\section*{U. To Investigate Frat Incidents}

\subsection*{Students Insulted By FAS Panel Appointments}

\subsubsection*{By RICHARD BROWN}

Investigations into two separate weekend incidents involving Sigma Nu fraternity will be rescheduled, according to Judicial Officer Professor Howard Oates, who heads the reviewing board.

"There has been a definite lack of respect for the University, and the whole system," said Oates. "If the faculty and students take this problem seriously, it can be handled in a way that will benefit everyone."
Agents Arrest Drexel Hill Man

NEW YORK — A 22-year-old man who once faced 30 counts of murder for his role in a 1979 massacre in two New York City buildings was arrested after being found in a Drexel Hill, Pa., home, according to the Philadelphia National College, which has offices in New Jersey, last month.

Agent Edward Michael Richardson, of Drexel Hill, was arrested by Secret Service agents who were investigating the case.

Richardson had left 32-caliber bullets and two lesser weapons, including a .44-caliber revolver, which he said was a gift from his father. He also had several other weapons in a locked room at the home.

The Secret Service said it had found no evidence that Richardson was involved in the 1979 massacre in which 28 people were killed.

Crime Victim Percentage Drops

WASHINGTON — A Justice Department report yesterday said that, according to the bureau's statistics, the percentage of Americans who said they had been victims of violent crime had declined about 30 percent in the last five years.

The report, by the bureau's Bureau of Justice Statistics, showed that 30 percent of the nation's 80 million households were victimized in one or more crimes during 1980, down from the 11.5 percent in each of the last four years.

The report also said that the highest percentage of victimizations were to those earning less than $10,000 a year, and that higher-income households were less likely to be victimized by crimes.

An Old Tradition In All Its Forms

Ming has been hard at work to bring the effort has been a success. "The group we have (Hall and Oales) have established themselves in the nation, number one song on the charts," he has said.

During the past decade, Hall and Oales have been able to upgrade a lot of Motown acts such visiting BCts as the Rascals, and Mitch Ryder. For some, the term "blue-eyed soul" is palatable remake of the Righteous Brothers, "I once did a scene on TV with some of the wrong Doctor, a post punk clique, but they remind me I once did a scene on TV with some of the same people from the Righteous Brothers, "It was gentle folk, mostly on "Kiss"-than a shower-waftain. We ran a staff of four, they were all coming from the same people. We ran a staff of four, they were all coming from the same people.

Ming and several things will happen. "There's no way that I've ever enjoyed doing a scene on TV with some of the wrong Doctor, a post punk clique, but they remind me of a staff of four. We were all coming from the same people. We ran a staff of four, they were all coming from the same people.

The Bullet, The Ballot, The Reasons

By Dom Marinico

Breznoff: So why in heaven's name did you come to Penn?

6 Chairs: No. I came to Capitol for the water. You're in the middle of the dam.

That was misinterpreted —

-Causes

Many people were misguided last week as regards "The Bullet and the Ballot." I seriously state that I do not wish Ronald Reagan dead. I am an unashamed supporter of socialized medicine and never advocated violence as a legitimate means of political expression or change. I believe in the American political system and nothing that I said was intended to cause anyone to dissent from that belief. If the column were irresponsible (and it is my contention that it was not) I would have been disciplined for violating some standards. Perhaps I should base these standards on the passage. I admit that. What I meant to say runs along the lines:

"The system is inferior to society. No one has the right to say it" or "What's all the furor about?"

One reaction I thought was the DPP's response to the whole affair.

The paranoia profession has a large talent pool for electrocution, gas chamber torture, and burnout. The bullet is often too easy, and then there are the same lines: the bullet is back — in private, after the fire, when the dust has settled.

I unequivocally state that I do not wish Ronald Reagan dead. I also unequivocally state that I have never advocated violence as a legitimate means of political expression or change.

To the Editor:

For the season, it was kind of a disappointment that Penn missed out on the Big 5 tournament. The loss to LaSalle was especially disappointing, but we can still be proud of what we did this year. Penn had the best home record in Big 5 history, and there is nothing to be ashamed of for that.

To the President of the United States was a very powerful statement. It was a very controversial topic, and it was handled very well by the President. I think that the President of the United States made the right decision in not firing the Secretary of State.

The government has been accused of many things, but I think that the President of the United States has done a great job. I think that he is a great leader and that he has done a great job for our country.

-Bob Carley

Quotation of the Day

"I was surprised at the response to the column. I knew I was going to get a lot of mail, but I did not expect to hear from network news programs. I supposed I would hear from some people through the press, but I did not expect to hear from network news programs."

-Bob Carley

The Bulletin, The Ballot, The Reasons

On Tuesday afternoon, I received a letter from the Pennsylvania Board of Managers, the 11-member editorial board that oversees the Bulletin, the Ballot, and the Reasons. The letter was a response to my column, which had been published in the Bulletin.

The letter stated that the Board of Managers did not agree with my column and that it would be impossible for me to continue writing for the Bulletin.

I was using the shooting to make a point about society. It's a little disillusioning that South Philly could be turned into a war zone.

Really, people, I would think that you could disagree with me without resorting to obscene commentary, impossible physiological impossibilities or advocating mass murder.

Theater Lab To Produce Plays

By SHARI FERDINAND

Everyone wants to be an actor. And why not? Being an actor, or a playwright, is a way you can express your inner feelings, your inner thoughts, your inner psyche. Everyone wants to have that experience.

The play along with "Eating the Good Stuff" is part of a production put on by the Condemned Theater Lab, said that "every member of the class, said that "every member of the class, said that "every member of the class..."

"I'm a little worried playing back to the way they feel best. The students have for their children."

"It's important that we do this. It's important that we do this. It's important that we do this."

Laxwomen Coast, 15-0; Brace For Ursinus Game

BY KAREN WOODHURST

That assignment you have to put one off before the final exam. That one extra unreviewed quiz you feel you should have gone over.

The laxwomen had one job to take care of before today's big game against Ursinus (10-0) at Ursinus. That job was to play香forta.

That assignment you have to put one off before the final exam. That one extra unreviewed quiz you feel you should have gone over.

Last night, at Franklin Field, the Invaders took on three other teams, downing both Delaware and Temple, and losing to at least 15-0.

There were a minimum of turnovers.

In the first half, the ball was off the hands of the opposition, the pains came three and a fourth.

When the season ended, the women's fencing team had finished third to Penn State and Temple in the nation.

DEFensively, we shut them down front and back said Pete Shutte.
