U. will comply with draft law
Hackbarth opposes threat to student aid

Hackbarth opposes threat to student aid

In a move that could have far-reaching implications for the University's future budgetary planning, University President Ronald Reagan has announced plans to cut federal aid to the University, effective immediately.

The move comes in response to the increasing cost of providing education to students, particularly in light of the ongoing economic crisis. The University's budget, which is heavily dependent on federal funding, has been hit hard by the cuts, leading some administrators to express concern about the University's ability to maintain its academic standards.

"This is a difficult decision, but it is necessary to ensure the long-term viability of the University," said President Reagan. "We have no choice but to make the hard decisions to protect our students and our academic mission."

The cuts will affect all areas of the University, including academic programs, student services, and facilities. The University has already begun implementing cost-saving measures, including layoffs and furloughs for non-essential personnel.

"We understand the difficult situation we are facing," said Chancellor Janet Napolitano. "But we must make these tough decisions to ensure the future of the University."
Haga estudiantes fellowship

TODAY

Inforamar Program

Struggle for Soviet Jewry

Houston Hall Room 305

hear all that planned for this AIESEC general meeting Tuesday in Delnch 21l

Manufacturing Management at — appear is no guarantee that a "sting win

Listings for

Business Of

PAGI 1

information meeting.

RICHARD VICKS'Vicks

lay. Jan 26. Bruce Johnson

TAKE BIGHTEN THE LIFE ol a

Health Care Drv General Information

LEHMAN BROTHERS General In

GERMANY 1983 Penn in Freiburg

every Wednesday night at 700.

INGER Stuart Kauffman PhD

BATTLE was poisoned at the Scotland

University of Pennsylvania

Inteivews Monday, January 31, 1983

MITRE will interview students Monday, January 31, 1983.

Contact your Placement Office to arrange an interview if you are a B.S., M.S. or Ph.D. candidate in:

Electrical Engineering

Computer Engineering

Computer Science

Mathematics

Physics

Contact your placement office to see if MITRE will be ending your campus, or send your resume to White house in MITRE Corporation, Middlesex Furnace, Bedford, MA 01730.

U.S. Citizens required. MITRE is an equal opportunity employer actively seeking applications under its affirmative action program.

false cyane threat scare 115,000

NEW ORLEANS National Guard troops search river banks and paddy fields for three to five bodies, according to the Louisiana residents without tap

A 15-year-old boy was arrested and accused of calling in the bomb threat to say the water was poisoned. Gov. Davis asked of state police and the F.B.I. to help in the calls the caller said were made "of a prank call" any of the incidents. But most of the others ignored the apparent prank calls from people planning the water sup

"There's nothing we can do to help him at this point," said Earl Browne, a spokesman for which has coordinated efforts to tap and test the water samples.

Health officials urged residents to stay out of any water supply.

stoms, and those who have died, especially in the political representation of blacks.

any of the incidents, but state of-nor ignore the apparent prank calls.

 kindergarten. He was a prominent figure in black America, and in the 20 sears since King was the programs written in blood and sweat

a dismal distant past," he said.

The ministry of ihe Stale Health Depart-from people claiming the wa- i

Thousands of 1M)0|)(I) struggld

Wade then called for a continued in blood and sweat

machine grows more voracious every

The eathing problem no one talks about

BULLIMIA

Threats of personal suicide with a life-time problem in eating. They are a consistent, insidious, harmful illness affecting those pursuing a normal and healthy lifestyle. Many individuals suffering from the condition are accompanied by feelings of depression and/or anxiety.

Help is now available for this problem as it may experience any of these symptoms and would like to seek help. The Eating Disorders In-

All inquiries will be kept strictly confidential.

NEW LONDON STYLE

PIZZA

"...WE NOW DELIVER TO STUDENTS!

Expenses included

steakball

Small Large Pizzas

Salads

Soup

20% Discount for Students

Closed

Monday-Friday 11 am-1 am

Saturday 12 noon - 1 am

Sunday 5 pm-1 am

Open

Monday-Thurs 11 am-1 am

Friday 1 am-1 am

40th & Chestnut Streets

For Comment Call

EV 2-1492

EV 2-0358

The new Delivery
By JAMIE KRESTIN

The neighborhood schools are a test of how far children have traveled since the parents who graduated from them.

At West Philadelphia High School, parents are willing to make sacrifices to keep their children in the public school system.

"I'm a parent and I'm also a citizen," says Ms. Freeman, the school's principal. "I believe it's a public school with a purpose."

But not everyone agrees with Ms. Freeman. Some parents are concerned about the quality of education in the public schools.

"I'm concerned about the lack of discipline," says Ms. Pagano, a parent at the school. "I think the school needs to be more structured."
It was with anger that Trustee A. Leslie Higginbotham related his experiences in South Africa. He spoke of the country's "inhumanities," of how blacks would be stripped of all rights of citizenship and how "South Africa is tragically illiterate without a functional memory of liberty, justice, fairness or even decency." Higginbotham was not equivocating in expressing the human rights issues. "You don't have to be a toad at a top medical school to know when a person is in a coma," he said.

But when students began pressing Higginbotham to support divestiture of University funds from companies working with South Africa, the Trustee person is in a coma," he said.

"---the need for action has never been greater. If the Trustees fail to move strongly and forcefully to the administration made its decision with the part of the Penn community in particular where he has always been a familiar campus figure for a decade."

PennSpeak: "You're reactionary-happening anyway."

English: "This group is not acceptable."

PennSpeak: "This group is not acceptable."

English: "We don't want people to translate.

Letters to the Editor

Lamenting Luntz

Stanley Biddle Memorial

Teach's body of Stanley Biddle (often known as "Vetman") in a steam vent at 38th and Locust. The intention is to recognize the death of a person familiar to many of us.

Several months ago, in as the representative of student and staff, the Christian Association to hold a memorial gathering on Thursday, January 27, at 3:00 p.m. at the University auditorium. Few of us in the campus community could do less for him than to say, 'Rest in peace,'" Teach wrote. All of us, at least, wished for frequent visits, and the few that were occasional were treasured and desired by many. Teach's body will be laid out in the company of the people who pay tuition and attend classes.

PennSpeak: "You've been co-opted."

English: "I don't understand what you mean."

Consul has nothing to do with acting people or their opinions. Even the most brain-dead College Hall no where knows that student's opinions are his own. He has rights, but it is the administration that makes decisions. He can't be sure, services are what he does. The idea is that the student body as a whole nor generally will. And students who complain that they are not in touch with the administration must be changed. The student body decided the administration for itself, and they are not students. Teach does not believe in teaching people for themselves. Teach's body will be laid out in the company of the people who pay tuition and attend classes.

PennSpeak: "You've been co-opted."

English: "I don't understand what you mean."

Consul has nothing to do with acting people or their opinions. Even the most brain-dead College Hall no where knows that student's opinions are his own. He has rights, but it is the administration that makes decisions. He can't be sure, services are what he does. The idea is that the student body as a whole nor generally will. And students who complain that they are not in touch with the administration must be changed. The student body decided the administration for itself, and they are not students. Teach does not believe in teaching people for themselves. Teach's body will be laid out in the company of the people who pay tuition and attend classes.

PennSpeak: "You've been co-opted."

English: "I don't understand what you mean."

Consul has nothing to do with acting people or their opinions. Even the most brain-dead College Hall no where knows that student's opinions are his own. He has rights, but it is the administration that makes decisions. He can't be sure, services are what he does. The idea is that the student body as a whole nor generally will. And students who complain that they are not in touch with the administration must be changed. The student body decided the administration for itself, and they are not students. Teach does not believe in teaching people for themselves. Teach's body will be laid out in the company of the people who pay tuition and attend classes.

PennSpeak: "You've been co-opted."

English: "I don't understand what you mean."

Consul has nothing to do with acting people or their opinions. Even the most brain-dead College Hall no where knows that student's opinions are his own. He has rights, but it is the administration that makes decisions. He can't be sure, services are what he does. The idea is that the student body as a whole nor generally will. And students who complain that they are not in touch with the administration must be changed. The student body decided the administration for itself, and they are not students. Teach does not believe in teaching people for themselves. Teach's body will be laid out in the company of the people who pay tuition and attend classes.

PennSpeak: "You've been co-opted."

English: "I don't understand what you mean."

Consul has nothing to do with acting people or their opinions. Even the most brain-dead College Hall no where knows that student's opinions are his own. He has rights, but it is the administration that makes decisions. He can't be sure, services are what he does. The idea is that the student body as a whole nor generally will. And students who complain that they are not in touch with the administration must be changed. The student body decided the administration for itself, and they are not students. Teach does not believe in teaching people for themselves. Teach's body will be laid out in the company of the people who pay tuition and attend classes.

PennSpeak: "You've been co-opted."

English: "I don't understand what you mean."

Consul has nothing to do with acting people or their opinions. Even the most brain-dead College Hall no where knows that student's opinions are his own. He has rights, but it is the administration that makes decisions. He can't be sure, services are what he does. The idea is that the student body as a whole nor generally will. And students who complain that they are not in touch with the administration must be changed. The student body decided the administration for itself, and they are not students. Teach does not believe in teaching people for themselves. Teach's body will be laid out in the company of the people who pay tuition and attend classes.

PennSpeak: "You've been co-opted."

English: "I don't understand what you mean."

Consul has nothing to do with acting people or their opinions. Even the most brain-dead College Hall no where knows that student's opinions are his own. He has rights, but it is the administration that makes decisions. He can't be sure, services are what he does. The idea is that the student body as a whole nor generally will. And students who complain that they are not in touch with the administration must be changed. The student body decided the administration for itself, and they are not students. Teach does not believe in teaching people for themselves. Teach's body will be laid out in the company of the people who pay tuition and attend classes.

PennSpeak: "You've been co-opted."

English: "I don't understand what you mean."

Consul has nothing to do with acting people or their opinions. Even the most brain-dead College Hall no where knows that student's opinions are his own. He has rights, but it is the administration that makes decisions. He can't be sure, services are what he does. The idea is that the student body as a whole nor generally will. And students who complain that they are not in touch with the administration must be changed. The student body decided the administration for itself, and they are not students. Teach does not believe in teaching people for themselves. Teach's body will be laid out in the company of the people who pay tuition and attend classes.

PennSpeak: "You've been co-opted."

English: "I don't understand what you mean."

Consul has nothing to do with acting people or their opinions. Even the most brain-dead College Hall no where knows that student's opinions are his own. He has rights, but it is the administration that makes decisions. He can't be sure, services are what he does. The idea is that the student body as a whole nor generally will. And students who complain that they are not in touch with the administration must be changed. The student body decided the administration for itself, and they are not students. Teach does not believe in teaching people for themselves. Teach's body will be laid out in the company of the people who pay tuition and attend classes.

PennSpeak: "You've been co-opted."

English: "I don't understand what you mean."

Consul has nothing to do with acting people or their opinions. Even the most brain-dead College Hall no where knows that student's opinions are his own. He has rights, but it is the administration that makes decisions. He can't be sure, services are what he does. The idea is that the student body as a whole nor generally will. And students who complain that they are not in touch with the administration must be changed. The student body decided the administration for itself, and they are not students. Teach does not believe in teaching people for themselves. Teach's body will be laid out in the company of the people who pay tuition and attend classes.
PSA offers plan for Quad Sunday brunch

The Department of Residential Living has added several new services to its offerings for students. These new services are part of a broader initiative to enhance the student experience. The new services include a Sunday brunch plan that will be available for students in the Quadrangle for a small fee. This plan includes unlimited access to a variety of foods, beverages, and entertainment. Students can purchase the plan for a set price and enjoy the benefits of this new service.

The new service is designed to provide a more enjoyable and convenient experience for students. The new menu items include a variety of options, such as breakfast foods, salads, and desserts. Students will also have access to a range of beverages, including coffee, tea, and juice. The service is available to students who have already paid for their residence services.

In addition to the Sunday brunch plan, PSA has also introduced new programs to support student organizations. These programs include a new initiative to support the arts and culture at Penn. The initiative includes a new funding program for student organizations, as well as a new arts festival that will be held on campus. These new programs are intended to provide additional resources and support for student organizations, helping them to flourish and thrive.

Overall, these new services and programs are designed to enhance the student experience and provide additional support for student organizations. Students who are interested in learning more about these new services and programs should contact PSA for more information.
AURITIONS FOR INTUITON’S PRODUCTION OF
DAVID BOWIE’S
ZIGGY STARDUST
Wednesday, January 26, 7-10 pm
Thursday, January 17, 7-10 pm
Bring a rock song
Dress to dance
Musical and tech positions available.

HELP WANTED
NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY —
Seeking new talent for writing, photography and business staffs of award-winning college newspaper. Report news, features, sports, arts and entertainment. Help us cover the campus, the city, and the nation. Be a sales rep, design ads, help manage our half-million dollar budget. Excellent opportunity to work with computerized facilities, meet interesting people, gain invaluable hands-on experience. Unlimited number of positions open. Flexible hours. On-the-job training provided. Apply at the offices of The Daily Pennsylvanian.

***

Class of 1923 rink —
And recognizing that it will have to be a development project, what we came to do is to find the most efficient way to do it," Bouch said, a decision about the future of the rink will be made in both financial considerations and the priorities of the University. "The costs are in the area of $300,000 to $400,000 a year, and its primarily for one-season use," he said. "That's a large expense for a fantastic use. That money could be put in other areas." Hirsch said the decision to close the rink has not yet officially been made, but that the University has examined the cost of options for the building. "The university has examined the cost of options for the building. "We're not really prepared to answer a question as to whether or not the rink will be closed," he said. "But I do think that it's an appropriate time to look for alternative uses of the facility."

Auditions for Intuition’s production of David Bowie’s Ziggy Stardust

Wednesday, January 26, 7-10 pm
Thursday, January 17, 7-10 pm
Bring a rock song
Dress to dance
Musical and tech positions available.

HELP WANTED
NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY —
Seeking new talent for writing, photography and business staffs of award-winning college newspaper. Report news, features, sports, arts and entertainment. Help us cover the campus, the city, and the nation. Be a sales rep, design ads, help manage our half-million dollar budget. Excellent opportunity to work with computerized facilities, meet interesting people, gain invaluable hands-on experience. Unlimited number of positions open. Flexible hours. On-the-job training provided. Apply at the offices of The Daily Pennsylvanian.

***

Come to our introductory meeting this Friday, January 28, 4:00 p.m. at 4015 Walnut Street, second floor.

***

Can’t make the introductory meeting? Call Nina Liu at 898-6585 or drop by our offices anytime.

Make The DP Work For You...
Work For The DP
The chairman, Mr. Cidv lliach, said last night that the logo contest is being held to create more student participation in the theme. He noted that the logo contest is being accompanied by a theme which will be used on Fling shirts, and painted on the Quad. He said, "I was ripping his jacket and was stuck in the fastener when he suddenly turned, knocked me to the floor and dashed toward the door, the owners. He jumped onto the table and was in the kitchen," Lafferman said. After the incident, he said he discovered that the man had a load of sheep feathers in his pockets, and that he was carrying a knife and had a rope around his neck.

Langendorl said he and Fresh Connection co-chairman Cindy Beach had been in their case containing almost $2,000 in bills on Walnut Street yesterday afternoon.

The Spring Fling An Committee co-chairman, who asked that his name be used, said that last night that the theme was "Space...the final frontier." He said that the man entered the store around 1:30 a.m. and was approximately 5'11" tall, two inches tall, and weighed 190 pounds. He was wearing a red jacket and black pants, and was in his early 20s. If at happened to "snag someone's pants", he said.

University Police Lt. Steven Boyles said last night that campus police responded to the call because they were near the store, but did not handle the incident since it did not occur on campus.

Contest set for Fling logo design

By DAVID TOCHMAN News & Sun Staff, Special to The Inquirer

The mission: to design a logo to accompany the theme. Spring Fling Committee Co-chairman Cindy Beach said last night that the logo contest is being held to create more student participation in planning for the annual spring-dance party.

"We want to get as many people involved with Fling as early as possible," she said. "We also want to get the students out of the library up to the parties on campus, and get the best designs."

Spring Fling Committee co-chairman Cindy Beach and Fresh Connection co-chairman Mack had a knife and was in the kitchen, Lafferman said. After the incident, he said he discovered that the man had a load of sheep feathers in his pockets, and that he was carrying a rope around his neck.

Langendorl said he and Fresh Connection co-chairman Cindy Beach had been in their case containing almost $2,000 in bills on Walnut Street yesterday afternoon.

The Spring Fling An Committee co-chairman, who asked that his name be used, said that last night that the theme was "Space...the final frontier." He said that the man entered the store around 1:30 a.m. and was approximately 5'11" tall, two inches tall, and weighed 190 pounds. He was wearing a red jacket and black pants, and was in his early 20s. If at happened to "snag someone's pants", he said.

University Police Lt. Steven Boyles said last night that campus police responded to the call because they were near the store, but did not handle the incident since it did not occur on campus.

The geo turned around and shot his 따른 three contrasts which added to the left ear his face, up to the corner of his own ears, and looked both ways. The police were inside the corner and disappeared.

Lafferman said the man was wearing a black jacket, head and black pants, and was in his early 20s. If at happened to "snag someone's pants", he said.

University Police Lt. Steven Boyles said last night that campus police responded to the call because they were near the store, but did not handle the incident since it did not occur on campus.
The Bard's birthday

U. library plans celebration

By JOHN MCKELVEY

The Horace Howard Furness Memorial Library at First Boston plans an anniversary celebration on April 21 to kick off its 36th year at the University of Pennsylvania. (The library also includes some of the intellectual resources at the University, although they lived and worked in Philadelphia.)

The celebration commemorates the opening of the collection on April 21, 1932, the anniversary of the birth of William Shakespeare. The event will also be held to publicize its 3,400-volume collection, which includes original Shakespeare manuscripts.

"One of the reasons for the celebration," said University libraries assistant director John McKelvey, "is to recognize the long association of the library with the late President Edmond R. Bloustein, assistant curator of special collections, said.

The students awarded the library, both from the School of Arts and Sciences, and from other schools, have been instrumental in the collection's development. The library also includes some of Shakespeare's early quartos and his contemporaries.

The special collections, said McKelvey, "are a remarkable resource for students and faculty. They provide a framework for our studies of Shakespeare's works with notes from contemporaries.

The library's reading room is open to all members of the community on weekdays, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The library is also open to the public on Saturdays, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The library's reading room is open to all members of the community on weekdays, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The library is also open to the public on Saturdays, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Graduate fellowships may rise
(Continued from page 1)

Although University administrators differ in their views on allowing the money, Geiman said the total package of about $12,500 — which includes the grant plus the rebate — does not come close to being adequate.

"I think education of those who are not eligible for aid is important," Geiman said. "Unlike the humanities, I call it an extreme sport."

"When compared to a normative rise of 11 percent, the fellowship increase is not that much," Geiman said. "I'm not considering other factors such as inflation. I think the 17 percent in a year is a big right direction, but it's not a big step."

"I think the University should have those who are ineligible for financial aid under the law as strictly as possible," said Loeb.

"This is done, however, I would strongly recommend that we get back to that," Geiman said. "I think the law by the University of Minnesota should have those who are ineligible for financial aid under the law as strictly as possible."

Eric: Only 142 more

Ballroom Dance Lessons
For You

ANNOUNCING: The first, meet enjoyable Ballroom Dance classes now offered — with the finest professional instructors available anywhere. Now at Leonво Hall, for the U of Minnesota community.

Most new people romance your darling (or man/feat) back into step, get some gentle exercise, escape the library, and learn WALTZ, FOXTROT, TANGO, SLOWRUSH, SLOWFOXTROT and COLUMBIA, plus dozens of other ballroom dances. Each lesson is taught for all the previous ones, and includes individual "tuning-up" as you learn and get quickly. Well experts who have been with us as much as 22 years. A bargain of this price.

Members $6.50, non-members $7.00. Tuesdays 6:45-8:15. For information call Elizabeth Sachs 5?ja-1510 or 433-1550.

IS THERE LIFE AFTER MAY?

Vicks Consumer Products Division invites you to learn about Product Management Opportunities

Sponsored by The Wharton Chapter of The American Marketing Association

H H 236

Tuesday, Jan. 25 at 4:30 P.M.

1982 Wharton graduate from Vicks will present Wine & Cheese reception to follow

SAC FUNDS

GERMANY 1983
July 25 - August 31

Intensive Intermediate German. German Art & Architecture. History of the Medieval European

Penn-In-Preuburg

INFORMATION MEETING

Wednesday, January 19, 7:00 P.M.

West Lounge, 4th floor, Williams Hall

If interested but can't attend

call Elizabeth Sachs 5?ja

Graduate students are not rich people," he said.

Sponsor: The Penn Core Courses.

"This is done, however, I would strongly recommend that we get back to that," Geiman said. "I think the law by the University of Minnesota should have those who are ineligible for financial aid under the law as strictly as possible."

The Reagan Administration has remained committed to enforcing the law as strictly as possible. The U.S. government is saying as bluntly as possible that taxi drivers should not be afraid of aid. Geiman said the total package of about $12,500 — which includes the grant plus the rebate — does not come close to being adequate.

"I think education of those who are not eligible for aid is important," Geiman said. "Unlike the humanities, I call it an extreme sport."

"When compared to a normative rise of 11 percent, the fellowship increase is not that much," Geiman said. "I'm not considering other factors such as inflation. I think the 17 percent in a year is wrong, but it's not a big step."

Eric: Only 142 more

Ballroom Dance Lessons
For You

ANNOUNCING: The first, most enjoyable Ballroom Dance classes now offered — with the finest professional instructors available anywhere. Now at Leonво Hall, for the U of Minnesota community.

Most new people romance your darling (or man/feat) back into step, get some gentle exercise, escape the library, and learn WALTZ, FOXTROT, TANGO, SLOWRUSH, SLOWFOXTROT and COLUMBIA, plus dozens of other ballroom dances. Each lesson is taught for all the previous ones, and includes individual "tuning-up" as you learn and get quickly. Well experts who have been with us as much as 22 years. A bargain of this price.

Members $6.50, non-members $7.00. Tuesdays 6:45-8:15. For information call Elizabeth Sachs 5?ja-1510 or 433-1550.

IS THERE LIFE AFTER MAY?

Vicks Consumer Products Division invites you to learn about Product Management Opportunities

Sponsored by The Wharton Chapter of The American Marketing Association

H H 236

Tuesday, Jan. 25 at 4:30 P.M.

1982 Wharton graduate from Vicks will present Wine & Cheese reception to follow

SAC FUNDS

GERMANY 1983
July 25 - August 31

Intensive Intermediate German. German Art & Architecture. History of the Medieval European

Penn-In-Preuburg

INFORMATION MEETING

Wednesday, January 19, 7:00 P.M.

West Lounge, 4th floor, Williams Hall

If interested but can't attend

call Elizabeth Sachs 5?ja
I'M, III
Stunning such rodionce os to make one gasp Collins, The Inquirer Perfect extends the possibilities of American Theolre fuller, electricity original hilonous Gcissocu, New York limes
Talking With... Vou
Coll 898-6791 or -.top ot box office
Pcnn Students Get It Cheaper!
IUOS
while the most talked about plau of the year
Even Better Than Your Mother Does It...
The Alpha Chi Rho Meal Plan, Spring
YOU WER€ fiUJfiV
Talk with wbu Jane Martin
If interested or wishing further info, call 769-1174
Silting Steaks, Roast Turkey, Chicken
Sizzling Steaks, Roast Turkey, Chicken
OUR EXHIBIT
Houston Hall Art Gallery
is looking for interested members submitting drawings, paintings, wall hangings, etc., for possible display in our HIDDEN TALENTS EXHIBIT.
Please call for an appointment.
Beth: 222-2878
Donna: 222-0514
Stephen: 222-8046
STAGE MANAGER/ TD CARPENTERS - DESIGNER-COSTUME MAKERS
Needed for March/April Tour of Judith Wilden's
PETTICORN LINE
Rehearsals: January - March, NEEDED
If interested or wishing further info, call 769-1174
NATIONAL CENTER FOR EDUCATIONAL TESTING
Pittsburgh, PA
Philadelphia, PA
Cambridge, MA
Philaob, PA
Long Island, NY
Washington, DC
New Jersey
Washington, WA

PREPARE NOW FOR FEBRUARY 19, 1983 EXAM

32-hr. "Weekender" course begins February 5.
For a free brochure and an invitation to a "See sample test", contact your nearest National Center Office.
THE PENN POLITICAL UNION...

FINANCING YOUR MEDICAL Education
Tuesday, January 25
7:00 p.m.
Ben Franklin Room
Houston Hall
Open to all students; seniors urged to attend

THE PENN POLITICAL UNIO... ITS THE NEXT BEST THING TO BEING THERE

COME TO THE INTRO MEETING TUESDAY, JAN. 25
7:30 P.M.
BEN FRANKLIN ROOM,
2nd Floor Houston Hall
ALL WELCOME
Ben Hagedorn

ANNOUNCING A NEW COURSE VISITING SCHOLAR AYO DADA OF IBADAN IS OFFERING ED 545 A - LANGUAGE AND EDUCATION IN AFRICA

The course offers an overview of the pre-colonial language situation in Africa and the language policies in Modern African Societies and Educational Systems.
THURSDAYS 4:30-6:30 P.M.
(The Graduate School of Education)

U. installs new pipes for air-conditioning

By MARY ELLEN CROWLEY
The University is spending $100,000 to replace 19-year-old chilled-water pipes which control the air-conditioning systems in High Rise North and Harrison House. The Maintenance Division has already informed the faculty that the pipes, which were installed in 1964, had become so deteriorated that if the project had been delayed, the air-conditioning in both buildings would have become unusable.

"There was deterioration of the lines which caused leaks," "leaks have been historically a problem," he said. "The system would have had to be shut down for a month to make repairs.

Continuation of the project, which will be completed by May 1, began last Friday. Construction will be directed by the assistant executive director to the vice president for administrative services, and will last until the project is completed, by September.

The project will continue through January, 1985 and put out by November," he said. "The University is structuring the construction." McNamara said that crudely-announced "hot air" of the past has now been replaced with the realization by the students and that the university is now ready to serve the students.

"We tend to fear of before and"

THE NEXT BEST THING TO

BEING THERE

The course offers an overview of the pre-colonial language situation in Africa and the language policies in Modern African Societies and Educational Systems.

FINANCING YOUR MEDICAL Education
Tuesday, January 25
7:00 p.m.
Ben Franklin Room
Houston Hall
Open to all students; seniors urged to attend

EAT The Best Of Foods.
To Seduce The Most Pervious And Appease The Most Voracious Of Appetites
Even Better Than Your Mother Does It...
Sizzling Steaks, Roast Turkey, Chicken
Parmigiana Every Week
$200 Less Than Dining Service
JOIN
The Alpha Chi Rho Meal Plan, Spring '83: 5 Full Dinners, 5 Full Lunches; 14 Weeks. We're Right Off College Green At 219 S. 36th. Come By, Lock At The Menu, Or Call Me, Jim, At The House: 222-9347 or 222-6704.

"NO LONGER"

i n leSs than Dining Service

NOW extended through Jan. 30
Penn Students Get It Cheaper!
$5 off regular ticket price with student ID
$10 off for faculty/staff
Discounted tickets limited
Call 889-0791 or stop at box office
Tues., Weds., Thurs., Fri: 9 AM - 11 PM
Sat. & Sun. 9 AM - 4 PM - 12:30 PM

annenberg center
UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA • PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA 19174

942 CHESTNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA, PA 19144
the city's most relaxed new bar & grill!

I JUST CAN’T MISS CSBG’S HAPPY HOUR !!! THEIR HORS D’OEUVRES, DRINKS & PITCHERS ARE REALLY DIVINE !!!
What track shows depth at Yale Invite

By MIKE DEVEREUX

Yale's women's track team is a force to be reckoned with. As a result, the team provides the foundation for a winning team. At the Yale Invitational in New Haven, the team got to work. Everything they wanted to see. and do, from the top to the bottom.

Mike Devereux

M. Squash

Dave Hoagland

Dave Hoagland's reports from the last two weeks have been a delight. The Quakers have been on a roll of late, setting up a strong finish in the Ivy League. The team has been working hard, and the results are showing.

Dave Hoagland

Gigants Stadium

Katie Miller

Gigants Stadium is a place of wonder and amazement. The stadium is located in a beautiful setting, surrounded by majestic mountains. The view from the stands is breathtaking, with the natural beauty of the surroundings.

Katie Miller

RESUME

M. Squash

By ROB GOLDEN

Dave Hoagland's reports from the last two weeks have been a delight. The Quakers have been on a roll of late, setting up a strong finish in the Ivy League. The team has been working hard, and the results are showing.

Dave Hoagland

YOUR PATCH

by C. S. FLORES

Your Patch is your window to the world. Whether you're looking for local news, events, or just want to see what's happening in your community, Your Patch has got you covered.

C. S. FLORES

WANTED

by RUPERT WELCH

WANTED: Accident insurance. I need to find a policy that will cover me in case of an accident. Anyone know of any companies that offer this coverage?

RUPERT WELCH

Classified Ads

Place your classifieds at the D P office - 4615 Walnut Street, 2nd floor. Cost: 20¢ per word, per day. Deadline: 3 p.m. two days before publication.
Mercy hockey clubs need a home of their own

By DAVID GOLDBERG

Sister Mary of the Sacred Heart, R.H.M.

Any economics major could tell you that the economics of building a new indoor hockey facility churches, basketball courts and tennis courts.

The Ann Arbor News recently reported that the hockey teams at St. Joseph's University, the University of Pennsylvania and St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia are in dire need of an indoor facility. The hockey clubs at the University of Pennsylvania, the University of St. Joseph and St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia are in dire need of an indoor facility. The hockey clubs at the University of Pennsylvania, the University of St. Joseph and St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia are in dire need of an indoor facility.

M. Squash loss to Army spoils Stony Brook win

By CATHY CHERIO

The women's squash team defeated the women's tennis team 6-1, but the men's tennis team lost 5-2 in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

In the men's singles match, Stony Brook's #1 player, John DiBona, defeated the #1 player from the University of Pennsylvania, Tim Wynn. The #2 player from Stony Brook, Chris Klaiber, also lost to his opponent, Tim Wynn from the University of Pennsylvania.

The men's team is now 1-1 in the tournament, while the women's team is 1-0. The next match for both teams will be against the University of Notre Dame.

dp Sports Tuesday, January 25, 1988

W. Cagers face Hawks tonight

By BERNARD ROSEN

The women's basketball team is preparing for a tough game against the New York University Violets on Wednesday night. The game is being played in the Palestra, and the women's team is hoping to continue their winning streak.

The team has been playing well recently, with five straight victories. They are currently ranked 10th in the nation, and they are looking to improve their ranking even further.

The game against the Violets will be a tough test for the women's team, but they are confident in their ability to come out on top. They are ready to play their best game and make sure they come out of the Palestra with a win.