GSAC to invite attorney if UA approves

By LAUREN SHAHAM

Leaders of the Graduate Student Association Council will be calling to campus the attorney heading a class action lawsuit against a dozen elite schools for alleged price-fixing if the Undergraduate Assembly agrees to co-sponsor the forum.

UA Chairperson Beni Karch and last night that the assembly will make a decision on the matter on Thursday.

The attorney, Steven Kramer, is representing Widener student Roger Kingroup, in his bid against the University and 11 other schools on behalf of over 100,000 undergraduate students.

The suit alleges that the universities violated antitrust laws by colluding to fix tuition prices. The attorney, Steven Kramer, is representing Widener student Roger Kingroup, in his bid against the University and 11 other schools on behalf of over 100,000 undergraduate students.

The suit alleges that the universities violated antitrust laws by colluding to fix tuition prices.

Please see COUNCIL, page 4

A Slice of the Pie

ZBT leads trend toward reducing pledging period

By SU-LIN CHENG

Students rushing the Zeta Beta Tau fraternity this year do not have to worry about std drinking games, pranking jokes or other rituals associated with joining a fraternity.

ZBT is one of several fraternities whose national chapters have reduced or eliminated the pledging period.

Hazing related accidents, higher insurance rates, and a greater threat of contributing to a growing problem for the University are among reasons for pledging changes across the country.

"We are trying to spread the word that silly and dangerous things, often called hazing, are unacceptable," said Jonathan Ernst, National Interfraternity Council executive director.

"I think fraternity new members now face a greater legal liability so they are more willing to take pledging in a way that does not have a chapter at the University, have hazing episodes. Many other fraternities have experienced the dangers associated with de-emphasizing hazing incidents.

The national chapter of the Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity has reduced the pledge period to five weeks, significantly less than the traditional 15-week span.

My branch is that pledging is in its way out," said Conrad金融学系的菲利普·希米亚，他指出该政策的实施旨在鼓励学生和教授之间的沟通，以及促进大学中的学术自由。

"If a guy in a fraternity dies himself to death and her a pledge, does his fraternity take the blame?" John added. "Insurance premiums are ridiculously high!

Despite the reduction in pledge period, Falls said he thinks the traditions of hazing may die hard, adding "It will always be there in one form or another.

Phi Sigma Kappa national fraternity eliminated the minimum pledging requirement of four weeks, and is now considering petitioning the graduate student group wants to become a member of the University's graduate council.

GSAC members decided yesterday to reject any impressions that the policy change is a result of dissatisfaction in a second price-fixing suit. However, the group's treasurer, Wayne Gladen, said Monday that the "students' (graduate student) pledging period will emerge. The single question is whether it would be UGA as a body or some individual.

Please see GSAC, page 7

Lawyer would discuss class action lawsuit

Lawyers who discuss class action lawsuits and financial aid packages.

Graduate students said yesterday of their meeting that they would accept Kramer's offer to speak because they do not understand the legal ramifications of the alleged price-fixing.

The debate at yesterday's meeting centered around whether the case applies to graduate students and whether the group was to be associated with the lawsuit.

Please see GSAC, page 7

Council will address bookstore, child care

By LYNN WESTWATER

University Council members said yesterday that they do not expect any action at Monday's meeting to be taken on a resolution drawn up by the southern Pennsylvania state representative.

The resolution urges the University to pass the resolution which prohibits defacing of the American flag. He added that the resolution was brought up by Sen. Willis Williams to "carry out" the statue, and warned that if the resolution is ignored, many representative, the University and 11 other schools on behalf of over 100,000 undergraduate students.

The suit alleges that the universities violated antitrust laws by colluding to fix tuition prices. The attorney, Steven Kramer, is representing Widener student Roger Kingroup, in his bid against the University and 11 other schools on behalf of over 100,000 undergraduate students.

The suit alleges that the universities violated antitrust laws by colluding to fix tuition prices.
 Ware class addresses human side of maladies

By ANY SILVERMAN

In previous years, activities on a typical class day centered on test taking, lectures and exams. But Ware College House offers a unique experience which involves the students — and class simply interacted with the clinical aspects of medicine.

The seminar was titled, "In the Beginning" and was led by Ware College House master Pat and Amanda Tong. They spoke of how nurses must now see a need for pre-medical students to see personal and emotional issues surrounding diseases.

The class is finishing up a unit on AIDS, one of the topics dated by this semester, and on Monday students talked with two people who have the disease.

Before each class meeting, students are assigned a specific angle, often relating to a specific disease. Prior to meeting with the AIDS patients, for example, students discussed how they would treat a patient who has AIDS.

For College Junior Jennifer Jacobs, the assignment was not a simple one.

"She's actually faced with a situation that you don't know how to handle or manage without turning to the doctors. Prior to meeting with the AIDS patients, for example, students discussed how they would treat a patient who has AIDS.

For College Junior Jennifer Jacobs, the assignment was not a simple one.

"She's actually faced with a situation that you don't know how to handle or manage without turning to the doctors. The real challenge is to be there for them in the same way a doctor is for them.

For many pre-med students, a major benefit of the seminar that its news reports be fair and balanced. It's the physician's responsibility to make sure that the patient is treated in the best way possible.

"All of us in the area of Greek life know that its news reports be fair and balanced. It's the physician's responsibility to make sure that the patient is treated in the best way possible.

Henry said that talking with Turner and other patients who have AIDS has helped him to see that although it's a difficult situation, there is still hope.

"That's a big thing with me, I get really excited," Henry said. "I'd really like to do something that would make a difference for others."
Painting the town GREEN

By RACHEL CLARKE

The article suggests that there are creative and community-orientated approaches to improving neighborhoods, particularly through gardening and the Greening Project. The article highlights the efforts of Gerri Spilka and the West Philadelphia Landship to transform a neglected area into a vibrant community space. The project aims to work with area residents to create gardens and improve local neighborhoods. The text emphasizes the importance of community involvement and cooperation in achieving success.

The Greening Project has been praised for its role in community revitalization, with participants describing the project as a way to bring people together, develop a sense of pride, and foster a strong community spirit. The article also mentions the involvement of experts and organizations in supporting these efforts. Overall, the text is an encouragement for people to get involved in local improvements and to work together for the greater good.

FRUSTRATED? For expert help with your Statistical problems in Bio-medical or Social Science Research. Call Bill 215-362-9080

Ancient treasures, great food.

The Museum Cafe

Breakfast and lunch from $3.50. Monday to Friday

Saturday 10 to 3

Information: 215-898-4099

FRUSTRATED? For expert help with your Statistical problems in Bio-medical or Social Science Research. Call Bill 215-362-9080

NINTH ANNUAL ENGINEERING CAREER AWARENESS DAY

Sponsored by: Engineering Student Activities Council (ESAC) and Career Planning and Placement Service

Company representatives will be available to speak with all interested technical students. For more information check EPIC bulletin boards, Mezzanine, Towne Blvd.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1989 TOWNE BUILDING 10 A.M. - 3:30 P.M.
TEACH ENGLISH IN CHINA

An extraordinary opportunity to live and work for a year in the People's Republic of China.

Join Penn's Program for Teaching English at Shanghai Jiao Tong University or Fudan University (in Shanghai), where you will be provided with free housing, free routine medical care and a living allowance of approx. 600-650 RMB per month.

Seniors, students in the graduate/professional schools or graduates of the University of Pennsylvania are eligible to apply. Chinese language not required.

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

Join Perm's Program for Teaching English in China

COUNCIL, page 5

Physiology Professor Michael Coben, a vocal member of Council, said that he could not predict the be-fidently. Coben and Alan Korn, who have been voc-

Council will address diverse issues ded, that the agenda for the ced, that the agenda for the

Interviews for the Financial Analyst

Interviews for Student Activities Council

Wharton appoints 7 endowed chairs

Drexel Burnham Lambert

Corporate Finance Department

Beverly Hills, California

Invites you to attend a presentation on Wednesday, October 18, 1989

from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm

at Steinberg Dietrich Hall, Room 215.

Interviews for the Financial Analyst positions will be held at

The Four Seasons Hotel

Friday, November 10, 1989.

SS YOU LIKE TO SPEND

OTHER PEOPLE'S MONEY $SS

SAC is SAC Funded!

Interviews for Student Activities Council Finance Committee Elections

For more information, sign up in the Office of Student Life (110 Houston Hall)

by Thursday, October 19 at 5 pm

A great opportunity for students with all majors and interests.

We've been a part of your life.

Now we'd like to be a part of your future.

Please see COUNCIL, page 5

Hardware House

Houston/Hall Mail 3427 Spruce St. 387-3333

For interview scheduling, contact:

Pat Reid, Department of Chemistry

(215) 898-9722

Scheduled interviewing will be Friday, October 13th,

3 - 5PM, Chemistry Department, Room 514

In Brief

Wharton appoints 7 endowed chairs

Five Wharton faculty members were recently appointed to endowed chairs in their fields.

The Wharton School also named Stanford

University Investment Banking professor Michael

Gibbons is a former Wharton graduate and

Trustee J.R. Burnham.

In addition, the school also appointed the first visiting executive professorship held by former assistant secretary of commerce Bruce Staebler. The five faculty members, each of whom will receive their salary out of interest from the school's endowment, are finance professor Andrew Abel, management professor John Kimbrel, innovation science professor Howard Kvenicke, finance professor Peter Lineman and finance professor Robert Stambaugh.

"I look forward to being able to discuss great works of literature with bright young people," said Hoffman, admitting that he was discussing his own poetry.

"I feel lucky to be able to discuss great works of literature with bright young people," said Hoffman, admitting that he was discussing his own poetry.

"I feel lucky to be able to discuss great works of literature with bright young people," said Hoffman, admitting that he was discussing his own poetry.

"I feel lucky to be able to discuss great works of literature with bright young people," said Hoffman, admitting that he was discussing his own poetry.

"I feel lucky to be able to discuss great works of literature with bright young people," said Hoffman, admitting that he was discussing his own poetry.

"I feel lucky to be able to discuss great works of literature with bright young people," said Hoffman, admitting that he was discussing his own poetry.

Total Crimes by Category:

- Avenue.

Total Crimes Against Persons:
- Crimes against persons between 12:01 a.m. September 25, 1989 and 11:59 p.m. October 1, 1989. The report includes crimes which took place in the area from the Schuylkill River to 36th to 37th streets. Locust to Walnut streets.

DETAILED LISTINGS BY AREA:

Off-Campus Crime

- 10/08/89, 4:41 p.m., Theta Xi, Equipment printer taken from room.
- 10/03/89, 4:41 p.m., Theta Xi, Equipment printer taken from room.

On-Campus Crime

- Certified master frame builder
- Top-quality bicycles, parts, and accessories
- Owned and operated by Harry Havnoonian
- Greasing and reassembly.
- Also, show your valid student ID
- Reservations are required.

---

University Council Honorary Degrees

- Nominations Requested

The University Council Honorary Degrees Committee welcomes suggestions for recipients of honorary degrees for Commencement on May 14, 1990 in conjunction with Penn's 250th anniversary. Nominations (including background biographical information) should be submitted to Joshua Rosenberg, Office of the Secretary, 121 College Hall/6382. The deadline is October 31.
From the Home Office . . .

The Real Crime

Combine our over-emphasis on success with a tragic lack of success, our fragile lack of segment, our steady march toward a bland, monotonous society, and the fact that the culture and our role as undergraduates is a mere façade.

But what created this trend of conformity? What is the realm that one is left to wear away the old guard and replace it with an ethic of individualism? This takes genius.

Culprit

"real crime" — you just read more the average DP reader. "What is a crime, anyway? That's the point. For one thing, now, I'd like to have some more workaholic problems, because you're less likely to be of a young lady. Daily after day, now, at the College, does not seem to me that I'm working hard. If I were..." the end of my first paragraph is reported in the following sentence: "We have no room to be of a young lady. Daily after day, now, at the College, does not seem to me that I'm working hard. If I were..."

From the facts, one can see that there is a trend that the College is in decline. The fact of the matter is that students are being counseled to the point of near starvation. Indeed, students are putting up with an unprecedented level of disapproval in their studies. The last paragraph reads, "We have no room to be of a young lady. Daily after day, now, at the College, does not seem to me that I'm working hard. If I were..."

The society is in decline. That may mean that we no longer have a place in the lives of our classmates and our family. But for students who want to become the best they can be, some students want to be the best they can be, some students want to be the best they can be. It's about time that all the petty

Savings For All

The Editor

"The pennsylvania newspaper to many people will for whom,

FRED PETERSON
core-counter

Coming Out Day

The Editor

"They also wanted to be better than

individual achievement is what

Gwen Vital

The Mer Generation doesn't

money.

number than is the norm. The sav-

individual achievement is what

Having grown up on an era when

We have grown up on an era when

A. J. AXEL

B. G. FOSS

are 15 percent of the population.

no one is addressing the fact that

The Daily Pennsylvanian,

If you want to get what you

I know you want to get what you

To the Editor

You need to think about yourself
to the Editor

I know you want to get what you

The restoration of values and

"Yeah. SAC sucks."

No one is addressing the fact that

"No, me. On the Office of Student

"What is the real crime? Thinking. That's the point. For one thing, now, I'd like to have some more workaholic problems, because you're less likely to be of a young lady. Daily after day, now, at the College, does not seem to me that I'm working hard. If I were..."

The society is in decline. That may mean that we no longer have a place in the lives of our classmates and our family. But for students who want to become the best they can be, some students want to be the best they can be. It's about time that all the petty

Savings For All

The Editor

"The pennsylvania newspaper to many people will for whom,

FRED PETERSON
core-counter

Coming Out Day

The Editor

"They also wanted to be better than

individual achievement is what

Gwen Vital

The Mer Generation doesn't

money.

number than is the norm. The sav-

individual achievement is what

Having grown up on an era when

We have grown up on an era when

A. J. AXEL

B. G. FOSS

are 15 percent of the population.

no one is addressing the fact that

The Daily Pennsylvanian,

If you want to get what you

I know you want to get what you

To the Editor

You need to think about yourself
to the Editor

I know you want to get what you

The restoration of values and

"Yeah. SAC sucks."

No one is addressing the fact that

"No, me. On the Office of Student

"What is the real crime? Thinking. That's the point. For one thing, now, I'd like to have some more workaholic problems, because you're less likely to be of a young lady. Daily after day, now, at the College, does not seem to me that I'm working hard. If I were..."

The society is in decline. That may mean that we no longer have a place in the lives of our classmates and our family. But for students who want to become the best they can be, some students want to be the best they can be. It's about time that all the petty

Savings For All

The Editor

"The pennsylvania newspaper to many people will for whom,

FRED PETERSON
core-counter

Coming Out Day

The Editor

"They also wanted to be better than

individual achievement is what

Gwen Vital

The Mer Generation doesn't

money.

number than is the norm. The sav-

individual achievement is what

Having grown up on an era when

We have grown up on an era when

A. J. AXEL

B. G. FOSS

are 15 percent of the population.

no one is addressing the fact that

The Daily Pennsylvanian,

If you want to get what you

I know you want to get what you

To the Editor

You need to think about yourself
to the Editor

I know you want to get what you

The restoration of values and

"Yeah. SAC sucks."

No one is addressing the fact that

"No, me. On the Office of Student

"What is the real crime? Thinking. That's the point. For one thing, now, I'd like to have some more workaholic problems, because you're less likely to be of a young lady. Daily after day, now, at the College, does not seem to me that I'm working hard. If I were..."

The society is in decline. That may mean that we no longer have a place in the lives of our classmates and our family. But for students who want to become the best they can be, some students want to be the best they can be. It's about time that all the petty
Car broken into, burned in fraternity lot

According to student witnesses, the car was broken into last night, according to student witnesses. The theft and dashboard of the car were damaged in the fire. The incident marks at least the fourth time a car in the lot has been broken into this semester. Students are calling for the police to increase patrols through the rear left window. Witnesses reported hearing a noise around the same time the fire occurred.

GSAC will invite antitrust attorney if UA approves

GSAC, from page 1

Most of the schools named in the suit are involved in the National Collegiate Athletic Association. At least 15 schools have filed antitrust complaints in the case.

Kramer said yesterday that he would like to speak to a group of graduate students interested in becoming a plaintiff when the investigation.

LEGISLATOR from page 1

Recently created under the authority of Congress, the bill calls for a constitutional amendment to overturn a Supreme Court ruling that limited the right to burn the American flag, he favors a constitutional amendment. "Obviously we had a Supreme Court ruling about a law in a state," he says. "I don't think a constitutional amendment is ever the answer." Kramer said last week that he will continue to push for a constitutional amendment to outlaw flag-burning.

Greeks reduce pledges

PLEDGING, from page 1

All fraternities are working to eliminate pledging, he says. "We want to make clear that there are students on this campus that are very unhappy about what transpired," Wharton junior Mark Leake said at the meeting.

"It's a matter of fairness in terms of the rights of the students," says the pledging ban has not had a negative impact on recruitment. "When the pledging ban, he favors a constitutional amendment. "Obviously we had a Supreme Court ruling about a law in a state," he says. "I don't think a constitutional amendment is ever the answer." Kramer said last week that he will continue to push for a constitutional amendment to outlaw flag-burning.

"CAREER OPPORTUNITIES IN OPTIONS TRADING" WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 11, 1989 7:00 PM STEINBERG-DIETRICHR ROOM 215 Equal Opportunity Employer

To be continued tonight!
World

FIVE ANC leaders to be freed soon
Johannesburg - Five other Afrikaner National Congress leaders jailed 10 years ago for plotting to assassinate the black nationalist leader Nelson Mandela have been told they will be released soon, but Mandela will remain in prison, President F. W. de Klerk said yesterday.

They are among eight young, longtime prisoners in the ANC who have been released in the last 30 days as the government HD  the spirit of reconciliation which is presently exist-

Bush accepts invite to drug summit
BOSTON, - President Bush said Wednesday he is accepting an invitation to attend a drug summit in Mexico, a meeting he is expected to use to press other countries to do more to reduce drug use.

Bush accepted the invitation at a meeting of foreign ministers in Boston yesterday. The president said he was pleased with U.S. efforts to reduce drug use and was ready to support other nations in their efforts.

Colombian newspaper workers killed
BOGOTA, Colombia - At least 13 people were killed yesterday when two employees of the newspaper El Espectador were shot to death in a confrontation over the newspaper's coverage of the country's political crisis.

The shooting was the latest in a series of attacks on journalists in Colombia, where the government has been criticized for its efforts to silence the press.

Here Comes the Sun

Fla. lawmakers start special session on abortion amid protests

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - State lawmakers yesterday began a special session called by Gov. Bob Martinez to consider abortion restrictions, but they also paid attention to the House and Senate leaders, who are working to negotiate a compromise.

Martinez's proponents include House Speaker John Rivero, who said the legislature should be called back to deal with the issue.

The Senate Health and Rehabilitation Committee took up four bills yesterday afternoon, including proposals to ban all abortions, a ban on use of public funds, to prohibit facilities from performing the procedure, and to require the testing of the viability of a fetus.

Court allows racketeering law against abortion foes

WASHINGTON -- The Supreme Court turned away free speech arguments yesterday and allowed the use of a federal racketeering law against anti-abortion protesters.

The court let stand a successful lawsuit against the leaders of the anti-abortion movement because they were planning to use the racketeering act to prevent the protesters from harming and intimidating their opponents.

Heliocraft crashes on pkwy, killing 5

LACEY TOWNSHIP, N.J. - A helicopter crashed yesterday on the median of the Garden State Parkway, killing five people, including three members of the Trump Organization, officials said.

The helicopter was returning to Atlantic City from New York City when it crashed at 11:30 p.m. yesterday. Two men were killed, including the president of the Trump Plaza and Trump' Castle Inc., said Donald Trump was not aboard the copter, but was piloting the helicopter and tumbled."

Weather

LATER: More tornado warnings were issued in the La.

Tomorrow: Partly sunny with highs in the 70s.

Rugs NEW & USED

- Remnants - Wall-to-Wall
- All sizes, patterns & colors
- Rug Cleaning:
  - Repossessed Carpeting
  - Delinquent Storage Accounts
  - Runners
  - Kilim Rugs
  - Save 20% on Cash and Carry
  - Paddling
  - Dhmie Rugs
  - Colorant area rugs

Personal Checks Accepted

DELIVERY SERVICE AVAILABLE

Del D. 9 to 5 - Sat. 9:30 - Open till 7 Wed. Eve.

H. INJAIAN & SONS (PUBLIC RUG CLEANERS) EV 6-4345

42nd and Chestnut Sts.

Serving U of P Students for over 50 years
You worked hard to get into the right college.

Now make sure you get into the right company—

—Microsoft

Find out about the biggest name in microcomputer software. Our company offers the challenges you're looking for.

Come see us at the:

Career Fair
Engineering School,
Towne Building
October 11
10:00 am - 3:30 pm
Penn coach Cissie Leary said, "They have a lot more experience, and they are better doubles." The Quakers' three doubles teams played valiantly, only to lose three-set heartbreakers that undoubtedly defeated Penn's confidence entering the matches.

Facing a seemingly insurmountable deficit, the Quakers' engine was turned on with the knowledge of losing four of six matches as fury was detached a 70 victory. "It was not hard to get into the match. The momentum just was not with us," said Penn's second singles player Anna Askowitz, who would proceed to drop a three-and-a-half hour match, 6-7 (7-9), 6-7 (2-7). But there was one thing wrong. The 12 doubles courts were not lit at night's right's rain, leaving the match to be moved to the fourth Saturday.

As a result, the doubles matches cannot be finished. A factor that benefited Penn were doubles teams who are stronger in doubles and were thus able to lend an opportunity to jump up to an early lead. The match ended into their hands, "There were some nervousness in doubles,"{}

The Quakers' three doubles teams played valiantly, only to lose three-set heartbreakers that undoubtedly defeated Penn's confidence entering the matches. Facing a seemingly insurmountable deficit, the Quakers' engine was turned on with the knowledge of losing four of six matches as fury was detached a 70 victory. "It was not hard to get into the match. The momentum just was not with us," said Penn's second singles player Anna Askowitz, who would proceed to drop a three-and-a-half hour match, 6-7 (7-9), 6-7 (2-7). But there was one thing wrong. The 12 doubles courts were not lit at night's right's rain, leaving the match to be moved to the fourth Saturday.

As a result, the doubles matches cannot be finished. A factor that benefited Penn were doubles teams who are stronger in doubles and were thus able to lend an opportunity to jump up to an early lead. The match ended into their hands, "There were some nervousness in doubles,"
Soccer wins

The Quakers’ 0-1 loss to La Salle.
The Daily Pennsylvania, Wednesday, October 11, 1989

Club Roundup

by Mike Rosenfeld

The men’s ultimate Frisbee club went 5-4 at the sectional tournament this weekend, failing to make the non-collegiate regional. On Saturday, Penn barely defeated Lehigh, 15-14, and Bloomsburg, 16-14. But the club was upset by eventual champion Army in the final tourney game.

For the weekend, captain Dave Grossberg of the fliers' offense was outstanding. "The offensive line did a great job in getting the ball to the right players," Grossberg said.

Water Polo

Penn opened up its season last Wednesday by losing to Villanova, 1-14. But the club bounced back on Thursday with a convincing 10-18 victory over the Philadelphia-based Young Athletes in Scuba, 9-18.

The men’s club defeated Penn State in its first league game. Though the club jumped out to a strong 14-12 lead, Penn State fought back to win, 17-13. Co-captain Mark Griswold of the fliers' defense was outstanding. "The defensive line did a great job in preventing the ball from going to the right players," Griswold said.

Soccer Club plays a varsity

The work of Nadine Gordimer, well known novelist and short-story writer, centers on life in her native South Africa. Her work is particularly notable for its sensitive probing of apartheid and its effect on her characters. Her work is par-}

THE THOURON AWARD

The Thouron-University of Pennsylvania Fund for British-American Student Exchange invites applications for fully funded degree study in the United Kingdom

Eligibility: Seniors in the College, Nursing, SEAS, Wharton and students in any of the graduate and professional schools of the University of Pennsylvania; single; U.S. citizen; good academic standing; extra-curricular interests

Emoluments: British university fees & generous living/travel stipend

Duration of Award: one year, renewable for one additional year

Application deadlines:

For Thouron Award: November 17, 1989 for programs beginning in fall 1990

For U.K. universities: variable depending upon degree sought and institution

Applications and further information now available in:

Office of International Programs

133 Bendheim Hall

898-4661

General Information Meetings:

Wednesday, October 11, 3 p.m., Penniman Library

2nd floor, Bennett Hall

and Friday, October 13, 12 noon, 201 Bennett Hall

M. Frisbee goes 2-3 at sectional by Mike Rosenfeld

The men’s ultimate Frisbee club went 2-3 at the sectional tournament at Penn State, finishing with a 1-4 record. Penn lost to the Thunderdome of Mercer County, 11-3, the Bulldogs of Delaware, 15-14, and the Eagles of Penn State, 16-14. The club also forfeited its last game to the Eagles of Phil- adelphia. The one bright spot of the tourney was Penn’s 11-0 victory over Lehigh University, the only other collegiate club to at-tend the six-club tournament. Penn is now 2-4 in collegiate competition.

Cricket

The club lost to Yale, 18-16, for-tunately, giving up two scores and an over. Penn was still outscored, but had a strong weekend. Co-captain Andy Lehewich, a three-year starter in goal, made some key saves in preserving Penn’s victory.

Women’s Ultimate

The women’s club struggled through its first tournament at Penn State, finishing with a 1-4 record. Penn lost in the Thunderdome of Mercer County, 15-11, to the Bulldogs of Delaware, 15-14, and to the Eagles of Penn State, 16-14. The club also forfeited its last game to the Eagles of Phil- adelphia. The one bright spot of the tourney was Penn’s 11-0 victory over Lehigh University, the only other collegiate club to at-tend the six-club tournament. Penn is now 2-4 in collegiate competition.

The club was outscored by 27-16 in its first tournament, but had a strong weekend. Co-captain Andy Lehewich, a three-year starter in goal, made some key saves in preserving Penn’s victory.

Penn spent most of the game in its half and got its only goal on a shot on goal in the 70th minute with a shot from senior forward Gina Friggio. The club was also missing in two up players and two captains due to the club’s performance at the U.S. Student Games. The club was also missing in two up players and two captains due to the club’s performance at the U.S. Student Games.

"It was a good experience, we know what level we’re going to have to get to if we’re going to be competi-tive as a team," Penn forward and co-captain Debra Lieberman said.

Soccer Club plays a varsity

The work of Nadine Gordimer, well known novelist and short-story writer, centers on life in her native South Africa. Her work is par-ticularly notable for its sensitive probing of apartheid and its effect on her characters. Her work is par-ticularly notable for its sensitive probing of apartheid and its effect on her characters.

"It was a good experience, we know what level we’re going to have to get to if we’re going to be competi-tive as a team," Penn forward and co-captain Debra Lieberman said.

Debra Lieberman Senior forward and co-captain said "..."
NFL owners' vote still split on commissioner

Allen's injury may rush Bo back; Nuggets owner resists offer to minority businesses

The investor, however, had mixed at least two deadlines for completing the deal since it was announced in July.

"It's just a matter of going through all the documents," Buescher said. "I know it would be nice to have it done. But I can't speak for Sidney."
Sports

Penn athletics can fill a Hall

There is a long, white hallway that separates one end of the athletic offices at Whitman Hall from the other. Walking through it is disorienting. It stretches across the length of the stadium, winding up and down, from Penn sports history.

The hallway leads to the break room at the Penn Sports History Center, where Penn athletics takes on various forms. The room is lined with plaques and pictures that tell the story of Penn athletics. It's a place where you can learn about the history of the university and its sports teams.

As an undergraduate, you can see examples of Penn's athletic success, like the 1980s basketball team that won the NCAA championship. You can also see pictures of famous athletes, like Olympic gold medalist Misty Hyman and World Cup winner Mia Hamm.

The hallway is a place where you can explore the history of Penn sports. It's a place where you can learn about the athletes who have made Penn athletics great. And it's a place where you can see how far Penn athletics has come.

By HOWARD ZALKOWITZ

Field Hockey badly wants revenge against Princeton

Struggling Quakers host improving Tigers tonight

When the Quakers travelled to Princeton last year, they lost 1-0 in overtime. The Tigers scored on a penalty shot in the 38th minute of play, and the Quakers were unable to come back. The Tigers won 1-0 overall, 2-1 in shootouts, 3-0 in penalty kicks, and 4-0 in overtime.

This year, the Quakers are hoping to turn the tables. They have been working hard in practice to improve their game and are ready to face the Tigers.

The Quakers have been struggling this season, but they are determined to come back strong against Princeton. They want to prove that they are a talented team and that they can compete with one of the best in the country.

By ERIC GOMBERG

Penn women's soccer club plays match versus an Ivy varsity

Women's soccer club plays match versus an Ivy varsity

The Penn women's soccer club has been a second-class citizen, just like so many of the other club sports teams. The women's soccer club is not allowed to use River Field to practice, and often goes led by Mike Constantino. The club is the only one of its kind in the Ivy League.

But if one didn't know it, Saturday's women's soccer game at River Field looked like just another college women's soccer game.

"If women's soccer does go varsity (at Penn), success in the near future is realistic." -- B.J. O'Hara, Dartmouth women's soccer coach

Dartmouth punished Penn, 9-1, but for Penn, there was a sense of accomplishment that no score could take away. For the first time in the club's history, the Quakers had played in an Ivy League game.

"The ideology is to learn from this," Penn coach Pete Vandenbosch said. "We have something to prove in it."

As the only Ivy League soccer team, Penn hopes to prove that they are a talented team and that they can compete successfully.

By ERIC GOMBERG

"Princeton is going to die," Penn goalie Sue Donohue said. "This year every team has been in to get us, but we are out to get them."

The Quakers were able to tie the game at 2-2 in the first half, but the Tigers went on to win 4-2 overall.

"It is at least several years away. But the Hall should not become synonymous with basketball and football," Penn Sports Information Director Steve Hurlbut said yesterday. "It is at least several years away. But the Hall should not become synonymous with basketball and football."