In a quest to "bring the University over the brink of greatness over the 10 and 20 years ahead," President Robert Williams has set out to establish the University and a black African nation, Nigeria, as "close and self-sustaining institutional equivalents," he said yesterday. "We must get ourselves together once and for all."

The agreement marks "the establishment of a new academic exchange agreement between the two universities," he said, adding that the University and a black African nation, Nigeria, as "close and self-sustaining institutional equivalents," he said yesterday. Friends sometimes question your taste in movies. But they'll see them with you anyway.

While it's important to have unique tastes in movies, it's equally important to be able to enjoy a film with friends and share in the experience.

GAPSA Resignation

Next chairman and a new chairman can be elected, and yesterday the "hates have been set on fire" problem
at a result of Koehne's resignation.
University Council Student Chairman Proto had said yesterday that the Hillel, in fact, is acting chairman of GAPSA.

"We got a tremendous response from the sponsors," Congressman Council President Todd Rosten, who also acts as chairman of GAPSA, gave us the ability to do more things that we wanted to do," Goldman said.
"Until last week we only had two people working on the planning," Goldman said. "That's a problem with a first-time event. People aren't comforted... and they see it's necessary."

WORK-STUDY JOB
FOR A GOOD PHOTOGRAPHER

I'm looking for a talented, efficient, cheerful study-worship applicant with skills in photography, graphic design and/or publications. The job will involve some errand-running, some independent projects. You should enjoy working with faculty and preferably have lived in one of Penn's dorms. They have developed a remarkable technique that they teach in one day. A One Day Course that guarantees to double your speed reading skills or they will refund your tuition. And the tuition is only $85.

The best students are the fastest readers

Trouble is most students have no idea how fast they read. They assume they're average, and that everyone reads at about the same speed. They also assume that memory is something they were born with, and nothing can be done about it. Not true!

Studies show that the best students are invariably the faster readers. And that faster readers remember more. Studies also show that both reading and memory can be improved like any other skill.

Until now, the only drawback was that conventional speed reading courses cost too much ($325 to $395) took too long (6 to 8 weeks) and were not designed specifically for students.

Nigerian Exchange

On October 10, the University's buildings in the First Presbyterian Church, which has participated in a networking arrangement with the University of South Africa, will be opened to the public, according to the arrangement. Dr. Joseph Akinfele, Executive Director of the University of South Africa, said that the University would host the event on October 10.

International Programs—Study Abroad

Advisor: Ms. Kathleen said only eight students applied for the four exchange student positions because it was advertised last fall. The study will be done on a regular basis, "he said, adding that an extensive interview on the program will be held for students later in the term. And he will still plan to hire for January. There will be a group of going onto." he said, and "I'm not sure who they will be."
American Cup Comes To Penn
Frankfield Hosts International Field Hockey Competition

By JOHN DEOLATIY

Frankfield will provide the site for the American Cup, an international field hockey competition that will take place during the weekend of October 3rd and 4th. The American Cup, which is one of the most prestigious field hockey tournaments in the world, will feature teams from several countries, including the United States, Canada, Australia, and several European nations.

The American Cup will be held at Frankfield, a state-of-the-art field hockey facility located in the heart of Philadelphia. The tournament will feature 16 teams, including the host team, the American Team, and 15 international teams from around the world.

The tournament will begin on Friday, October 3rd, with preliminary matches. The top four teams from each of the four preliminary brackets will advance to the semi-finals on Saturday, October 4th. The winners of the semi-finals will then play for the championship on Sunday, October 5th.

The American Cup is a prestigious tournament, and the American Team is determined to make a strong showing. The team is made up of some of the best players in the country, and they are ready to take on the world's best in field hockey.

The American Cup is not just a tournament for the players, but also for the fans. Spectators are encouraged to come out and support their favorite teams, and there will be plenty of food, drink, and entertainment available throughout the weekend.

The American Cup is a great opportunity for the American Team to showcase its skills and compete on the international stage. It is also a chance for fans to see some of the best field hockey players in the world in action. So mark your calendars now for the American Cup, and be sure to join the fun!
