Dog Day Afternoon

It's a D.O.C. life but it may not be for a final day. Just living at the end of the hallaways all day long with nothing to do every step, every day, until we reach the end of the hallaways.

New UA members cite problems
Feminist women voice concern over assembly

B: RITA ZAFI

A 3-year-long tradition involving the selection of the women's leader of the University's State المتحدة للاليمني الجامعي club will be held this year with the sameold practices.

In an interview with the Daily Pennsylvanian, statewide organizer for the Senate of Students' Rights (SSR), Stacie D. felt that the event should be taken seriously.

"The Senate of Students' Rights is a women's club, and we are trying to make a difference in the lives of women on campus," she said. "We hope that this will help us support the most important issues for our members."

All week leading up to the assembly, Stacie and a group of women's rights activists have been working on selecting the new UA members.

"We hope that this will help us bring attention to the issues that affect women on campus," she said. "We are working hard to make sure that we select the best possible UA members who will represent the interests of women on campus."
Campus Events

NOTICE

The University and theAssociated Press are sponsoring the third annual "Penn's Biggest News Story," which is being held to encourage students to bring attention to important news stories affecting their peers. The event will take place at 3 p.m. on Friday, February 25, in the University Center. Students are encouraged to participate by entering their proposals online at the Penn's Biggest News Story website. The winning proposal will receive a $1,000 prize.

Today

Penn's College Houses, a new exhibition at the University Center, features a variety of interactive displays and multimedia presentations that explore the history and culture of University housing. The exhibition is open to the public and is located on the ground floor of the University Center.

Future

The University will host a panel discussion on the topic of "The Future of the University" on Thursday, March 9, at 7 p.m. in the University Center. The panel will include experts from various fields and will provide an opportunity for students to engage in meaningful conversations about the role of the University in today's world.

News In Brief

Over 600 killed in India massacre

Nigeria, the oil-rich country, has reported that more than 600 people were killed in ethnic violence in the north. The violence, which began in December, has been exacerbated by a dispute over the distribution of oil revenues.

St. Pauli Girl Night

Every Monday at Pagano's

9 P.M. - 2 A.M.

No Cover

Lounge

Lowest drink prices in University City - where there's never a cover.

News from Associated Press Dispatches

UA freshmen women cite problems

'...but we don't know how to solve them.'

The University of Arizona (UA) freshmen women's group released a report detailing concerns and issues faced by female students on campus. The report highlights challenges such as sexual harassment, assault, and mental health, and emphasizes the need for increased support and resources.

Theater group, EST tied

"...we got the idea."

The University's Experimental Studio Theatre (EST) has announced the release of its new production schedule for the upcoming academic year. The schedule features a diverse range of plays, including Shakespearean classics and contemporary works, and is designed to provide a platform for emerging talent.

HIT to release booklet

"...we need a handbook..."

The University's Humanistic Institute for the Training (HIT) will release a new booklet soon, which will serve as a comprehensive guide to the various resources available on campus for students interested in humanistic studies.

The largest selection of hard aluminum MEASURING TOOLS in the country!

FAIRGATE

SPECIAL EDITION - SQUARES

STRAIGHT EDGE - SQUARES

CENTERING RULES

TRIANGLES/ CURVE STICKS

MISCELLANEOUS RULERS

and many others...

ORDER AT YOUR BOOKSTORE OR SUBS PAPER DATABASE

FAIRGATE CO., INC.

5015 WILLOW HILL ROAD

HILLSIDE, ILLINOIS 60161

PH: 312-673-8652

FX: 312-673-8062

www.how-often-can-i-wash-my-hair.com
"A good interview opens the door to a job offer," said the Thursday evening newsletter from Career Planning. The newsletter highlighted a few tips for getting a job after graduation:

1. Research: Before attending an interview, research the company or organization to understand its mission, values, and products/services. This will help you tailor your responses to demonstrate how you align with the company's goals.

2. Prepare: Prepare by practicing common interview questions. Think about your strengths, weaknesses, and how you handle challenges. Prepare a list of questions to ask the interviewer to show your interest in the position.

3. Dress Code: Dress professionally. Even if the company has a casual dress policy, it's wise to present yourself in a professional manner. This shows that you respect the company and take the interview seriously.

4. Follow Up: After the interview, send a thank-you note or email to the interviewer. This is a good opportunity to reiterate your interest in the position and express how you would contribute to the company.

"We are now more focused on market research and demand analysis," the newsletter concluded. "By understanding the needs of our customers, we can better tailor our products and services to meet their expectations. This approach has been highly effective in attracting new clients and increasing sales."
Problems with South Africa

By Patrick Hagopian

This column challenges the Transatlantic Committee at University of Pennsylvania to answer some of the questions below. The Committee must respond to these questions by March 10, and I look forward to hearing from them.

I. University of Pennsylvania and South African policy questions:

A. Are there any South African academics on the University’s board? If so, what have they said about South Africa? If not, why not?

B. Are there any South African students at the University? If so, what are their experiences? If not, why not?

C. Are there any South African alumni on the University’s alumni board? If so, what have they said about South Africa? If not, why not?

D. Have any South African companies made donations to the University? If so, how much? If not, why not?

II. University of Pennsylvania and South African economic questions:

A. Has the University of Pennsylvania made any investments in South Africa? If so, how much? If not, why not?

B. Have any South African companies invested in the University of Pennsylvania? If so, how much? If not, why not?

C. Have any South African companies made donations to the University of Pennsylvania? If so, how much? If not, why not?

III. University of Pennsylvania and South African social questions:

A. Have any South African students been involved in any incidents of discrimination at the University? If so, what were they?

B. Have any South African students been involved in any incidents of harassment at the University? If so, what were they?

C. Have any South African students been involved in any incidents of violence at the University? If so, what were they?

IV. University of Pennsylvania and South African political questions:

A. Have any South African politicians visited the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

B. Have any South African politicians spoken at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

C. Have any South African politicians given lectures at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

V. University of Pennsylvania and South African media questions:

A. Have any South African media outlets been invited to cover events at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

B. Have any South African media outlets been invited to participate in events at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

C. Have any South African media outlets been invited to publish articles about events at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

VI. University of Pennsylvania and South African cultural questions:

A. Have any South African cultural events been held at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

B. Have any South African cultural events been attended by University of Pennsylvania students? If so, who? If not, why not?

C. Have any South African cultural events been supported by the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

VII. University of Pennsylvania and South African sports questions:

A. Have any South African athletes been recruited to the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

B. Have any South African athletes been offered scholarships to the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

C. Have any South African athletes been invited to compete for the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

VIII. University of Pennsylvania and South African student organizations questions:

A. Have any South African student organizations been recognized by the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

B. Have any South African student organizations been funded by the University of Pennsylvania? If so, how much? If not, why not?

C. Have any South African student organizations been allowed to hold meetings on campus? If so, who? If not, why not?

IX. University of Pennsylvania and South African faculty questions:

A. Have any South African faculty members been hired by the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

B. Have any South African faculty members been tenured at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

C. Have any South African faculty members been promoted at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

X. University of Pennsylvania and South African student publications questions:

A. Have any South African student publications been allowed to publish at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

B. Have any South African student publications been banned at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

C. Have any South African student publications been censored at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

XI. University of Pennsylvania and South African alumni questions:

A. Have any South African alumni been recognized by the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

B. Have any South African alumni been invited to participate in events at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

C. Have any South African alumni been invited to give lectures at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

XII. University of Pennsylvania and South African media questions:

A. Have any South African media outlets been invited to cover events at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

B. Have any South African media outlets been invited to participate in events at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?

C. Have any South African media outlets been invited to publish articles about events at the University of Pennsylvania? If so, who? If not, why not?
Law School hosts lecture series

By ALF HARRIS

In the absence of the usual reading assignments in the first year of international law curriculum, the Law School’s new professor, Julian Hinkes, will lecture on human rights today and Wednesday.

Professor Hinkes has taught several classes and interned with rights organizations throughout the world.

Hinkes, a former professor at the Law School, will deliver a lecture on "The Ideas of Rights" at 4 p.m. today in the Law School Room 511.

Other topics in his series will include the rights of women, Third World countries, and the right to education.

Law School Association Dean Brown said last week that Professor Hinkes will have his human rights class in a different location from his other classes this year.

Barbakh added that Hinkes will also attend Law School classes and hold a small seminar for Law School students this week.

"He is well on his way to becoming a scholar," Barbakh added through his stay.

Barbakh said that part of his campaign which is headquartered at the school, and will speak at the first annual Thomas Jefferson Lecture Series.

He said that the former mayor’s record is "very important," Salitan told the

"I just don’t accept that." he said

Rizzo finds little support at U.

"We warn you to get out of town before the end of the first year, and to the nearest possible voters registered in the city," Kings Court/English House presents a Massage Workshop with Mr. Patti Duncan

Mon., Feb. 21 at 7 pm
duncan Lounge

"OOOH! CBGB HAS SIZZLING SKEWERS ~ $3.25...HE WOULD LOVE IT!"

Looking for the "right" place to live this summer?

Penn’s College Houses and Living-Learning Programs invite you to visit them. Meet students and faculty who can help you decide which House to call your own.

Our House is your House.

Stop by at an Open House:

Sunday, 2/20: Modern Language/College House, 411 Lounge Noon

Monday, 2/21: Strouffer College House, D Lounge 7:30

Thursday, 2/24: Ware College House 5th Floor Lounge 9-10

Sherry Hour 4-6 pm

Take a study break!

Monday, 2/21: McGielad Hall, The Quad 9-10

Wednesday, 2/23: Duncan Lounge, Kings Court/English House 9-10

Enjoy donuts and coffee, and meet representatives from each of the Houses who can tell you all you need to know.
Italian Night Delight
$2.95
Monday & Tuesday Night

Pagano’s
3601 Central Street
360-2440

Pagano’s
8 = 1

Earn 1 full year's credit with just 8 weeks of concentrated study
At Northwestern SummerSession.
Concentrate on languages
Japanese, Chinese, Hebrew, Arabic,
French, Spanish, Italian, German, Latin,
Greeks, or Russian.
Or these sciences—Physics, Chemistry, or Calculus.
Send for our free Course Bulletin.
It describes everything SummerSession has to offer you.

Classes begin June 27.
Outside Illinois call Toll-Free: 1-800-323-5993 (normal working hours)

H. INJAIAN & SONS
Daily 9-5
Sat. 9-4

Public Rug Cleaning
Open late Wed., Fri.
EV 6-4345
Service is f’w and Students for 50 years

Now Play the Best
You Played the Rest
Mon.-Wed. 8 AM - 2 AM
Thu.-Fri. 8 AM - 2 AM
Sat. 8 AM - 2 AM

_if you work between 10:12 PM and 6 AM
Mon. & all other games for free as long as your clothes are washing

_If you work between 10:12 PM and 6 AM
Mon. & all other games for free as long as your clothes are washing

THE ANNENBERG SCHOOL OF COMMUNICATIONS
SPRING COLLOQUIUM SERIES—

TODAY
February 21, 1983

Dina Goren, Tel Aviv University, Israel

"Israeli News Media and the Lebanon War"

4:00 p.m., Room 124
Annenberg School Building
3620 Walnut St., Phila., PA

admission free  public invited

Annual Giving begins telethon in record form

By ROBERT WALTER
The spring Annual Alumni Appeal Telethon at Stouffer College House will be the first four days of its fund drive, which ends on the Friday night of last year’s drive.

The telethon, sponsored by Kappa Alpha Psi, began last Monday night and will continue Tuesday night.

The telethon, which will be held continuously till the end of the year, will be made continuous nightly because of the Penn/Penn-Penn per game at the Spectrum.

David Merrick, director of the Annual Alumni Appeal Program, explained who this year’s telethon will be held in and why is he pleased with ‘the outcome so far.

Merrick attributes this year’s early success to a number of factors.

In general, the callers are more experienced, he said. “This is the first year that the telethon has exceeded last year.”

He said that the same people who gave last year were going to give this year. More organizations, such as Sigma Phi Epsilon and Pi Kappa Alpha were doing an outstanding job in this year’s campaign, he said.

The basic idea of the telethon was to get as many people and numbers and with a lot of enthusiasm, Merck said. “The people who are there who have worked on the campaign, the people who found the people, and the people who make calls, and it becomes a great event.

For the first time in the history of the telethon, there are two brothers of Pi Kappa Alpha who are coeds and coordinators of the same telethon, he said.

Women are also a major part of the campaign, he said.

Prizes are awarded to callers based on a point system devised by the Fraternity House Board. The points are awarded for the number of donors they get as well as the amount raised.

One more bonus to the campaign, he said, is that the money raised is used to help organizations that support the University.

Merrick also said that the money raised will be used to help organizations that support the University.

The older the grad, the higher the points, he said.

“Last year the average was $75,000 raised in the first eight days.
This year the goal is $150,000, he said. “This year the average will be over $75,000.”

Merrick said this year’s winning team will be the team that will have the most points at the end of the telethon.

The winning team will be announced on Sunday.

Prizes are awarded to callers based on the number of calls they make.

The prizes include cash, trips, and other items.

The winners are announced on a special basis throughout the
night.

The winners are announced on a special basis throughout the
night.

The winners are announced on a special basis throughout the
night.

The winners are announced on a special basis throughout the
night.

The winners are announced on a special basis throughout the
night.

The winners are announced on a special basis throughout the
night.

The winners are announced on a special basis throughout the
night.

The winners are announced on a special basis throughout the
night.

The winners are announced on a special basis throughout the
night.

The winners are announced on a special basis throughout the
night.

The winners are announced on a special basis throughout the
night.

The winners are announced on a special basis throughout the
night.

The winners are announced on a special basis throughout the
night.

The winners are announced on a special basis throughout the
night.
Ideology of white supremacy

Seminar views racism in society

By KATHY BRADLEY

About 75 people gathered in Princeton's Oilstone Auditorium to discuss the ideological underpinnings of prejudice.

The seminar, organized by the American Societies, was themed around the implications of racism in American society.

In his opening comments, Moore, a member of the Oilstone's Editorial Board, focused on the nature of racism and illustrated cultural racism with examples from the Bible.

"Racism is awareness of white supremacy," he said, "and the implications of racism in American society are profound.

Moore cited the example of a study conducted by the Southern Poverty Law Center, which found that white institutions often fail to address racism.

The study, he said, is an example of the ideology of white supremacy and the cultural racism that arises from it.

The problem, Moore also warned, is that white institutions often fail to address racism.

Moore's statements were well-founded, he said, as the seminar was held on the anniversary of the establishment of the Palestinian Liberation Organization.

"Israel can no longer ride on the backs of Palestinian people," he said, "since it is an evil system, and its attitudes and stereotypes of other groups.

One of the more subtle examples of cultural racism is the way in which white institutions often fail to address racism.

In Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, for example, the factory is depicted as a blissful utopia, with no signs of racism or prejudice.

Moore pointed out that these examples are not uncommon, as many children's stories have implications for racism.

"Once you're aware of the problem, you can't turn back," Moore said.

Two students, said the seminar was helpful, but did not agree that racism was totally the responsibility of white society.

"White society bears responsibility," he said, "but we also bear responsibility for white society's role in perpetuating racism.

Moore emphasized that the problem is not just a matter of understanding, but also of action.

"We need more awareness of racism," he said, "but we also need more action.

Moore closed his statement by asking the participants to consider how they can contribute to addressing racism.

The seminar was organized by Princeton's Equity and Diversity Office, with the support of the American Societies and the Oilstone.

1983 Apartment & House-Hunting Guide

A special supplement to The Daily Pennsylvaniaian Tuesday, March 1, 1983

Don't miss this unique opportunity to reach the thousands of University students who seek housing each spring. Act fast.

Ad deadline is Thursday, Feb. 24 at 5:00 P.M.
Cagers

WWF

Paul Bunyan Tour

Buckwheat Tours

Wrestling

Pride

Table Tennis

Billiards

Basketball

Fencing

Cheerleading

Student Volunteer Center

15 Christian Association

For Soviet Jewry

LAST CHANCE

at 895-8265, or sign up at Hillclift.

Wednesday, February 24

PLANNING MEETING

in 15 Christian Association

Study in Greece, Will be available for meetings with students on Thursday,

February 24th. Details available from

Katharine Butterworth, the Director of

Student Volunteer Center

15 Christian Association

"NEW MINI SERVICE"

We'll cut it, shampoo it, condition it and then blow it dry. Use our equipment.

$15.00

"The Precision Haircut."

We'll cut it, shampoo it, condition it and then blow it dry. Use our equipment.

$15.00

For more information, contact the PUC office at 858-1444.

Did your picture get in the Ivy League issue of Playboy?

Seniors
Even if it did now is your chance to get your picture in the 1983 Yearbook

All Seniors welcome

Sign up through the week of 2/21 for portrait sittings which begin on Monday, February 28.

sign up times:

Tuesday 11-2, 3-5

Wednesday 12-4

Thursday 11-2, 3-5

Friday 1-5

Buy your Yearbook before the price goes up!

For more information call 898-8720

Yearbook office is at 36th & Hamilton Walk

Funded by S.A.C.

---

 Classified Ads

Place your classifieds at the D.P. office – 4015 Walnut Street. 2nd floor.

Cost: 20¢ per word, per day

Deadlines: 3 p.m. two days before publication.
Quakers not quite Marvel-ous

B. JOHN DELLA SPAVA

N.Y. COURIER-POST (6/6/24) -- In the press "breathing room" is as long a part of the Ivy League championships as the Ivy League itself.

Quakers were two games ahead of Yale at the start of this weekend's two-game round, 8-6 over Princeton, 6-1 over Brown, 5-5 over Columbia. But both of those teams had a chance to catch up since Princeton was set to play Brown on Saturday night, and Yale was set to play Brown on Sunday afternoon.

Quakers moved to the Brack Pool, and Yale moved to the Brack Pool, with the two teams having to meet in a three-game series to determine the Ivy League championship.

The Quakers were seeded third and the Yale Bulldogs were seeded seventh in the Ivy League.

"I thought we'd have a good game," said Yale head coach Rollie Massimino. "But we didn't. We played well from the floor, but we didn't make enough baskets in the second half." Yale shot 46% from the field, but they were only 2-8 from the free-throw line, and they were out-rebounded 30-17.

"They're a good team," said Yale head coach Mike Krzyzewski. "They've got a lot of experience, and they're really good at the free-throw line." Yale was only 7-2 in Ivy League play, but they were 13-8 overall.

Yale's Matt Wyman led all scorers with 20 points, while Yale's Mike O'Leary had 15. Yale's Bruce Rasmussen had 13, while Yale's Matt Vanek had 12.

Despite performing to expectations, Gymnasts finish third at Ivy meet

B. STEVE VOLK

N.Y. COURIER-POST (6/6/24) -- Despite performing to expectations, Gymnasts finish third at Ivy meet.

Yale's Watch Greens into week's half away from Chris Bourke and Michael Brown (background) in Saturday's game.

\textbf{Penn gets motivated one game too late}

\textbf{W. Squash takes a pair without top two players}

\textbf{B. STEVE VOLK}

Despite performing to expectations, Gymnasts finish third at Ivy meet.

\textbf{W. Squash takes a pair without top two players}

\textbf{B. STEVE VOLK}

"I thought we'd have a good game," said Yale head coach Rollie Massimino. "But we didn't. We played well from the floor, but we didn't make enough baskets in the second half." Yale shot 46% from the field, but they were only 2-8 from the free-throw line, and they were out-rebounded 30-17.

"They're a good team," said Yale head coach Mike Krzyzewski. "They've got a lot of experience, and they're really good at the free-throw line." Yale was only 7-2 in Ivy League play, but they were 13-8 overall.

Yale's Matt Wyman led all scorers with 20 points, while Yale's Mike O'Leary had 15. Yale's Bruce Rasmussen had 13, while Yale's Matt Vanek had 12.

Despite performing to expectations, Gymnasts finish third at Ivy meet.

\textbf{W. Squash takes a pair without top two players}

\textbf{B. STEVE VOLK}

Despite performing to expectations, Gymnasts finish third at Ivy meet.

\textbf{W. Squash takes a pair without top two players}

\textbf{B. STEVE VOLK}

"I thought we'd have a good game," said Yale head coach Rollie Massimino. "But we didn't. We played well from the floor, but we didn't make enough baskets in the second half." Yale shot 46% from the field, but they were only 2-8 from the free-throw line, and they were out-rebounded 30-17.

"They're a good team," said Yale head coach Mike Krzyzewski. "They've got a lot of experience, and they're really good at the free-throw line." Yale was only 7-2 in Ivy League play, but they were 13-8 overall.

Yale's Matt Wyman led all scorers with 20 points, while Yale's Mike O'Leary had 15. Yale's Bruce Rasmussen had 13, while Yale's Matt Vanek had 12.

Despite performing to expectations, Gymnasts finish third at Ivy meet.

\textbf{W. Squash takes a pair without top two players}

\textbf{B. STEVE VOLK}

Despite performing to expectations, Gymnasts finish third at Ivy meet.

\textbf{W. Squash takes a pair without top two players}

\textbf{B. STEVE VOLK}

"I thought we'd have a good game," said Yale head coach Rollie Massimino. "But we didn't. We played well from the floor, but we didn't make enough baskets in the second half." Yale shot 46% from the field, but they were only 2-8 from the free-throw line, and they were out-rebounded 30-17.

"They're a good team," said Yale head coach Mike Krzyzewski. "They've got a lot of experience, and they're really good at the free-throw line." Yale was only 7-2 in Ivy League play, but they were 13-8 overall.

Yale's Matt Wyman led all scorers with 20 points, while Yale's Mike O'Leary had 15. Yale's Bruce Rasmussen had 13, while Yale's Matt Vanek had 12.

Despite performing to expectations, Gymnasts finish third at Ivy meet.