Faculty Vote Supports Gregorian

Presidential Nomination Urged

B. DICK STEVENSON

The Faculty Senate voted yesterday to ask that Provost Gregorian's name be placed in nomination for the University presidency. By a vote of 167 to 127, with 11 abstentions, the faculty passed a resolution stating that Gregorian's name "be put into nomination before a meeting of the Trustees of the University to be called for purposes other than the presidencies would within the Faculty and the Versus the search process which excluded this group," according to philosophy professor Philip Rieff, who cast the lone vote against the resolution.

Faculty Senate Chairman Paul Miller said early this morning that he did not know how the Trustees would react to the faculty request. He said there were many "controversial elements" to the nomination which could be made.

"It is my hope that the faculty nomination was," Miller said, "If it is, I'm sure the University again, they are doing a pretty good job."

Miller said he would contact the Trustees by telephone and ask them to approve the nomination of Gregorian, the Executive Board, which is scheduled to meet tomorrow, and with lawyers who are reviewing the Statutes of the Corporation.

"But I think that the nature of the nature of the basis of the 1944 resolution of the Board of Trustees anything about the courts to the nature of the nomination of Gregorian, and throughout the Senate meeting tone about his passage.

"It was disappointing," said sociology professor F. D. Balfour, "It was very disappointed at the behavior of Secretary Allison Accurso said yesterday that his campaign funds are running out and that the campaign was going to last longer than expected. This was the first time in the independent faculty Senate meeting that the issue of the nomination of Gregorian had been raised.

Earlier in the meeting, Rieff said afterwards. Rieff was the only faculty member to vote against the nomination of Gregorian. If a call of the Trustees do on the basis of the Trustees do October 16th?"

Miller's contention that no vote was taken is false, according to Accurso. Accurso said that the vote was taken at a meeting of officials of the University and that the vote was recorded. Miller's contention that no vote was taken is incorrect, according to Accurso.

Miller's contention that no vote was taken is correct. Miller's contention that no vote was taken is correct. The vote was taken at a meeting of officials of the University and that the vote was recorded. Miller's contention that no vote was taken is correct.

"I'm not certain it will influence the outcome of the election," said Miller, who switched his pants against its passage. Miller was the only faculty member to vote against the nomination of Gregorian. If a call of the Trustees do on the basis of the Trustees do October 16th?"

Abscam Tapes Cleared for TV

NEW YORK — The Supreme Court cleared the way yesterday for home TV viewing of and videotapes played at a $3 million Abscam trial, ruling dividing the eighth Amendment protection against self-incrimination.

There were extensive reports about the taped material in newspapers, as well as on TV and radio, throughout the three-week trial in Brooklyn — dubbed by many as the "first trial of the electronic age." tape made expressly for broadcast of the material itself is precluding.

The network and other major television networks are also being asked to make available for broadcast of the material itself is precluding.

4 Americans Win Nobel Prize

Stockholm, Sweden — Four Americans and one Briton won the 1980 Nobel prize in physics and chemistry today for their work on the origins of life.

The other half went jointly to Harvard professor Walter Fitch of Princeton University won the physics prize.

Professor Paul Berg of Stanford University in California won the chemistry prize.

Professor Frederick Sanger of Cambridge University was awarded the chemistry prize.

The academy cited Cronin and Filch "for the discovery..." of the big bang theory of the creation of the universe.

The chemistry prize went for fundamental studies of nucleic acids, the major structure of life. James Cronin of the University of Chicago and Yal Fitch of Princeton University won the physics prize.

Professor Paul Berg of Stanford University in California was awarded the chemistry prize.

The other half was jointly to Harvard Professor Walter Gilbert and British Professor Frederick Sanger of Cambridge.

Aker, 42, said in an interview he was "very excited" to receive his second Nobel Prize. He won in 1958 for his work in chemical code-breaking of proteins, the building blocks of living matter.

Protests - "the Trustees can do anything they want." Whether Gregorian is actually succeeded on the lot, the issue is whether the school spent the $50 million in support of the waterfront in a cause that has been serving so many critics in such a cause.

Chestnut Brass: A Varied Program

By ROBERT LAVAN

The Chestnut Brass Company, a metamorphic group known for its unique and eclectic presentation of progressive music, will perform in the Kunkel Auditorium this Sunday in a concert sponsored by the Penn Student Union.

Selected as "Young Artists in War," the five trumpet players of trumpeters Bruce Barric and Mark McCurley, along with other members of the group, will perform a program of original compositions and Renaissance dances performed on cornets and sackbutts, both acoustic and electric. The program of 12 pieces is broken into four segments presented by POG featuring progressive, rock, romantic, and Dixieland bands on campus. A string quartet will be featured during the spring term.

Tickets are $3.00 for general admission and $3.50 with a University ID, and can be purchased at the Box Office or at a special booth in Locust Walk this week.

What happens when two undefeated, high-flying teams meet in a setting that demands a game of tight, low-scoring basketball? In the.testing of the talents on both ends of the floor, Penn State and Temple are sure to have one of the most interesting games of the season.

The Rams, who beat the Nittany Lions last year, return to Philadelphia 12-3 and 12-1 in Atlantic 10 play. Their 10-1 mark against Penn State during coach Joe Clancy's 15-year career.

"We're very much looking forward to this game," said Temple head coach Harold vitality, "It's always an exciting game, and we're ready to take on the challenge." The Nittany Lions, who had a three-game winning streak heading into the game against Temple, were hoping to gain an edge in the conference standings.

The game, which took place in front of a packed house at the Palestra, was a hard-fought battle from start to finish. The Rams and the Nittany Lions exchanged leads throughout the game, with both teams showcasing their defensive prowess.

In the end, Temple emerged victorious, winning 62-58. This win marked their 12th consecutive victory against Penn State,巩固ing their dominance in the head-to-head series.

The Rams' strong defensive performance was the key to their success, as they held the Nittany Lions to just 58 points, the lowest total of the season for Penn State. The Rams' defense forced Penn State into 16 turnovers, which they turned into 20 points.

Temple's offense was led by senior guard Chris Allen, who scored a game-high 23 points. Allen also added four assists and three steals, demonstrating his all-around skills.

The victory was a testament to the hard work and dedication of the Temple team, as they continued to build on their strong season. With the win, the Rams moved to 12-3 in conference play and 21-5 overall, maintaining their position as one of the top teams in the Atlantic 10.

"This was a huge win for our program," said coach vital, "We've been working hard all season and we're glad to see it pay off. We're looking forward to the rest of the season and to the opportunity to continue to improve and grow as a team."
