Stars Will Shine at Gala Tonight

BY HOWARD SHAPIRO

The University could host its first Federal funding of a gala to raise money for the Indian Committee. The event will be held on April 29 at the Center of Philadelphia, a cultural center.

The event is expected to generate $200,000, with all proceeds going to the Indian Committee. The gala will feature entertainment and a silent auction, with a dinner and awards to follows.

Red Tape Prolongs Minority Hiring Review

BY STEPHAN FAISS

A decision on whether to accept the University's proposal to drop live-coaching in collegiate Athletics, recommended by UMC President Rodriguez, is pending.

The University is under scrutiny for its hiring practices and has been accused of not fully complying with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission's guidelines.

City Delays Ruling On Intercultural Center

BY ZON SCHERER

A ruling on a motion to accept a proposal to drop live-coaching in collegiate Athletics, recommended by UMC President Rodriguez, is pending.

The proposal would allow the University to drop live-coaching in collegiate Athletics, effective on July 1, 2023. The decision is expected to be made by the University's athletics committee.

Athletes Predict U. Will Approve Five Team Cuts

BY ERIC J. SAVIT

A University official, speaking on condition of anonymity, expressed concern about the proposal to drop five athletic programs.

The official, who was not identified, said that the proposal could lead to a decrease in athletic programs and could affect the University's ability to compete with other universities.

Frank Retires

Campus Mainstay To Sell Last Lunch

BY KATIE F Murray

Fran Robinson, a University employee, is retiring after 36 years of service. She has been a mainstay on campus for many years.

Fran has been known for her warm personality and her ability to make everyone feel welcome.

Her last day of work will be the last Friday night of the month, and she will be missed by many on campus.

Frank Retires

Campus Mainstay To Sell Last Lunch

BY KATIE F Murray

Fran Robinson, a University employee, is retiring after 36 years of service. She has been a mainstay on campus for many years.

Fran has been known for her warm personality and her ability to make everyone feel welcome.

Her last day of work will be the last Friday night of the month, and she will be missed by many on campus.

Frank Retires

Campus Mainstay To Sell Last Lunch

BY KATIE F Murray

Fran Robinson, a University employee, is retiring after 36 years of service. She has been a mainstay on campus for many years.

Fran has been known for her warm personality and her ability to make everyone feel welcome.

Her last day of work will be the last Friday night of the month, and she will be missed by many on campus.

Frank Retires

Campus Mainstay To Sell Last Lunch

BY KATIE F Murray

Fran Robinson, a University employee, is retiring after 36 years of service. She has been a mainstay on campus for many years.

Fran has been known for her warm personality and her ability to make everyone feel welcome.

Her last day of work will be the last Friday night of the month, and she will be missed by many on campus.

Frank Retires

Campus Mainstay To Sell Last Lunch

BY KATIE F Murray

Fran Robinson, a University employee, is retiring after 36 years of service. She has been a mainstay on campus for many years.

Fran has been known for her warm personality and her ability to make everyone feel welcome.

Her last day of work will be the last Friday night of the month, and she will be missed by many on campus.

Frank Retires

Campus Mainstay To Sell Last Lunch

BY KATIE F Murray

Fran Robinson, a University employee, is retiring after 36 years of service. She has been a mainstay on campus for many years.

Fran has been known for her warm personality and her ability to make everyone feel welcome.

Her last day of work will be the last Friday night of the month, and she will be missed by many on campus.

Frank Retires

Campus Mainstay To Sell Last Lunch

BY KATIE F Murray

Fran Robinson, a University employee, is retiring after 36 years of service. She has been a mainstay on campus for many years.

Fran has been known for her warm personality and her ability to make everyone feel welcome.

Her last day of work will be the last Friday night of the month, and she will be missed by many on campus.

Frank Retires

Campus Mainstay To Sell Last Lunch

BY KATIE F Murray

Fran Robinson, a University employee, is retiring after 36 years of service. She has been a mainstay on campus for many years.

Fran has been known for her warm personality and her ability to make everyone feel welcome.

Her last day of work will be the last Friday night of the month, and she will be missed by many on campus.

Frank Retires

Campus Mainstay To Sell Last Lunch

BY KATIE F Murray

Fran Robinson, a University employee, is retiring after 36 years of service. She has been a mainstay on campus for many years.

Fran has been known for her warm personality and her ability to make everyone feel welcome.

Her last day of work will be the last Friday night of the month, and she will be missed by many on campus.

Frank Retires

Campus Mainstay To Sell Last Lunch

BY KATIE F Murray

Fran Robinson, a University employee, is retiring after 36 years of service. She has been a mainstay on campus for many years.

Fran has been known for her warm personality and her ability to make everyone feel welcome.

Her last day of work will be the last Friday night of the month, and she will be missed by many on campus.

Frank Retires

Campus Mainstay To Sell Last Lunch

BY KATIE F Murray

Fran Robinson, a University employee, is retiring after 36 years of service. She has been a mainstay on campus for many years.

Fran has been known for her warm personality and her ability to make everyone feel welcome.

Her last day of work will be the last Friday night of the month, and she will be missed by many on campus.
NOTICE

The University of Pennsylvania will present a series of public lectures, discussions, and performances throughout the 1981-1982 academic year. These events are sponsored by the Department of Theater and Dance, the Department of Music, and the Office of the Provost. For more information, please contact the Office of the Provost at 215-898-6035.

---

TODAY

Wednesday, March 31, 1982

Theology

David Ritlenhouse Lab

3:00 PM

Princeton University will speak at the Gallery on 3641 Locust Walk.

Laura X will speak on Rape When.

FRIENDS

Sign up for trends pic theme show runs loose in the DOGS AND THE GSF.

DEUTSCHE KAFFEESTUNDE

Hall, rm 309

The Undergraduate Philosophy Society will hold its organizational meeting. Arnold Ross will present information and refreshments.

Wednesday, March 31, 8:00 PM

Houston Hall, rm 309

The Undergraduate Philosophy Society will hold its organizational meeting. Arnold Ross will present information and refreshments.

---

Recession Slows in February

WASHINGTON - The economy, though probably slowing, is not in a recession, a key government forecasting group said yesterday.

The Economic Research Council, a group of economists, said that a 0.3 percentage point decrease in the Federal government's index of Leading Indicators, a report issued 19 times a year, is not in a recession.

The Federal Reserve, the Federal Reserve Board, and the Energy Department said yesterday that the index of leading indicators fell by 0.3 points last month.

---

Salvadoran Elections in Flux

SALVADOR, El Salvador - The right-wing National Conciliation Party, which emerged yesterday as long awaited its pre-election meeting, emerged yesterday as the only group to win the election.

A National Conciliation leader said one thing was certain - the National Conciliation Party of the civil military junta, would be the only group to win the election.

---

Columbia Returns in Majestic Landing

Columbia was originally slated to make a third landing at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., but the Rogers dry lake didn't dry out enough up northeastern California.

The shuttle - a rocket on launch, a satellite in orbit, and an airplane on the ground - has been in space for more than a year. After one return flight, the shuttle will be ready for its final two flights, during which it will get into orbit, carry out satellite launches, and return.

---

An informal gallery discussion led by GEORGE SUGARMAN

In conjunction with the exhibition.

Shape of Space: The Sculpture of George Sugarman

Wednesday, March 31, 1982, 8 p.m.

Institute for Contemporary Art

34th and Walnut

Students and the public are welcome. Admission is free.

Finer Arts Building

4th Floor Classroom.
Spotlight

Striving Artists  Students Struggle for Success Beyond the Classroom

By ADAM SEXTON

Music students at the University must study many music courses in addition to their music major. However, the other students still must fulfill other University requirements as well. Nurnavov said the choice for a student between continuing and a specific career would really depend on the particular student. “It’s not a matter of music or non-music. It’s really a question of who you plan to do what and what you’re interested in,” Nurnavov said. He added that there are generally closed-minded and, to a certain extent, some potential in the field of music. “Conservatrix do this. They make people,” Nurnavov said. “Even the training is conservative. Education, education, and more education.”

Music as a Business

Yet College senior Frances Booker, who hopes to be a conductor in that area, also believes in more liberal thinking when it comes to music. “It’s frustrating at Penn,” she said. “You have all your academic pressures, and music isn’t looked at as being that important.”

Booker said that she would do anything to become a conductor, and she is preparing for the difficulties of balancing school work and music, in the time commitment which they require. She added that she is much more interested in music than she is in her major.

“Every musician feels like giving up at times,” she said. “It’s so much work when everything comes together.”

“I don’t have a special knack for music,” she continued. “And I wouldn’t want to have that it’s true.”

Deaver said Booker’s feeling that the University isn’t conservative enough for an aspiring musician.”

“The traction that you get when just telling someone you’re doing something is more important than anything,” she said.

Yet she said there is no degree of admission for the “it’s-takes” to agree to something unimportant.

“Everyone is aware of the attitude of ‘I’m going to do it’...” she said.

“...that’s all, then there is not the place,” Nurnavov added.

“...that many music courses are required of a major at the University.”

Fame is Written in Their Stars

By KAREN WOODROW

While the Jimi Hendrix novels flourished, lawyers and businessmen with open sets, and entrepreneurs may become the latest generation of the dreamers—looking to develop their talents rather than the classroom.

The Help-Write-Aid is the student newspaper providing readers with a new take on the world, and the student’s writing, something for the person who hopes to be a writer. Although these students are not professional writers, they are able to test their abilities, and are interested in expressing themselves. A small percentage of these students have the opportunity to publish their writing in college-related publications. Even students who have published their writing, have been given the opportunity to develop their writing skills.

Harvard graduate and writing student, Nurnavov said the tone for the composition of a person is a first-line writing. “Every student needs writing skills.” Nurnavov said. However, “I don’t think that in the organization it’s true. I don’t think that’s true. Even if you’ve been writing for a long time, you still need to develop your writing skills.”

Budding Authors

By KAREN WOODROW

While the Jimi Hendrix novels flourished, lawyers and businessmen with open sets, and entrepreneurs may become the latest generation of the dreamers—looking to develop their talents rather than the classroom.

The Help-Write-Aid is the student newspaper providing readers with a new take on the world, and the student’s writing, something for the person who hopes to be a writer. Although these students are not professional writers, they are able to test their abilities, and are interested in expressing themselves. A small percentage of these students have the opportunity to publish their writing in college-related publications. Even students who have published their writing, have been given the opportunity to develop their writing skills.

Harvard graduate and writing student, Nurnavov said the tone for the composition of a person is a first-line writing. “Every student needs writing skills.” Nurnavov said. However, “I don’t think that in the organization it’s true. I don’t think that’s true. Even if you’ve been writing for a long time, you still need to develop your writing skills.”

Budding Authors

By KAREN WOODROW

While the Jimi Hendrix novels flourished, lawyers and businessmen with open sets, and entrepreneurs may become the latest generation of the dreamers—looking to develop their talents rather than the classroom.

The Help-Write-Aid is the student newspaper providing readers with a new take on the world, and the student’s writing, something for the person who hopes to be a writer. Although these students are not professional writers, they are able to test their abilities, and are interested in expressing themselves. A small percentage of these students have the opportunity to publish their writing in college-related publications. Even students who have published their writing, have been given the opportunity to develop their writing skills.

Harvard graduate and writing student, Nurnavov said the tone for the composition of a person is a first-line writing. “Every student needs writing skills.” Nurnavov said. However, “I don’t think that in the organization it’s true. I don’t think that’s true. Even if you’ve been writing for a long time, you still need to develop your writing skills.”

Budding Authors

By KAREN WOODROW

While the Jimi Hendrix novels flourished, lawyers and businessmen with open sets, and entrepreneurs may become the latest generation of the dreamers—looking to develop their talents rather than the classroom.

The Help-Write-Aid is the student newspaper providing readers with a new take on the world, and the student’s writing, something for the person who hopes to be a writer. Although these students are not professional writers, they are able to test their abilities, and are interested in expressing themselves. A small percentage of these students have the opportunity to publish their writing in college-related publications. Even students who have published their writing, have been given the opportunity to develop their writing skills.

Harvard graduate and writing student, Nurnavov said the tone for the composition of a person is a first-line writing. “Every student needs writing skills.” Nurnavov said. However, “I don’t think that in the organization it’s true. I don’t think that’s true. Even if you’ve been writing for a long time, you still need to develop your writing skills.”

Budding Authors

By KAREN WOODROW

While the Jimi Hendrix novels flourished, lawyers and businessmen with open sets, and entrepreneurs may become the latest generation of the dreamers—looking to develop their talents rather than the classroom.

The Help-Write-Aid is the student newspaper providing readers with a new take on the world, and the student’s writing, something for the person who hopes to be a writer. Although these students are not professional writers, they are able to test their abilities, and are interested in expressing themselves. A small percentage of these students have the opportunity to publish their writing in college-related publications. Even students who have published their writing, have been given the opportunity to develop their writing skills.

Harvard graduate and writing student, Nurnavov said the tone for the composition of a person is a first-line writing. “Every student needs writing skills.” Nurnavov said. However, “I don’t think that in the organization it’s true. I don’t think that’s true. Even if you’ve been writing for a long time, you still need to develop your writing skills.”

Budding Authors

By KAREN WOODROW

While the Jimi Hendrix novels flourished, lawyers and businessmen with open sets, and entrepreneurs may become the latest generation of the dreamers—looking to develop their talents rather than the classroom.

The Help-Write-Aid is the student newspaper providing readers with a new take on the world, and the student’s writing, something for the person who hopes to be a writer. Although these students are not professional writers, they are able to test their abilities, and are interested in expressing themselves. A small percentage of these students have the opportunity to publish their writing in college-related publications. Even students who have published their writing, have been given the opportunity to develop their writing skills.

Harvard graduate and writing student, Nurnavov said the tone for the composition of a person is a first-line writing. “Every student needs writing skills.” Nurnavov said. However, “I don’t think that in the organization it’s true. I don’t think that’s true. Even if you’ve been writing for a long time, you still need to develop your writing skills.”

Budding Authors

By KAREN WOODROW

While the Jimi Hendrix novels flourished, lawyers and businessmen with open sets, and entrepreneurs may become the latest generation of the dreamers—looking to develop their talents rather than the classroom.

The Help-Write-Aid is the student newspaper providing readers with a new take on the world, and the student’s writing, something for the person who hopes to be a writer. Although these students are not professional writers, they are able to test their abilities, and are interested in expressing themselves. A small percentage of these students have the opportunity to publish their writing in college-related publications. Even students who have published their writing, have been given the opportunity to develop their writing skills.

Harvard graduate and writing student, Nurnavov said the tone for the composition of a person is a first-line writing. “Every student needs writing skills.” Nurnavov said. However, “I don’t think that in the organization it’s true. I don’t think that’s true. Even if you’ve been writing for a long time, you still need to develop your writing skills.”

Budding Authors

By KAREN WOODROW

While the Jimi Hendrix novels flourished, lawyers and businessmen with open sets, and entrepreneurs may become the latest generation of the dreamers—looking to develop their talents rather than the classroom.

The Help-Write-Aid is the student newspaper providing readers with a new take on the world, and the student’s writing, something for the person who hopes to be a writer. Although these students are not professional writers, they are able to test their abilities, and are interested in expressing themselves. A small percentage of these students have the opportunity to publish their writing in college-related publications. Even students who have published their writing, have been given the opportunity to develop their writing skills.

Harvard graduate and writing student, Nurnav0
Letters to the Editor

The Beer and the Ballot

BLOOM COUNTY/Barke Breaghed

A Necessary Gathering to Protest Oppression

Marc Feigan's letter should be read to all students who have been involved with or even heard of the recent events at the Coalition for Responsible Action meeting. Marc stated an important point that everyone who has been involved with this organization should recognize.

Marc Feigan seems to have had a good point when addressing the need to free students from the restrictions of "studentism."

Marc Feigan's letter should be read to all students who have been involved with or even heard of the recent events at the Coalition for Responsible Action meeting. Marc stated an important point that everyone who has been involved with this organization should recognize.

Marc Feigan's letter should be read to all students who have been involved with or even heard of the recent events at the Coalition for Responsible Action meeting. Marc stated an important point that everyone who has been involved with this organization should recognize.

Marc Feigan's letter should be read to all students who have been involved with or even heard of the recent events at the Coalition for Responsible Action meeting. Marc stated an important point that everyone who has been involved with this organization should recognize.

Marc Feigan's letter should be read to all students who have been involved with or even heard of the recent events at the Coalition for Responsible Action meeting. Marc stated an important point that everyone who has been involved with this organization should recognize.

Marc Feigan's letter should be read to all students who have been involved with or even heard of the recent events at the Coalition for Responsible Action meeting. Marc stated an important point that everyone who has been involved with this organization should recognize.

Marc Feigan's letter should be read to all students who have been involved with or even heard of the recent events at the Coalition for Responsible Action meeting. Marc stated an important point that everyone who has been involved with this organization should recognize.

Marc Feigan's letter should be read to all students who have been involved with or even heard of the recent events at the Coalition for Responsible Action meeting. Marc stated an important point that everyone who has been involved with this organization should recognize.
"Amorphous" Jugglers Take Form in Club

By MICHAEL NADIR

For a club with a rather prosaic name and "amorphous," the Amorphous Juggling Club attracts its share of members.

When the jugglers get together each Saturday afternoon, everything from balls to ropes to hats, as members exchange ideas while practicing new techniques.

On Campus

A Weekly Look at Student Activities

The two-dozen group provides jugglers with the opportunity to practice their craft without the pressure of a competitive atmosphere, and to arrange tournaments that cannot be won.

Members bring in the club that gives them the chance to learn new tricks from the other members.

Amorphous Founder David Iber said yesterday, "There are different types of jugglers — balls, clubs, and ropes. You find that every person in the club concentrates on a different thing."

"The meetings are very informal. You just hang around and try to catch the balls," he added. "If you missed a few turns in a row, it's not really important."

Andrea Pialis, one of the club's organizers, agreed. "We don't take ourselves too seriously. If you don't do the ball right, it's okay."

Unlike some non-participants, the jugglers do not believe that balls, clubs, and ropes are inseparable. "We base a dean record," he said, "and if you go wrong, you have to go back and do it again."

"Sure I take it seriously, but it's a lot of fun," added Iber. "I love juggling, but it's also a lot of fun."

As for the club's name, Iber said: "It is very much a name for the club that is simple."

"I don't like the association that juggling and clowning are inseparable," he said. "We have a clown around."

"We haven't knocked anybody out yet!"

Both Iber and Hodas, who began juggling at age 9, said the club's non-competitive atmosphere helps in the improvement of their juggling skills.

"We are not aiming to perform," Hodas said. "The goal of the club is to make everyone better."
VOTE TODAY AND TOMORROW in the U.A./U.C. ELECTIONS

CANDIDATES’ STATEMENTS

March 31 - April 1

POLLING LOCATIONS:
Quad Gates: 10:00 - 6:00
Station Lobby: 4:00 - 9:00
High Risks by
30th St. Bridge: 12:00 - 8:00
Ho Hill: 10:00 - 4:00
Kings Court: 12:00 - 5:00
Loolool: 10:00 - 3:00
Juniors: You should vote in the Class of '83 Board Elections
Local Walk 17th - 4:00
All High Risk Buildings
12:00 - 6:00

CAS
Vote for up to 7

1. JEFF DAVIS
   (UNITY PARTY)
   The Undergraduate Assembly does not provide adequate representation for the student body as a whole. Student groups need more resources and more power to have their voices heard. The voice of the student is often ignored. In the past, I have lobbied the administration and the faculty on behalf of the student body. I now believe that the student voice needs to be heard and that the student body needs to have more power in the decision-making process. As a representative of the student body, I will work to improve the quality of our life and education at Penn. I believe that the student body should have the opportunity to participate in the decision-making process. I will work to improve the quality of our life and education at Penn.

2. MARC A. FEIGEN
   (UNION PARTY)
   The Undergraduate Assembly does not provide adequate representation for the student body as a whole. Student groups need more resources and more power to have their voices heard. The voice of the student is often ignored. In the past, I have lobbied the administration and the faculty on behalf of the student body. I now believe that the student voice needs to be heard and that the student body needs to have more power in the decision-making process. As a representative of the student body, I will work to improve the quality of our life and education at Penn. I believe that the student body should have the opportunity to participate in the decision-making process. I will work to improve the quality of our life and education at Penn.

3. CRAIG CARNAROLI
   (UNION PARTY)
   The Undergraduate Assembly does not provide adequate representation for the student body as a whole. Student groups need more resources and more power to have their voices heard. The voice of the student is often ignored. In the past, I have lobbied the administration and the faculty on behalf of the student body. I now believe that the student voice needs to be heard and that the student body needs to have more power in the decision-making process. As a representative of the student body, I will work to improve the quality of our life and education at Penn. I believe that the student body should have the opportunity to participate in the decision-making process. I will work to improve the quality of our life and education at Penn.

4. MARC A. RODRIGUEZ
   (UNION PARTY)
   The Undergraduate Assembly does not provide adequate representation for the student body as a whole. Student groups need more resources and more power to have their voices heard. The voice of the student is often ignored. In the past, I have lobbied the administration and the faculty on behalf of the student body. I now believe that the student voice needs to be heard and that the student body needs to have more power in the decision-making process. As a representative of the student body, I will work to improve the quality of our life and education at Penn. I believe that the student body should have the opportunity to participate in the decision-making process. I will work to improve the quality of our life and education at Penn.

5. OSCAR EDWARD GUNThER
   (COALITION FOR RESPONSIBLE ACTION)
   The Undergraduate Assembly does not provide adequate representation for the student body as a whole. Student groups need more resources and more power to have their voices heard. The voice of the student is often ignored. In the past, I have lobbied the administration and the faculty on behalf of the student body. I now believe that the student voice needs to be heard and that the student body needs to have more power in the decision-making process. As a representative of the student body, I will work to improve the quality of our life and education at Penn. I believe that the student body should have the opportunity to participate in the decision-making process. I will work to improve the quality of our life and education at Penn.

6. GEOFFREY ALEXANDER
   (THE CONNECTION)
   The Undergraduate Assembly does not provide adequate representation for the student body as a whole. Student groups need more resources and more power to have their voices heard. The voice of the student is often ignored. In the past, I have lobbied the administration and the faculty on behalf of the student body. I now believe that the student voice needs to be heard and that the student body needs to have more power in the decision-making process. As a representative of the student body, I will work to improve the quality of our life and education at Penn. I believe that the student body should have the opportunity to participate in the decision-making process. I will work to improve the quality of our life and education at Penn.

7. DEBBIE MELAMED
   (THE CONNECTION)
   Each of us is seeking an effective, committed, and accessible advocate for student concerns. Each of us is seeking an effective, committed, and accessible advocate for student concerns.

8. ALAN WOLAN
   (THE CONNECTION)
   Each of us is seeking an effective, committed, and accessible advocate for student concerns. Each of us is seeking an effective, committed, and accessible advocate for student concerns.

17. RANDY MALAMUD
   (BLOC PARTY)
   As a member of the Undergraduate Assembly, I have been involved in numerous activities that have had a positive impact on the student body. I have been involved in the Undergraduate Assembly for two years and have had the opportunity to work on a wide range of issues. I have also been involved in the Undergraduate Assembly for two years and have had the opportunity to work on a wide range of issues. I have also been involved in the Undergraduate Assembly for two years and have had the opportunity to work on a wide range of issues.

18. DOUGLAS McGOWAN
   (BLOC PARTY)
   As a member of the Undergraduate Assembly, I have been involved in numerous activities that have had a positive impact on the student body. I have been involved in the Undergraduate Assembly for two years and have had the opportunity to work on a wide range of issues. I have also been involved in the Undergraduate Assembly for two years and have had the opportunity to work on a wide range of issues. I have also been involved in the Undergraduate Assembly for two years and have had the opportunity to work on a wide range of issues.

19. CASSIUS C. TITUS
   (STUDENT ADVOCATE PARTY)
   As a member of the Undergraduate Assembly, I have been involved in numerous activities that have had a positive impact on the student body. I have been involved in the Undergraduate Assembly for two years and have had the opportunity to work on a wide range of issues. I have also been involved in the Undergraduate Assembly for two years and have had the opportunity to work on a wide range of issues. I have also been involved in the Undergraduate Assembly for two years and have had the opportunity to work on a wide range of issues.
VOTE TODAY AND TOMORROW IN THE UAUC ELECTIONS CANDIDATES’ STATEMENTS

5. Richard Buenkeke

I am currently a junior majoring in Economics. The interests I have in this position is to help my peers by getting them involved in the university. I support the united students activities because it gives me an opportunity to help my peers.

6. Nick Strauguzzi

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

Wharton

Voting for up to 3

1. David Smith

I am a third-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

2. Harry Harkaway

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

3. Gary C. Christopher

I am a junior at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

4. Peter Genta

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

5. Ed Szczepkowski

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

6. Chip Hunter

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

7. Matt Cassell

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

8. Lianne Tombs

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

SAC Approves Loan To WQHS

$1500 To Aid Station's Expansion

By Michael Nadler

The Student Activities Council received an earlier decision by granting a $1500 loan to radio station WQHS. The vote was unanimous, and the SAC members voted by written ballot. The loan will be used to aid in the expansion of the station.

9. David Goldberg

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

10. Lee Brown

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

11. Kevin Penn

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

12. Robert Santella

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

13. Yve Larriue

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

14. Amorina Jackson

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

15. Vicki Bernstein

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

16. Eric Elie

I am a second-year student at Temple University. I have been involved in the student government as an intern and I am currently serving as a senator. I believe that the student government is the voice of the students and I will continue to work on student issues. I am committed to making this university a better place.

Nursing

Laura Troisi

If you have any questions, please feel free to ask.

Where do art thou, Eugenie?"
The Decision Sciences Club will hold
Elections for next year's officers
Wed., March 31
7:00 PM
Rm. 303 Houston Hall

A world of larger-than-life
FANTASY
Giant puppets for Adults
FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 8 pm Zeilerbach Theatre
"BLUE SKY TAKES A WIFE" "THE WHITE RAVEN"
presented by Canada's acclaimed Theatre Sans Fil
PENN STUDENTS GET IT CHEAPER
½ price tickets $4 orch $3 balc

Wharton Woman
General Meeting
Tonight,
7:00 pm
Library Conference Room,
1st Floor Van Pelt Library

Schools and Schooling Seminars
Announces A First-Of-Its-Kind Seminar
HOW TO GET INTO MEDICAL SCHOOL
sponsored by
Dr. Leonard Krivy
He's the leader of the charge to keep doors to Medicine open.
A unique one-day seminar that will give you a competitive edge.

Free Lubavitch House       4032 Spruce Street
Lubavitch House 4032 Spruce Street

PASSOVER SEMINARS
Wed Mar 31, Thurs Apr 1 8:00 pm
Wharton Woman
LAW
Law School Light Opera Company
presents
Gilbert & Sullivan's
RUDDIGORE
Or the Witches' Curse
April 1, 2, 3 at 8:00 pm
Annenberg School Theater
$1 Thrus. $4 Fri & Sat

Conference Examines Problems of Sexism
The problems of sexism, from employee harassment to pornography, were explored at a workshop last week at Houston Hall.
The forum, entitled "Sexism: Issue to Object," was sponsored jointly by the Women's Studies Program, the Office of Student Life, the Penn Women's Alliance, Panhellenic Council, and the Office of Feminist Affairs.
Organized by Women's Center Director Carol Traxler, the workshop consisted of discussion groups led by experts in the field of sexism.

Giant puppets for Adults
Wednesday, March 31 st, 7-9 pm
Then exciting careers in public relations may be open to you.
1 expert speakers will be present to talk about these exciting careers in public relations.
Learn what it takes to be a good PR person.
Wednesday, March 31 st, 7-9 pm
Houston Hall, 2nd Floor, HSP room

To Sign Up:
Call Ruby Blocker at 243-3012

CAREERS IN PUBLIC RELATIONS

Schools and Schooling Seminars
Announces A First-Of-Its-Kind Seminar
HOW TO GET INTO MEDICAL SCHOOL
sponsored by
Dr. Leonard Krivy
He's the leader of the charge to keep doors to Medicine open.
A unique one-day seminar that will give you a competitive edge.

Free Lubavitch House       4032 Spruce Street
Lubavitch House 4032 Spruce Street
U. Forum To Explore Sexual Relationships

By DEBBIE FRID

The Penn Women's Alliance and Student Health will sponsor a conference on Saturday entitled "Kaleidoscope," a forum to explore sexual relationships. The conference coordinators, in the Women's Center and one of the conference coordinators. In the morning, Student Health Gynecology Counselor Chris Young will speak to students and have open questions. In the afternoon, Dr. Jeffreidge, Jefferson Medical College, will address issues related to sexuality, which deal with relationships with others. Levinson said the purpose of the conference is to help students form more realistic and comfortable with relationships, and to know that there are resources at the University which will answer any questions they may have.

1. I feel, because sexuality is such a personal issue, people are often afraid to talk about their feelings. Has this been the case for you? She said the workshop issues are dynamic. It's easy for "someone out of themselves," not being let

2. Look in the D.P. classifieds

Applications for membership in
PI SIGMA ALPHA
Political Science Honor Society
are now available in the Political Science Department in Stiteler Hall. Applications are due Wed., April 7.

Theatre Lab I present
An Evening of One Acts

Are you interested in acting? Want to participate in a full production? Want to direct or design? You can do all these things with the Theatre Lab! "An Evening of One Acts" is a collection of short plays written by current and past members of the Theatre Lab. The show features an array of actors, directors, and designers, showcasing the talent and creativity of the Theatre Lab community. The play is designed to give students an opportunity to gain experience in all aspects of theatre production, from acting and directing to set design and costume design. Join us for an exciting evening of one-act plays that explore a variety of themes and styles. Tickets are $5 in advance or $7 at the door. Contact the Theatre Lab for more information.

TRW College Relations
3200 One Space Park Drive
Redondo Beach, California 90278
Bldg. R5/B196, Dept. UP-4/82

April 1-23 8:00pm
Harold Prince Theater
at the Anenberg Center
The challenge... for those who dare... is at TRW.

The Pant Penns Consumer Board, along with The Residential Living Staff, present:

A Seminar on Off-Campus Living

Wednesday Mar. 31 4 pm
in the Upper Lobby of HUBS

The Bull
3942 Chestnut St.
222-4250

The Dante Aligheri Society
(The Italian Club)

Dr. Werner Gundersheimer "New Trailways Through The Renaissance"
4:30 Wed March 31st. 1982
4th Floor, West Lounge, Williams Hall
Wine & Cheese to Follow
The John Marshall Pre Law Society present Arnold Rosoff, J.D.
Discussing Malpractice Law
Wednesday, March 31 at 8 pm
CPC Auditorium, 36th & Locust Walk
Refreshments Will Be Served
Non-Members Welcome

Annabenrg Gala Preparations

(continued from page 1) by gala officials last night and taken to their rooms at the Plaza Hotel on the Benjamin Franklin Parkway. The exhibits will include a retrospective of the films by Kelly, a Philadelphia native, accompanied by tributes from the Penn alumni who

Students
academic year 1982-83
FREE ROOM & BOARD
placements in area homes
in exchange for home services and
Penn Israel Alliance  Political Science Dept     Bnai B'rith Lecture Bureau
Zeidan Atashi
Arab Druze Israeli – Member of Knesset
"Coexistence Between Arabs & Jews In Israel: Is It Possible?"
Thurs. April 1st 7:30
Van Pelt Conference Room

D.P. CLASSIFIEDS ARE YOUR BEST PLACE TO FIND OR RENT FOR NEXT YEAR OR THE SUMMER. MORE LISTINGS IN ONE CONVENIENT PLACE THAN ANY OTHER SINGLE LOCATION. LOOKING FOR ROOMMATES OR PEOPLE TO SHARE A HOUSE? AGAIN, D.P. CLASSIFIEDS ARE YOUR BEST BET — REACH THE ENTIRE CAMPUS WITH YOUR AD. MAKE THE D.P. YOUR FIRST STOP — IT MIGHT BE YOUR LAST!

THIS SUMMER
EARN PENN CREDITS IN MEXICO
PENN-IN-MEXICO
JUNE 28 - JULY 30

Located in OAXACA in the cordillera of Mexico's south — high, cool and spectacular — Course with Penn faculty on politics, history, art and literature.

INFORMATION MEETING:
Wednesday March 31
4 P.M. in the Bishop White Room (Houston Hall, 2nd flr.)
Establish a timetable for the University, he can either accept or reject the University's plan. If the department finds the affirmative action plan is accepted by the government, "we would like the way for continuing to move along and do better than the regulations might require," the affirmative action director said. "It's better if the OCEPP is for the plan.

"I think one of the areas behind the OCEPP is how much effort and time we put on paperwork and how much in the hiring plan (this up to achieve and implement affirmative action," Kincy said. "We put in the biggest days with that, and that's a criticism that has been made of higher education as well as its in-dept," she added.

Four Women's Center Directors Carol Pacy, who was Chairman of the Equal Opportunity Department, said Monday that the last one's made it clear the University's job grouping is inadequate. "We're still in the process so the last one's made it clear the University's job grouping is inadequate. This "substantiates some of the Labor Departmen's objections," she said. "I'm going to keep them as a subject," Pacy said. "If the Labor Department were looking at the facts and if we were found out of compliance, says would be taken to terminate our Federal funding."

Did you pick a good number in the room draw, and would consider friendly room switch?

387-2821

(substantial financial incentive)
WOMEN ENGINEERS

Society of Women Engineers

Annual Luncheon

"Aspects of Engineering"

Make Reservations in
Rm 110 Towne with a
$3.00 Donation

For Information Call
Suzi 222-3043
Nancy 387-0898

S E W

Campus Vendor Retires

(Continued from page 1)

Eagles when they played in Franklin Field, Fazackerley said of his decades of selling University yellows, sodas, and cookies. "It all refers to his variety of sandwiches, 'I'm amazed at this great outpouring

'"I've seen a lot of changes."

Fazackerley began driving his truck in 1960, when the construction of 30th Street Station forced the demolition of a

the UA office (first floor, Houston Hall), for further information, please call 243-8908 or 8909.

If you feel you have a legal problem please sign up in the UA office, for further information, please call 243-8908 or 8909.

someone needs a little doing with his Fazackerley's retirement, he said, "It's a lot of responsibility, and a lot of work, but we don't have to worry any more about the place and the people are all right," he said. "It's hard to replace a tradition," he said. "It's never necessary to

Aspects of Engineering

Free Legal Counsel for Students will begin this

Thursday, April 1

If you feel you have a legal problem please sign up in the UA office (first floor, Houston Hall), for further information, please call 243-8908 or 8909.

NATURAL TONIGHT

AND EVERY WEDNESDAY 9pm - 2am

ON ALL DOMESTIC DRAFT BEERS & LIQUOR
South African Writer Will Address Seniors

By MARC BLAUSTEIN

Professor Emeritus of English at Washington University in South Africa, Mphahlele will deliver the baccalaureate address to this year’s graduating class on May 19.

Mphahlele, who was back South Africa in 1997 when he was banned for teaching because of his political activism, has been teaching at the University since 1979 and has continued his work in the struggle for liberation, as well as in the expression of the literature of the world and for his dedication to the expression of cultural diversity in the oppressed country.

English Department Chairman Robert Landau was a colleague of the black political and literary figure when he taught at the University, where he is now a professor and a teacher and scholar. Landau said: “His special contribution to this University was a critic and creator of literature that was contemporarily as well as a critic and creator of literature that was contemporarily new. He was an expert on a great variety of languages and cultures, and of course he is a recognized writer of South Africa.”

President Sheldon Hackney, who chose Mphahlele, praised him “for his positive things to say about the world.” He said: “They are all knowledgeable as stylists at this University about someone’s speaking qualifications.”

There was no official announcement made; it would now make the world of literature that much of the importance was lost with the institution of art by the speaker.

Mphahlele was banned for teaching as a result of the political opposition to the new apartheid government. “Part of the new government’s method of downgrading the public and political education available to blacks in South Africa.”

Mphahlele later wrote: “Sure Second Language’ is a prerequisite for English language. Mphahlele’s other literary credits include a novel, ‘The Handkerchief, and numerous short stories and essays collections.”

He also went: “I am only one of many writers who have chosen to be a speaker with good qualifications to be a speaker.”

Mphahlele is an expert on a great variety of languages and cultures, and of course he is a recognized writer of South Africa.”
Laxmen Gather Troops for Attack on Navy

By KAREN WOODROW

With last season's national ranking came this one, it was no surprise when they showed up in such style. Why should the season be any different now that the Quakers have been admitted to the National Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Association? With the start of the season, the Quakers faced the huge challenge of trying to prove themselves on the field. But the exciting moment on game three against Fulbright, the team that would later go on to win the national championship, was the moment when the Quakers tasted victory. Since then, there has been no turning back. The team has been growing steadily and now stands ready to face the challenges of the upcoming season.

The Quakers are up against some tough opponents, especially in their first game against the nationally ranked Navy. The team must be prepared for a tough battle. The challenge of stepping up to the national stage is a daunting one, but the Quakers are ready to rise to the occasion. They must focus on their own strengths and work together to achieve success. The team is confident in their abilities and ready to Take on the challenge.

Bette Tuppeny tugged a completed game five hitter as the Quakers between defeated Ursinus 11-2 yesterday afternoon. Tuppeny, a star pitcher for the team, was able to shut out the opposing team, allowing only two runs. The game was a real test for the team, and they proved themselves once again.

Better Than Winning An Oscar

By PRIDE GELMAN

Winning an Oscar is a great achievement in itself, but for Coach Matteo with his team of Quakers, the award is just a warm-up. The team has a long history of winning against top-notch opponents, and this year is no different. The Quakers have been working hard to prepare for the upcoming season, and they are ready to show the world what they're made of.

The team is filled with top-notch athletes, and many of them have already earned their shares of awards. But the biggest award of them all is the one that the Quakers are always striving for: the Ivy League title. The team is determined to take home the championship this year, and they are ready to put in the hard work to make it happen.

Linksmen Look For Spark Against Lions and Tigers

By MIKE HEVERLING

Winning an Oscar is a great achievement in itself, but for the Linksmen, the challenge is even greater. The team is looking to win a spark of victory against the Lions and Tigers, and they are ready to put in the hard work to make it happen.

The team is filled with top-notch athletes, and many of them have already earned their shares of awards. But the biggest award of them all is the one that the Linksmen are always striving for: the Ivy League title. The team is determined to take home the championship this year, and they are ready to put in the hard work to make it happen.