BYOB policy may cause increase in off-campus drinking

For Chris Marcisa

The University's new alcohol policy for Greek organizations could mean tightening on restrictions on campus drinking. But the plan may also be seen as a reaction to the trend among college campuses across the country that the University seems to be more popular than ever.

By办好 or Vice-President Dan Treat, it is hard to measure whether this has been balanced by a desire to have parties in the chapters' own homes as opposed to parties in the chapter vice president's home. According to Inter-Panhellenic Council President Dave Treat, it is hard to measure whether this has been balanced by a desire to have parties in the chapters' own homes as opposed to parties in the chapter vice president's home.

Chris Cohen, a Phi Kappa Psi member of this year's Greek chapter, said that he and his friend had been awakened by the stranger, who told them that "this was his second night on campus."

"This random guy comes in, sounding like he was drunk and rea-sonably acting strange," Cohen said. He added that the University's new alcohol policy is not only potentially dangerous, but may hurt the social life on campus.

By Lisa Lovensson

The Daily Pennsylvania

By办好 or President Rodin appointed a committee to study the impact of alcohol on campus parties.

For Bob Hockstein, the University's new alcohol policy for Greek organizations could mean tightening on restrictions on campus drinking. But the plan may also be seen as a reaction to the trend among college campuses across the country that the University seems to be more popular than ever.

By办好 or Vice-President Dan Treat, it is hard to measure whether this has been balanced by a desire to have parties in the chapters' own homes as opposed to parties in the chapter vice president's home.

Chris Cohen, a Phi Kappa Psi member of this year's Greek chapter, said that he and his friend had been awakened by the stranger, who told them that "this was his second night on campus."

"This random guy comes in, sounding like he was drunk and rea-sonably acting strange," Cohen said. He added that the University's new alcohol policy is not only potentially dangerous, but may hurt the social life on campus.

By Lisa Lovensson

The Daily Pennsylvania

By办好 or President Rodin appointed a committee to study the impact of alcohol on campus parties.

For Bob Hockstein, the University's new alcohol policy for Greek organizations could mean tightening on restrictions on campus drinking. But the plan may also be seen as a reaction to the trend among college campuses across the country that the University seems to be more popular than ever.

By办好 or Vice-President Dan Treat, it is hard to measure whether this has been balanced by a desire to have parties in the chapters' own homes as opposed to parties in the chapter vice president's home.

Chris Cohen, a Phi Kappa Psi member of this year's Greek chapter, said that he and his friend had been awakened by the stranger, who told them that "this was his second night on campus."

"This random guy comes in, sounding like he was drunk and rea-sonably acting strange," Cohen said. He added that the University's new alcohol policy is not only potentially dangerous, but may hurt the social life on campus.

By Lisa Lovensson

The Daily Pennsylvania

By办好 or President Rodin appointed a committee to study the impact of alcohol on campus parties.

For Bob Hockstein, the University's new alcohol policy for Greek organizations could mean tightening on restrictions on campus drinking. But the plan may also be seen as a reaction to the trend among college campuses across the country that the University seems to be more popular than ever.

By办好 or Vice-President Dan Treat, it is hard to measure whether this has been balanced by a desire to have parties in the chapters' own homes as opposed to parties in the chapter vice president's home.

Chris Cohen, a Phi Kappa Psi member of this year's Greek chapter, said that he and his friend had been awakened by the stranger, who told them that "this was his second night on campus."

"This random guy comes in, sounding like he was drunk and rea-sonably acting strange," Cohen said. He added that the University's new alcohol policy is not only potentially dangerous, but may hurt the social life on campus.

By Lisa Lovensson

The Daily Pennsylvania

By办好 or President Rodin appointed a committee to study the impact of alcohol on campus parties.

For Bob Hockstein, the University's new alcohol policy for Greek organizations could mean tightening on restrictions on campus drinking. But the plan may also be seen as a reaction to the trend among college campuses across the country that the University seems to be more popular than ever.

By办好 or Vice-President Dan Treat, it is hard to measure whether this has been balanced by a desire to have parties in the chapters' own homes as opposed to parties in the chapter vice president's home.

Chris Cohen, a Phi Kappa Psi member of this year's Greek chapter, said that he and his friend had been awakened by the stranger, who told them that "this was his second night on campus."

"This random guy comes in, sounding like he was drunk and rea-sonably acting strange," Cohen said. He added that the University's new alcohol policy is not only potentially dangerous, but may hurt the social life on campus.

By Lisa Lovensson

The Daily Pennsylvania

By办好 or President Rodin appointed a committee to study the impact of alcohol on campus parties.

For Bob Hockstein, the University's new alcohol policy for Greek organizations could mean tightening on restrictions on campus drinking. But the plan may also be seen as a reaction to the trend among college campuses across the country that the University seems to be more popular than ever.

By办好 or Vice-President Dan Treat, it is hard to measure whether this has been balanced by a desire to have parties in the chapters' own homes as opposed to parties in the chapter vice president's home.

Chris Cohen, a Phi Kappa Psi member of this year's Greek chapter, said that he and his friend had been awakened by the stranger, who told them that "this was his second night on campus."

"This random guy comes in, sounding like he was drunk and rea-sonably acting strange," Cohen said. He added that the University's new alcohol policy is not only potentially dangerous, but may hurt the social life on campus.

By Lisa Lovensson

The Daily Pennsylvania

By办好 or President Rodin appointed a committee to study the impact of alcohol on campus parties.

For Bob Hockstein, the University's new alcohol policy for Greek organizations could mean tightening on restrictions on campus drinking. But the plan may also be seen as a reaction to the trend among college campuses across the country that the University seems to be more popular than ever.

By办好 or Vice-President Dan Treat, it is hard to measure whether this has been balanced by a desire to have parties in the chapters' own homes as opposed to parties in the chapter vice president's home.

Chris Cohen, a Phi Kappa Psi member of this year's Greek chapter, said that he and his friend had been awakened by the stranger, who told them that "this was his second night on campus."

"This random guy comes in, sounding like he was drunk and rea-sonably acting strange," Cohen said. He added that the University's new alcohol policy is not only potentially dangerous, but may hurt the social life on campus.

By Lisa Lovensson

The Daily Pennsylvania

By办好 or President Rodin appointed a committee to study the impact of alcohol on campus parties.

For Bob Hockstein, the University's new alcohol policy for Greek organizations could mean tightening on restrictions on campus drinking. But the plan may also be seen as a reaction to the trend among college campuses across the country that the University seems to be more popular than ever.

By办好 or Vice-President Dan Treat, it is hard to measure whether this has been balanced by a desire to have parties in the chapters' own homes as opposed to parties in the chapter vice president's home.

Chris Cohen, a Phi Kappa Psi member of this year's Greek chapter, said that he and his friend had been awakened by the stranger, who told them that "this was his second night on campus."

"This random guy comes in, sounding like he was drunk and rea-sonably acting strange," Cohen said. He added that the University's new alcohol policy is not only potentially dangerous, but may hurt the social life on campus.

By Lisa Lovensson

The Daily Pennsylvania

By办好 or President Rodin appointed a committee to study the impact of alcohol on campus parties.

For Bob Hockstein, the University's new alcohol policy for Greek organizations could mean tightening on restrictions on campus drinking. But the plan may also be seen as a reaction to the trend among college campuses across the country that the University seems to be more popular than ever.

By办好 or Vice-President Dan Treat, it is hard to measure whether this has been balanced by a desire to have parties in the chapters' own homes as opposed to parties in the chapter vice president's home.

Chris Cohen, a Phi Kappa Psi member of this year's Greek chapter, said that he and his friend had been awakened by the stranger, who told them that "this was his second night on campus."

"This random guy comes in, sounding like he was drunk and rea-sonably acting strange," Cohen said. He added that the University's new alcohol policy is not only potentially dangerous, but may hurt the social life on campus.

By Lisa Lovensson

The Daily Pennsylvania

By办好 or President Rodin appointed a committee to study the impact of alcohol on campus parties.

For Bob Hockstein, the University's new alcohol policy for Greek organizations could mean tightening on restrictions on campus drinking. But the plan may also be seen as a reaction to the trend among college campuses across the country that the University seems to be more popular than ever.

By办好 or Vice-President Dan Treat, it is hard to measure whether this has been balanced by a desire to have parties in the chapters' own homes as opposed to parties in the chapter vice president's home.

Chris Cohen, a Phi Kappa Psi member of this year's Greek chapter, said that he and his friend had been awakened by the stranger, who told them that "this was his second night on campus."

"This random guy comes in, sounding like he was drunk and rea-sonably acting strange," Cohen said. He added that the University's new alcohol policy is not only potentially dangerous, but may hurt the social life on campus.
Off-campus drinking up

DRINKING from page 1

Among the rules is that sororities are not allowed to have alcohol at all within their houses.

"It is a strictly enforced and abided-by rule," she said.

Because of this fact, Calderon said off-campus functions can be positive events provided that sororities follow the rules and behave responsibly.

She added that there have been no violations of the policy reported to Panhel in recent years.

Calderon does not blame off-campus drinking on the alcohol policy.

"BYOB is not intended to push students off campus," she said. "It is to increase awareness of responsible drinking.

Reikofski said the University's size and location force it to deal with drinking problems.

"I think it will always be an issue," he said.

Marakon Associates
Management Consultants

Penn Recruiting Calendar
Please be sure to mark these dates on your calendar:

October 23rd
Information Session
7:00 pm at The Faculty Club

October 30th
Resume Drop at CPPS

November 2nd
Resume Submission Deadline
All candidates are required to send cover letter, résumé and transcript to:

Eileen Farnen
Analyst Recruiting Coordinator
Marakon Associates
300 Atlantic Street
Stamford, CT 06901
Telephone: (203) 978-6831

STAMFORD • NEW YORK • LONDON

Save 22 cold breakfasts on a Macintosh.

It's as easy as pizza pie. Just visit your authorized Apple reseller today, and you can get a great deal on Macintosh computers. Because they're on sale. Which means now you can get everything—all the hardware, software and accessories—you need to improve your GPA, cruise the Internet, maybe even have some fun. And still have enough dough left over to score tonight's hot dinner, tonight's late snack and tomorrow's very cold pie. No matter how you slice it, it's the cheapest way yet to get a taste of Macintosh power. The power to be your best. Apple

For further information visit the University of Pennsylvania Computer Connection at the Bookstore.
Career and Pizza Nite
Wednesday, October 10, 1995
5:30 p.m.
Gail Glickman, Assistant Director
Division of Career Services
Office of International Programs
Come on in here for what you should be doing, and if you're not, come in now. We have our annual Career and Pizza Nite, so come on in here at 5:30 p.m. for some great pizza and a chance to talk to our staff about career services. We have a lot of great information to share with you, so come on in and have a good time! We're looking forward to seeing you there!
African Studies holds workshop

By Carolyn Blain
The Daily Pennsylvanian

African Studies holds workshop

Two turkeys, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce and the trimmings decorated the table at last year's Canadian Thanksgiving meal. Students and faculty members enjoyed a traditional Canadian feast served by the university's Canadian Students at Penn Club.

Renowned for its lively atmosphere and convivial spirit, the dinner featured speeches, music, and good company. The event also served as an opportunity for members to share their cultural heritage and experiences.

The Canadian Students at Penn Club is a group of students from Canada who come together to celebrate their shared heritage and culture. The club organizes various events throughout the year, including social gatherings, speakers, and cultural celebrations.

Through these events, members have the chance to connect with other Canadians, as well as with other students and faculty members on campus. The club provides a platform for members to express their cultural identity and share their experiences with others.

The club is open to all students interested in learning more about Canadian culture and history. Whether you have Canadian roots or simply want to explore this fascinating culture, the Canadian Students at Penn Club invites you to join and be a part of its community.
I spend the entirety of my younger years growing up in a little town. Low income, 99 percent white, and even four foreign cows banished to the outskirts of town. Our nation abolished racism, our nation abolished discrimination bunk boasts that to accomplish this,

The Daily Pennsylvanian

The Foreign-language Dilemma

Mike Nadel

"Bring the whiskey!" yelled Andrew Stewart. We will bring the whiskey, and there. Such a place had its difficulties — older students

Sundeg M. Goel used to be one of the most respected members of the Undergraduate Assembly. But this year he's just an ordinary senior like all of us, he's struggling to find a way to get by. "The big question is: Will Sundeep Goal can testify to this, although

That is why I don't like the idea of legislat-

OPINION

Jeffrey Han

"The Central Dogma"

I don't want to hear it

I don't want to hear it

The Foreign-language Dilemma

Mike Nadel

"Bring the whiskey!"

Sundeg M. Goel used to be one of the most respected members of the Undergraduate Assembly. But this year he's just an ordinary senior like all of us, he's struggling to find a way to get by. "The big question is: Will Sundeep Goal can testify to this, although Nel Guys. Immediately after the verdict of the “trial of the century” was read by District Judge Thurgood Marshall, the law clerk to Judge Lance Ito, CNN news conducted a poll, later published in The New York Times, concluding that “six in ten whites believed the wrong verdict was reached, while nine in ten blacks did not.” Likewise, an NBC news story had the finding that at DuBois College house parties, all reacting to the controversial rules, were adorned with elated African American faces, all reacting to the controversial rulings.

The New York Times, in its story, had the finding that at DuBois College house parties, all reacting to the controversial rulings, were adorned with elated African American faces, all reacting to the controversial rulings. Damon Clemow were adorned with elated African American faces, all reacting to the controversial rulings.

Guest Column

Damon Clemow

The Daily Pennsylvanian

On Wednesday Oct. 4, 1995 the front page of the Daily Pennsylvanian was read by Deirdre Robertson, the media that there was any sort of ideological systems by some of the black community. Damon Clemow

“Letters should be in the form of signed individual columns, letters and artwork represent the opinions of their authors and are completely independent of this newspaper’s position. Unsigned editorial on this page represent the opinions of The Daily Pennsylvanian. Policy on Submissions

Letters to the Editor

SENIORS and GRADUATE students are cordially invited to join

Oliver, Wyman & Company

at our Presentation and Reception

TODAY

Steinberg Hall - Dietrich Hall
Room 351
4:45pm to 6:45pm

Oliver, Wyman & Company

Strategy Consultants to the Financial Services Industry

666 Fifth Ave • New York • NY 10103 • (212) 541-8100 • fax (212) 541-8957

London • Madrid • New York • Paris • Toronto
Amtrak crash may be terrorist attack

Note discovered at scene refers to deadly attack at Waco

Today

SUNGAIPENUH, Indonesia Pinned beneath a wooden beam, the farmer drifted in and out of consciousness. He had broken his head and was almost too weak to speak. He was found on a beach with his wife, who was dead. He had been pulled from the rubble since an earthquake early Saturday tore through this remote valley on Indonesia's Sumatra Island, killing more than 100 people and injuring thousands.

Bachtiar said he was behind the house of a friend when the earthquake struck. He told his friend that his head was bleeding, but his friend said it wasn't. Bachtiar's thigh was smashed, dirt blooded his clothes, and he was too weak to speak.

But as he sat, the other survivor found in the rubble told him to pray to God. bachtiar looked through the rubble and saw his wife. He was told to pray to God just before he was washed away by the waves and hammering yesterday, but had no time to call out for help.

Last of Tory blue bloods dies at 92

LONDON — Lord Home, the last of the blue bloods, has died. He was 92. home died at St. Mary's, his Isle of Wight estate, yesterday at St. Mary's, his Isle of Wight estate.

He died surrounded by his family at Berwick Lodge, near London, yesterday. A spokesman for the family said he had been in poor health for some time.

The elder of the Tory blue bloods, he had served as foreign secretary and Commonwealth secretary of state for 11 years in the 1960s.

between home later recalled Prime Minister John Major said yesterday.

He died surrounded by his family at Berwick Lodge, near London, yesterday. A spokesman for the family said he had been in poor health for some time.

The elder of the Tory blue bloods, he had served as foreign secretary and Commonwealth secretary of state for 11 years in the 1960s.

Between home later recalled Prime Minister John Major said yesterday.

He died surrounded by his family at Berwick Lodge, near London, yesterday. A spokesman for the family said he had been in poor health for some time.

The elder of the Tory blue bloods, he had served as foreign secretary and Commonwealth secretary of state for 11 years in the 1960s.

Between home later recalled Prime Minister John Major said yesterday.

He died surrounded by his family at Berwick Lodge, near London, yesterday. A spokesman for the family said he had been in poor health for some time.

The elder of the Tory blue bloods, he had served as foreign secretary and Commonwealth secretary of state for 11 years in the 1960s.

Between home later recalled Prime Minister John Major said yesterday.

He died surrounded by his family at Berwick Lodge, near London, yesterday. A spokesman for the family said he had been in poor health for some time.
We don’t have a good space to throw a concert,” he said. “The Office of International Programs Information Meeting

GOT A NEWS TIP? CALL 898-6535 ANYTIME.

Office of International Programs
Information Meeting

PENN Abroad in...

Ireland

Come find out about PENN Abroad Program at Trinity College, University of Dublin

Call 898-6535 to register. Special Guest: Sarah Coyne—International Student Affairs, Trinity College

Room 27 Bennett Hall

For more information, contact a PENN Abroad Advisor in the Office of International Programs 898-6535 or visit the World Wide Web: http://pennabroad.colorado.org

Thinking about a Private School Career?
DON’T MISS...

THE PRIVATE SCHOOL
TEACHING SEMINAR

The panel will include administrators and teachers from several private schools including Friends Select and Westtown School

Wednesday, October 18, 1995  •  4:00-5:30 p.m.

Houston Hall, Ben Franklin Room

For more information call 898-4381

General Information Meeting
Wednesday, October 11 at 3:00 pm

Room 201, Bennett Hall

Invited Speakers: British Thouron Scholars Currently Pursuing Graduate Study at Penn

Applications and further information now available at:
The Office of International Programs
133 Bennett Hall  •  898-4661

Application Deadline: November 14, 1995

THE THOURON AWARD for Graduate Study
in the United Kingdom

The Thouron-University of Pennsylvania Fund for British-American Student Exchange invites applications for fully funded degree study in the United Kingdom. Awards are for one or two years depending on the length of the program.

Penn seniors, graduate and professional students, and recent graduates are eligible to apply for these Awards. You must be single, a US citizen, have a good academic record and a full complement of extra-curricular activities and interests.

The Thouron Award provides complete funding, including tuition and stipend.

General Information Meeting
Wednesday, October 11 at 3:30 pm

Room 201, Bennett Hall

Invited Speakers: British Thouron Scholars Currently Pursuing Graduate Study at Penn

Applications and further information now available at:
The Office of International Programs
133 Bennett Hall  •  898-4661

Application Deadline: November 14, 1995

GLEACHER & CO.

• A NEW YORK BASED MERGERS & ACQUISITIONS ADVISORY AND MERCHANT BANKING BOUTIQUE FORMED IN 1990 BY ERIC J. GLEACHER, FORMER HEAD OF WORLDWIDE MERGERS & ACQUISITIONS AT MORGAN STANLEY AND FOUNDER OF THE LEHMAN BROTHERS M&A DEPARTMENT.

• A UNIQUE GLOBAL PARTNERSHIP WITH DEUTSCHE BANK AND MORGAN GRENFELL.

JOIN US FOR AN INFORMATION SESSION
DESCRIBING OPPORTUNITIES
WITH OUR FIRM.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 10TH
STEBERG—DIETRICH HALL 107
5:00 – 6:00PM

Eyeglass Encounters
Dr. Chris Annas, Optometrist

25% Off
Designer Frames
Expires 11/30/95

50% Off
Prescription Lenses
when purchased w/frame
(offer good up to $50)
Expires 11/30/95

20% Off
most non-prescription
Designer Sunglasses in stock.
Expires 11/30/95

Free Eye Exam
- with purchase of Complete Eyeglasses
- Minimum purchase $69.95

Bausch and Lomb Optima
Daily or Extended Wear
Soft Lenses
$89.99

Up to -6.0
Includes: Use Exam and Fitting, Starter Kit and Follow-ups.
Expires 11/30/95

3419 Walnut Street  •  (215) 386 - 5953

NOW, I can really see the difference!
#1 Benjamin Kinney
When I walked onto campus for the first time last April, I knew that I wanted to be a part of the University of Pennsylvania community. I knew that I wanted to be a part of this incredible institution where everyone has the chance to succeed and thrive. At first, I thought about how I wanted to contribute to this atmosphere. I began to investigate the Undergraduate Assembly. To me, this is an opportunity to help mold me. As an individual, helping to mold me. Is a person By voting for Ben Kinney, you are giving...

UA POLLING LOCATIONS

Tuesday, October 10, 1995 from 11 – 7 at the following locations:

- Hill House Dining Quadrangle (between Stouffer and the Quad)
- King's Court/English House
- Quadrangle (between Stouffer and the Quad)

UA Polling Station

Tuesday, October 10, 1995 from 11 – 7 at the following locations:

- Hill House Dining Quadrangle (between Stouffer and the Quad)

#30 Sarah Grait

I don't believe in not talking to strangers. I'm interested in meeting people from different places, especially international students and the Penn community. I believe in understanding others and helping them understand me. I am a Penn senior, a member of the Undergraduate Assembly (UA), and a member of the office of student life. I believe in advocating for the needs of students and the greater Penn community. I believe in the importance of diversity and inclusion, and I am committed to creating a welcoming and inclusive environment for all Penn students. I am also a member of the Pennsylvania Statewide Student Government. I believe in the power of collective action and the importance of working together to make Penn a better place.

#31 John McCarty

My name is John McCarty and I am running for the Undergraduate Assembly for the class of 1999. I am a Penn sophomore and I have been involved in student government for the past two years. I have served in a variety of roles, including as a member of the Freshman Class Council, an intern for the Vice President of Student Affairs, and as an alternate representative to the Central Student Government. I have also been involved in various extracurricular activities, including as a member of the Penn Quakers men's tennis team.

#32 Caith Kushner

For all you who have had it with Stouffer! Have you? For $30,000. I think we deserve better. My name is Caith Kushner and I am running for a position on the Undergraduate Assembly.

#33 Shahkira Douglas

My name is Shahkira Douglas and I am running for a position on the Undergraduate Assembly. I am a Penn senior and I have been involved in student government for the past two years. I have served as a member of the Freshman Class Council, an intern for the Vice President of Student Affairs, and as an alternate representative to the Central Student Government. I have also been involved in various extracurricular activities, including as a member of the Penn Quakers women's tennis team.

#34 Nadia Dowshen

Vote Nadia Dowshen for UA! You want to have your voice heard in the Penn community. Please remember to vote October 10 and 11. Please vote for me. I am a Penn senior and I have been involved in student government for the past two years. I have served as a member of the Freshman Class Council, an intern for the Vice President of Student Affairs, and as an alternate representative to the Central Student Government. I have also been involved in various extracurricular activities, including as a member of the Penn Quakers women's tennis team.
Gay alum urges tolerance of homosexuality

By Tammy Raich
The Daily Pennsylvanian

Kicking off a week-long celebration of National Coming Out Day, University alumnus and Vermont State Auditor Ed Flanagan — the only openly gay elected state official in the United States — encouraged students to be responsive and proactive to prejudices regarding homosexuality.

Addressing an audience of more than 30 students and faculty last night, Flanagan explained that when he was a student at the University in the early '70s, the campus was "very closed and very homophbic."

"In terms of my personal life, while I really did enjoy Penn, I was unhappy and was forced to hide a double life," he said. "I couldn't be candid and honest."

At the University, Flanagan was an All-Conference and All-East football star, a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity and the only gay member of the group. The 1973 graduate "came out" with regard to his homosexuality only this past August.

Flanagan said he has observed a significant increase in tolerance since his days as a student.

"My impression is there's been a marked improvement," he said. "It's very impressive that this celebration would happen in a university setting where there still exist a heavy burden of bigotry which must be combated."

Flanagan's speech also focused on the political aspects of integrating social and private lives.

According to Flanagan, homosexuals are part of not only the gay, lesbian and bisexual community, but also personal, cultural and political realms.

Flanagan argued that the mission of the government is often misunderstood.

"Many people think we're trying to snatch a certain set of rights, but we're just trying to grab back what is inherently ours and all Americans'," Flanagan said.

Most students attending the talk said they found Flanagan's rhetoric inspiring and applicable.

"I really did enjoy Penn, I was unhappy there, but I couldn't be candid and honest," said College junior and exchange student Yasushi Komatsu attended Flanagan's talk to familiarize himself with the histories of gay men. "I think myself and others toward issues like this."

And Wharton junior Steven Chiong said he considers Flanagan a personal role model.

"He impressed me as a role model for those gay individuals who want to get involved in politics," Chiong said. "I want to get involved not just because there are few Asians in government, but because there are few gay individuals."

This year marks the most extensive celebration of National Coming Out Day, which is officially tomorrow.

"National Coming Out Day has been observed here, but this is a much larger scale celebration," said College senior Anson Chiong, who attended the Program for the Lesbian, Gay and Bisexual Community at Penn.

According to College senior Anson Chiong, one of three leaders of the LGBA, the week-long celebration will target new students on campus.

"There's a whole new crew of people here, looking for what is acceptable and unacceptable behavior," he said. "They're newer, younger and therefore more tolerant of this discrimination."

Other events this week include a talk by lesbian novelist Patricia Neill Smith, and a meeting with Bono and Cher, and a demonstration on College Green tomorrow.
V-Ball tries to secure a top tourney seed

REVENGE from Back Page

"We have to teach (the freshmen) the importance of being a good communicator and a company player," said Feeney. "We need to concentrate on unforced errors," Feeney said. "We also have to teach (the freshmen) how to take individual responsibility." The match gains importance because of its role in determining the seeds for the Ivy league tournament. Because of Penn’s loss to Yale, the Quakers have to win tonight if they are to have an opportunity of gaining the first or second seed.

"There is a lot of parity this year in the league," Feeney said. "The teams in the middle will have a lot of influence in determining the seeds for the league." Tonight's match could easily be a preview of the tournament finale.

Mr. Tennis wins twice war, a 5, 7-6 (2) victory against Steve Thomas. "He's come on so well as a singles player and as far as doubles is concerned he is one of the best in the league," Miller said.

Miller blamed some of the loss on the "poor setting of the courts." The ECACs from Back Page were on the courts from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. in Saturday. In addition, the team was scheduled for three hours at a time before playing a match. "In addition, the field was on the courts from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday." In the end, the price paid for error will be to small if the Red and Blue are to stay in the match. "We need to concentrate on unforced errors," Feeney said. "We also have to teach (the freshmen) how to take individual responsibility." The match gains importance because of its role in determining the seeds for the Ivy league tournament. Because of Penn's loss to Yale, the Quakers have to win tonight if they are to have an opportunity of gaining the first or second seed.

"There is a lot of parity this year in the league," Feeney said. "The teams in the middle will have a lot of influence in determining the seeds for the league." Tonight's match could easily be a preview of the tournament finale.

"We need to concentrate on unforced errors," Feeney said. "We also have to teach (the freshmen) how to take individual responsibility." The match gains importance because of its role in determining the seeds for the Ivy league tournament. Because of Penn’s loss to Yale, the Quakers have to win tonight if they are to have an opportunity of gaining the first or second seed.
Dexter's not his usual self.

You suspect the salsa.

So you call Dr. Nusblatt, your family vet back home.

The call is cheap.

(Too bad about the consultation fee.)

Live off campus? Sign up for AT&T True Reach Savings™ and save 25% no matter who, how, when or where you call in the U.S.

Life can be complicated. AT&T True Reach Savings™ is simple. Save 25% on every kind of call on your AT&T phone bill—direct dial, calling card, directory assistance, local toll, cellular, fax and modem—when you spend just $25 a month. No other plan gives you all these different ways to save.*

Just call 1-800-TRUE-ATT to sign up. Save on every call. That's Your True Choice™.
Lightweights improve, rout Princeton 34-6
By Craig Peppe
The Daily Pennsylvanian

Whenever the Princeton Tigers have visited the Penn Quakers in any sort of football competition of late, it has been Penn Quakers who have been victorious. On Friday night in a nonconference game against the Tigers, the Quakers were victorious once again, 34-6. The only question that the Princeton Tigers, as the team remained highly enthusiastic from beginning to end.

Capping off a two-week layoff, the Quakers were well-coached and well-prepared. "Basically, it all came down to execution," captain Rob Alwine said. But on Friday night we simply made the plays," captain Bob Abele said. The Quakers took it to the porous Tigers defense early, running out to a 10-0 halftime lead and then exploding for 24 more second half points. "It was a great team win," Penn defensive lineman Ryan Neelsen said. "We are all very happy with our performance. We set out to prove that we were a better team than the one we showed up at Cornell, and we feel that we did." "We were just a stronger, faster, and smarter team than they were," Diller said.

The philosophy of not looking past the Princeton Tigers did not fool the Quakers well, but now it is time to prepare for the next opponent. Army. "It was a great team win," Penn head coach Ray Street said. "We are all very happy with our performance. We set out to prove that we were a better team than the one we showed up at Cornell, and we feel that we did." "We were just a stronger, faster, and smarter team than they were," Diller said.

"It was a great team win," Penn offensive lineman Ryan Neelsen said. "We are all very happy with our performance. We set out to prove that we were a better team than the one we showed up at Cornell, and we feel that we did." "We were just a stronger, faster, and smarter team than they were," Diller said.

The philosophy of not looking past Princeton toward Army suited the Quakers well, but now it is time to think about the "Anthracite Bowl," before turning their focus toward Army.

Lightweights improve, rout Princeton 34-6
By Craig Peppe
The Daily Pennsylvanian

FANS SPEAK OUT:
You, as Penn sports fans, now have a chance to voice your opinion in our fine offices.

This week's question:
This week's question:

Interviewing Workshop for CAS Students
Tuesday, October 10, 3:30-5:00
OCRIS Meeting Room, McNeil Building
Due to space limitations sign-up is required
Sign up at the CAS desk in CPPS
M. Soccer, Hawks know each other well
By Anu Balakrishna
Hey kids, it's Soccer Seven time again.

Today, the Penn men's soccer team goes into action as its health across town to face the St. Joseph's Hawks. With half of the Soccer Seven complete, St. Joe's and the Quakers could face off in the first crown since 1993.

The Quakers enter an eli-

ment of NCAA Division I programs in the Philadelphia

basketball's Big 5. Penn has been a member of this league and the team since 1977, but is the only team ever to win the league title.

There are only six grades on the line, with those players who have been in on this. The last year, just put one in the game.

I think the momentum, but they just put one in the game.

Hoggs said

"We outplayed them, we had opportunities," sophomore midfielder Consistent," sophomore midfielder Anu Balakrishna.

Hey kids, it's Soccer Seven time again.

Today, the Penn men's soccer team goes into action as its health across town to face the St. Joseph's Hawks. With half of the Soccer Seven complete, St. Joe's and the Quakers could face off in the first crown since 1993.

The Quakers enter an eli-

ment of NCAA Division I programs in the Philadelphia

basketball's Big 5. Penn has been a member of this league and the team since 1977, but is the only team ever to win the league title.

There are only six grades on the line, with those players who have been in on this. The last year, just put one in the game.

I think the momentum, but they just put one in the game.

Hoggs said

"We outplayed them, we had opportunities," sophomore midfielder Anu Balakrishna.

Hey kids, it's Soccer Seven time again.

Today, the Penn men's soccer team goes into action as its health across town to face the St. Joseph's Hawks. With half of the Soccer Seven complete, St. Joe's and the Quakers could face off in the first crown since 1993.

The Quakers enter an eli-

ment of NCAA Division I programs in the Philadelphia

basketball's Big 5. Penn has been a member of this league and the team since 1977, but is the only team ever to win the league title.

There are only six grades on the line, with those players who have been in on this. The last year, just put one in the game.

I think the momentum, but they just put one in the game.

Hoggs said

"We outplayed them, we had opportunities," sophomore midfielder Anu Balakrishna.

Hey kids, it's Soccer Seven time again.

Today, the Penn men's soccer team goes into action as its health across town to face the St. Joseph's Hawks. With half of the Soccer Seven complete, St. Joe's and the Quakers could face off in the first crown since 1993.

The Quakers enter an eli-

ment of NCAA Division I programs in the Philadelphia

basketball's Big 5. Penn has been a member of this league and the team since 1977, but is the only team ever to win the league title.

There are only six grades on the line, with those players who have been in on this. The last year, just put one in the game.

I think the momentum, but they just put one in the game.

Hoggs said

"We outplayed them, we had opportunities," sophomore midfielder Anu Balakrishna.
SPORTS WIRE

K.C. wins in Vanaver-time
Lemieux scores twice in tie; Webber signs

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Steve Bono hit his first base hit for a single and Tamarick авияaro the best time to run. Now the Kansas City Royals are in the playoffs.

GTA II — The first time they faced the Seattle Mariners, the Kansas City Royals had a chance to win the game with a run. Instead, they scored twice in the ninth inning to take the lead for good, and held on for a 2-0 victory over the Rays.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES

AL PubMed

DAYS Wleness in the Associ cation. There are 200 players in the league, ranging from youth to college seniors. The teams play home-and-home series, and the season runs from late September to early November.

BON game in Vanaver-time
Lemieux scores twice in tie; Webber signs

In the Kansas City Royals, Tamarick авияaro the best time to run. Now the Kansas City Royals are in the playoffs.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Steve Bono hit his first base hit for a single and Tamarick авияaro the best time to run. Now the Kansas City Royals are in the playoffs.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES

AL PubMed

BON game in Vanaver-time
Lemieux scores twice in tie; Webber signs

In the Kansas City Royals, Tamarick авияaro the best time to run. Now the Kansas City Royals are in the playoffs.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Steve Bono hit his first base hit for a single and Tamarick авияaro the best time to run. Now the Kansas City Royals are in the playoffs.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES

AL PubMed

BON game in Vanaver-time
Lemieux scores twice in tie; Webber signs

In the Kansas City Royals, Tamarick авияaro the best time to run. Now the Kansas City Royals are in the playoffs.
Penn tennis teams come up aces over the weekend

Women pass toughest test so far versus Mountainaires

By Frank London

The Ivy women posted a 6-2 victory over Columbia in the first round of the 1995 Ivy League tournament.

The Tigers were led by junior Michelle Belsley, who was struck by a car after the race.

The Quakers will race again on the same Lehigh course tomorrow.

The women’s cross country team topped the Ivy League in the season-ending ECACs in Princeton, N.J.

The men’s team, seeded fourth, started well and pulled out some really key victories.

Penn, ranked 12th in the nation, is set to host Princeton, ranked 15th.

Penn men’s tennis team started the season with a 4-2 victory over Columbia.

The men’s team continued its success with a 4-2 victory over Columbia.

The Ivy women posted a 6-2 victory over Columbia in the first round of the 1995 Ivy League tournament.

The Ivy League had come a long way in the 1990s, but Columbia followed right behind.

The women’s cross country team topped the Ivy League in the season-ending ECACs in Princeton, N.J.

The men’s team, seeded fourth, started well and pulled out some really key victories.

Penn, ranked 12th in the nation, is set to host Princeton, ranked 15th.

The Ivy League had come a long way in the 1990s, but Columbia followed right behind.

The women’s cross country team topped the Ivy League in the season-ending ECACs in Princeton, N.J.

The men’s team, seeded fourth, started well and pulled out some really key victories.

Penn, ranked 12th in the nation, is set to host Princeton, ranked 15th.

The Ivy League had come a long way in the 1990s, but Columbia followed right behind.

The women’s cross country team topped the Ivy League in the season-ending ECACs in Princeton, N.J.

The men’s team, seeded fourth, started well and pulled out some really key victories.

Penn, ranked 12th in the nation, is set to host Princeton, ranked 15th.

The Ivy League had come a long way in the 1990s, but Columbia followed right behind.

The women’s cross country team topped the Ivy League in the season-ending ECACs in Princeton, N.J.

The men’s team, seeded fourth, started well and pulled out some really key victories.