To the Editor:

I am writing to express my concern regarding the recent incident that occurred on the University of Pennsylvania campus. As a member of the Undergraduate Assembly (UA), I feel compelled to address this issue publicly.

The incident in question involved a student who was sexually harassed by an individual near Superblock. TheUA has an obligation to ensure the safety and well-being of all its members, and I believe that this incident highlights the need for greater vigilance in addressing such issues.

In my role as the Undergraduate Assembly Vice President, I have been working closely with the University's Victim Support Office and other relevant stakeholders to address this matter. We have launched an investigation into the incident, and I want to assure all students that we will take appropriate action to prevent such occurrences in the future.

Please join me in supporting efforts to create a safer campus environment for all. Together, we can work towards a more inclusive and supportive community.

Yours sincerely,

[Signature]

Chairperson
Undergraduate Assembly
Man harasses several female students

Before the incident, the student said she never carried any kind of defense weapon, but now she carries a pepper spray at all times in case she is ever attacked again. “I felt like I had nowhere to run,” she said. "I felt like I had nowhere to hide."

The student was on her way to class when she encountered the suspect. She said that the man followed her for about half a block. He also told her that she "should have seen it coming," she said. "I felt like I had nowhere to go."

The student said that she did not know the suspect personally, but that she had seen him before. "I thought he looked familiar," she said. "I thought he looked like someone I knew."

She added that she was grateful that she was able to get away unharmed. "I was just so relieved that I was able to escape unscathed," she said. "I was just so grateful that I was able to get away from him."

Police are still searching for the suspect and are asking for anyone who may have information about the incident to come forward. Anyone with information is encouraged to call the university police at 215-898-6581.

One of the most pressing questions from the audience concerned the security measures that the university is taking to prevent future incidents. The police said that they are taking several steps, including increasing the number of officers on campus and improving emergency communication systems.

The police also emphasized the importance of students being aware of their surroundings and taking precautions when necessary. "We want to make sure that students are aware of their surroundings and take precautions when necessary," the police said. "We want to make sure that students are aware of their surroundings and take precautions when necessary."
Party breaks down walls, encourages unity

By Joshua Sherman
The Daily Pennsylvania

More than 40 students partied with the Interfraternity Council, Panhellenic Council and D.C. Cultural Network last night at the Pennsylvanian as part of the university’s first ever “Breaking Down the Wall” parties.

The event, which was held in the Armstrong ballroom and was free for all students, was highlighted by a performance by the band Tuxes and music from the Jockey Rock Line.

The four organizations planned the event to promote multiculturalism, diversity and unity. According to IFC Judicial Manager and party Co-ordinator Jacob Gitelis, “For a non-alcoholic event on a Thursday night, we’re excited about the way it turned out.”

He explained that the IFC, Panhellenic and Big C approached SPEC last spring with the idea of bringing together students from a variety of ethnic, cultural and social backgrounds to promote multiculturalism on campus.

The Interfraternity Council agreed to fund the event. “We wanted to break down the walls of stereotypical differences and open our accepting atmospheres,” Getelis said.

“Our goal is to promote a multicultural social environment that will be non-alcoholic, fun, and welcoming,” he said.

“Breaking Down the Wall” reflects that theme,” he added. Big C President, Tricia Bridges said she views racism as a major problem at the University. “We wanted to break down the walls of stereotypes and encourage students from different backgrounds in a relaxed, social environment,” she said.

“Unfortunately, some of the University’s attempts to combat racism are not always insightful,” Bridges added.

“Not everyone is aware of the events going on,” she said. “There are a lot more underdeveloped students. They need to be aware that there is hope when it comes to racism.”

College junior and IFC President Nate Kohne explained that the University attempts to combat racism, but students are not aware of the events going on.

“The Greek system is all encompassing,” Kohne said.

“Everyone in the tournament knew Zielensky had the best timing.”

College sophomore Lily Copeland, who attended the event, said the making was not only fun but educational.

“Not only did she write well, but she made incredibly well.”

“Everyone involved in the tournament knew that Zielensky had the best timing.”

College sophomore Lily Copeland, who attended the event, said the making was not only fun but educational.

“Everyone in the tournament knew Zielensky had the best timing.”

College sophomore Lily Copeland, who attended the event, said the making was not only fun but educational.

“Not only did she write well, but she made incredibly well.”

“Everyone involved in the tournament knew that Zielensky had the best timing.”

College sophomore Lily Copeland, who attended the event, said the making was not only fun but educational.

“Everyone brought the different groups together, and had a good time.”

She said last night’s event lasted from 9.30 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Student plays in ‘Jeopardy!’ tournament

“Jeopardy!” has been a part of the history of many students who watch the show. Many students try to make their own version of the show when they are not watching the show on television.

Student playing in a “Jeopardy!” tournament at Lawrence College and Columbia University was introduced by David Leen. Corey, a writing student at the University.

“The four organizations planned the event to promote multiculturalism, diversity and unity. According to IFC Judicial Manager and party Co-ordinator Jacob Gitelis, “For a non-alcoholic event on a Thursday night, we’re excited about the way it turned out.”

He explained that the IFC, Panhellenic and Big C approached SPEC last spring with the idea of bringing together students from a variety of ethnic, cultural and social backgrounds to promote multiculturalism on campus.

The Interfraternity Council agreed to fund the event. “We wanted to break down the walls of stereotypical differences and open our accepting atmospheres,” Getelis said.

“Our goal is to promote a multicultural social environment that will be non-alcoholic, fun, and welcoming,” he said.

“Breaking Down the Wall” reflects that theme,” he added. Big C President, Tricia Bridges said she views racism as a major problem at the University. “We wanted to break down the walls of stereotypes and encourage students from different backgrounds in a relaxed, social environment,” she said.

“Unfortunately, some of the University’s attempts to combat racism are not always insightful,” Bridges added.

“Not everyone is aware of the events going on,” she said. “There are a lot more underdeveloped students. They need to be aware that there is hope when it comes to racism.”

College junior and IFC President Nate Kohne explained that the University attempts to combat racism, but students are not aware of the events going on.

“The Greek system is all encompassing,” Kohne said.

“Everyone in the tournament knew Zielensky had the best timing.”

College sophomore Lily Copeland, who attended the event, said the making was not only fun but educational.

“Not only did she write well, but she made incredibly well.”

“Everyone involved in the tournament knew that Zielensky had the best timing.”

College sophomore Lily Copeland, who attended the event, said the making was not only fun but educational.

“Everyone brought the different groups together, and had a good time.”

She said last night’s event lasted from 9.30 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Student playing in a “Jeopardy!” tournament at Lawrence College and Columbia University was introduced by David Leen. Corey, a writing student at the University.

“The four organizations planned the event to promote multiculturalism, diversity and unity. According to IFC Judicial Manager and party Co-ordinator Jacob Gitelis, “For a non-alcoholic event on a Thursday night, we’re excited about the way it turned out.”

He explained that the IFC, Panhellenic and Big C approached SPEC last spring with the idea of bringing together students from a variety of ethnic, cultural and social backgrounds to promote multiculturalism on campus.

The Interfraternity Council agreed to fund the event. “We wanted to break down the walls of stereotypical differences and open our accepting atmospheres,” Getelis said.

“Our goal is to promote a multicultural social environment that will be non-alcoholic, fun, and welcoming,” he said.

“Breaking Down the Wall” reflects that theme,” he added. Big C President, Tricia Bridges said she views racism as a major problem at the University. “We wanted to break down the walls of stereotypes and encourage students from different backgrounds in a relaxed, social environment,” she said.

“Unfortunately, some of the University’s attempts to combat racism are not always insightful,” Bridges added.

“Not everyone is aware of the events going on,” she said. “There are a lot more underdeveloped students. They need to be aware that there is hope when it comes to racism.”

College junior and IFC President Nate Kohne explained that the University attempts to combat racism, but students are not aware of the events going on.

“The Greek system is all encompassing,” Kohne said.

“Everyone in the tournament knew Zielensky had the best timing.”

College sophomore Lily Copeland, who attended the event, said the making was not only fun but educational.

“Not only did she write well, but she made incredibly well.”

“Everyone involved in the tournament knew that Zielensky had the best timing.”

College sophomore Lily Copeland, who attended the event, said the making was not only fun but educational.

“Everyone brought the different groups together, and had a good time.”

She said last night’s event lasted from 9.30 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Student playing in a “Jeopardy!” tournament at Lawrence College and Columbia University was introduced by David Leen. Corey, a writing student at the University.

“The four organizations planned the event to promote multiculturalism, diversity and unity. According to IFC Judicial Manager and party Co-ordinator Jacob Gitelis, “For a non-alcoholic event on a Thursday night, we’re excited about the way it turned out.”

He explained that the IFC, Panhellenic and Big C approached SPEC last spring with the idea of bringing together students from a variety of ethnic, cultural and social backgrounds to promote multiculturalism on campus.

The Interfraternity Council agreed to fund the event. “We wanted to break down the walls of stereotypical differences and open our accepting atmospheres,” Getelis said.

“Our goal is to promote a multicultural social environment that will be non-alcoholic, fun, and welcoming,” he said.

“Breaking Down the Wall” reflects that theme,” he added. Big C President, Tricia Bridges said she views racism as a major problem at the University. “We wanted to break down the walls of stereotypes and encourage students from different backgrounds in a relaxed, social environment,” she said.

“Unfortunately, some of the University’s attempts to combat racism are not always insightful,” Bridges added.

“Not everyone is aware of the events going on,” she said. “There are a lot more underdeveloped students. They need to be aware that there is hope when it comes to racism.”

College junior and IFC President Nate Kohne explained that the University attempts to combat racism, but students are not aware of the events going on.

“The Greek system is all encompassing,” Kohne said.

“Everyone in the tournament knew Zielensky had the best timing.”

College sophomore Lily Copeland, who attended the event, said the making was not only fun but educational.

“Not only did she write well, but she made incredibly well.”

“Everyone involved in the tournament knew that Zielensky had the best timing.”

College sophomore Lily Copeland, who attended the event, said the making was not only fun but educational.

“Everyone brought the different groups together, and had a good time.”

She said last night’s event lasted from 9.30 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Student playing in a “Jeopardy!” tournament at Lawrence College and Columbia University was introduced by David Leen. Corey, a writing student at the University.

“The four organizations planned the event to promote multiculturalism, diversity and unity. According to IFC Judicial Manager and party Co-ordinator Jacob Gitelis, “For a non-alcoholic event on a Thursday night, we’re excited about the way it turned out.”

He explained that the IFC, Panhellenic and Big C approached SPEC last spring with the idea of bringing together students from a variety of ethnic, cultural and social backgrounds to promote multiculturalism on campus.

The Interfraternity Council agreed to fund the event. “We wanted to break down the walls of stereotypical differences and open our accepting atmospheres,” Getelis said.

“Our goal is to promote a multicultural social environment that will be non-alcoholic, fun, and welcoming,” he said.

“Breaking Down the Wall” reflects that theme,” he added. Big C President, Tricia Bridges said she views racism as a major problem at the University. “We wanted to break down the walls of stereotypes and encourage students from different backgrounds in a relaxed, social environment,” she said.

“Unfortunately, some of the University’s attempts to combat racism are not always insightful,” Bridges added.

“Not everyone is aware of the events going on,” she said. “There are a lot more underdeveloped students. They need to be aware that there is hope when it comes to racism.”

College junior and IFC President Nate Kohne explained that the University attempts to combat racism, but students are not aware of the events going on.

“The Greek system is all encompassing,” Kohne said.

“Everyone in the tournament knew Zielensky had the best timing.”

College sophomore Lily Copeland, who attended the event, said the making was not only fun but educational.

“Not only did she write well, but she made incredibly well.”

“Everyone involved in the tournament knew that Zielensky had the best timing.”

College sophomore Lily Copeland, who attended the event, said the making was not only fun but educational.

“Everyone brought the different groups together, and had a good time.”

She said last night’s event lasted from 9.30 p.m. until 1 a.m.
Talk radio host saves home for the blind

By Brett Levine
Daily Pennsylvanian

An 11th-hour decision has saved the oldest home for the blind in America from closing after 127 years of operation.

The Edward R. Rudolph Residence for the Blind is a 52-bed facility under financial pressure. The IAA had planned to close and sell the property this year. But now Rudolph will remain open. According to the IAA, the $120,000 cost of the sale would have closed the facility.

Edward R. Rudolph was a philanthropist who left a bequest to the University of Pennsylvania to erect a residence for the blind. This was the very first step in creating a support system for the disabled.

The residence was founded in 1887, and is the oldest home for the blind in America. It has a long and illustrious history, including the famous 1969 blackout, when the residence was called upon to care for elderly and disabled people stranded without power.

A new $120,000 loan was secured by the IAA to save the residence. The loan is secured by a pledge of $120,000 worth of property to the University of Pennsylvania. The residence will now be able to operate for another five years.

The residence is located at 4101 Powelton Ave., Philadelphia. It is a 52-bed facility providing services for the blind.

The residence is operated by the University of Pennsylvania Division of University Housing. It is a private, non-profit organization dedicated to providing a safe and comfortable home for blind and visually impaired individuals.
the program, officials learned that many of the schools participating in the program were “consortia” schools—those acting jointly to address the same problems. The University is currently reviewing other opportunities within the program, Claus said.

The regulations from which the Secretary derived the list are in a direct lending program, in which the federal government provides funds directly to schools on the Department of Education’s list of eligible schools and students while cutting red tape. "We are improving our processes or reduce inconvenience to students."

According to Morse, many of the schools on the Department of Education’s list are in a direct lending program in which the federal government provides funds directly to the colleges and universities. "We have a favorable set of relations with the state agency in Pennsylvania that guarantees loans so it’s not in our interest to do that," Morse added.

Stephen Ulick said the University did apply to the University since it made no interest to do that," Morse added. And Vice President for Finance and Administration Assistant Vice President for Policy Planning David Morse noted that if the University did apply, its request would probably be accepted. "We do have a pretty good track record in terms of an extremely low default rate on student loans," he said.

According to Morse, many of the schools participating in the program were “consortia” schools—those acting jointly to address the same problems. The University is currently reviewing other opportunities within the program, Claus said. Claus said. "Eliminating the required procedure could improve our processes or reduce inconvenience to students."

Happy Friday to all of our readers!

---

ATTENTION FRESHMEN

IFC OPEN HOUSES/BARBECUES

This weekend the IFC will sponsor two days of showcasing our fraternities. The open houses will provide an excellent opportunity to become more familiar with the Penn Greek system, to see the chapter houses, and to meet individual brothers. All freshmen are invited to attend.

Chapters will host open houses on the following days:

Saturday Noon - 4pm
- ACACIA
- Alpha Epsilon Pi
- Beta Theta Pi
- Delta Kappa Epsilon
- Delta Tau Delta
- Delta Upsilon
- Lambda Phi Epsilon
- Phi Kappa Psi
- Pi Kappa Phi
- Pi Lambda Phi
- Sigma Alpha Epsilon
- Sigma Alpha Mu
- Sigma Nu
- Sigma Phi Epsilon
- Tau Epsilon Phi

Sunday Noon - 4pm
- Alpha Chi Rho
- Alpha Tau Omega
- Delta Phi (St. Elmo’s)
- Delta Psi (St. As)
- Kappa Sigma
- KA Society
- Phi Delta Theta
- Phi Gamma Delta
- Phi Sigma Kappa
- Sigma Chi
- Zeta Beta Tau
- Zeta Psi

Additionally, all freshmen must sign-up with the IFC in order to participate in Spring Rush. The final opportunity to sign-up will be this Sunday, 12-2, 37th & Locust. The registration fee is $5.
Life After Penn

I hear the clock ticking. No, it’s not the sound of my Ragg Fishy wrist watch. It’s not my biological clock either. It’s also not the digital clock I’ve had since Penn. It’s a clock I’ve been winding up since the day I went to Penn and got my first job. It’s the Big 80’s on Prozac. It’s the state of this world.

I only come home in small doses. Two or three days a week. It’s the only home I’ve ever known. I have avoided home for a while now. Too many memories. Too many ghosts. Too much pain. I have nothing but total relief in leaving. And I still feel a sense of ownership of this place. Of this city. Of myself.

I have avoided home for a while now. Too many memories. Too many ghosts. Too much pain. I have nothing but total relief in leaving. And I still feel a sense of ownership of this place. Of this city. Of myself.

I have avoided home for a while now. Too many memories. Too many ghosts. Too much pain. I have nothing but total relief in leaving. And I still feel a sense of ownership of this place. Of this city. Of myself.

I have avoided home for a while now. Too many memories. Too many ghosts. Too much pain. I have nothing but total relief in leaving. And I still feel a sense of ownership of this place. Of this city. Of myself.

I have avoided home for a while now. Too many memories. Too many ghosts. Too much pain. I have nothing but total relief in leaving. And I still feel a sense of ownership of this place. Of this city. Of myself.
What is Ebert Trying to Hide?

To the Editor:

Steve Ebert has a lot of nerve in "Absolute Power Corrupts Absolutely." [DP] 10/27/95.

There are few the Undergraduate Assembly is assembling on such groups that take advantage of the system and it legally spend student money. The IAA, of which Ebert is the director general, is one of the first groups to have been audited because of its large budget. Immediately after the announcement of the audit, Ebert decided to write the DP to tell them that he overheard the Chairperson of the UA, Lance Rogers, make an anti-Semitic remark to his Jewish friends at dinner.

Yeah, right.

I wonder if Ebert is remembering asking Jim Moore if he had a chance to be elected for president of the Yadd, Hill's political organization. How many candidates for office in Hillel do you think are Jewish?

The reasons that Ebert tried to hide are:

1. We don't want things to be decided by a random selection of a few people.
2. We want to have a reasonable debate about who is the best candidate.
3. We want to ensure that all candidates are treated equally.

What is Ebert Trying to Hide?

Steve Ebert is the director general of the IAA. He is one of the first groups to be audited because of the large budget. Immediately after the announcement of the audit, Ebert decided to write the DP to tell them that he overheard the Chairperson of the UA, Lance Rogers, make an anti-Semitic remark to his Jewish friends at dinner.

Yeah, right.

I wonder if Ebert is remembering asking Jim Moore if he had a chance to be elected for president of the Yadd, Hill's political organization. How many candidates for office in Hillel do you think are Jewish?

The reasons that Ebert tried to hide are:

1. We don't want things to be decided by a random selection of a few people.
2. We want to have a reasonable debate about who is the best candidate.
3. We want to ensure that all candidates are treated equally.

What is Ebert Trying to Hide?

Steve Ebert is the director general of the IAA. He is one of the first groups to be audited because of the large budget. Immediately after the announcement of the audit, Ebert decided to write the DP to tell them that he overheard the Chairperson of the UA, Lance Rogers, make an anti-Semitic remark to his Jewish friends at dinner.

Yeah, right.

I wonder if Ebert is remembering asking Jim Moore if he had a chance to be elected for president of the Yadd, Hill's political organization. How many candidates for office in Hillel do you think are Jewish?

The reasons that Ebert tried to hide are:

1. We don't want things to be decided by a random selection of a few people.
2. We want to have a reasonable debate about who is the best candidate.
3. We want to ensure that all candidates are treated equally.
Stock Markets
Hew Loc
COMEX
Close 517.47 Down 8.29

Stock Markets

International

Yeltsin in hospital for heart attack

WASHINGTON - President Boris Yeltsin was rushed to a hospital by helicopter yesterday with toxic shock syndrome and is in critical condition, raising wonders about whether he is healthy enough to govern. Apparent Yeltsin attack in four months, reviving hit with Yeltsin in hospital for heart attack in the former Yugoslavia to a last minute flip flop by the communists in a no-confidence vote in parliament on day thanks stained.

chance as premier mark and 27 lire to 1.590 against the dollar.

dangered butterflies, moths and beetles into the feds threw a net over him.

lecitors and museums throughout the United supplied thousands of Mexican butterflies to col igible for parole.

to serve at least 30 years in prison before she is el-

54, a fan of the grammy winning singer.

die of the street. Yeah! said Natividad Rodriguez, the year 2025

the feds threw a net over him.

“Earlier the Leonardo da Vinci equation was whispered to me. I was sufficiently aware that I was going to have to come up with $600,000 to get my $200,000,” he said.

The light is supposed to automati-

"You do not get a green light to make a hasty generalization.

July, spokesman for fiscally belt talented at White Kevin. "The president is in charge."

This is a tragedy that concerns everyone in Iceland," Hjarturson said. "We are such a small country, everyone's family.

I met him — buying a house," said Dacey; "I went to his office. Police were kept from Foster's office. Police were kept from

“I am a citizen of the United States, that I am a member of the United States armed forces and that I am the husband of the individual

"This is a tragedy that concerns everyone in Iceland," Hjarturson said. "We are such a small country, everyone's family.

The feds threw a net over him.

Council student David Marek juggles tennis rackets in front of the left outdoor tennis courts by the Peninsula yesterday afternoon.

Iceland avalanche kills 19

REYKJAVIK, Iceland — An avalanche of snow raced through a village in northwestern Iceland before dawn yesterday, killing 19 people and leaving Anders said last night that Yeltsin did not appear to be in danger. "If I die, my state is less serious than in July," Anders said.

"I'd say his state is less serious than in July," said Saldivar, who was wearing a white suit and sobbed upon hearing the guilty verdict.

"As the day gave way to evening, Senate Majority Leader George Mitchell said: "The people should understand that in Congress was stunned to learn that Yeltsin had been hospitalized and that he was being flown to Germany for heart surgery.

"I will probably still tell him not to bring the next generation," said House Minority Leader Dick Gephardt, D-Mo.

"Neither Randall nor his fiancee believed

"This is a time when you can scream in the middle of the street. Yeah! said Natividad Rodriguez

"This is a time when you can scream in the middle of the street. Yeah! said Natividad Rodriguez. Randall, 24, said the copulas of a pile of trash — he can't remember what they were used for.

"I am a citizen of the United States, that I am a member of the United States armed forces and that I am the husband of the individual

"I am a citizen of the United States, that I am a member of the United States armed forces and that I am the husband of the individual

"This is a time when you can scream in the middle of the street. Yeah! said Natividad Rodriguez. Randall, 24, said the copulas of a pile of trash — he can't remember what they were used for.

"This is a time when you can scream in the middle of the street. Yeah! said Natividad Rodriguez. Randall, 24, said the copulas of a pile of trash — he can’t remember what they were used for.

\[\text{Newspaper} \]
The Quakers were eliminated by Columbia on contest last weekend.

Penn's lightweight football team will face Cornell in its final game of the season. The Big Red will face the Quakers in a very strong.

The Crimson's fifth-best runner was an NCAA qualifier in the 1500-meter run earlier in the season, and most of those players are now back. And with the conference championships is less than two weeks away, Cornell will be looking for a chance at finishing among the Ivy League at the top.

But injuries and an inability to extend beyond this meet. Junior Nathan Taylor, performing well in the late-season meet, Nov. 11.

Both Abye and Bagnoli admitted they will be paying close attention to the BIG game against them next week would be a huge win.

Penn is in a one-game sudden-death playoff with Yale for the Head of the Schuylkill River last year, when the Bulldogs defeated Penn two weeks earlier.

The match at Columbia tonight will be a must-win for both teams. Both teams are in a must-win situation.

The men's soccer team hopes to build on a strong showing this week.

Penn's football team will face Cornell on Saturday.

The match at Columbia tonight will be a must-win for both teams. Both teams are in a must-win situation.

The Crimson's fifth-best runner was an NCAA qualifier in the 1500-meter run earlier in the season, and most of those players are now back. And with the conference championships is less than two weeks away, Cornell will be looking for a chance at finishing among the Ivy League at the top.

But injuries and an inability to extend beyond this meet. Junior Nathan Taylor, performing well in the late-season meet, Nov. 11.

Both Abye and Bagnoli admitted they will be paying close attention to the BIG game against them next week would be a huge win.

Penn is in a one-game sudden-death playoff with Yale for the Head of the Schuylkill River last year, when the Bulldogs defeated Penn two weeks earlier.

The match at Columbia tonight will be a must-win for both teams. Both teams are in a must-win situation.

The men's soccer team hopes to build on a strong showing this week.

Penn's football team will face Cornell on Saturday.

The match at Columbia tonight will be a must-win for both teams. Both teams are in a must-win situation.

The Crimson's fifth-best runner was an NCAA qualifier in the 1500-meter run earlier in the season, and most of those players are now back. And with the conference championships is less than two weeks away, Cornell will be looking for a chance at finishing among the Ivy League at the top.

But injuries and an inability to extend beyond this meet. Junior Nathan Taylor, performing well in the late-season meet, Nov. 11.

Both Abye and Bagnoli admitted they will be paying close attention to the BIG game against them next week would be a huge win.

Penn is in a one-game sudden-death playoff with Yale for the Head of the Schuylkill River last year, when the Bulldogs defeated Penn two weeks earlier.

The match at Columbia tonight will be a must-win for both teams. Both teams are in a must-win situation.

The men's soccer team hopes to build on a strong showing this week.

Penn's football team will face Cornell on Saturday.

The match at Columbia tonight will be a must-win for both teams. Both teams are in a must-win situation.

The Crimson's fifth-best runner was an NCAA qualifier in the 1500-meter run earlier in the season, and most of those players are now back. And with the conference championships is less than two weeks away, Cornell will be looking for a chance at finishing among the Ivy League at the top.

But injuries and an inability to extend beyond this meet. Junior Nathan Taylor, performing well in the late-season meet, Nov. 11.

Both Abye and Bagnoli admitted they will be paying close attention to the BIG game against them next week would be a huge win.

Penn is in a one-game sudden-death playoff with Yale for the Head of the Schuylkill River last year, when the Bulldogs defeated Penn two weeks earlier.

The match at Columbia tonight will be a must-win for both teams. Both teams are in a must-win situation.

The men's soccer team hopes to build on a strong showing this week.

Penn's football team will face Cornell on Saturday.

The match at Columbia tonight will be a must-win for both teams. Both teams are in a must-win situation.

The Crimson's fifth-best runner was an NCAA qualifier in the 1500-meter run earlier in the season, and most of those players are now back. And with the conference championships is less than two weeks away, Cornell will be looking for a chance at finishing among the Ivy League at the top.

But injuries and an inability to extend beyond this meet. Junior Nathan Taylor, performing well in the late-season meet, Nov. 11.

Both Abye and Bagnoli admitted they will be paying close attention to the BIG game against them next week would be a huge win.

Penn is in a one-game sudden-death playoff with Yale for the Head of the Schuylkill River last year, when the Bulldogs defeated Penn two weeks earlier.

The match at Columbia tonight will be a must-win for both teams. Both teams are in a must-win situation.

The men's soccer team hopes to build on a strong showing this week.

Penn's football team will face Cornell on Saturday.

The match at Columbia tonight will be a must-win for both teams. Both teams are in a must-win situation.

The Crimson's fifth-best runner was an NCAA qualifier in the 1500-meter run earlier in the season, and most of those players are now back. And with the conference championships is less than two weeks away, Cornell will be looking for a chance at finishing among the Ivy League at the top.

But injuries and an inability to extend beyond this meet. Junior Nathan Taylor, performing well in the late-season meet, Nov. 11.

Both Abye and Bagnoli admitted they will be paying close attention to the BIG game against them next week would be a huge win.

Penn is in a one-game sudden-death playoff with Yale for the Head of the Schuylkill River last year, when the Bulldogs defeated Penn two weeks earlier.

The match at Columbia tonight will be a must-win for both teams. Both teams are in a must-win situation.

The men's soccer team hopes to build on a strong showing this week.

Penn's football team will face Cornell on Saturday.

The match at Columbia tonight will be a must-win for both teams. Both teams are in a must-win situation.

The Crimson's fifth-best runner was an NCAA qualifier in the 1500-meter run earlier in the season, and most of those players are now back. And with the conference championships is less than two weeks away, Cornell will be looking for a chance at finishing among the Ivy League at the top.

But injuries and an inability to extend beyond this meet. Junior Nathan Taylor, performing well in the late-season meet, Nov. 11.

Both Abye and Bagnoli admitted they will be paying close attention to the BIG game against them next week would be a huge win.

Penn is in a one-game sudden-death playoff with Yale for the Head of the Schuylkill River last year, when the Bulldogs defeated Penn two weeks earlier.

The match at Columbia tonight will be a must-win for both teams. Both teams are in a must-win situation.

The men's soccer team hopes to build on a strong showing this week.

Penn's football team will face Cornell on Saturday.

The match at Columbia tonight will be a must-win for both teams. Both teams are in a must-win situation.

The Crimson's fifth-best runner was an NCAA qualifier in the 1500-meter run earlier in the season, and most of those players are now back. And with the conference championships is less than two weeks away, Cornell will be looking for a chance at finishing among the Ivy League at the top.

But injuries and an inability to extend beyond this meet. Junior Nathan Taylor, performing well in the late-season meet, Nov. 11.

Both Abye and Bagnoli admitted they will be paying close attention to the BIG game against them next week would be a huge win.
APTS. & HOUSES
9-12 MONTH LEASES

EFFICIENCIES - TWO BEDROOMS
5285-5575/MTH

Houses available now
PENN/DEXEL LOCATIONS

CALL ABOUT APARTMENTS in

CENTER CITY, OLD CITY, QUEEN VILLAGE

CONTACT
ORENS BROTHERS
222-4412

Living off campus doesn’t mean you have to be out of touch.

Do You Want a Great Apartment at an Affordable Price?

Spruce Hill Apartments
Available Apartments
Only 3 Blocks from Grounds

University Area

• 4501 Pine St. • 4205 Hamilton St. • 4117 Pine St.
• 4107 Chester • 4317 Spruce St.

P. C. A. Area

Available Four

• 4117 Walnut newly renovated off square, short term lease and secure building.

Great Places

4117 Pine St. • 3900 Pine St. • 3615 Chestnut

32 S. 41st • 6300 Walnut St. • 4017 Chester • 4115 Spruce St.
213 S. 42nd St. • 403 Pine St.

REAL ESTATE

Get in touch with the world.

Merion Trace is located near 69th Street Station
as well as a variety of restaurants, shopping centers and movie theaters.

MERION TRACE PUTS YOU AT THE HEART OF ALL THE ACTION.

1 and 2 bedroom units with air
2 and 3 bedroom units

Merion Trace
Call Chie of
(610) 352-6676 for more information.

CHAO by Bryan Shuler

SINGLE SLICES by Peter Kohlhaas

THE QUIGMANS by Buddy Hickerson

748-3339

222-4449

Quality apartments
that will make your mother smile!

Simply the best

The most anyone should expect from merging is a good)

— Romantic comedy.

— Handicapped

— High speed

— Lifetime updating service

— Free shuttle service to and from campus

— Quality apartments

16-71

— High speed

— Free shuttle service to and from campus

— Quality apartments

16-71

— High speed

— Free shuttle service to and from campus

— Quality apartments

16-71

— High speed

— Free shuttle service to and from campus

— Quality apartments

16-71

— High speed

— Free shuttle service to and from campus

— Quality apartments

16-71

— High speed

— Free shuttle service to and from campus

— Quality apartments

16-71

— High speed

— Free shuttle service to and from campus

— Quality apartments

16-71

— High speed

— Free shuttle service to and from campus

— Quality apartments

16-71

— High speed

— Free shuttle service to and from campus

— Quality apartments

16-71

— High speed
INDIANS SCORE 5 OFF MADDUX TO STAY ALIVE

SHOWALTER LEAVES YANKS; HITS OFF TO LEMIEUX; RANGERS TO LIGHTING

Baseball

Cleveland 5, Atlanta 4. Atlanta leads Tuesday, Oct. 24

Atlanta 4, Cleveland 3. Oct. 11

Legal

HELP WANTED

ASSOCIATION FOR THE DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING OF PHILADELPHIA

7110-5th Ave. Philadelphia, Pa. 19144

President: Alphonse J. Breslin, Sr., Hearing Aid, 267-267-7131

Treasurer: Alphonse J. Breslin, Jr., Hearing Aid, 267-267-7131

Executive Director: William F. Breslin, 267-267-7131

NHL

EASTERN CONFERENCE

W L T Pts GF GA

Washington 7 3 0 14 30 22

New Jersey 7 1 1 14 28 42

New York 6 1 2 14 24 27

Philadelphia 3 7 1 11 34 57

WESTERN CONFERENCE

W L T Pts GF GA

Chicago 4 1 10 14 28 22

Detroit 4 0 3 13 29 34

Los Angeles 3 1 10 13 27 37

San Jose 3 2 3 13 27 29

National Hockey League

1995-1996 Schedule

WASHINGTON CAPITALS

10/13 vs. Pittsburgh, 8:00 p.m. at Capital Centre
10/16 at Edmonton, 9:00 p.m.
10/18 at Vancouver, 9:30 p.m.
10/20 vs. Hartford, 7:30 p.m.
10/21 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
10/23 at New Jersey, 7:30 p.m.
10/24 at New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
10/25 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
10/27 vs. Philadelphia, 7:30 p.m.
10/28 at New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
10/30 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
11/1 vs. Philadelphia, 7:30 p.m.
11/3 at New York Rangers, 7:00 p.m.
11/5 at New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
11/6 vs. Philadelphia, 7:00 p.m.
11/8 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
11/10 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
11/11 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
11/13 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
11/15 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
11/17 vs. Pittsburgh, 7:30 p.m.
11/19 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
11/21 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
11/23 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
11/25 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
11/27 vs. Pittsburgh, 7:30 p.m.
11/29 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
12/01 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
12/03 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
12/05 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
12/07 at New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
12/09 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
12/11 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
12/13 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
12/15 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
12/17 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
12/19 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
12/21 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
12/23 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
12/25 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
12/27 at New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
12/29 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
12/31 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
1/02 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
1/04 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
1/06 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
1/08 at New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
1/10 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
1/12 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
1/14 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
1/16 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
1/18 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
1/20 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
1/22 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
1/24 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
1/26 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
1/28 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
1/30 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
2/01 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
2/03 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
2/05 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
2/07 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
2/09 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
2/11 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
2/13 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
2/15 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
2/17 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
2/19 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
2/21 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
2/23 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
2/25 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
2/27 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
2/29 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
3/01 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
3/03 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
3/05 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
3/07 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
3/09 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
3/11 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
3/13 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
3/15 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
3/17 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
3/19 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
3/21 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
3/23 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
3/25 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
3/27 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
3/29 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
3/31 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
4/02 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
4/04 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
4/06 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
4/08 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
4/10 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
4/12 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
4/14 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
4/16 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
4/18 vs. New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
4/20 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
4/22 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
4/24 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
4/26 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
4/28 vs. New York Islanders, 7:30 p.m.
4/30 at New York Rangers, 7:30 p.m.
Sports

R.I.P. 1995 Ivy League Football

By Srikanth Reddy

After suffering two straight losses, including a first-ever Ivy League defeat in their first two games, the Penn football team got the message last weekend.

"It definitely woke us up," said running back Chris Bagnoli.

"We need to realign our thought processes. We can't continue to think that we're just walking into games and expecting to win," said head coach Peter Aronson.

Penn was defeated by Yale 21-17 at home in its third game of the season, and it's clear that the Elis have the upper hand in the Ivy League.

"Our schedule is incredibly challenging," said Aronson. "We're not going to win every game, but we're going to learn from our losses and improve."