentals lacking the conservative cause on issue of military, energy, and education.

The Daily Pennsylvanian

The Way We Were: A Time When Tradition Counted

By Robert Shepard

I was ready to become a John Anderson fan. I'm looking forward to a debate. The Rowboat Party's presidential candidate, Anderson, is the man who is rewarded about a week before the election. He's not interested in the finer points of a campaign, and he's not interested in the finer points of a campaign. He's interested in the finer points of a campaign.

Letters

The Daily Pennsylvanian is the student newspaper of the University of Pennsylvania community in the form of a morning newspaper. Material may be on any topic of interest to the student body, personal or social.

Letters, signed, anonymous, or unsigned must be submitted to the Daily Pennsylvanian, 363 South 34th St., Philadelphia, PA 19104. Letters printed will be subject to editing for space and clarity.

Lettore, Graduate School of Education

The least of three evils

Because Dick Stevenson, on the one hand, has been fairly broad-based appeal. He's not a "nerve nominalist," as it has come to be known, as once might the supposed grandfather of our past and colored by radio. On the other hand, the electorate or establishment, the authors of this analysis, have not been slow to seize the occasion. Carter's role, "Well, we're doing the best we can under bad conditions." They're both incompetent, as you might imagine. But, apparently, it's working. Balanced, rigorous fundamentals lacking the conservative cause on issue of military, energy, and education.
Boothees Blank Hawks, 2-0

(Continued from page 6) nothing of the season. The Quakers may have been added to the second half upset by the wind, which was at their backs after the half and kicked into the St. Joe field was measured incorrectly. So far, Penn had a shorter distance between the midfield line and the back of the field.

Our game consists on much, but when we take our time we play the way we can," said reserve Edie McGuinness. McGuinness did a free job in the second half while playing fullback for the first time in place of Margaret Done (knee sprain).

In the second half, the big difference was that we started to go to the huddle and cut back in the wing and started to win the ball.

Student Patrons

(Continued from page 6)
telegone in the major manufacturers, the FDA asked that the warning be added to"a responsible consumer protection copy." The agency suggested that this wording appear on the packaging.

"If you develop high fever and vomiting or diarrhea during your menstrual period, you should remove your tampons immediately and seek medical advice," she said. "You're sick!"

Tampon Warning

(Continued from page 6)
changed only and only during menstruation when they can be thoroughly uttered, she said. Stud- ent Health could not make a definite statement about why because of the "inconclusive research done." Brodsky slamed about Rely because of the syndrome andتكوينmenstruating women. TSS can cause a serious disease that can occur in menstruating women. TSS can cause death. The disease has been associated with the use of tampons. You may therefore want to consider using tampons or alternating tampons with

Pi Sigma Alpha Political Science National Honor Society

Is Now Accepting Applications for Membership. All Forms May Be Obtained in The Political Science Office in Shattuck Hall. All Applications Must Be Submitted By Oct. 24th

MAN-FRESHMAN-FRESHMAN-FRESHMAN—Here Is Your Chance To Be Heard! Run For A Seat On The UNDERGRADUATE ASSEMBLY

Represent Your Class in University Government

Get Involved! Petitions & Information Packs Will Be Available In The U.S. Office 1st floor Houston Hall Oct. 1, 2, 3, & 6 10 am - 4 pm

WALSH'S TAVERN

On 54th St. between Walnut and Locust Streets. 2-4-6-8-10

PHOTOS For Applications Passports Resumes While You Wait Service (if Needed)

On Campus At SHAPIR STUDIOS

3907 Walnut Street

BE 2788

PHOTOS For Applications Passports Resumes While You Wait Service (if Needed)

On Campus At SHAPIR STUDIOS

3907 Walnut Street

BE 2788

WOMEN'S SQUASH TEAM Meeting

HRE Rooftop Lounge

Wednesday Oct. 1 6 PM New Players Welcome!

If you're interested and can make the meeting, call Coach Ann Wetsell at 325-3965 (evenings).

The new Designer Diamond Collection, reflecting the importance, value, and rare beauty of these diamonds, is an ArtCarved innovation.

This collection is also available with a new diamond substitute, Cubic Zirconia, which creates the same dazzling elegance for less.

(Continued from the previous page)
Late Goals Give Booters 2-0 Win

BY RICHIE URBANBERGER

Preparations for Penn's soccer game between undefeated Penn (5-0-2) and third-place Lehigh (5-3-1) on Saturday.

The Quakers welcomed Rutgers into Franklin Field as Penn plays host to the Scarlet Knights. The Scarlet Knights are looking to avenge their loss to Penn last season, when the Quakers defeated Rutgers 27-26.

The Quakers are coming off a 10-4 year that saw them finish in fifth place in the Ivy League. Penn hopes to improve on last year's performance and continue their rise up the standings.

The Scarlet Knights are looking to build on their recent success and make a push for a spot in the NCAA tournament. With a win against Penn, they would solidify their position in the conference and set themselves up for a strong finish.

Despite the challenge, the Quakers are confident in their ability to come out on top. "We are ready to take on the challenge and prove ourselves," said one Quaker.

The game will be played on the University of Pennsylvania's campus in Philadelphia, PA. The match is scheduled to begin at 1:00 PM and will be live on the Big Ten Network.