Con artists duped student in flim flam
Link seen to ongoing scam

By GREGORY MONTANARO

A student was convinced out of $200 and his MAC card by a flim flam artist in the Fine Arts Center yesterday. The performer later attempted to exceed $1,000, but the student held his ground.

The student, who is a senior in the Fine Arts Center, was approached on the street by a man who claimed to be a Mexico City police officer. He told the student that he had been involved in a car accident and needed help with the insurance.

The student, who was unfamiliar with the situation, agreed to help. The performer then demanded $200 and the student's MAC card. The performer then left, claiming to be taking the student's card to the bank to get money for the insurance.

The student, who had been warned about this type of scam, realized what had happened and called University Police. The performer was later caught on video surveillance and is currently being investigated.

The student, who is a member of the University's African Studies Association, said that he had been duped by the performer's convincing story line. He said that he had been very careful not to fall for the scam, but that he had been convinced by the performer's story.

The University advises students to be careful and to report any attempted scams to University Police. The University has a number of programs to help students avoid scams, including a website that provides information about common scams.

Franklin Speaks on Slavery

By JORDAN A. HORN

Franklin was a leading figure in the fight against slavery. He was a member of the Pennsylvania Senate and a member of the Continental Congress. He was also a signatory to the Declaration of Independence.

Franklin was a strong advocate for the abolition of slavery. He was a member of the Pennsylvania Society for the Abolition of Slavery, and he was a founding member of the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Franklin was also a strong opponent of the slave trade. He was a member of the Pennsylvania Society for the Abolition of the Slave Trade, and he was a signatory to the Pennsylvania Anti-Slave Trade Act of 1808.

Franklin was a strong supporter of the idea that all people should be treated as equals. He was a strong advocate for the idea that the United States should be a country of free and equal citizens.

The University advises students to learn about the history of slavery and to consider the lessons that can be learned from it.

Petition: Keep theater in new student center

By PETER MORRISON

The petition, which was signed by more than 300 students and faculty, was submitted to the University's administration in December. The petition called for the retention of the existing black box theater and the addition of a new black box theater and auditorium.

The petition was submitted by the University's African Student Association, the University's Women's Center, and the University's Department of Theatre.

The University's administration has not yet responded to the petition. The University has not yet announced its decision on the future of the black box theater and auditorium.

The University advises students to be involved in the decision-making process and to participate in the petition.

Inside

A lot has changed since then. The lily white campus of old has been replaced by a virtual mosaic of ethnic and racial diversity. This transformation has not been even. The first black student to receive a degree from the University was admitted in 1879, but the number of African Americans entering the University has jumped from 116 in 1980 to 3,000 in 1993.

The University's current freshman class also includes people from every state and more than 10 percent of the students are from the West coast, California is now the fourth most represented state in the freshman class. Seventeen years ago more than 87 percent of the student body was from the East Coast, with most students represented black figures have spent time at the University, even though they came from different backgrounds.

A lot has changed since then. The lily white campus of old has been replaced by a virtual mosaic of ethnic and racial diversity. This transformation has not been even. The first black student to receive a degree from the University was admitted in 1879, but the number of African Americans entering the University has jumped from 116 in 1980 to 3,000 in 1993.

The University's current freshman class also includes people from every state and more than 10 percent of the students are from the West coast, California is now the fourth most represented state in the freshman class. Seventeen years ago more than 87 percent of the student body was from the East Coast, with most students represented black figures have spent time at the University, even though they came from different backgrounds.

A lot has changed since then. The lily white campus of old has been replaced by a virtual mosaic of ethnic and racial diversity. This transformation has not been even. The first black student to receive a degree from the University was admitted in 1879, but the number of African Americans entering the University has jumped from 116 in 1980 to 3,000 in 1993.

The University's current freshman class also includes people from every state and more than 10 percent of the students are from the West coast, California is now the fourth most represented state in the freshman class. Seventeen years ago more than 87 percent of the student body was from the East Coast, with most students represented black figures have spent time at the University, even though they came from different backgrounds.

A lot has changed since then. The lily white campus of old has been replaced by a virtual mosaic of ethnic and racial diversity. This transformation has not been even. The first black student to receive a degree from the University was admitted in 1879, but the number of African Americans entering the University has jumped from 116 in 1980 to 3,000 in 1993.

The University's current freshman class also includes people from every state and more than 10 percent of the students are from the West coast, California is now the fourth most represented state in the freshman class. Seventeen years ago more than 87 percent of the student body was from the East Coast, with most students represented black figures have spent time at the University, even though they came from different backgrounds.

A lot has changed since then. The lily white campus of old has been replaced by a virtual mosaic of ethnic and racial diversity. This transformation has not been even. The first black student to receive a degree from the University was admitted in 1879, but the number of African Americans entering the University has jumped from 116 in 1980 to 3,000 in 1993.

The University's current freshman class also includes people from every state and more than 10 percent of the students are from the West coast, California is now the fourth most represented state in the freshman class. Seventeen years ago more than 87 percent of the student body was from the East Coast, with most students represented black figures have spent time at the University, even though they came from different backgrounds.
Campus Events

Drinking to the junior class

New group aims to improve social life for junior class.

By GABRIELLE MARCOTTI

The Pennsylvania Daily

Wharton junior Brendan Haldaramon was having a blast before the Quaker's final game of the season.

He was hanging out with a group of friends at their annual party. It was a pre-game party of Rolling Rock and water coolers filled with Bloody Marys.

"It was a lot of fun," said Haldaramon. "We were all having a good time."

The junior class is known for its party atmosphere and lively social scene.

"It's a great way to end the semester," said Haldaramon. "We always have a lot of fun."
A long - and bumpy - road to racial diversity

HISTORY from page 1

A long - and bumpy - DuBois was one of the first blacks to black residence hall on campus, was published in 1909. Lord North, a predominantly black residence hall on campus, was given the name W.E.B. DuBois College House in 1973. The house contains a number of plaques and signs with the name W.E.B. DuBois. "The Philadelphia Negro," published in 1899, was one of the first minority group on campus. The Daily Pennsylvanian's "The Vision," which was the minority student newspaper when it was founded about 15 years ago, is a separate publication, is associated with the UMC. The Ethic Matriculations, as active politically," Sun said. "It's been a more politically quiet history, despite their activities. Currently, five Asian American students, on...
When you graduate, you can’t take it with you...

...but you can have it delivered.

No matter how far you go, you can always keep Penn nearby. The Weekly Pennsylvanian brings all the latest campus news and sports to your mailbox every week during the coming year.

Experience The Weekly Pennsylvanian, a weekly publication specifically for Penn alumni, parents and friends—straight from the pages of The Daily Pennsylvanian.

See who’s been signed for Fling this year... Follow the basketball team’s march toward the Ivy title... Relive the best moments of college.

Subscribe now to The Weekly Pennsylvanian. We’ll send you a copy every week from now until April 1994 that will keep Penn a part of your life.

Simply mail in the coupon or give us a call to order The Weekly Pennsylvanian at the low price of only $26. That’s less than the cost of a few long distance calls to an old friend.

Yes! Sign me up for a subscription to The Weekly Pennsylvanian from now until April 1994 for only $26.

Name
Address
City State Zip

Order by mail, or call (215) 888-8581 to order by phone.

My check is enclosed. Charge my VISA/MasterCard.

Card # Expiration Date

THE DAILY PENNSYLVANIAN
4015 WALNUT ST., PHILADELPHIA, PA 19104
daily Pennsylvanian

claims made by most of the historians who wrote around or after the Civil War were the craziest. They claimed that slaves were content with their status as such.

had a free blacks would undermine the slave culture in the South. Slave owners did not want slaves to feel that they had gained any rights.

Beecher Higginbotham Distinguished Lecturer at Duke University. "They had gained. In 1981, at least eight threatening advertisements offering rewards for lost blacks' constitutional rights were advertised in the advertisements, he said. Based on(Content not available.)

many slaves lived and worked during the Civil War era. He said, based on his research, slaves were fairly abused and they had every reason not to run away. They were so content why were they running away, he asked, stressing his point to the audience.

"If they were so content why were they running away," he asked, furthering the Civil War era. He said, based on his research, slaves ran away from their masters because, he claimed, the Constitution never even referred directly to the word "slaves." He said, referring to Article Four, the Constitution doesn't call slavery "immoral." He said, referring to the Constitution. "They claimed that slaves contentedness was what referred directly to the word "slaves," he said, referring to Article Four. "The Constitution doesn't call slavery "immoral," he said, referring to the Constitution. "They claimed that slaves contentedness was what referred directly to the word "slaves," he said, referring to Article Four. "The Constitution doesn't call slavery "immoral," he said, referring to the Constitution.

quotes of the Constitution never even referred directly to the word "slaves." He said, referring to Article Four, the Constitution doesn't call slavery "immoral." He said, referring to the Constitution. "They claimed that slaves contentedness was what referred directly to the word "slaves," he said, referring to Article Four. "The Constitution doesn't call slavery "immoral," he said, referring to the Constitution.

claimed that slaves were content with their status as such.

John Hope Franklin

led by Beijing Normal University.

Professor Antonin Wagner

University of Pennsylvania School of Social Work

FALL 1993 FAIR PRAY LECTURE

"Reassessing Welfare Capitalism: Community-Based Approaches to Social Policy in Switzerland and the United States"

Thursday, December 2, 1993

7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

(reception following)

Faculty Club/Alumni Hall

200 S. 36th Street

Philadelphia, PA

The Fall 1993 FAIR Lecture is a free lecture made possible through a grant from the Fred Meyler Family Foundation.

For More Information Call 215-898-5526
An End To Cramping

SCUe's plan for re-structuring the student body may provide some needed relief.
The change would put the University in line with other peer institutions such as the University of Virginia, and several Ivy League schools.

In this day and age, when time is at a premium, it hardly seems fair that students, who are in the midst of their college years, would have so much time in their lives to be dedicated to a cramming exam schedule.

The SCUe plan in a positive step in a direction that would make this change possible. The new plan would enable students to prepare for finals, and give the students the time to be able to ask for help and to teach students to learn a semester in advance of their exam.

Students and professors probably won't be thrilled to prepare for their semester break in order to fall into the new mode of study. But when December rolls around, they'll realize that there may not be enough time for a traditional break in a day, but at least there's more days.

Policy on Submissions

The Daily Pennsylvania welcomes the submission of letters, columns, and other opinions for publication.

Some guidelines: All material submitted for publication will be given serious consideration, but we cannot guarantee that all material submitted will be published. We reserve the right to edit such material.

The Daily Pennsylvania Online: Letters, columns, and opinion pieces should be sent by email to letters@daily-pa.org.

To submit a letter, email letters@daily-pa.org with the words "LETTERS" in the subject line.

Letters to the Editor

More than Machines

To the Editor:

In response to Brian Kennedy's column "Guru of the Lab" that appeared in your December 1, 1993 issue of the Daily Pennsylvania Editotial Review.

I think that it is a shame that someone is looking at our star and realizing that it is more important than the actual work that is being done.

In response to the DP, students work days off campus and on campus. As a student, I feel that it is important to have a place where you can get information. As a result, there are many students who are interested in providing services to students.

To the Editor:

The 300 plus students that make up the student body of the Board of the Daily Pennsylvania Alliance, welcome your suggestion.

As a student, I feel that it is important to have a place where you can get information. As a result, there are many students who are interested in providing services to students.

If you have any questions — about applying, about what it's like to be a columnist, or wanting the ability to balance their workload with other pursuits.

University students in down and dirty work.

With other pursuits.

ability or desire to balance their workload with other pursuits.

In response to Brian Kennedy's column, "Guru of the Lab" that appeared in your December 1, 1993 issue of the Daily Pennsylvania Editotial Review.

I think that it is a shame that someone is looking at our star and realizing that it is more important than the actual work that is being done.

In response to the DP, students work days off campus and on campus. As a student, I feel that it is important to have a place where you can get information. As a result, there are many students who are interested in providing services to students.

To the Editor:

The 300 plus students that make up the student body of the Board of the Daily Pennsylvania Alliance, welcome your suggestion.

As a student, I feel that it is important to have a place where you can get information. As a result, there are many students who are interested in providing services to students.

If you have any questions — about applying, about what it's like to be a columnist, or wanting the ability to balance their workload with other pursuits.

University students in down and dirty work.

With other pursuits.

ability or desire to balance their workload with other pursuits.

In response to Brian Kennedy's column, "Guru of the Lab" that appeared in your December 1, 1993 issue of the Daily Pennsylvania Editotial Review.

I think that it is a shame that someone is looking at our star and realizing that it is more important than the actual work that is being done.

In response to the DP, students work days off campus and on campus. As a student, I feel that it is important to have a place where you can get information. As a result, there are many students who are interested in providing services to students.

To the Editor:

The 300 plus students that make up the student body of the Board of the Daily Pennsylvania Alliance, welcome your suggestion.

As a student, I feel that it is important to have a place where you can get information. As a result, there are many students who are interested in providing services to students.

If you have any questions — about applying, about what it's like to be a columnist, or wanting the ability to balance their workload with other pursuits.

University students in down and dirty work.

With other pursuits.

ability or desire to balance their workload with other pursuits.
U. grad expected to become Mexico's next president probably not that much."

we would be a doctoral dissertation.

sio pursued his political career in years, adding that over 30 percent

Mexico. Of the students at the University are

creased in number over the past few

have increased despite reduced minorities.

About one-third of the incoming class

dents' I excitement in choosing Penn.

seniors applying to colleges.

"It's wonderful to see the [stu-

"Seventeen [magazine] called us

Magazine reviews have also contributed to additional recognition.

Daily Pennsylvanian

Reiner said last night that al-

ones. He added with a note of bitterness. "Sin-

second - empty - handkerchief. The accomplice appeared.

"If something sounds too good, it

"Paradox is hardly the word," he

"Here's an indication of the kind

"It would be nice if we could set up

Gale said the happy news of Colo-

- Dec. 4th

PENNCOLOMBIA from page 1

lor would not be, any Colo-

pursued his political career in

years, adding that over 30 percent

Mexico. Of the students at the University are

creased in number over the past few

have increased despite reduced

minorities.

About one-third of the incoming class

dents' I excitement in choosing Penn.

seniors applying to colleges.

"It's wonderful to see the [stu-

"Seventeen [magazine] called us

Magazine reviews have also contributed to additional recognition.

Daily Pennsylvanian

Reiner said last night that al-

ones. He added with a note of bitterness. "Sin-

second - empty - handkerchief. The

accomplice appeared.

"If something sounds too good, it

"Paradox is hardly the word," he

"Here's an indication of the kind

"It would be nice if we could set up

Gale said the happy news of Colo-

- Dec. 4th

PENNCOLOMBIA from page 1

lor would not be, any Colo-

pursued his political career in

years, adding that over 30 percent

Mexico. Of the students at the University are

creased in number over the past few

have increased despite reduced

minorities.

About one-third of the incoming class

dents' I excitement in choosing Penn.

seniors applying to colleges.

"It's wonderful to see the [stu-

"Seventeen [magazine] called us

Magazine reviews have also contributed to additional recognition.

U.S. resumes business with South Africa

CAPE TOWN, South Africa — U.S. Commerce Secretary Brown flew yesterday with African National Congress head Mandela, who said it was wrong to think South Africa has such "powerful friends." The visit by U.S. business leaders signals that the United States is ready to do business with Africa's largest economy.

"Our business delegation is enthused about the economic potential here and Americans want to stand shoulder to shoulder with all the people of South Africa as they pursue their hopes and their dreams," Brown said.

Three years and threats of civil war by white right-wingers have not deterred business leaders. But many analysts are con- fident that we have powerful friends, that whatever differences we have we are making progress," Brown said.

LaRouche will leave prison next year

WASHINGTON - LaRouche will leave prison next year under the terms of his parole, the U.S. Parole Commission said yesterday.

"Our business delegation is enthused about the eco- onomic potential here and Americans want to stand shoulder to shoulder with all the people of South Africa as they pursue their hopes and their dreams," Brown said.

The meeting preceded the scheduled signing of an in

Health care, one size won't fit all

"We know it is equally important to focus on how the health plan may help the child with a chronic or congenital condition, such as cerebral palsy," he said.

"Health care needs reform is no longer the number one issue," he said. "Health care, no one will be able to deal with those issues if we don't have a large health plan as an umbrella of the Senate Finance Committee."

LaRouche will leave prison next year

WASHINGTON - LaRouche will leave prison next year under the terms of his parole, the U.S. Parole Commission said yesterday.

"Our business delegation is enthused about the economic potential here and Americans want to stand shoulder to shoulder with all the people of South Africa as they pursue their hopes and their dreams," Brown said.

The meeting preceded the scheduled signing of an in

Shuttle mission delayed

WASHINGTON - The Clinton administration will give Bosnia more humanitarian aid, Secretary of State Warren Christopher said yesterday. The Clinton administration will give Bosnia more humanitarian aid, Secretary of State Warren Christopher said yesterday.

"Our business delegation is enthused about the economic potential here and Americans want to stand shoulder to shoulder with all the people of South Africa as they pursue their hopes and their dreams," Brown said.

The meeting preceded the scheduled signing of an in

Bush strip bloodied by new violence

WASHINGTON - President Clint- on is prepared to begin flights to Tuzla in the first call to the CSX operation center in Jack- sonville, she said. CSX notified Amtrak.

When he was sentenced on Jan. 20, 1988, LaRouche told the judge that he was the victim of a government cam- paign to "eliminate me from the political scene."
Second-half run does in W. Hoops in loss

COMPOSURE from BACK PAGE

But then the La Salle press began to come on, taking 12 unanswered points - the result was another stretch of 12 minutes and an 11-point lead.

"We weren't consistent when we had the lead and then we let it go completely," Gabriel said.

The Penn backcourt was able to handle the Explorers' defense without much difficulty in the first half. Banks and junior Shelly Bowden tried to break the press and scoring (0-10 from the floor) played a key role in bringing the ball down.

"I think we lost our poise a little bit in the middle of the game," Brewer said. "We might have panicked when the ball was in our hands. But we believe we've improved over last year, and this was something from last year we didn't want to see come back."

And so, the Quakers lost last night's game because they lost their lead, and the win doesn't happen, it's disappointing," Soriero said. "We're not overly pleased with the play of our starters late in the game - not the La Salle defense itself - that was comely.

"I think we lost our poise a little bit toward the end of the game," Brewer said. "We might have panicked when the ball was in our hands. But we believe we've improved over last year, and this was something from last year we didn't want to see come back."

Don't Miss Our First-Ever Annual

GIVE BLOOD.

...because "no matter what the size of any individual's gift, all of us together make a significant contribution toward assisting our fellow man."

BARBARA MURRAY, Comptroller's Office
Yevgeny Yevtushenko
reading 20th century Russian poetry

Thursday, December 2 at 5:00 p.m.
B-6 Stiteler Hall
208 South 37th Street

Mr. Yevtushenko will read in Russian, and Dr. Bradley Jordan, Assistant Professor at Union College, will read in English.

Mr. Yevtushenko was The School of Arts & Sciences Visiting Poet in the spring semester 1991 and taught in the Slavics Department. While here he completed his Anthology of 20th Century Russian Poetry: Silver and Steel, which is on sale at the Bookstore and will be sold at the reading. Mr. Yevtushenko will autograph books at a reception following the reading.

Dr. Jordan received his Ph. D. in Comparative Literature from Penn in 1993 and taught with Mr. Yevtushenko.

Free & open to all.
W. Swim qualifies 4 for Easterns in loss

Easterns from back page:

Individually, Penn was most impressed as Zegar touched the wall at 1:56.92 in the 200-yard freestyle to finish second while garnering a fifth tial, by clinching a spot at Easterns

she did not swim to her full poten-

1:56.92 in the 200-yard freestyle to fin-of qualifying.

on the big meet without the pressure

she can now focus her concentration swim."

on but it wasn't an exceptional

Zegar said. "It was a normal time for demonstrated that they had left any 5:11.83. Montes took home third in the 200 backstroke in 2:13.18 to qualified for Easterns with a time of ishes in the 500 freestyle, Morris qualfied while Wofinger's fifth-place finish in the 500 freestyle (5:25.80) and an individual medalist (1:49.79) put

her near the top of the field.

"Gillian Morris had a terrific job," Schnur said. "She did a terrific job. She had a great meet and really im-

200 back." Schnur added. "We just want to keep

a positive attitude—we're tough," Mor-

team swept first place in every event.

Although the strong Princeton

didn't always necessarily come into

do to be fast. Being a freshman

doesn't always necessarily come into

morning and experience.

I don't think that this year's team

think (they) are becoming aggressively competitive, the Quakers

and their lack of size and expen-

sered with despite their lack of size and make them competitors to be reck-

ed with despite their lack of size and

H.

"They are doing well," Zegar said.

compared to its competitors, the

1:52.60 and

lishes in the 500 freestyle (5:25.80) and

an individual medalist (1:49.79) put

her near the top of the field.

"Gillian Morris had a terrific job," Schnur said. "She did a terrific job. She had a great meet and really im-

200 back." Schnur added. "We just want to keep

a positive attitude—we're tough," Mor-

team swept first place in every event.

Although the strong Princeton

didn't always necessarily come into

do to be fast. Being a freshman

doesn't always necessarily come into

morning and experience.

I don't think that this year's team

think (they) are becoming aggressively competitive, the Quakers

and their lack of size and expen-

sered with despite their lack of size and

make them competitors to be reck-

ed with despite their lack of size and

H.

"They are doing well," Zegar said.

compared to its competitors, the

1:52.60 and

lishes in the 500 freestyle (5:25.80) and

an individual medalist (1:49.79) put

her near the top of the field.

"Gillian Morris had a terrific job," Schnur said. "She did a terrific job. She had a great meet and really im-

200 back." Schnur added. "We just want to keep

a positive attitude—we're tough," Mor-

team swept first place in every event.

Although the strong Princeton

didn't always necessarily come into

do to be fast. Being a freshman

doesn't always necessarily come into

morning and experience.

I don't think that this year's team

think (they) are becoming aggressively competitive, the Quakers

and their lack of size and expen-

sered with despite their lack of size and

make them competitors to be reck-

ed with despite their lack of size and

H.

"They are doing well," Zegar said.

compared to its competitors, the

1:52.60 and

lishes in the 500 freestyle (5:25.80) and

an individual medalist (1:49.79) put

her near the top of the field.

"Gillian Morris had a terrific job," Schnur said. "She did a terrific job. She had a great meet and really im-

200 back." Schnur added. "We just want to keep

a positive attitude—we're tough," Mor-

team swept first place in every event.

Although the strong Princeton

didn't always necessarily come into

do to be fast. Being a freshman

doesn't always necessarily come into

morning and experience.

I don't think that this year's team

think (they) are becoming aggressively competitive, the Quakers

and their lack of size and expen-

sered with despite their lack of size and

make them competitors to be reck-

ed with despite their lack of size and

H.

"They are doing well," Zegar said.

compared to its competitors, the

1:52.60 and

lishes in the 500 freestyle (5:25.80) and

an individual medalist (1:49.79) put

her near the top of the field.

"Gillian Morris had a terrific job," Schnur said. "She did a terrific job. She had a great meet and really im-

200 back." Schnur added. "We just want to keep

a positive attitude—we're tough," Mor-

team swept first place in every event.

Although the strong Princeton

didn't always necessarily come into

do to be fast. Being a freshman

doesn't always necessarily come into

morning and experience.

I don't think that this year's team

think (they) are becoming aggressively competitive, the Quakers

and their lack of size and expen-

sered with despite their lack of size and

make them competitors to be reck-

ed with despite their lack of size and

H.

"They are doing well," Zegar said.

compared to its competitors, the

1:52.60 and

lishes in the 500 freestyle (5:25.80) and

an individual medalist (1:49.79) put

her near the top of the field.

"Gillian Morris had a terrific job," Schnur said. "She did a terrific job. She had a great meet and really im-

200 back." Schnur added. "We just want to keep

a positive attitude—we're tough," Mor-

team swept first place in every event.

Although the strong Princeton

didn't always necessarily come into

do to be fast. Being a freshman

doesn't always necessarily come into

morning and experience.
Jacksonville Jaguars will begin NFL play in 1995

Jacksonville, which had been an NFL footnote since the 1980s, was awarded the 30th NFL franchise yesterday, and the Jags, who will become the ninth franchise in the AFC East, will begin play in the 1995 season.

Jacksonville's football dreams, however, were delayed for a year when it was awarded the 30th NFL franchise yesterday, and the Jags, who will become the ninth franchise in the AFC East, will begin play in the 1995 season.

Jacksonville has a long history of football, but it didn't have a franchise until the late 1980s. In 1983, the NFL awarded Jacksonville a franchise to replace the Houston Oilers, who moved to Tennessee.

Jacksonville's new franchise will be known as the Jaguars, and the team will play in the AFC East division. The Jaguars will be coached by Tom Coughlin, who has been the head coach at the University of Florida.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.

Jacksonville is one of the few NFL cities that didn't have a team in the 1980s. In 1984, the NFL awarded the franchise to the new city of Jacksonville, and the Jaguars began play in 1995.
W. Hoops falters in 2nd half in loss to Explorers
Quakers let eight-point lead disappear

By LUKE DeCOCK

The Penn women's basketball team was in good shape early in the second half in last night's Big 5 contest against La Salle.

"They grabbed the momentum in the second half, especially against La Salle's pressure," said Penn senior forward Julie Banks. "I think we broke the game down a little bit towards the end of the game. I think we broke our poise a little bit towards the end of the game."

The Palestra lights were dimmed and the in-

Please see COMPOSURE, page 9

Please see YOUNG, page 10

Please see CHANCES, page 9

Please see EASTERNS, page 11

Please see SQUADS, page 9

W. Swim takes loss to Tigers in stride

By MICHAEL HASDAY

The young and hungry Penn men's swimming team faced off against a tough, rough and ready Princeton squad and fell short to the Tigers in a 192-88 loss on Tuesday at the Jadwin Natatorium.

"I thought the girls swam a terrific meet," Penn coach Kathy Lawlor-Gilbert said. "Penn swam like they didn't."

The Quakers did not finish strong.

W. Swim qualifies 4 for Easterns in loss

By YSMENIA BENSON

The team's efforts at Princeton were a silver lining. In fact, Penn might have been more worry free going into Tuesday's meet since it practiced continuously - even having workouts over the weekend - in preparation for the big match between the two teams.

"It's all part of the coaching staff's strategizing around the upcoming meet," coach Glen Zwolinski said. "We're also using the Princeton meet as a form of benchmarking."

+ I'm pleased with the way they competed," Penn coach Kathy Lawlor-Gilbert said. "Princetons' pretty loaded.

"We're going to prioritize every person on the women's team.

If the team's efforts at Princeton are any indication of what to expect from the young swimmers, then the future is looking bright according to the coaching staff - which was pleased and impressed with their dynamic."