conditioning-related projects, avril, what budget savings can be claimed. He said the projects will be completely underwritten by the University. The president is still recommending that the project will be a complete success.

Koval added that the President proposed project would have been carried out at least several years ago if the university had not known that the women's dormitory would be closed. Page 2.

Koval described the students' proposals as being complete and 100% acceptable. Page 2.

The alumni who have been involved with the project have been exuberant about the project, according to Koval. Page 2.

The project is expected to be completed within the next year or so. Page 2.

The university administration has committed to fund the project from the University's own resources, according to Koval. Page 2.

The project will be under the direction of the Women's Athletics Department, according to Koval. Page 2.

The project will be designed to provide the women with a safe and comfortable environment in which to exercise and participate in sports. Page 2.

"I can't guarantee that you'll be able to take the shower, but it's an improvement and we'll do our best to make it open," he added.

Spaldie said he is considering a plan that would reroute the first floor water lines onto a locked ladies room and leave the current ladies room closed for sanitation.

"If you need more ladies rooms, that's a separate issue," he said.

"The people I talked to didn't see such a problem in there being smoke issues on the first floor."
Boo-tee’s Second-Half Collapse
Sparks Rider To 3-2 Upset Win

By R. B. BERNSTEIN

Rider’s winning goal in the 79th minute could not have come at a more opportune time. It was a pivotal moment that reversed the momentum of the game, turning a close contest into a dramatic victory for the visitors.

The Quakers, who were favored to win, had taken the lead in the 30th minute with a penalty kick goal. However, Rider fought back and in the 66th minute, they equalized with a header from an diagonal pass. The game was evenly matched until the late stages.

The victory for Rider is a testament to their resilience and determination. They deserve credit for overcoming a strong对手, which includes some of the best players in the league. The win will likely boost their confidence and could be a springboard for their upcoming matches.

Boo-tee’s Second-Half Collapse

The Quakers were ahead for most of the game, but Rider’s impressive second-half performance扭转了局势. Rider scored in the 79th minute, which was the turning point in the match. The Quakers had controlled the first half, but Rider’s attacking play in the second half changed the course of the game.

The Quakers were not able to capitalize on their early lead, allowing Rider to come back and secure a surprising victory. The Quakers’ defense, which had been solid in the first half, struggled to maintain their lead against Rider’s relentless attack.

The win for Rider is impressive, especially considering the strength of their opponent. Rider showed great teamwork and determination in their performance. The victory will likely boost their morale and confidence for the rest of the season.
